The BJP has issued a threeline whip to all its Lok Sabha MPs to be present in the

The Union Cabinet has already approved two Bills to facilitate simultaneous elections to the Lok Sabha and State Assemblies, though the decision on local body polls has been deferred for

According to the statement of objects and reasons of the Constitution ((One Hundred Twenty-Ninth Amendment) Bill, 2024), the Bill proposes to insert a new article 82A (Simultaneous elections to the House of the People and all Legislative Assemblies) and to amend article 83 (Duration of Houses of Parliament), article (Duration of State Legislatures) and article 327 (Power of Parliament to make provision with respect to elections to Legislatures).

According to Section 2 sub clause 5 of the Constitution (129th) Amendment Bill, "If the Election Commission is of the opinion that the cannot Assembly conducted along with the general election to the House of the People, it may make a recommendation to the President, to declare by an order, that the election to that Legislative Assembly may be conducted at a later date."

The General Elections to the House of the People and all State Legislative Assemblies were held simultaneously in the years 1951-52, 1957, 1962 and 1967. However, due to premature dissolution of some Legislative Assemblies in 1968 and 1969, the cycle holding simultaneously with the House of the People got The disrupted. Commission of India in its 170th report, on "Reform of the Electoral Laws", inter alia, suggested that holding separate elections for State Legislative Assemblies should be an exception rather than the rule.

Why should the | Meet Manoj Gahlyan, the matrimonial conman letter not be made public? BJP asks Sonia

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE

The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on Monday asked Sonia Gandhi to return the correspondences of first Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru with a host of personalities, to the Prime Ministers' Museum and Library, saying the historical documents belonged to the country and were not anyone's personal property. Lok Sabha Member of Parliament (MP) and BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra cited reports of the PMML's deliberations on the issue to note that Nehru's correspondences Edwina Mountbatten, wife of the last British Viceroy to India, and leaders Jayaprakash Narayan and Jagjivan Ram lay with the erstwhile Nehru Museum and Library Society, which returned them to Sonia Gandhi in 2008.

Patra also raised the issue earlier in the day in the Lok Sabha during Question Hour when Union Culture Minister Gejendra Singh Shekhawat was replying to questions related to his ministry.

Thirty-five-year old Manoj Gahlyan, seemed like a perfect match listed on matrimonial apps including Shaadi.com Jeevansathi.com. He presented himself as a charming, wellpaid Delhi Metro Rail Corporation (DMRC) employee. But the real man behind the online listing was a former security guard, who had turned matchmaking into a nightmare for over 50 women, whom he had duped for over seven years.

According to police sources, the man posed as a General Manager of DMRC and claimed to earn Rs 15 to 20 lakhs. Gahlyan, a native of Jorashi Khalsa village in Harvana's Panipat district, has been using this claim to dupe women since 2017.

However, he was exposed when a 35-year-old woman, who works in a nationalised bank, on November 23, stated in her police complaint that she had created a marriage profile on Jeevansathi, through which she had met Gahlyan online. "After they connected through the app, he lured her to talking and meeting to get to know her better for marriage, and then obtained her bank account number and credit card details. and made unauthorised transactions without her knowledge," Deputy Commissioner of receiving the information through the complaint, the police team swung into action and found, through sources information openly available on the internet, that the person named Manoj Gahlyan had been duping innocent and gullible women of their money.

The police suspect that about hundreds of women have been lured by him in a similar manner and have also contacted three to four victims. "However, due to shame or guilt, they are not coming and giving us the information and are unlikely to report. Investigation regarding the number of victims and the probable amount that he might have defrauded, is underway," the DCP said, adding that they will now trace his bank accounts to ascertain the exact amount of money he has cheated from the women He was arrested after a raid in Northeast Delhi's Usmanpur area and five debit cards and a mobile phone bought using the complainant's card were recovered from him. However, this is not the first case of the manner reported this year in the National Capital. The Delhi Crime Branch arrested a 38-year-old man, identified as Mukeem Ayyub Khan, in September for allegedly duping over 50 women across several States. He would pose as a official on government various matrimonial sites to deceive high-profile professional women. Khan told police that he allegedly created multiple fake identities on matrimonial sites targeting unmarried, widowed, or divorced Muslim women. He would tell them that he is a Government struggling to raise his daughter after the death of his wife.

STAFF REPORTER ■ NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court on Monday said, as it promised to "go deep to find the truth" on how a centuryold building housing a public library at Karol Bagh was demolished. A Bench of Justices Surva Kant and Ujjal Bhuyan was irked after being informed it was not the Municipal Corporation of (MCD) demolished the building in 2018, but an official who had acted on an oral order. The SC was further displeased when it found no one from the Delhi Library Board was present to contest the case and no counsel was authorised to appear in the "Land grabbers must be dealt Minister Jawaharlal Nehru with iron hand," the Bench senior advocate S Muralidhar, appearing for private firm Dimple reportedly construct a commercial complex in place where once the building stood. Justice Surya Kant told Muralidhar, "We will go deep to find the truth. We will pass orders even without the petitioner (Delhi Library Board) contesting the case." The Bench added, "You (private firm M/s Dimple Enterprise) must have colluded with the MCD and library officials. You must have bribed them" The first Delhi Public Library was started by then Prime possibility of collusion of near the old Delhi railway station in 1951. The Delhi Public Library, autonomous body, is funded Enterprise, which is the by the Ministry of Culture owner of the property and and has around 45 branches reportedly wanted to and mobile libraries in the National Capital. The Bench issued a show cause to the officials of Delhi Library Board why they were not appearing in the matter. It asked the MCD to file a affidavit better complete details of the property; who resided there and the current owner after terming the affidavit filed by the civic body as "misleading".

The Bench said it would enlarge the scope of its investigation to include the library board officials with the private firm. Muralidhar said dilapidated building, housing the public library, was a 100year-old structure demolished by the MCD. He said there was no material on record to suggest collusion of any kind between the officials of library or MCD officials with the firm and there was no mention of any bribe being Justice Surva Kant read out the affidavit filed by the MCD and said the civic body had accepted it had no record of demolition of the building whereas an official executive engineer acted on oral orders.

"Mr Muralidhar, you know very well how these things work. It is surprising that you are defending the land mafias. Do you think that the MCD official acted on his own? He must have acted on the oral direction of the MCD commissioner. Within days of the order of the high court, the building was demolished without giving them space to approach the high courts for relief," Justice Surya Kant said. The judge went on to add, "Thankfully, on the first hearing of the matter, the Bench comprising Justice (retd) M B Lokur ordered for status quo on the property." Denying any collusion, Muralidhar said the firm had nothing to do with the demolition exercise. The Bench posted the matter on January 8, 2025. On November 25, the SC came down heavily on the MCD for demolishing the building that housed a public library, without giving a chance to the affected party to seek relief, and said "there is no divine power which can wake you up". It had questioned how the civic body demolished the building that housed the library since 1954, without waiting for the parties to approach the SC.

The SC had noted that the Delhi High Court passed an order on September 10, 2018, in the matter and without even giving a breathing time to the tenants and other occupants of the building to approach the SC, the MCD demolished the building at around 8.30 am September 18, 2018. The SC had further sought to know the "hidden circumstances" for which the MCD denied the party the right to approach it. The SC said its interim order of September 18, 2018, would continue till further orders. On September 18, 2018, the SC ordered that no portion of the property at Karol Bagh would be demolished.

Dallewal's Hunger Strike Enters Day 21; Refuses medical assistance

Tagjit Singh Dallewal, a prominent farmer leader and president of Bhartiya Kisan Union (Ekta-Sidhupur), on Monday entered the 21st day of his hunger strike at the Khanauri border, demanding action on farmers' issues. Despite his worsening health, including critical kidney and cardiac markers, Dallewal has refused medical intervention, declaring his commitment to the cause of farmer welfare.

The doctors monitoring the 70-year-old Dallewal, a cancer survivor, have reported a sharp decline in his physical condition, while advising immediate hospitalization. Currently, Dallewal has not eaten anything, and is just drinking water.

Dr Avtar Singh, part of the Rivers Heart Association NGO, revealed that test results indicated elevated creatinine levels, reduced glomerular filtration rate (GFR), and high ketones, signaling severe strain on his kidneys. "His condition is critical. If the fast continues, there is a real risk of cardiac arrest," warned Dr Singh.

Ketones in urine mean the body is burning fat for energy instead of sugar. Creatinine is a waste made when muscles work, and healthy kidneys remove it from the blood through urine. If the kidneys aren't working well, creatinine builds up in the blood. The glomerular filtration rate (GFR) shows how well the kidneys are cleaning the blood.

Medical equipment has been installed at the protest site to monitor Dallewal's vitals, and a permanent ambulance with advanced life-support systems has been stationed to address any emergencies. A

"He has lost 12-13 kilograms...he is so weak that he can no longer stand unaided. His blood pressure has plummeted to dangerously low levels, with readings around 80/50...There is a very real risk of cardiac arrest," warned Dr Singh. Despite these warnings, Dallewal remains steadfast, rejecting hospitalization and declaring that his "sacrifice" is for a cause far greater than Dallewal's hunger strike is the longest he has undertaken, surpassing his previous 13day fasts for farmers' rights in 2021. He has previously gone on hunger strikes in March 2018, January 2019 and 2021, November 2022 and June 2023, demonstrating unwavering commitment to the cause. His protest this time began on November 26, 2024, at the Khanauri border point between Punjab and Haryana.

The veteran farmer has publicly stated that his life is secondary to the cause. In a meeting with Punjab Police chief Gaurav Yadav and Ministry of Home Affairs official Mayank Mishra a day before, Dallewal highlighted the plight of over seven lakh farmers who have died by suicide due to unfavorable policies. "Their lives are more valuable than mine," he said.

Dallewal, in an open letter to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, had urged the Central Government to ensure Minimum Support Price (MSP) for all farmers, equating it to a fundamental right. He had poignantly wrote, "I have decided to sacrifice my life to stop the deaths of farmers. I lead to meaningful change." The ongoing hunger strike is part of a larger movement by farmers under the Samyukta Kisan Morcha (non-political) and Kisan Mazdoor Morcha (KMM). Their 13-point charter of demands includes legal guarantee of MSP on crops; debt waivers for farmers and farm labourers; pensions for aged farmers and labourers; withdrawal of police cases against protesters; justice for victims of the 2021 Lakhimpur Kheri violence; reinstatement of the Land Acquisition Act, 2013; compensation for families of farmers who died during 2020-21 protests; no hikes in electricity tariffs, among others. Despite repeated attempts to march to Delhi, farmers have been blocked by Haryana police on multiple occasions — on December 6, 8, and 14. Their agitation has since intensified, with appeals to fellow farmer organizations to unite and escalate the struggle. Hailing from Dallewal village in Faridkot, Dallewal has been a vocal advocate for farmer rights for decades. After losing his wife in January 2024, he transferred his property to his son, daughter-in-law, and grandson before embarking on this indefinite hunger strike. Previously associated with the Samyukta Kisan Morcha, which spearheaded the 2020 farmers' movement against now-repealed farm laws, Dallewal later formed SKM (non-political) to maintain focus on farmers' welfare with-

So far, government representatives have held discussions with Dallewal and other farmer leaders but have failed to meet their demands. Punjab's Director General of Police, Gaurav Yadav, and the Centre's representatives have expressed concerns over Dallewal's deteriorating health but have not announced any policy changes.

Dallewal's hunger strike, described as a sacrifice for the farming community, has drawn parallels to historic protests like Anna Hazare's 13-day anticorruption fast in 2011.

Farmers Hold Tractor Rally to Shambhu Border; Rail Roko on Dec 18

Farmers in Punjab escalated their protests on Monday, taking out a tractor rally to the Shambhu border point, demanding the Centre fulfill their long-standing demands, including a legal guarantee for Minimum Support Price (MSP) for crops. This comes after Haryana police thwarted their attempts to march towards the national capital thrice in December.

The rally, organized under the banners of Samyukta Kisan Morcha (non-political) and Kisan Mazdoor Morcha (KMM), followed allegations of police excesses during farmers' protests earlier this month. Farmer leader Sarwan Singh Pandher condemned the December 14 clashes where over 15 farmers reportedly sustained injuries.

In a bid to amplify their demands, Pandher announced a statewide 'Rail Roko' agitation on December 18, urging residents of Punjab's 13,000 villages to block railway crossings and stations between 12 noon and

The movement gained further momentum as farmer leader Jagjit Singh Dallewal continued his indefinite fast for the 21st day now, urging the Supreme Court to intervene and press the Centre to address farmers' grievances. Speaking on the alarming rate of farmer suicides, Dallewal had highlighted that over seven lakh farmers had ended their lives due to agrarian distress. "The priority should be saving those lives," he had said. The Supreme Court, which had already directed the authorities to ensure Dallewal's medical well-being, is being petitioned to push the Union Government towards substantive action.

Earlier, tensions flared at the Shambhu border when a 'jatha' of 101 farmers was stopped by Haryana police, leading to clashes that resulted in several hospitalizations. Previous attempts on December 6 and 8 also saw Haryana security forces deploying tear gas and water cannons to disperse protestors, injuring 22. Amid these confrontations, internet services were suspended in Ambala district on December 17 as a preventive measure. Accusing political leaders of inaction, Pandher criticized Congress leader Rahul Gandhi for failing to deliver on his promises to farmers. "We need solidarity from every corner of Punjab to ensure our voices are heard," he asserted. As the December 18 'Rail Roko' approaches, the farmers' agitation continues to highlight their determination to secure justice, with their rallying cry resonating across the fields of Punjab.

Punjab MPs Rally Behind Farmers, Dallewal's Health Issue Raised in Parliament

PNS CHANDIGARH

The precarious health of farmer leader Jagjit Singh Dallewal, on an indefinite hunger strike for 21 days, took center stage on Monday as Punjab MPs raised the issue in the Parliament, besides meeting Dallewal at the protest site. With demands for a legal guarantee on MSP and justice for farmers gaining momentum, political leaders across parties united to voice their concerns.

Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) MP from Bathinda Harsimrat Kaur Badal made a fervent appeal in Parliament to the Central Government to accept the farmers' demands, emphasizing the urgency of saving Dallewal's life. She reminded the Union Government of its promise to fulfill farmers' demands when repealing the contentious agricultural laws.

Cong likely to back AAP for mayoral post again

CHANDIGARH

As the January 2025 Chandigarh Mayoral Elections approach, all the political parties including Bharatiya Janata party (BJP), Congress and Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) are gearing up to retain the key municipal positions, banking on their numerical advantage in the 35-member Chandigarh municipal corporation (MC) House. The new mayor will be a woman, as per the city's five-year mayoral rotation system.

Currently, the INDIA bloc (AAP and Congress) commands 21 votes in the MC House — 13 from AAP, seven from Congress and one ex-officio vote of MP Manish Tewari. In contrast, the BJP has only 15 votes and is relying on crossvoting or defection of INDIA bloc councillors to tip the balance in its favour

Approves shifting of Gur Mandi to new grain market in Karnal

In another event, the Chief Minister approved the shifting of Gur Mandi from the old grain market to the new grain market in Karnal. Apart from jaggery, permission has also been given to shift the fodder, pulses and spices market to this new grain market. A government spokesperson said that while this decision of the Chief Minister will provide relief to city residents from the congestion in the old grain market, traders of other items, including jaggery, will also benefit. The main agricultural products like wheat, maize, jaggery etc. were bought and sold in the old grain market of Karnal. In 1999, a new market was developed in Karnal where the grain related products were shifted. After this, in 2014, the fruit and vegetable market was also shifted to this new grain market. The spokesperson said in the layout plan of the new grain market, a provision was made for fodder market, jaggery market, spices market and pulses market, but a notification in this regard could not be issued due to which the market of the above items could not be shifted to the new place. The Chief Minister has now given approval in this regard so that the fodder market, jaggery market, spices market and pulses market can be shifted to the new grain market. While this will provide a lot of convenience to the traders of Karnal, the market committee will also see an increase in revenue after this decision, the spokesperson added.

Economy slowing down

India, celebrated as the fastest-growing economy in the world, is showing signs of slowdown

■ ndia is facing a pivotal moment as it navigates a notable slowdown. Between July and September 2024, the country's GDP growth rate fell to 5.4 per cent, its lowest in seven quarters and well below the Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) forecast of 7 per cent. While this growth rate remains enviable compared to developed economies, it highlights significant structural challenges that could impede India's long-term economic ambitions. The implications of this slowdown are multifaceted. A decline in consumer demand and muted private investment have curtailed economic momentum. Sales of fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) have dropped, wage bills of publicly traded firms have shrunk, and urban spending has softened. In November alone, car sales plunged by 14 per cent, underscoring the waning strength of urban consumption. Rising inflation adds another layer of complexity. In October 2024, inflation surged to 6.2 per cent, exceeding the RBI's target ceiling of 4 per cent. Escalating food prices, driven by climate disruptions and inefficiencies in supply chains, have inflated costs across sectors, further squeezing disposable incomes.

The slowdown has also placed pressure on India's exports, which account for just 2 per cent of global goods trade. A stronger dollar and rising tariffs have eroded the competitiveness of Indian products in international markets. Compounding the issue is stagnant job creation, particularly in agriculture, manufacturing, and small-scale industries. Collectively, these factors are eroding confidence in India's growth narrative, despite the government's optimistic outlook. The roots of this economic deceleration lie in several factors. Demand weakness is a central issue. While rural demand remains relatively resilient thanks to a favourable monsoon, it alone cannot offset the broader slowdown. Restrictive monetary policies have further constrained growth. To combat inflation, the RBI has kept interest rates steady for two years, leading to high borrowing costs that discourage both business investment and consumer spending. Global and domestic challenges compound the problem. Slowing global demand and climate-related disruptions in agriculture have adversely affected exports and food production. Additionally, the RBI's interventions to stabilise the rupee by selling dollars have inadvertently tightened liquidity, slowing economic growth. A stronger rupee, while stabilising in some respects, makes Indian exports more expensive and less competitive internationally. Addressing these challenges requires targeted solutions. Boosting consumption through wage growth could be a key strategy. Policy measures that reduce bureaucratic hurdles, provide tax incentives, and simplify labour and land laws can unlock the potential of small and medium enterprises, which form the backbone of the economy. Tackling inflation and strengthening supply chains will also play a critical role in stabilising the economy.

South Asia: Two decades of turmoil

December marks two pivotal anniversaries — Soviety intervention in Afghanistan and Kandhar Hijacking — that changed South Asia's geopolitics ecember marks two pivotal anniversaries that significantly influenced South Asia's geopolitical landscape: 45 years since the Soviet Union's intervention in Afghanistan and 25 years since the hijacking of Indian Airlines Flight IC-814 from Kathmandu to Kandahar. Despite occurring two decades apart, these events underscore the fragility of South Asia and the profound influence of external powers and non-state actors in shaping the region's tra-

On December 24, 1979, Soviet troops entered Afghanistan to support the struggling communist regime in Kabul, led by Babrak Karmal. This intervention, ostensibly aimed at stabilising Afghanistan, set off a decadelong occupation and transformed the country into one of the Cold War's fiercest battlegrounds. The repercussions extended far beyond Afghanistan, triggering global, regional and internal upheavals that persist to this day. The Soviet invasion catalysed a chain of events that hastened the disintegration of the Soviet Union and radicalised South Asia. The mujahideen-fighters armed and financed by the United States, Pakistan, Saudi Arabia and other allies-became a formidable force against the Soviets. This external patronage laid the groundwork for militant extremism, which would later engulf the region. The Soviet intervention underscored Afghanistan's strategic importance as the fulcrum of great power politics. Pakistan emerged as a critical player, acting as a frontline state in the anti-Soviet effort.

Two decades later, on December 24, 1999, South Asia faced another defining moment when Indian Airlines Flight IC-814 was hijacked en route from Kathmandu to Delhi. Five armed men commandeered the aircraft, eventually forcing it to land in Kandahar, then under Taliban control. What ensued was a weeklong standoff that exposed the vuinerabilities of regional counter-terrorism strategies and marked a turning point in how nations approached security and terrorism.

against the Soviets emboldened militant groups across the region, while the Kandahar hijacking demonstrated their ability to exploit state vulnerabilities for political gains. The Kandahar episode underscored the inadequacy of India's counter-terrorism infrastructure at the time. It led to significant reforms, including the establishment of specialised counter-terrorism units like the National Security Guard (NSG) and the strengthening of aviation security protocols.

Pakistan's dual role in these episodes-as a US ally during the Soviet-Afghan war and as a sanctuary for groups like JeM-has perpetuated instability in the region. Its support for extremist proxies has strained relations with India and exacerbated internal security chal-

Addressing South Asia's fractured security landscape requires collective action. Countries in the region must transcend historical animosities to combat terrorism and address snared challenges like extremism and socio-economic disparities. Both the Soviet intervention and the Kandahar hijacking highlight the need for strong democratic institutions and accountable governance. Weak states are particularly susceptible to external manipulation and internal subversion, further destabilis-ing the region. The lessons from these pivotal episodes remain crucial as South Asia navigates the 21st century. The radicalisation fueling terrorism often stems from socio-economic deprivation. Investments in education, healthcare, and employment can help counter extremist ideologies.

Strengthened regional cooperation and robust international partnerships are essential to addressing the complex interplay of geopolitics and terror-

Much like the Grand Trunk Road connecting distant regions and histories, these events remind us of the intersecting paths of interventionism and terrorism in shaping modern South Asia.

They were not mere crises but turning points that redefined the region's political, social, and economic trajectories. As South Asia confronts new challenges, the enduring lessons of these anniversaries emphasize the importance of resilience, cooperation, and proactive governance in securing a stable future.

Overcoming fear to unlock limitless possibilities

Embracing the unknown is essential for innovation, resilience and realising our true potential umans possess four basic emotions happiness, sadness, anger and fear. Each has a unique place in our lives and shapes much of our responses to situations. The unknown is probably one entity that invokes all four emotions and spurs us into action. However, it is the fear of what we project onto the unknown that often paralyses us into inaction. Action is built into our psyche. We must necessarily move, even though we do not know the results of our endeavours.

Instead of focusing on the happiness we will derive from success, we let this uncertainty bog us down. We procrastinate terrified of failure and refuse to take the next step. This is an all too familiar phenomenon that we encounter every day of our lives. As we start going up the professional ladder, many of us follow time-tested formulae, handed down to us by predecessors. We hesitate to make decisions contrary to the established norms, even though such decisions may result in substantial gains, within the framework of certain acceptable risks. All our efforts are guided by that one decision in 10 which did not click. We do not look at the nine that did. We forget that as a child we had no fears when we started exploring the universe around us. We fell, as we tried to get on our two feet, but were encouraged, or even forced, to keep trying till we mastered the art of walking; or for that matter everything. We also forget that we were not scared to take up a job after college, even though we knew nothing about the work we had to do. We learned from our mistakes. The worst was that we failed was that we succeeded eventually. Ah! The joy of success!We forget that humans evolved due to an inherent desire to explore the unknown, without a care for failure or success. New worlds were found, and new inventions and scientific discoveries were made.

All because a few dared to venture into the unknown. We deny ourselves the endless new opportunities that each new day brings. It is not that we do not possess this spirit. It is just that generations of conditioning have made it dormant, till we are in a situation with our backs to the wall. Nowhere is it more in evidence, than in jugaad, the flexible approach to solve a problem innovatively when one has limited resources.In our personal lives, we are told to pursue our dreams but are often guided towards the more tried and safer options. We do not even try to think of the endless possibilities and the heights that society can reach if everyone is encouraged not to fear the the first time, and the best failure of the unknown, but to think about success, and is free to follow his or her heart!

This is the contradiction that most of us from the earlier generation, specifically from the middle class, face when teaching the young. Fortunately for our race, the young of today are better prepared for the unknown with the availability of much better sources of information which were also created by a few who dared to dream.

We should teach the young to step out in the rain without an umbrella and get drenched.

Let the sky be the roof. They should not regret that they might have led a better life if they had not feared the unknown. Esmeralda Santiago sums it up so well. "How can you know what you are capable of, if you do not embrace the unknown?"

DEBATE ON CONSTITUTION Madam -The two-day debate on the Constitution, which began on 13th December, has seen heated discussion on the historical and contemporary significance of the Constitution. Defence Minister Rajnath Singh initiated the debate, emphasising the collective efforts behind the creation of the Constitution. Though he accused Congress and Indira Gandhi for imposing an emergency and supercession of Supreme Court judges to charge Congress with violating constitutional principles, he lauded the progressive and transformative nature of the Constitution that allows individuals from humble backgrounds to rise to the highest positions of power in India.

The newly elected MP, Priyanka Gandhi, an articulate and combative speaker, accused the government of undermining the constitutional promises of social, economic and political justice over the past decade. Without mentioning the name of Jawaharlal Nehru, she lauded his contribution in creating so many public sector as well as government firms. She also warned the present government that his role in the freedom struggle and Independent India could never be erased from Indian history. Concluding the debate, Prime Minister Narendra Modi hailed the role of women members of the constituent Assembly in making the Indian Constitution. He also hailed Indian democracy and reminded the journey of the Constitution.

INDIA'S GDP RISES

Madam — Forbes India estimates India's GDP to be $3.94 trillion in 2024. Prime Minister Narendra Modi said India rose to the 11th largest economy in the world in seven decades of independence, but in just the last decade, India has risen to the 5th largest economy while addressing a gathering at the Jaipur Exhibition and Convention Centre after the inauguration of the Rising Rajasthan Global Investment Summit 2024. He attributed this growth to the IMF World Economic Outlook

PM MODI SLAMS CONGRESS

Madam — Modi lambasted the first parivar as the killers of the constitution during the debate on the constitution in parliament. Right from Nehru's letter in 1951 to the state CM's, Indira's emergency, Rajiv's dealing with the Shah Bano case, and Rahul's tearing of an ordinance, Modi spoke the truth. It is a big blow to the Congress since they were at fault in their earlier tenure. It should introspect. Secondly, Modi has drawn up an 11-point Sankalp like the 20-point programme of n the modern workplace, the rise of remote and hybrid work has led to significant shifts in how businesses operate, manage and monitor their employees. Among the most controversial developments is the growing use of tattleware or brassware, the common nicknames of software applications that monitor employees' activities during work hours.

FIRST COLUMN WORKPLACE SURVEILLANCE

With the advent of normalised remote work, employer surveillance of workers has accelerated. Today, such tools can track a wide range of data, including keystrokes, mouse movements, screenshots, and even video or audio feeds from an employee's device. Not only this, but the much-advanced systems may also use artificial intelligence to analyse patterns, flag unproductive behaviour, or even detect potential security breaches. Employers claim these tools provide valuable insights into work habits, protect sensitive data, and improve overall efficiency. It allows businesses to track productivity metrics thereby ensuring that the employees meet deadlines and work efficiently, especially in remote setups where physical supervision

Also, such surveillance tools help prevent data breaches or intellectual property theft by monitoring unauthorised activities. Moreover, these wares provide evidence in disputes about working hours or performance, thereby offering an objective record of employee activity. When implemented transparently and ethically, these tools even foster accountability and help underperforming employees improve. Despite the above-mentioned benefits, the use of tattleware raises significant ethical concerns wherein the most common one talked about is privacy. Employees believe that privacy is a fundamental right, and excessive surveillance can infringe upon it. A survey conducted recently found that nearly 78 per cent of employers use monitoring software to track employee performance or online activity.

When employees are monitored constantly, they often feel dehumanised, as though they are untrusted or reduced to mere data points resulting in eroding trust between employers and their teams, making it harder to foster collaboration and loyalty. Additionally, the psychological impact often leads them to stress, anxiety, and burnout. Employees may feel pressured to overwork or engage in performative productivity - appearing busy rather than genuinely contributing. Over time, this can harm creativity, innovation, and overall job satisfaction. Not only these, but the use of tattler has also resulted in legal challenges, including claims of unpaid wages for work performed away from computers or intrusion upon privacy. Some employers face allegations of unfair labour practices if monitoring interferes with protected activities, such as union organising? To adhere to the challenges posed by tattlers, businesses must strive to balance productivity goals with respect for employees' rights. As rightly said transparency is the key to success

Only when employees are informed about them being monitored, the necessities for the use of such tattlers or how the data will be used can help build trust and foster a sense of shared responsibility. As businesses navigate the complexities of remote and hybrid work, they must adopt a thoughtful and balanced approach to workplace monitoring. Only by prioritising transparency, fairness, and respect for individual rights, companies and business organisations can create an environment that values both productivity and human

Call for fast-tracking WT agricultural negotiations

In a recent WTO meeting, India urges prioritisation of issues, including a permanent solution for public stockholding and special safeguard mechanism

n a meeting of the Committee on Agriculture (CoA) of the World Trade Organization (WTO) held in Geneva on December 4, 2024, India insisted that negotiations on unresolved/previously mandated issues in agriculture, including a permanent solution to public stockholding, special safeguard mechanism (SSM) and elimination of trade-distorting cotton subsidies by rich countries etc, be 'prioritised' and 'fasttracked' by treating them as standalone issues instead of clubbing them with other

The US, on the other hand, criticised the prioritisation of certain issues over others, stating that this was the primary cause of the longstanding stalemate in agriculture. India also rejected a new proposal presented by Guyana to advance agricultural negotiations ahead of the WTO's 14th Ministerial Conference (MC14 is tentatively scheduled to take place in Cameroon in 2026) by adopting a socalled 'non-traditional approach based on convergence. India reiterated that any facilitator-led process should be 'consensus-based' and respect WTO's multilateral principles. It emphasised on Text-based negotiation (TBN). TBN refers to the process of working up the text of an agreement that all parties are willing to accept and sign. Negotiating parties may begin with a draft text prepared by the Chair of the particular committee dealing with the subject.

The draft is based on discussions amongst the member countries and is fine-tuned till all the nations are in agreement with it. This is in sharp contrast to a convergence-based approach that involves superimposition of non-multilateral trade regimes on the multilateral trading system (MTS). The theorists dealing with international trade in particular, WTO-related issues describe it as a process of 'gradually aligning different trade regimes, in particular preferential trade agreements (PTAs) and the MTS'. Others define convergence as requiring 'greater coherence between trade rules and policies, norms and standards in other areas of international cooperation. Shorn of jargon, this is a well-orchestrated attempt by the developed countries - the US, the European

THE DRAFT IS BASED ON DISCUSSIONS AMONGST THE MEMBER COUNTRIES AND IS FINE-TUNED TILL ALL THE NATIONS ARE IN AGREEMENT WITH IT. THIS IS IN SHARP CONTRAST TO A CONVERGENCE-BASED APPROACH THAT INVOLVES SUPER-IMPOSITION OF NON-

Union (EU), the UK, Australia, etc (they exercise disproportionately greater influence during actual confabulations at the WTO, set the agenda of meetings, float proposals more often through small countries such as Guyana and get away with what they want) to scuttle the standard practice of taking decisions by consensus where every member country has an equal voice.

Therefore, India has rejected this approach, rightly so. But, what happens to India's demand for 'prioritising' and 'fast-tracking' negotiations? In a meeting of the CoA held on October 2, 2023, in Geneva, the EU agreed to consider India's demand for a permanent solution to the public stock-holding (PSH) program for food security.

Accordingly, India had urged WTO members to start TBN on the issue as soon as possible and get this deliberated at the WTO MC-13 slated to be held in Abu Dhabi from February 26-29, 2024. But, that was not to be. The Ministerial Conference ended in a deadlock. On the issue of finding a permanent solution to the (PSH) for food security, India's stance was vehemently opposed by the USA/EU. Earlier attempts by India also met with the same fate. At the Trade Policy Review (TPR) meeting held at WTO in January 2021, India insisted that the three issues should be taken up on a priority basis at the MC-12. But, in that Ministerial Conference held in Geneva on June 12-17, 2022, the issues were not even put on the table. The deadlock has existed for more than two decades despite India taking up these issues at WTO under what has come to be known as the Doha Development Agenda (DDA). Developed countries had junked DDA at MC-10 held in Nairobi (2015). On the most contentious issue of a permanent solution for PSH, a ray of hope emerged when in the WTO-General Council (GC) meeting in Geneva (July 31, 2014), India insisted on a time-bound action plan on the subject matter to be executed before the end of 2014 co-terminus with approval of Trade Facilitation Agreement (TFA) - an area of great interest to developed countries. This was a good strategic move but it was abandoned midstream. In December 2014, even as the developed countries got away with the TFA, the developing countries got an "extension of the peace clause till a permanent solution was found." Put simply, India had literally surrendered its right to secure a permanent solution; that it was "Ok" with "the benefit of peace clause. What is the peace clause?

To understand this, let us look at the Agreement on Agriculture (AoA) of the WTO. Under it, a developing country cannot give aggregate measurement support (AMS) - an acronym for subsidies - over 10 per cent of the value of its farm produc-

The AMS includes "product-specific" subsidies and "non-product specific" subsidies on agricultural inputs such as fertilisers, seed, irrigation and power. The "productspecific" subsidy is the excess of the Minimum Support Price (MSP) paid to farmers over the External Reference Price (ERP) multiplied by the quantum of agri-produce. Whereas the MSP is taken for the relevant year, say, 2023-24, the ERP is the average of the global price prevailing during 1986-88 fixed in rupee terms. If the subsidy given by a developing country exceeds 10 per cent, it will be treated as a violation of its WTO commitment. This has been a major worry as India could face action in a situation of AMS exceeding the 10 per cent threshold. In this backdrop, the MC-9 in Bali (2013) had agreed to a "peace clause" under which "if a developing country gives AMS in excess of 10 percent, no member will challenge this until 2017, when the WTO would look for a permanent solution to address their food security concerns." It came with several riders such as submission of data on food procurement, stockholding, distribution and subsidies. These also include establishing that subsidies are not "trade distorting." Besides, programs implemented after 2013 are not covered under the ambit of the 'peace clause'. In December 2014, the WTO-GC modified the above decision to provide for "extension of the peace clause till a permanent solution was found". Unfortunately, India concurred with this modification. This took away the sanctity of the 2017 deadline by which time members were to find a permanent solution as per the MC-9 mandate. A decade since then, India is still looking for a solution! In regard to SSM - it allows members to temporarily raise tariffs beyond the bound levels" (this is the maximum permissible duty that a member country can impose under a bound rate agreement) to counter surges in import or price drops. The 2015 MC-10 in Nairobi recognized that developing countries will have the right to take recourse to SSM as envisaged under the Hong Kong Ministerial Declaration. That was at MC - 6 (December 2005).

Since then, it has been almost two decades. Even now, these countries can't take recourse to SSM. They haven't also been able to prompt developed countries to eliminate their cotton subsidies. To conclude, despite the deft handling of negotiations at the WTO and representing the majority of the developing countries (India leads about 80 countries - the G33 including India, African, Caribbean and Pacific countries or ACP) so far, India hasn't succeeded in securing the intended outcomes. Given the intransigence of developed countries and their clout at WTO, there is little hope from the MC – 14.

Persisting Central Information Commission vacancies challenge transparency claims Eight vacancies of Information Commissioners undermine the cause of transparency and accountability

MULTILATERAL

Recently on December 10, Dr. Jitendra Singh, MoS (Personnel, Public Grievances and Pension) made a pitch for Vikashit Bharat, 2047 while addressing the 16th Annual Convention of Central Information Commission at Mandampam in Pragati Maidan. Ironically, it was the last date allowed by the Supreme Court for the central government to file a status report on the eight posts of Information Commissioners lying vacant out of a total of ten in the Central Information Commission (CIC) for the last year. It might be remembered in October 2023 Anjali Bharadwaj had brought to the notice of the Supreme Court that whereas seven posts were already lying vacant in the

CIC, four incumbents were due to retire within a week. Sadly, the situation has worsened over the last year, notwithstanding the government's claim to transparency and accountability. At present, there are two Information Commissioners viz. Anandi Ramalingam and Vinod Kumar Tiwari in addition to Information Commissioner viz. Heeralal for filling eight vacancies in on November 11, 2023. The Samariya. As per the Pending Cases Report available on the website of CIC, there were a total of 3134 cases - comprising 2310 second appeals and 824 direct complaints with the Commission as of November 1, 2023.

A year later on November 1, 2024, the total number of pendency has risen to 20,437 - comprising 17,717 second appeals and 2720 direct complaints. At the time of writing this piece, the total pendency clocked 22,957. This figure is not quite a compliment to the government's alleged commitment to transparency and accountability. A recent RTI application filed by Commodore Lokesh Batra (Retd) elicited the reply that 161 applications were received

CIC in response to the DoPT's advertisement dated August 14, 2024. Under Section 12 (3) of the RTI Act, 2005 the appointments are to be made by a committee chaired by the Prime Minister, and comprising the Leader of the Opposition in Lok Sabha and another Union minister nominated by the Prime Minister. Filling these positions before the 16th Annual Convention on the RTI would have been a favourable gesture. However, the government did not prioritize the task. A second appeal from this columnist filed on September 13, 2023, is indicated at no 18162 in the list of pendency. The matter was transferred to IC Vinod Kumar Tiwari, after IC Ms. Saroj Punhani retired high amount of pendency incentivizes the CPIOs/ Appellate Authorities in the ministries/departments to display a cavalier attitude towards applications filed under the ŘŤI Act, 2005.

This columnist, however, was able to obtain the information through a fresh application. Though in both cases, the Appellate Authority within the division, who in an IAS officer colluded with the CPIO, in one of his decisions he stated that the reason for denying information was that the file was under submission with the Joint Secretary.

The columnist filed a third application under the RTI Act, 2005 asking the CPIO whether the Joint Secretary has been 'exempted' from the obligation to provide information under the RTI Act, 2005. If the Joint Secretary had been 'exempted', the CPIO must produce the necessary official order, and further inform who else in the ministry had been similarly exempted'.

Any claim that a Joint Secretary has been 'exempted' from the obligation to provide information would have become controversial for the government. It could have sullied the service record of the officer attracting a minor if not major penalty for disregarding a Parliamentary statute. The RTI Act, 2005 provides no authority-wise 'exemption'. Exemption under Section 8 of the Act applies only to certain well-defined matters based on merit like security/diplomatic/ trade secrets, matters expressly forbidden by court from publication, or cabinet papers etc. This time the CPIO quickly provided the information. The episode, however, underscores a few grievous lapses. First, had the Central Information Commission (CIC) been working at full strength, the second appeal would have been decided within a few months, and the delinquent CPIO might had to pay the monetary penalty for denying information.

Appellate Authorities, who are part of the department, actually help the CPIOs to suppress the information, where it is in their interest. Instead of this obligation, they can manipulate the CPIOs in other matters. The high amount of pendency in CIC could be attributed to the devious behaviour of the Appellate Authorities. The RTI Act, 2005 should have provision to penalize not just the CPIO but also the First Appellate Authority if the Information Commissioner declares him/her guilty of deliberate suppression of infor-

Manchester United stuns Manchester City with 2-1 win mad Diallo struck a 90thwinner Manchester United staged a stunning late comeback to beat Manchester City 2-1 in the Premier League. Four-time defending champion City led the Manchester derby 1-0 going into the 88th minute at the Etihad Stadium. But the game was turned round in dramatic fashion as Bruno Fernandes leveled from the penalty spot and Diallo sealed victory for United — prompting head coach Ruben Amorim to declare "something magic happened."

"It was a very tough match but we believe until the end. We managed to score. We needed that win. It was important for us and for our fans," Amorim said.

City fans jeered at the final whistle as their once dominant team's woeful run of form extended to one win and eight losses in 11 games.

"I'm the boss, I'm the manager and I'm not good enough. It's as simple as that," Guardiola said. It was a first derby victory for new United head coach Ruben Amorim, who led Sporting Lisbon to a 4-1 win against City in one of his last games in charge of the Portuguese club in November. But for a long time it looked like being a third-straight league loss for United after Josko Gvardiol's headed goal in the 36th.

Fernandes was guilty of missing the target when through on goal in the second half and United struggled to create chances against a City team that rarely looked like adding to its lead.

But in a dramatic end to the match, Diallo raced after an underhit backpass from Matheus Nunes. Nunes then brought down the United forward in the box and referee Anthony Taylor pointed to the penalty spot.

Fernandes made no mistake this time - sending Ederson the wrong way.

Moments later, Diallo ran onto a long pass from Lisandro Martinez, flicked the ball high and past Ederson before rolling it into the net from a tight angle. "We have a lot to do but it was massive for our fans," Amorim

United is 13th and five points behind fifth-place City, which has seen its title defense unravel during its losing run.

"This is a big club and in a big club when you lose eight in 10 (11) something wrong happening," Guardiola said.

CHELSEA CHALLENGE Chelsea, in second, closed the gap

on Liverpool to two points after a 2-1 win against Brentford. It's now seven straight wins in all competitions for Enzo Maresca's

Kerala Blasters sack head 'Completely and utterly blindsided': Gillespie slams PCB for lack of communication $F_{\text{Jason}}^{\text{ormer}} \begin{tabular}{ll} Australia & pacer \\ Gillespie & on \end{tabular}$ Monday slammed the PCB, revealing that he stepped down as Pakistan's Test head coach after being "completely and utterly blindsided" by the country's cricket board.

Gillespie, whose contract was set to expire in 2026, resigned last week and he expressed his frustration over the lack of communication, which led him to feel that the Pakistan Cricket Board no longer wanted him in the role.

"There were certainly challenges. I went into the job eyes wide open, I want to make that really clear. I knew that, you know, Pakistan had cycled through a number of coaches in a pretty short space of time.

"The straw that broke the camel's back, I suppose, was, as a head coach, you like to have clear communication with your employer," Gillespie told ABC Sport.

The competitive imbalance in women's club soccer in Europe will be underscored this week in the final round of Champions League group-stage matches where little is on the line because of the dominance of the continent's top teams. The eight teams advancing to the quarterfinals have already secured their spots with one round remaining: Lyon and Wolfsburg from Group A; Chelsea and Real Madrid Munich and Arsenal from Group C; and Manchester City and Barcelona from Group D.

All are either established clubs in the women's game especially Lyon Wolfsburg, the winners of nine of the 10 Champions League titles from 2011-2020 — or huge European clubs in men's soccer who have started to really pour money and extra focus into their women's teams in recent years. The qualified teams play each other this week, with only Group A fully decided as Lyon is guaranteed to finish in first place with Wolfsburg second.

The two meet in France on Tuesday.

In Group B on the same night, second-place Madrid hosts first-place Chelsea and can jump above the English team with a win courtesy of a superior goal difference.

On Wednesday, Arsenal hosts Bayern and is one point behind the visitors from Germany in Group C. Bayern just needs to avoid defeat to finish top. Also that night, Barcelona is at home to firstplace Man City and must beat the English team by two goals

Barcelona, the defending champion, has scored 23 goals in its five group games so far

Jasprit Bumrah defends struggling Indian team in Australia

asprit Bumrah on Monday defended the struggling Indian team in Australia and played down talk of additional pressure on him, saying it's a side in transition and given his experience, it's his shoulder extra responsibility.

Having taken a seemingly erroneous call of bowling first in the third Test at the Gabba here, India conceded a huge firstinnings total of 445 despite Bumrah returning 6/76.

In response, the visitors were 51/4 on a rain-hit third day with questions being raised about batters' technique and the quality of bowling, save for Bumrah.

"We don't, as a team, point fingers at each other and we don't want to get into that mindset where we are pointing fingers at each other that you should do this, you should do that," Bumrah told media after stumps when asked for his assessment of India's batting.

"We, as a team, are going through a transition, new players are coming here and it's not the easiest place to play cricket. Over here, it's a different atmosphere with this wicket being a different challenge so yeah, we are not looking at that." Bumrah, who leads the bowling chart in the Border-Gavaskar Trophy with 18 wickets so far, defended the Indian attack amid chatter that he is not getting adequate support from fellow

"As a bowling unit, as I said, we are in transition so it's my job to help the others. I have played a little more than them so I am trying to help them," said the owner of 191 Test wickets in just 43 Tests. "Everyone will learn through it, will get better and eventually will find different ways so this is the journey that you'll have to go through," he added.

Bumrah rejected suggestions that India's poor first innings scores were putting more pressure on the bowlers and on him.

"We have 11 players, it's not like that. I don't look at it that I have to do extra (work). As I said, we are a new team, a lot of new players have come into the side. We have to be considerate and give them that cushion that they will learn from experience," he said.

"Nobody is born with all the experiences, nobody is born with all the skills. You keep learning, you keep finding new ways (and) you keep learning about your own game," he continued.

The Indian vice-captain said he has enjoyed the challenge of bowling on different pitches in Australia

"I always find different challenges very interesting. Because in the Test match that we played in Perth, the wicket was different. (At) Adelaide (with the) pink ball (was) different, the wicket behaved different, the ball behaved differently," he said.

"Here it is a little different because the wicket is at a level and the runup is low. In India we are not used to that," he explained.

'Don't like whinging, don't take opinions seriously' Bumrah said his primary target on encountering a challenge is to tackle it instead of looking at solutions.

"I look at how do I solve it, what can I do in this scenario rather than whinging or complaining or looking at someone else or pointing fingers that I need this from this person," he said.

Bumrah reiterated he wants to remain level-headed in dealing with success and failures and that he cannot carry the "baggage of expectations".

When I was a youngster, yes, maybe I used to take extra baggage of fans and opinions. But I don't take any opinions seriously," he

"I look at myself. I look at answers what I have to do. I give it my absolute best. If I have given it my absolute best, I will accept the results. (But) I cannot carry someone else's energy or baggage that people are expecting me to do the heavy-lifting," he gave a peak into his mindset.

'There will be days when I will not get wickets. Somebody else will do, so I will have to do a holding job," Bumrah added.

Marsh admits being nervous at gully, hails team's bowling on Day 3

PTI ■ BRISBANE

Australian Mitchell all-rounder Marsh that conceded fielding at gully makes him "most nervous", particularly because of Cameron Green's excellent reputation in that position.

Green is not playing in the Border-Gavaskar Trophy owing to a spine injury, but Marsh has stepped intox that role with some degree of comfort, underlined by his flying catch to dismiss India batter Shubman Gill on day three of the Third Test

"Yeah, I think since I've come back into the Test team, when I feel the most nervous because Green is likely to go down as one of the best ever. If you drop one there, you're always compared to him," Marsh said during the postday press conference.

Marsh's brilliant catch off leftarm quick Mitchell Starc led to Gill's dismissal for one as India ended Day 3 on a precarious 51 for four.

Any time I can do something like that -- I probably didn't even need to dive, to be fair -but I thought it had a bit of a moment, and it is a fun team. It's a great team to be a part of. "So, yeah, I like fielding there, but honestly, being at square leg is just as good?

Marsh was happy to see the hosts scoring 445 in their first

"I think when you get sent in and you make 450, it's always positive, and then I guess you earn the right to attack, especially early with the ball. Like I said before, now it's just about how do we try and take 20 wickets. We've got six more to get, and then we just assess from there.

Asked if they would enforce the follow-on, he said: "I think we've got six wickets to take first, but we know that we've got to take 20 wickets to try and win this Test and I guess all the conversations and all the planning will be, how do we do that. "So, hopefully the weather holds off, and then tomorrow having a crack, and see where we get to."

After their humiliating defeat in the opening Test in Parth, Australia have been able to get on top of the Indian batters. "I think we bowled really well.

Today was no different, and we've been able to take wickets with the new ball, albeit the second innings in Perth.

"Our bowling attack has some great bowlers, and they're attacking, they look to take wickets all the time, and hopefully that can continue." Premier batter Virat Kohli once again fell prey to his longstanding vulnerability outside the off-stump, chasing a delivery pitched wide and edging it to the wicketkeeper Alex Carev.

Mohammed Siraj bowling with a niggle

PTI ■ BRISBANE

India pace spearhead Jasprit Bumrah on Monday revealed that Mohammed Siraj has been bowling with a niggle and praised him for fighting through pain during the ongoing third Test against Australia here. Siraj claimed two wickets in his 23.2 overs in the first innings, and Bumrah, who once again emerged as the best bowler with figures of six for 76, credited his colleague for supporting the team despite the discomfort. "We (Siraj and I) have had conversations but this was the conversation he had with me before we came here (Brisbane). When we came here in Perth, as well as the last game, he looked in very good spirits," Bumrah told reporters after day three.

"He was bowling well and he has picked up a fair few of the wickets. In this game, I will give him credit that he had a little bit of a niggle but he still kept on bowling and still helped the team because he knew if he goes inside and he doesn't bowl, then that team will go under pressure.

"So I think he has got a great attitude and he has got a fighter spirit that the team loves," he said

Siraj looked in discomfort when he clutched his hamstring after bowling the second ball of the 37th over of Australia's first innings. The physio was called onto the field and Siraj then left the field as Akash Deep completed

The 30-year-old, however, returned to the field on Day 2 and ended up taking the wickets of Australia skipper Pat Cummins and Nathan Lyon.

'Í personally love that as well, that he is up for a fight and he always gives it all for the team. So I think that is the biggest positive for any cricketer going

"That he gives it his absolute best on the field. And even when he is not 100% fit, when he has got a niggle, he is still fighting for the team. So that is a great attitude."

Keep running in, keep having a smile on your face'

Siraj has taken five and four wickets in the first two Tests in Perth and Adelaide but he has also been criticised for a lack of control over his lines and lengths, especially during the third Test, which allowed the Australian batters to get away early in their innings on Day 2. However, Bumrah has advised Siraj to just focus on the controllables

Yes, in terms of wickets and all, some days you will bowl well, the wickets will come as I spoke to him before. And some days you will not bowl very well but the wickets will follow. So it's all money in the bank," Bumrah said.

That is the conversation that I have had with him. That you keep focusing on your stuff, things that you can control."

Gavaskar urges Virat Kohli to refrain from playing cover drive

PTI ■ BRISBANE

The legendary Sunil Gavaskar on Monday urged India superstar Virat Kohli to draw inspiration from Sachin Tendulkar's monumental 241 against Australia in Sydney in 2004 and refrain from playing cover drive in order to end his persistent struggle against deliveries outside off-stump. On a rain-marred third day of the ongoing Brisbane Test, Kohli copped yet another failure when Josh Hazlewood "The shots that he played had him caught behind for 3

Tendulkar's knock, for which he batted more than 10 hours, is widely considered as one of his best-ever as the legendary batter curbed his instinct to drive and scored the majority of his runs on the on-side. 'He (Kohli) only needs to the off-side, or at least in the cover (region) because before that he was getting dismissed while attempting to play in on the on-side," he added. Gavaskar said Kohli, who has been caught behind the wickets thrice on this tour, must look to defend every single delivery in the channel of the off-stump and find other scoring areas like Tendulkar did. "Similarly, he (Kohli) should keep a control on his mind and on his game. If the ball is on the off-stump, (he should think that) 'I would defend it I would not try to score of it," Gavaskar said. The legendary batter said Kohli should trust his bottom-hand play more than going for his drives in order to banish his troubles.
