RAJESH KUMAR NEW DELHI

 $A_{\mathrm{for}}^{\mathrm{mid}}$ the growing clamour for cancellation of the controversy-ridden NEET-UG, 2024 exam over alleged malpractices, the Ministry of Education and the National Testing Agency told the Supreme Court on Friday that scrapping it would be "counter productive", not rational and "seriously jeopardise" lakhs of honest candidates in the absence of proof of large-scale breach of confidentiality. The Ministry and the NTA said there was no proof of any large-scale breach of confidentiality the in examination which was taken by over 23 lakh candidates at 4,750 centres in 571 cities.

New Delhi: The NEET-PG 2024 entrance entrance examination will be held on August 11 in two shifts, the National Board of Examinations in Medical Sciences announced on Friday. The examination was earlier scheduled to be held on June 23. ...It will now be held on

The cut-off date for the purpose of eligibility to appear in the NEET-PG 2024 shall continue to be August 15, 2024," the Board said.

NEET-PG 2024 exam to be held scrapping of the exam plagued by controversy, a retest and court-monitored probe into entire gamut of issues involved. The top court is scheduled to hear on July 8 a batch of pleas, including those alleging irregularities in the examination held on May 5 and seeking a direction that it be held afresh.

The National Testing Agency (NTA), which conducts the National Eligibility-cum-August 11 in two shifts. Entrance Undergraduate (NEET-UG) for admissions to MBBS, BDS, AYUSH and other PNS related courses, and the Union Education Ministry have been at the centre of media debates and protests by students and political parties over alleged largescale malpractices ranging from question paper leak to impersonation in the test held on May 5. In its affidavit, the Ministry said invalidating the exam would "seriously jeopardise" the efforts of lakhs of honest candidates who appeared in the exam. In the absence of proof of any large-scale breach of confidentiality in the examination, it argued that it would not be rational to take the step. This is the first time that the Centre is placing its stand on holding a retest of NEET-UG for all 24 lakh candidates on record The Ministry has only acknowledged that there were "instances of irregularities, cheating, impersonation, malpractices during the conduct of NEET-UG. There is no mention of a paper leak. It goes on to state further that "in the absence of any proof of any largebreach scale of confidentiality in a pan-India Testexamination it would not be rational to scrap the entire examination".

Keir Starmer on Friday promised a phase of "national renewal" as Britain's Prime Minister-elect after he led the Labour Party to a landslide victory in a landmark UK general election with a gain of over 200 seats, as outgoing leader Rishi Sunak conceded defeat with his Conservative Party suffering its worst election defeat in history.

Starmer, 61, now stands poised to take charge at 10 Downing Street after his audience with King Charles III at King Buckingham Palace, following Sunak's meeting with the British monarch.

As Labour crossed the halfway mark of 650 constituencies in the early hours of Friday to clinch the minimum 326 required for a majority in Parliament, Starmer stepped up to make his victory speech in London: "Change begins now. And it feels good, I have to be honest. "A mandate like this comes with a great responsibility. Our task is nothing less than renewing the ideas that hold this country together. National renewal. Whoever you are, wherever you start in life, if you work hard, if you play by the rules, this country should give you a fair chance to get on. Lord Krishna's favourite king of fruits to add flavour to Rath Yatra

s the much-revered grand ARath Yatra for Lord Jagannath commences in Puri in Odisha on Monday, the International Society for Krishna Consciousness (ISKCON) temple at Dwarka in the national Capital will mark the occasion with a grand offering of 5,100 approximately kilograms of various mango varieties. The celebrations will begin a day ahead and continue into the following day, aligning with the Yatra in Puri.

Devotees will offer a range of mangoes, including Safeda,

Dussehri, Langra, Malda, Chausa, Ramkela, Totapari,

Bombay Green, and Mallika, as part of the rituals dedicated to Lord Jagannath, his brother Balabhadra, and their sister Subhadra as part of the rituals.

Mangoes, revered as the "king of fruits," hold significant cultural and religious value, particularly in Krishna Lila, symbolising the sweetness of devotion in the divine pastimes of Lord Krishna. The celebration will attract nearly 20,000 people from across the city. Preparations are in full swing at the temple. The temple altar will be adorned with an impressive display of mangoes, allowing devotees to participate in the "mango service" by offering their fruits at the Vigraha Seva Department on the eve of the yatra

The festivities will also include a mango-eating competition. Golia, Sindoori, Gulabkhas, Neelam, Kesari, Gola, Lalbagh, Lambori, Ratul, and Alphonso like varieties will also be offered to the God.

Sri Gaur Prabhu, vicepresident of the temple, explained, "Mango, the king of fruits, is loved by both children and adults during the summer season. This is why we organise the mango festival every year on the day of Jagannath Yatra. The offering of thousands of mangoes to the deities is beautiful to behold."

Attendees can capture memories at designated selfie points and participate_in community service. The significance of mangoes in Krishna Lila is profound. During the rasa dance, the gopis would offer mangoes to Krishna, symbolising the sweetness of their sweetness relationship. At another time, Krishna accepted mango pits from a poor Brahmana, valuing sincere devotion over material offerings. Mangoes also played a role in Krishna's childhood at Vrindavan, where he and his mischievous friends would often steal the delicious fruits from orchards.

Pritansu Priyadarsini Biswal from Bhubaneswar in Odisha was in praise for the ISKON temple's concept of offering mangoes to the Lord Jagannath. "This celebration at the ISKCON temple in the country's capital in Dwarka not only honours the divine but also brings together the community in a shared experience of devotion, cultural heritage, and the simple joy of enjoying mangoes," she said.

It's the second time within a year, for heaven knows what reason, I've been told in a tone nothing short of a rebuke, that I have a high level of Vitamin B deficiency and thus, this constant pain in my legs. Try telling the good doc that one valid reason for this "condition might be my having more than my share of the reg-ular quota of running around and scaling the stairs at home, a dismissive hand shoos you while he busies himself scrib bling a scroll-long pre-scription of tests and medicines that'd make you vacate your room to give way to a well-stocked pharmacy. About going up and down the house's staircase, if you have been following this space, you'd perhaps remember that I have been in the process of decluttering the home, giving away to charity, and also to charity, and also to friends, things that they want, need, or have taken a fancy for. Twenty long years and the house turns into an ocean of goods and truly the more space you have, the eas-ier life becomes. Space to breathe.

when the syringe makes that crinkly sound while being drawn out from its wrapper and this, when he is not the person to receive the prick! Funny, how his physician mother thought he'd follow in her footsteps, with him obe-diently enrolling himself in a pre-medical course after he was done with school! In her support, she must have thought that medicine was in their DNA! Now, finally, at long last, the tale of the Injectionwallah sent by the doctor, being magnani-mous enough to spare his male nurse, despite his full diary. Yes, yes, the nurse too, like his boss, has a back-to-back schedule, so home services are quite difficult to pencil in. Here he forgot to mention home ministrations would come with an insanely high fee. So, there's Day One: You assemble the disposable syringe, the vial, Dettol antiseptic, sterile cotton, a medicated swab, in a washed-twice-over tray. The nurse arrives, the The nurse arrives, the droop of his shoulders visible because of the jam-packed, dust-crusted school satchel slung across his back. Ear plugs wired around his neck, and rings with different stones slipped tightly, unbudgingly over his fingers to undoubtedly enhance future professional pro-spects by aligning the star-configuration with the assistance of the gems on hand. The question of hygiene wherever does that come from?! You request the nurse to remove the snail-shell of the bag since it would be better for him to inject yours truly without the back-breaking sack, add-ing timidly that the wiring round his neck might not graze your thighs while the nutri-bullet is making its way into your blood-stream. That done, "with a goodness how atrocious" look you lead him to the bathroom (or washroom since bathroom has become a prehistoric term!) where handily awaits Dettol liquid soap with you standing with a clean, freshly washed hand towel. The Injectionwallah reluctantly pumps out a measly dab and then, yes, turns on the faucet to wet, rather dampen, his hands rubbing apathetically his unconjoined fingers. These are medically trained professionals, for whom, from day one, the drill of cleanliness is supposed to be the first lesson! Self-consciously one is compelled, for fear of developing a rash or in-fection, that if some more soap would be pumped out to lather both paws it'd be appreciated. To scissor through a long dampening story: he is in the process of filling the vial, demanding a knife since he is not in posses-sion of a cutter. Tiny shards of glass fall in the plate, might you dare say, even in the syringe. Not far-flung to imagine a glass splinter may poke into a nerve. So much so, for a vitamin B deficiency! The syringe, with the po-tion that might be carrying specks of glass, could put a pause or literally put a halt to your life. And that is not it, at that very moment there is a trill of his mobile, he fishes into his pocket, squints his eyes to read the WhatsApp, leaving you wondering if he forgot his spectacles, and whether the injection would make it to the right spot. All four times the story is the same, with variations but naturally You remain, though, to continue to stand on tiptoe red alert. The Covid mantra: wash your hands, well and good, never really reached our ears. For myself, four more hoops and if the ache persists, shall get a tiny lift installed in my house-it'll certainly be a safer and saner option Before which, the last bid would be to make it to Kerala for its magical massages.

Shiv Sena leader attacked with swords in Ludhiana, 2 arrested

PNS LUDHIANA

In a shocking turn of events on Friday afternoon, Ludhiana witnessed a brazen sword attack on a prominent leader of Shiv Sena (Punjab) Sandeep Thapar, known as Gora. The assailants, dressed as Nihang Sikhs, ambushed Thapar on Old Jail Road, leaving him critically injured and sparking widespread outrage and fear in the region. In response to the brazen assault, Ludhiana Police, under the leadership of SP Ravjot Grewal, acted swiftly, apprehending two suspects near the University area. A third suspect remains at large, prompting an intensive manhunt.

Thapar had been returning from a memorial service for a local BJP leader when the attack occurred. Accompanied by a police gunman, Thapar was riding his scooter when three assailants swiftly surrounded him. Despite the presence of his security detail, the attackers disarmed Thapar's gunman and launched a vicious assault, leaving him severely wounded before fleeing the

In response to the alarming incident, Ludhiana Police, led by SP Ravjot Grewal, acted promptly, apprehending two suspects near the University area. However, a third suspect remains at large, prompting an intensive manhunt across the Police Commissioner Kuldeep Chahal confirmed the arrests, revealing that one of the detained suspects is associated with Baba Buddha Dal, a prominent religious group. Background checks and further investigations are underway to determine the motive behind the attack and any potential accomplices, he added. The attack on Thapar has elicited strong condemnation and protests from local Hindu leaders, who have demanded swift justice and enhanced security measures for public figures in Ludhiana. Union Minister Ravneet Singh Bittu and Ludhiana MP Amarinder Singh Raja Warring condemned the violence, urging law enforcement authorities to expedite the investigation and ensure all perpetrators are brought to justice swiftly. AAP MLA from Ludhiana West Gurpreet Gogi also expressed grave concern over the incident, vowing to raise the issue with the Police Commissioner to secure enhanced security protocols for public figures.

Meanwhile, stringent security measures have been implemented across Ludhiana to prevent any further disturbances or acts of violence.

Following the attack, the assailants, identified as Nihang Sikhs, posted a video on the social media justifying their actions, claiming that they acted in defense of their faith and martyrs. They reiterated their stance against anyone perceived as speaking against their community or martyrs, underscoring the underlying tensions and ideological divisions within the region.

In response to public concern, District Commissioner Jaspreet Singh Teja visited Thapar at the hospital, reassuring the community of stringent legal actions against the attackers and reinforcing the commitment to ensuring the safety of all citizens. Teja denounced the attack as an affront to public safety and reiterated the administration's resolve to maintain law and order in Ludhiana. The BIP condemned the attack and demanded the resignation of Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann. Punjab BJP general secretary Anil Sareen said Mann is not only the chief minister of the state but also holds the home portfolio.

Ever since the AAP has come to power in Punjab, the law and order situation in the state has gone from bad to worse, he alleged.

"There is a substantial increase in murder and robbery cases and activities of gangsters. As a result, a feeling of insecurity has developed among the people," the BJP leader claimed. Sareen said the Punjab government has proved to be an "utter failure" on the law and order front. In such circumstances, the chief minister should take moral responsibility for such incidents and quit

Vijay Rupani reappointed as BJP in-charge for Punjab urban, and semi-urban voters

MONIKA MALIK 🗖 CHANDIGARH

In a testament to his leader-ship, the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) has once again reposed its faith in Vijay Rupani, reappointing the for-mer Gujarat Chief Minister as the prabhari (in-charge) for Punjab. Dr Narinder Singh will continue to support him as the co-in-charge. The decision, announced by BJP's national president JP Nadda on Friday, comes amidst a reshuffling of state units following the recent Lok Sabha elections. Their reappointment is particularly significant amidst reports of an impending shakeup in the BJP's state leadership. With the current state party president, Sunil Jakhar, nearing the end of his term on July 11, speculation is mounting about his successor. Top contenders for the position include former Minister Rana Gurmeet Singh Sodhi, former MLA Kewal Singh Dhillon, and former MLA Fateh Jung Bajwa—all of whom are former Congress leaders. The primary reason behind retaining Rupani and Dr Narinder in their positions is the saffron party's performance in Punjab during the recently-concluded Laber State concluded Lok Sabha elections. Although the party did not secure any seats, it witnessed a substantial increase in its vote share, which surged to 18.56 percent, up from the previous 9.63 percent. BJP, for the first time, had contested all seats in Punjab independently, and improved its performance as compared to the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, when it contested only three seats in alliance with the SAD. This remarkable growth places the BJP as the third major party in the state, following Congress and the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) — pushing its old ally and Punjab's lone regional party, Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD), to the fourth spot. In fact, BJP's vote share was five percent higher than that of the SAD.

The party's candidates also put up a strong fight, indicating a positive trend for future elections. Analysis revealed that the BJP has emerged as a formidable force in at least 35 segments dominated by Hindu, — including Abohar, Balluana, Jalandhar Central, Jalandhar North, Rajpura, Dera Bassi, Patiala, and various segments in Ludhiana and Amritsar. The saffron party also performed well in areas with a significant Hindu vote bank, such as Nabha, Batala, Gurdaspur, and Moga. Even in Sikh-dominated seats like Khadoor Sahib, considered a Panthic seat, BJP candidate Manjit Manna secured more votes than SAD candidates in Patti, Kapurthala, Sultanpur Lodhi, and Baba Bakala assembly constituencies. In light of this, the BJP has decided to retain Vijay Rupani as the in-charge and Dr. Narinder Singh as the co-incharge to continue their efforts in improving the party's performance and expanding its base in Punjab – keeping a strategic focus on the impending by-polls and the next state assembly elections.

Punjab is poised for a series of electoral challenges. On July 10, Jalandhar West Assembly by-election is scheduled, which will be followed by by-elections in four more assembly constituencies - Chabbewal, Dera Baba Nanak, Banrala, and Gidderbaha. Although the dates for these by-elections are vet to be announced, they are anticipated with great interest.

The by-elections are necessitated due to the election of current MLAs to parliamentary positions. For instance, Barnala's MLA and former Cabinet Minister Gurmeet Singh Meet Hayer has been elected as the MP from Sangrur. Similarly, Dera Baba Nanak's MLA and former Deputy Chief Minister Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa is now the MP from Gurdaspur, Dr Raj Kumar Chabbewal, previously the MLA from Chabbewal, has been elected as the MP from Hoshiarpur; while Punjab Congress president and former Cabinet Minister Amarinder Singh Raja Warring, who was the MLA from Gidderbaha, is now the MP from Ludhiana.

Apart from these immediate electoral contests, Punjab will witness Panchayat and Municipal Corporation elec-tions, followed by the 2027 assembly elections. BJP's enhanced vote share and increased political activity signal a rigorous and competitive future electoral landscape in Punjab. By retaining Rupani and Dr Narinder, the BJP aims to capitalize on the momentum gained during the Lok Sabha

Amritpal not Khalistani supporter should be released immediately: Mother

Chandigarh: The mother of jailed radical Sikh preacher Amritpal Singh, who took oath as a member of Parliament on Friday, said her son is not a Khalistani supporter and demanded that he be released immediately so that he can work on the issues on which he fought the elections.

Meanwhile, celebrations broke out in Singh's native village Jallupur Khera in Amritsar and the Khadoor Sahib parliamentary constituency where people distributed sweets after he was administered oath. Singh and Kashmiri leader Sheikh Abdul Rashid, who were granted parole to take oath as members of the Lok Sabha, were sworn in as MPs amid heavy security in and around the Parliament complex.

"We demand that he be released immediately so that he can thank supporters and work on the issues on the basis of which elections were won," said Kaur at her residence. She said her son's supporters kept asking when he would come out of the jail. "We urge the government that he should be released immediately," she said. Replying to a question, she said people voted for him with expectations that he would work for their wel-"The main issues on fare. which elections were fought were drug menace and release of 'Bandi Šinghs'," she said. High Stakes for Mann as AAP intensifies campaign for crucial Jalandhar West bypoll door-to-door outreach.

MONIKA MALIK – CHANDIGARH

With the Jalandhar West assembly bypoll slated for July 10, Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann finds himself in a high-stakes battle to secure a crucial electoral mandate. Amidst intense political scrutiny, Mann has shifted his entire family to rented accommodation in the pollbound constituency, where they are actively engaging in a spirited campaign. The crucial election has become a matter of personal and political prestige for the Chief Minister, who is leaving no stone unturned to secure a victory

While Mann has been going all out - conducting roadshows, holding public meetings, nukkad sabhas, and what not; his wife Dr Gurpreet Kaur is also active in the campaign, conducting public meetings, public grievances hearing sessions from their rented residence, besides engaging in

Despite the fact that the outcome of the upcoming bypoll will not alter the composition of the current AAP Government in Punjab, which already commands 90 seats in the 117-member House, the Chief Minister's singular focus on this election and his dedicated efforts to secure this assembly seat are driven by specific considerations. Political experts suggest that the primary reason is the AAP's disappointing perfor-mance in the recent Lok Sabha elections. If AAP loses this seat, it could be perceived as a sign that public support for the State Government, especially Mann's popularity, is waning. Mann is determined to avoid this narrative, aiming to demonstrate that despite the setbacks in the Lok Sabha elections, his government retains the people's trust.

In the recently-concluded Lok Sabha elections, Mann's ambitious '13-0' slogan — aiming to win all 13 parliamentary seats in Punjab — fell flat, with AAP securing only three seats. While former Minister Gurmeet Singh Meet Hayer won the Sangrur seat convincingly, victories in Anandpur Sahib and Hoshiarpur were narrow. Meanwhile, Congress captured seven seats, the Akali Dal won one, and independents claimed two seats.

The analysis of the assembly-wise results of the Lok Sabha elections was equally concerning. When AAP formed the government in 2022, it won 92 out of 117 seats. However, just two years later, AAP could only gain an edge in 33 assembly segments during the Lok Sabha elections, losing ground in 59 segments, coupled with a declining vote share.

AAP's vote share in the 2022 assembly elections was an impressive 42 percent. This figure plummeted to 26 percent in the recent Lok Sabha elections - registering a 16 percent decline. Moreover, AAP finished third in the Jalandhar West constituency as per the segment-wise result of the Lok Sabha elections, with Congress receiving 44,394 votes despite party candidate winning the seat. On the other hand, BJP bagged the highest 42,827 votes. AAP trailed significantly, garnering only 15,629 votes 27,765 votes behind Congress, which itself was at second place.

The stakes have escalated due to the bypolls triggered by AAP MLA Sheetal Angural's defection to the BJP. Now standing as the saffron party's candidate, Angural is aggressively targeting Mann and his family with accusations and attacks

The outcome of the Jalandhar West bypoll will have significant ramifications for Mann. A win would be a crucial morale booster, affirming that despite the Lok Sabha losses, his government continues to enjoy public support. Conversely, a defeat would provide ammunition to his critics, who would likely high light issues such as the state's struggles with drug problems and law and order. It would also cast doubt on Mann's leadership and the AAP's governance, suggesting that public disenchantment with the government has set in within just two and a half years.

a historic win in 2022 state assembly polls by bagging 92 out of 117 seats, its performance was uneven across various regions. While AAP dominated in Malwa and Maiha, it struggled in Doaba, which includes Jalandhar. In 2022 polls, AAP won four out of nine seats in Jalandhar district, but the Jalandhar parliamentary seat, held by Congress in 2019, switched to AAP in a May 2023 bye-election. Yet, the 2024 Lok Sabha elections saw Congress reclaiming the seat, with AAP finishing third.

Given this backdrop, winning the Jalandhar West bypoll has become a matter of prestige for Mann and AAP.

Momentous meeting

The meeting of PM Modi with President Putin would solidify India's role as a key player in the emerging global order rime Minister Narendra Modi is set to meet Russian President Vladimir Putin. It was a meeting for which preparation was underway for a long but was delayed due to the elections. Indian Russian ties are historic but have become more important in the evolving multipolar world order. This will be Modi's first visit to Russia since the onset of the Ukraine war in February 2022. Despite the West's increasing isolation of Russia due to the Ukraine conflict, India has maintained a neutral stance. India has called for dialogue and diplomacy to resolve the dispute but has refrained from condemning Russia outright. This approach aligns with India's historical policy of non-alignment and strategic autonomy. India continues to buy Russian oil despite Western sanctions. India and Russia share a long-standing relationship dating back to the Cold War era. The two countries have traditionally enjoyed strong defence and economic ties, with Russia being a major supplier of military hardware to India. This relationship has persisted through various political changes and has been marked by cooperation in multiple areas, including nuclear energy, space exploration, and trade.Indeed, the Ukraine war has had far-reaching implications for global politics, economics, and security. The conflict has disrupted global energy markets and supply chains, contributing to inflationary pressures worldwide. India nonetheless did not snap ties with Russia despite its good relations with the US and the Western pressure. While maintaining its stance of neutrality, it has continued its trade relations with Russia, including increased imports of discounted Russian oil. In this backdrop the meeting of Modi with Putin is significant. It is expected to cover a broad range of topics, reflecting the multifaceted nature of India-Russia relations. PM Modi may seek to secure long-term energy supplies from Russia to ensure stability in its energy markets. Both leaders may discuss ongoing and future defence projects, including the delivery of military hardware and the joint development of defence technologies. India's defence modernization plans, which include acquiring advanced weaponry and upgrading its military capabilities, are likely to be a focal point of discussion. Modi and Putin are expected to discuss the evolving international order and regional security issues. India's position as a rising global power and its role in regional stability will likely be a major point of discussion. The conversation may also touch upon India's vision for peace and stability in the Indo-Pacific region, where it seeks to counterbalance China's influence. Bilateral trade has seen growth despite sanctions on Russia, and both countries may seek to expand this further by identifying new areas of cooperation. Though it may not augur well for the US which may frown but then for every country its interests are paramount. This balancing act could position India as a crucial player in mediating global conflicts and fostering international cooperation, enhancing its role on the world stage.

Nuanced shift in parliamentary conduct

VINAYSHIL GAUTAM

As parliamentarians navigate new complexities, the emphasis remains on upholding the dignity, decorum, and effectiveness of legislative processes

he 18th Lok Sabha has been ushered in with customary procedural formalities on the 25th of June, 2024. Certain rituals convert the reality of Lok Sabha into the sanctified existence of a group of people meant to lead this country through such vicissitudes as it may face. This is, as it should be, an extraordinary phenomenon. The nation can be legitimately proud of this event. Yet in certain ways, it's different from some of the preceding Lok Sabhas because this time there was no consensus on the identification of a Speaker for the Lok Sabha.

It is not as if in each of the preceding Lok Sabhas, the selection of the speaker was unanimous. There were instances when the Speaker was chosen by ballot and the Lok Sabha still, functioned with a fair degree of cohesiveness. The unique situation in the 18th Lok Sabha included a demand by the opposition to promise it a Deputy Speaker's position. In the preceding Lok Sabhas, it did not seem to matter to many peo-An assurance here and ple. now 'seemed to be the demand. The matter seems to have would have been settled. The crux of the situation seems to be putting up the Deputy Speaker's position as a factor in negotiation. In the preceding Lok Sabhas, a consensus was built around these issues, which this time around did not seem to bother many people. This is a settled and yet important proposition about the style of conduct of affairs. An illustration may help to establish the point with better clarity. In one of the preceding Lok Sabhas, at a time when Jawahar Lal Nehru dominated the scene in Indian politics, there was a bye-election schedule from Muzaffarpur Constituency in Bihar. Then socialist parties sought to put up Acharya Narendra Dev as their candidate for election from this constituency. Jawahar Lal Nehru, who was one of the tallest figures in the political no bitterness that Congress as a party had towards him. Ordinarily, Congress was expected to win this election of the parliamentary seat to the Lok Sabha, yet Jawahar Lal Nehru felt that the Lok Sabha should have more different types of people, and therefore Congress would not contest for the Lok Sabha seat from Muzaffarpur against Narendra Dev. Those times were different. There was a predominantly universal sentiment for merit and goodwill, and Narendra Dev sailed home well on that argument. As stated, with the main opposition and Congress working together for Narendra Dev, it was not difficult for him to get elected to the Lok Sabha. Those times were different, and those times still resonate with many people as to what good traditions in the parliamentary system are all about. It's remarkable that during the arguments for Deputy Speakership, no one in public even recalled this episode from the perspective of parliamentary history. It is indeed a case for a two-tiered ians will prevail and matters take their course in a more enlightened way.Be that as it may, one is not quite sure what the adamancy of a prior commitment about the Deputy Speaker's position being given to the opposition has been all about.

In any case, the convention PARLIAMENTARY has been for the Deputy Speaker's position to be given TRADITIONS ARE to the opposition, so ultimately, the contention was IMPORTANT, AND IT only about the timing of the MAY WELL BE THAT formalization of this kind of prior agreement. It is indeed THE 18TH LOK a small matter, but if the loftiness of parliamentary tradi-SABHA WILL HAVE tions were to be seen in its due SOME DARING weightage in the conduct of affairs, it is important. Parliamentary traditions are important, and it may well be that the 18th Lok Sabha will have some daring challenges to its method of work, to which both the ruling party and the opposition, led by some old veterans, will need to adapt and take responsibility.

This is a simplified version of what happens, as the method of working is nearly as critical as the methods of resolving differences.All said and done, even parliament has to operate within the bandwidth of rules, regulations, bylaws, practices, and more. It is best done through goodwill and grace. Senior members in the Lok Sabha need to conduct affairs with statesmanship and dignity. Give freebies only when essential and unavoidable

While 'feebies' schemes are intended to offer immediate relief to the targeted groups, their effectiveness and necessity remain suspect

1st July 2024 buckled down for implementing the Mukhyamantri Mahila Samman Yojana, which aims to provide aid of Rs 1,000 to Delhi women above 18, baring the taxpayers, government employees and other government pension plan beneficiaries. An amount of Rs 2,000 crore has been set aside for this scheme. Several such schemes or freebies are provided by different state governments across the length and breadth of the country. Many times these freebies of diverse nature are strategically planned to precede elections and are highly poll-driven in a bid for electoral success.

These freebies or Rewari culture as mentioned by PM Modi, have been defined by the Reserve Bank of India report as "a public welfare measure that is provided free of charge". They are generally aimed at benefiting the targeted population in the short term and are different from long-term welfare schemes which are categorized as public/merit goods disposable income of the ment, by encouraging their elhi Government on and are a way of promoting 1st July 2024 buckled social justice, equity, and human development. Some examples of welfare schemes are the Public Distribution System, the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act

(MGNREGA), the midday meal scheme, etc.While freebies are frequently used by political parties to build public trust, it is worthwhile to analyse them as a necessity or waste. <

Such schemes stimulate economic growth by incentivising and increasing the pro-ductive capacity of the workforce along with providing necessities and social welfare to the poor and marginalized sections of society. For example, freebies such as uniforms, textbooks, bicycles or health insurance can improve the literacy, mobility, health, and quality of life of the needy and vulnerable groups. By increasing the poor, freebies can stimulate demand for goods and services, thereby boosting economic activity. Besides, if rationally devised, they can also reduce income inequality. For example, loan waivers, or cash transfers can empower the weaker and indebted households by giving them access to assets, credit, or income support. However, freebies are like a doubleedged sword, with heavy economic and social costs. Foremost, large-scale public expenditure comes with a huge and permanent fiscal burden and macroeconombenefits. ic distortions.

It leads to an immediate increase in demand, disrupting inflation; diverting funds from repaying govern-ments' previous obligations causing accumulation of public debt; and diverting funds from more productive and essential sectors such as infrastructure, agriculture, industry, etc. leading to resource misallocation. Besides the freebies in the form of free water, electricity, or fuel can lead to the deterioration of the environoveruse and wastage of natural resources.Freebies can also lead to negative externality by creating a dependency culture and loss of productivity, reducing the incentive for individuals to seek employment or improve their economic situation through their efforts. Additionally, cash vs. kind grants are always debatable and in general cash benefits generally lead to misuse of funds such as gambling, liquor consumption, adultery, etc. which leads to deviation from the desired In conclusion, freebies can play a crucial role in addressing immediate social and economic challenges, they must be implemented with careful consideration of their long-term impact and sustainability. A rational policy framework is needed foremost, to define the targeted section and then design the nature and amount of benefit to minimize inappropriate utilization of resources (The author is assistant

NEW BUILDING NORMS

Madam — This letter refers to the news titled "Haryana Permits Stilt plus Four-Floor Construction" published on July 3.In Haryana, the government led by Nayab Singh Saini has given approval for the construction of Stilt plus Four floors for homeowners, builders, and property dealers. This decision has sparked a mixed response from both society and the construction industry. There is a requirement to obtain permission from neigh-boring plot holders before commencing Stilt plus Four construction. However, many Resident Welfare Associations (RWAs) across the state have expressed opposition to the government's decision through various channels. The government's intention seems to be to increase the income of those involved in the construction sector, despite some technical and legal challenges. It is crucial, however, to strike a balance between the structural changes, such as the reconstruction of sewage systems, public facilities, and the concerns of the public.

For residents of builder floors, the use of parking spaces will be significantly improved. Nevertheless, the construction of Stilt plus Four buildings will present both opportunities and challenges. Yugal Kishore Sharma | Faridabad

MAKE QR CODE PAYMENTS UNIVERSAL

Madam — There is a recurring problem with currency change across various services, including both government and private sectors such as transportation (RTC buses, metro trains), and e-seva centers. To address this issue, it is crucial to provide the option of QR codebased online payments everywhere. Additionally, offering a choice between partial cash payment and partial online payment would be beneficial.

PM ON MANIPUR

Madam — Prime Minister's Response to Manipur Crisis QuestionedDear Editor,Regarding the news "Modi Silences Critics on Manipur" published on July 4, Prime Minister Narendra Modi, facing criticism from the opposition over the handling of the ethnic conflict in Manipur, broke his silence on July 3, claiming that violence in the state has been declining.

This statement is characteristic of Modi's tendency to address issues long after they have escalated, often offering debit card payments. It would also be little more than empty promises. Despite

The spread of Zika has been reported in Pune, where two more cases have recently emerged, bringing the total to six, with both new cases involving pregnant women from Erandwane. both central and state governments being under BJP control, there has been minimal action to address the crisis effectively.Kuki residents have been unable to use Imphal airport since May 3, 2023, and essential supplies have to be transported through Mizoram. Modi's recent comments seem insincere and detached from the reality on the ground. The Prime Minister, who has ample time for inaugurating projects and foreign visits, has not visited Manipur, which has been plagued by violence for the past 14 months. The Supreme Court has expressed its distrust in the Manipur government, reflecting the sentiment of the people towards Modi's assurances. Even as Manipur starts to stabilize, it is imperative for the Prime Minister to prioritize visiting the state and addressing the issues directly, rather than focusing on his image and political importance. Buddha once reflected, those captivated by lust fall into the cyclical suffering of existence hose who are lust-infatuated fall back into the swirling current (of samsara) like a spider on its self-spun web," said Buddha. Aeons ago lived an old farmer whose wife was young and alluring. The prepossessing woman was not satisfied physically by her aged husband and fantasized about young men. She hardly attended to the household chores and was perpetually looking for the company of youngsters to fulfil her carnal desires.

A trickster came to know about the guandary of the winsome one and seeing her alone went up to her uttering, "I am a widower. The moment I saw you I was ensnared by your voluptuous body. I beseech you to give me the pleasure of your company. However, I have very little wealth at my disposal." Delighted at the offer, the woman blurted, "O handsome one, my husband has plenty of lucre. He is old and infirm. I will embezzle the mammon and jewellery at our house and let us scoot from this place to some far away place where we can spend rest of our lives.

The stripling trickster possessing a chiselled frame became excited and asked the damsel to bring the loot and gold to a place where he would be waiting for her. "We will then leave the place as it darkens," he informed her. The farmer's wife waited till it was dark and when her husband fell asleep robbed the money and gold and left the house in the cover of darkness to meet her lover. The mountebank took the bag full of money and gold on the pretext that he would carry it and they began their journey. After travelling some distance, they halted as there was a river to cross. The hoodwinker pondered, "What do I do with this libidinous woman? If someone were to set his eves on her, he would perforce have to protect her. Let me scoot with the loot," he decided. His mind was cannonaded with all these thoughts, "Look, my dear, it would be arduous to cross the river. Let me first ferry the money bag to the other side of the river. I will come back and we can swim across to the other bank. The ludicrous woman gave the bag to the young charlatan. He requested her to give up her apparel as the clothes could hinder swift swimming. The naïve lewd woman agreed to the proposal. The youthful trickster was now left with the bag and her clothes. Covering her naked body with her hands, the woman began waiting restlessly for the deluder to return. Suddenly a jackal with a piece of meat in his mouth happened to pass by. The jackal happened to see a fish that emerged from the water and in attempting to grab it dropped the piece of meat and ran towards it. However, the fish, seeing the rushing jackal, jumped back into the water. Disappointed, the jackal went back to pick up the piece of meat. Unexpectedly a kite swooped and took it away before the jackal could reach it. The naked woman laughed at the jackal that had lost the fish and also the piece of meat. Hurt by the woman's behaviour, the jackal said, "You may be twice as intelligent as I am. But what is the use? You have lost your husband, your lover and your wealth too. The distraught woman realized her folly and entered a temple to pray for her sins as the priest draped her nudity and uttered, "Cover your nudity with the cloak of purity. Lust is ephemeral, Godliness is permanent." (The writer is the CEO of Chhattisgarh East Railway Ltd.and Chhattisgarh East West Railway Ltd. Paper leak: Call for fair and a political resolution -

Paper leaks are not merely procedural failures; they erode trust in the examination system. This matter transcends political divides and requires a systemic reform

he recent NEET paper leak has caused a stir in the nation. Paper leaks are a serious issue that must be addressed sensitively and apolitically. No government can condone such malpractices, and addressing them must prioritize fairness over political gain. This issue needs to be handled sensitively and free from political agendas. Addressing the root causes and implementing robust mea-sures are essential to ensure the integrity of the examination process and restore trust among students and their families. Paper leaks aren't new and have happened before. It's crucial to take this issue seriously and work on solutions. Understanding why parents and students are influenced by leaked papers and addressing these root causes will help maintain exam integrity and ensure a fair process.Instances of paper leaks have undermined trust in the examination system, leading to the temptation for guaranteed selection through illicit means. It is essential to stop this practice, implement stringent security measures, enforce strict penalties for malpractices, and ensure transparent and fair examination processes to restore trust and uphold the principle of merit-based success. We must remember that the National Testing Agency (NTA) was established as a premier, specialist, autonomous, and self-sustained testing organization to conduct entrance examinations for higher educational institutions The NTA is governed by a body consisting of esteemed members such as former UPSC Chairmen, Directors of IITs, NITs, IIMs, and Vice Chancellors of JNU and IGNOU, whose integrity should not be doubted. However, the issues lie at both the policy and execution levels, and solutions are needed at both levels. Here are some proposed solutions:For examinations with over 500,000 students, a two-tier filtering system should be used, including preliminary and main exams. If the number of candidates exceeds 2,000,000, a more rigorous three-tier system should be adopted: preliminary, main stage 1, and main stage 2 exams. The final merit list should be based on the average marks obtained in main stage 1 and stage 2.

This approach ensures a compre-hensive evaluation process, maintaining fairness and integrity by filtering candidates through multiple stages. Implementing this system would address the chal-lenges of managing large num-THE COLLABORATIVE bers of candidates and reduce the malpractice risk, leading to a EFFORT BETWEEN more reliable and credible examination process.It is important to THE designate certain cities or centres GOVERNMENT as sensitive or extremely sensitive, similar to how polling booths are identified by the Election AND Commission.

Each question should act as a hurdle designed to bifurcate and challenge candidates and comprehensively test their knowledge and skills. This approach ensures that only the most capable and prepared students succeed.A strong question bank, online testing, and AI-based proctoring can enhance the credibility of exams. Involving all teachers in contributing to the question bank and testing items for difficulty promotes participation.

Împlementing global standard cybersecurity protocols is essential to maintain the integrity of the examination process. Implementing biometric verification for handling question papers can prevent incidents like the NEET 2024 leak. Technological measures like constant surveillance, digital encryption, and secure transmission methods are crucial for ensuring fairness and security. The recent government notification of the Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Act on June 21 is a significant move to ensure the integrity of India's examination system. This Act introduces stringent penalties, including jail sentences of up to 10 years and fines of up to Rs 1 crore, for those involved in organized paper leaks and exam malpractices. It aims to combat examination fraud and restore public confidence in the examination process, clearly conveying that cheating and corruption will not be tolerated. This legislation deserves widespread support as it seeks to protect honest students' hard work and aspirations, ensuring a fair and transparent system for all. The grace marks system should be eliminated as it relies on subjective measures like answering speed and accuracy, leading to inconsistency and unfair advantage. Examination bodies should avoid awarding grace marks to ensure a level playing field for all candidates, maintaining the credibility and fairness of the examination system.

The government's prompt action in conducting NEET again for 1,563 students in seven centres is commendable. Recently, the CBI was appointed to investigate NEET irregularities and has been rigorously probing the entire examination fraud, leading to the arrest of numerous brokers, teachers, principals, and others involved in the wrongdoing.

This swift response demonstrates the government's commitment to maintaining the integrity of the examination process and ensuring a fair opportunity for all students. The collaborative effort between the government and investigative agencies like the CBI is essential in addressing such malpractices and restoring trust in the examination system. Focusing on creating and enforcing fair exam policies is essential rather than engaging in political finger-pointing. Opposition parties should provide helpful solutions for issues such as exam leaks and fraud, and we need to come together to solve these problems proactively. We must prioritize students' well-being and create a secure, transparent exam environment to support their academic and career goals, positively impacting the country's future. (The writer is a professor and a BJP leader; views are personal)

How Assange redefined the political terrain for modern whistleblowers

Julian Assange has become a symbol of the complex battle for press freedom and the protection of whistleblowers worldwide n recent years, the narrative surrounding whistleblow-Lers and their impact on press freedom has garnered significant global attention. Julian Assange, the founder of WikiLeaks, remains a prominent figure in this ongoing dis-cussion. His latest legal and personal developments provide a lens through which we can examine the broader issues of press freedom, whistleblower protection, and the intricate dynamics of state power.

Julian Assange is best known for founding WikiLeaks in 2006, a platform designed to publish classified, censored, or otherwise restricted information of political, ethical, diplomatic, or historical significance. WikiLeaks gained international notoriety in 2010 when it released a cache of U.S.

military documents and diplomatic cables, revealing controversial actions and policies of the U.S. government.

This move cemented Assange's reputation as a champion of transparency and press freedom but also made him a target of intense legal and political scrutiny.As of mid-2024, Assange remains detained in the United Kingdom's Belmarsh Prison, fighting extradition to the United Assange on charges of sexual

Pope to preside over interfaith meeting in Indonesian mosque

AP ROME

Pope Francis will preside over an interfaith meeting in a mosque in the world's largest predominantly Muslim country during a four-nation Asian visit in September that will be the longest and most complicated foreign trip of his pontificate.

The Vatican on Friday released the itinerary for Francis' September 2-13 trip to Indonesia, East Timor Papua New Guinea and Singapore. The packed schedule makes clear that the 87year-old pontiff, who has battled health problems and is increasingly reliant on a wheelchair, has no plans to slow down.

After a day of rest upon arrival in Jakarta on September 3, Francis launch-es into a typically rigorous round of protocol visits to heads of state and government, speeches to diplomats and meetings with clergy and public Masses.

Francis will be the third pope to visit Indonesia, after Pope Paul VI in 1970 and Pope John Paul II in 1989. About 87 per cent of Indonesia's 277 million people are Muslim, but the country also has Southeast Asia's secondlargest Christian population, after the Philippines, and the third-largest in Asia after the Philippines and China. In Jakarta, he'll preside over an interfaith meeting at the capital's Istiqlal Mosque, expected to be attended by leaders of the six religions in Indonesia that are officially recognised and protected: Islam, Protestant, Catholic, Buddhism, Hinduism and

Confucianism Francis is also expected to walk through a tunnel, called the "Tunnel of Friendship," connecting the grand mosque to the neo-Gothic Our Lady of The Assumption Cathedral, which was constructed by Indonesian authorities in 2020. As a result, the first leg of Francis' four-nation trip is likely to heavily emphasise interreligious harmony and tolerance, a theme he has hammered home on many of his foreign visits, especially to the Gulf and other Muslim majority nations.

Sprinkled in the mix in all four countries are encounters with young people, poor and disabled people, elderly people and Francis' regular meet-ings with his Jesuit confreres. The trip was originally planned for 2020 but was called off because of the COVID-19 pandemic. At 11 full days, it's the longest of Francis' 11-year papacy, out-pacing by a few days some of his long trips to the Americas and recalling some of the strenuous, globe-hopping trips of St. John Paul II.

It will bring the Argentine Jesuit to the world's most populous predominantly Muslim nation, Indonesia, as well as one of the world's newest countries, the former Portuguese colony of East Timor, where the Catholic Church wields enormous influence.

About 98.3 per cent of its 1.34 million population is Catholic, according to the 2022 census, and it's the Asian country with the highest proportion of Catholics after the Philippines.

Israel conducts military operation in West Bank city of Jenin, 7 Palestinians killed

AP JERUSALEM

Dalestinian authorities say P seven people were killed Friday during an Israeli mili-tary operation in the area of the West Bank city of Jenin, where the Israeli military said it had been carrying out "counterter-rorism activity" that included an airstrike.

The military said Israeli soldiers had "encircled a building where terrorists have barricaded themselves in" and the soldiers had exchanged fire with those inside, while an airstrike had "struck several armed terrorists" in the area. The Palestinian Health Ministry said a total of seven people had been killed, but did not specify whether they died in the exchange of fire or the airstrike. The Islamic Jihad militant group named four of the dead as its members. The clashes in Jenin, a known militant stronghold where the

The Palestinian Health Ministry says over 500 Palestinians have been killed by Israeli fire in the West Bank since the start of the war. Nepal PM Prachanda to face floor test on July 12 after key ally's withdrawal of support

PTI KATHMANDU

Nepal's embattled Prime Minister Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda', who lost support from two major alliance partners earlier this week, is set to seek a vote of confidence from the House of Representatives on July 12, it was announced on Friday.

The prime minister sent a letter to the Parliament Secretariat asking the latter to make arrangements for the vote.

In a letter addressed to the federal parliament on Friday, Prime Minister Prachanda mentioned that after one of the members of the ruling alliance withdrew the support to the government, he will seek a vote of confidence on July 12 under Article 100 (2) of the constitution of Nepal.

Earlier, Prachanda, 69, had announced that he would not quit after the resigna-tion of eight Cabinet ministers belonging to the largest party and instead face a vote of confidence in Parliament.

His announcement was prompted after Nepali Congress (NC) president Sher Bahadur Deuba and Communist Party of Nepal-Unified Marxist Leninist (CPN-UML) chairman K P Sharma Oli, both former premiers, inked a power-sharing deal on Monday night to form a new NC UML alliance government.

According to the understanding, UML chair Oli will lead a coalition for a year and a half. As per the understanding, NC President Deuba will be the prime minister for the remaining term of the present parliament.

The Nepali Congress, which is the largest party in the 275-member House of Representatives (HoR), has 89 seats, while CPN-UML has 78 seats. Prachanda's party, the Communist Party of Nepal-Maoist Centre (CPN-MC), has 32 seats.

The CPN-Unified Socialist (CPN-US) which has 10 seats in the Lower House, has said it will vote in favour of the Prachanda-led government. Despite that support, Prachanda enjoys support from just 63 members of the HoR.

He requires 138 votes for the government to win the vote of confidence in the House. This will be the fifth time Prachanda will seek a vote of confidence within a term of one and a half years. It is required for the coalition government to seek a vote of confidence within 30 days if a coalition partner withdraws support. Nepal has had 13 governments in the last 16 years, indicating the fragile nature of the Himalayan nation's political system.

They were gifted by Saudi Arabia's government in 2019. Cid later signed a plea bargain with authorities and confirmed it all. Two sources with knowledge of the case confirmed Thursday's indictment by Federal Police, which followed another formal accusation in May against Bolsonaro for allegedly falsifying his COVID-19 vaccination certificate. Both officials spoke on condition of anonymity because they weren't authorised to speak publicly. Brazil's Supreme Court has yet to receive the police report with the latest indictment. Once it does, the country's prosecutorgeneral, Paulo Gonet, will analyse the document and decide whether to file charges and force Bolsonaro to stand trial.

On X, Wajngarten said police have found no evidence implicating him. "The Federal Police knows I did nothing related to what they are investigating, but they still want to punish me because I provide unwavering and permanent defence for former President Bolsonaro," he said. Bolsonaro retains staunch allegiance among his political base, as shown by an outpouring of support in February, when an estimated 185,000 people clogged Sao Paulo's main boulevard to protest what the former president calls political persecution. His critics, particularly members of his rival President member of Mongolia's parliament, is unhappy with below cost electricity rates that she says show her country has yet to fully shake off its socialist past. Most of Mongolia's power plants date from the Soviet era and outages are common in some areas. Heavy smog envelops the capital Ulaanbaatar in the winter because many people still burn coal to heat their homes.

Beryl makes landfall on Mexico's Caribbean coast near Tulum

AP TULUM

Hurricane Beryl made land-fall on Mexico's coast near the resort of Tulum as a Category 2 storm early Friday, whipping trees and knocking out power as it came ashore after leaving a trail of destruction across the eastern Caribbean.

The US National Hurricane Centre said that Beryl is expected to rapidly weaken to a tropical storm as it crosses over the Yucatan Peninsula before it re-emerges into the Gulf of Mexico and likely regains hurricane strength.

Once in the warm waters of the Gulf, Beryl is forecast to head toward northern Mexico near the Texas border, an area had already been soaked by Tropical Storm Alberto just a couple of weeks ago.

Once the earliest storm to develop into a Category 5 hurricane in the Atlantic, Beryl spread destruction in Jamaica, St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Barbados in recent days. Shortly after landfall, Beryl's maximum windspeeds had decreased to 100 mph (160 kph), according to the US Hurricane Centre Mexican authorities had moved some tourists and residents out, of low-lying areas around the Yucatan peninsula prior to landfall, but tens of thousands remained to tough out the 100 mph (160 kph) winds and expected storm surge. Much of the area around Tulum is just a few yards (metres) above sea level.

The city was plunged into darkness when the storm knocked out power as it came ashore. Screeching winds set off car alarms across the town. Once a sleepy, laid-back village, in recent years Tulum has boomed with unrestrained development and now has about 50,000 permanent inhabitants and at least as many tourists on an average day. The resort now has its own international airport.

Early Friday, the storm's center was about 15 miles (25 kilometers) north-northwest of Tulum and was moving west-northwest at 15 mph (about 24 kph), the hurricane center said. On Friday, Beryl was expected to weaken as it crossed over the Yucatan peninsula and reemerge in the Gulf of Mexico, where the surprisingly resilient storm could once again become a hurricane and make a second landfall around Mexico's border with Texas next week. As the wind began gusting over Tulum's beaches, fourwheelers with megaphones rolled along the sand telling people to leave. Tourists snapped photos of the growing surf, but military personnel urged them to leave Authorities around the Yucatan peninsula have prepared shelters, evacuated some small outlying coastal communities and even moved sea turtle eggs off beaches threatened by storm surge

In Tulum, authorities shut things down and evacuated beachside hotels.

Tourists were also taking precautions. Lara Marsters, 54, a therapist visiting Tulum from Boise, Idaho, said "this morning we woke up and just filled all of our empty water bottles with water from the tap and put it in the freezer ... so we will have water to flush the toilet." "We expect that the power will go out," Marsters said. "We're going to hunker down and stay safe.

Fireworks light up skies across US as Americans celebrate July 4

AP WASHINGTON

Millions of people in the US celebrated and suffered under heat warnings as they flocked to beaches and travelled in droves to toast their nation's birth with July 4 parades, cookouts and the always anticipated fiery splashes of colour in the evening sky. In Washington, neon bursts of light illuminated the night above the National Mall. The Boston Pops performed a musical fireworks spectacular at that city's Hatch Memorial Shell. And at parades all across the country, revelers dressed up in red, white and blue and waved the Stars and Stripes in commemoration Independence Day.

Travel records were projected to fall with people jamming airports and crowding high-ways to reach Thursday's Independence Day celebrations, which will stretch into a long weekend for many. On the East Coast, some would-be beachgoers in Connecticut were turned away as parking at state parks along the shore filled to capacity, including a 2-mile (3 kilometer) stretch at Hammonasset Beach State Park — the state's largest shoreline beach. Across the West, meanwhile, residents dealt with stifling heat as the National Weather Service warned of a "significant and extremely dangerous" heat wave across much of the region. A heat advisory in Philadelphia that came with temperatures tipping into the 90s didn't stop crowds from gathering at historic sites in the city where the Declaration of Independence was adopted on July 4, 1776.Outside the National Constitution Centre, volunteer actors dressed in Revolutionary War-era costume made of heavy wool, despite the heat. Participants said it was worth it.

"It keeps you connected to your neighbourhood and where you live," said Adrian Mercado, who was donning a 6th Pennsylvania Regiment uniform.Evening fireworks were scheduled over the Benjamin Franklin Parkway, after a concert by Ne-Yo and Kesha.Fireworks crackled in backyard displays and an anticipated 16,000 professional shows were planned to light up the horizon from sea to shining sea. Millions of people were expected to watch the Macy's 4th of July Fireworks show in New York City, where cross rings, strobing comets, waterfalls and other effects can reach up to 1,000 feet (305 metres) in the air. Excited viewers crowded along both the New York and New Jersey sides of the Hudson River as dusk turned to dark, and they hoped rain would stay away. This is how we celebrate. It's the bombs bursting in air. It's the rockets' red glare. That's how people show their pride and patriotism," said Julie Heckman of the American Pyrotechnics Association. All signs pointed to big celebrations: The Transportation Security Administration reported that a record of near ly³ million people travelled through airports in a single day last week, a figure expected to be broken this week. AAA projected that 60.6 million people will travel by car dur ing the holiday period. Part of the boost was attributed to easing inflation, though many Americans remain concerned about the economy. On much of the West Coast, residents were advised to take precautions to avoid overheating on the holiday.

Hungary PM Orbán meets Putin for talks in Moscow

) ussian President Vladimir Russian resident in and Prime Minister Viktor Ŏrbán to Moscow on Friday for a rare meeting with a European leader to discuss peace proposals for Ukraine.

Orbán's visit comes only days after he made a similar unannounced trip to Ukraine, where he met with President Volodymyr Zelenskyy and proposed that Ukraine consider agreeing to an immediate cease-fire with Russia. "The number of countries that can talk to both warring sides is diminishing," Orbán said. "Hungary is slowly becoming the only country in Europe that can speak to everyone.

In comments at the beginning of their meeting that were televised, Putin suggested that Orbán had come to Moscow as a representative of the European Council, despite several European officials having condemned the visit.

The Hungarian prime minister, widely seen as having the warmest relations with Vladimir Putin among all

European Union leaders, has routinely blocked, delayed or watered down EU efforts to assist Ukraine and impose sanctions on Moscow for its actions in Ukraine. He has long argued for a cessation of hostilities in Ukraine but without outlining what that might mean for the country's territorial integrity or future security. That posture has frustrated Hungary's EU and NATO allies, which have broadly considered Russia's actions as a breach of international law and a threat to the security of countries in Eastern Europe. Putin told Orbán that he wanted to hear about the position of his "European colleagues" on Ukraine and discuss Moscow's plan for peace as well as bilateral relations. Orbán noted that the meeting was the fourteenth time the leaders have held bilateral talks since 2009. European officials and leaders have heavily criticised Orbán's visit to Moscow, something only one other European leader has done since the start of the conflict.

"This is about appeasement. It's not about peace," European Commission spokesperson Eric Mamer said Hungary at the beginning of the month took over the sixmonth rotating presidency of the EU Council, a largely formal role that can be used to shape the bloc's policy agenda. Orbán has said he wants to use the presidency to advocate for an end to the fighting in Ukraine

The EU's foreign policy chief,

Josep Borrell, said in a statement that Orbán's visit to Moscow "takes place, exclusively, in the framework of the bilateral relations between Hungary and Russia.'

"Prime Minister Orbán has not received any mandate from the EU Council to visit Moscow," Borrell said, adding that his "position excludes official contacts between the EU and President Putin. The

Hungarian Prime Minister is thus not representing the EU in any form

Hungarian Foreign Minister Péter Szijjártó also joined the trip to Moscow, according to a post on his Facebook page.

Speaking to Hungarian state radio before departing Friday morning, Orbán said he was aware that his country's presidency of the EU "does not entitle us to negotiate on behalf of anyone." It is considered particularly dangerous to the faith because Pope Benedict XVI's butler leaked the pontiff's private it threatens the unity of the church. By the time the letters were published, Benedict had transferred Vigano to be the Vatican's ambassador to the United States certainly a prestigious post but one that took him far from Rome and out of the running to one day be a cardinal. Vigano reappeared on the scene during Francis' 2015 visit to the United States, which as nuncio Vigano helped organize. Everything was going fine until Vigano arranged for Kim Davis, a Kentucky clerk at the center of the U.S. gay marriage debate, to be among a small group of people at the Vatican

Man who stabbed South Korea opp leader gets 15 years in prison the country's crucial parlia-mentary elections in April, Seoul (AP): A man who stabbed South Korea's opposition leader in the neck earlier this year was sentenced to 15 years in prison on Friday, court officials said.

The knife-wielding man attacked Lee Jae-myung, head of the liberal Democratic Party, South Korea's biggest political party, in January after approaching him asking for his autograph at an event in the southeastern city of Busan. After being detained by police, he told investigators that he wanted to kill Lee to prevent him from becoming South Korea's president.

The Busan District Court said the man was handed the prison term after being found guilty for an attempted murder and a violation of an election law. The court said that both the man and prosecutors have one week to appeal.

In parts of Afghanistan where there are no street names or house numbers, utility companies and their customers have adopted a creative approach for connecting. They use mosques as drop points for bills and cash, a "pay and pray" system. Rome (AP): Pope Francis will preside over an interfaith meeting in a mosque in the world's largest predominantly Muslim country during a four-nation Asian visit in September that will be the longest and most complicated foreign trip of his pontificate.

The Vatican on Friday released the itinerary for Francis' September 2-13 trip to Indonesia, East Timor, Papua New Guinea and Singapore. The packed schedule makes clear that the 87-year-old pontiff, who has battled health problems and is increasingly reliant on a wheelchair, has no plans to slow down. After a day of rest upon arrival in Jakarta on September 3, Francis launches into a typically rigorous round of protocol visits to the four countries' heads of state and government, speeches to diplomats and meetings with clergy and public Masses in each local tion. In Jakarta, he'll preside over an interfaith meeting at the capital's Istiqlal Mosque.

Sprinkled in the mix are encounters with young people, poor and disabled people, elderly people and Francis' regular meetings with his Jesuit confreres. The trip was originally planned for 2020 but was called off because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Francis had to cancel his last planned foreign visit a quick trip to Dubai last year to participate in the UN climate conference -- because of a recurring case of bronchitis. He has seemed in relatively good form in recent months, including during day trips to Italian cities and visits to Roman parishes.

Fierce fighting breaks out as militias launch new attacks it off to prevent the military

AP BANGKOK

 $N_{\mathrm{out}\ \mathrm{in\ northeastern}}^{\mathrm{ew\ fighting\ has\ broken}}$ Myanmar, bringing an end to a Chinese-brokered cease-fire and putting pressure on the military regime as it faces attacks from resistance forces on multiple fronts in the country's civil war

The Ta'ang National Liberation Army, one of three powerful militias that launched a surprise joint offensive last October, renewed its attacks on regime positions last week in northeastern Shan state, which borders China, Laos and Thailand, and the neighbouring Mandalay region with the support of local forces there. Since then, the Myanmar National Democratic Alliance Army has joined in, and by Friday, combined forces from the two allied militias had reportedly encircled the strategically important city of Lashio, headquarters of the regime's northeastern military command. This is the next phase of October's "1027" offensive, said Lway Yay Oo, spokesperson for the TNLA, which last week said the military provoked retaliation with artillery and airstrikes despite the cease-fire. "In phase two, our number one aim is the eradication of the military dictatorship, and number two is the protection and safety of local people," she said. Thet Swe, a spokesperson for the military regime, which seized power from the elected government of Aung San Suu Kyi in February 2021, accused the militias of putting civilians in jeopardy by restarting the fighting.

"As the TNLA are starting to violate the cease-fire, the Tatmadaw is protecting the lives and the property of the ethnic people," he said in an email to the AP, referring to the military by its Burmese name. There was no indication that the third ethnic armed organi-zation that makes up the Three Brotherhood Alliance, the powerful Arakan Army, has joined in the renewed fighting in Shan state, but its troops have never stopped fighting in its home Rakhine state, which was not covered by the Jan. 11 cease-fire.

The TNLA claims to have already captured more than 30 army outposts, and to now control the western part of Mogok, whose ruby mines make it a lucrative target. There is also fighting for the town of Kyaukme, which sits at a highway crossroads, and Nawnghkio to the southwest, which leads toward the major military garrison town of Pyin Oo Lwin along the same highwav

"That's where you need to cut as the militias took large from sending reinforcements," said Morgan Michaels, a Singapore-based analyst with the International Institute of Strategic Studies who runs its Myanmar Conflict Map project. In Mandalay, the region west of Shan, a local People's Defense Force — one of many armed resistance groups that have spung up in support of the underground National Unity Government, which views itself as Myanmar's legitimate administration — joined the TNLA's offensive.

Osmond, a spokesperson for the Mandalay People's Defense Force who would only give his nom de guerre because of safety concerns, said his and other local resistance groups have seized nearly 20 military outposts. The October offensive by the Three Brotherhood Alliance made rapid advances expanses of territory in the north and northeast, including multiple important border crossings with China and several major military bases. The alliance militias have close ties to China, and it's widely believed that the offensive had Beijing's tacit approval because of its growing dissatisfaction with the military regime's seeming indifference to the burgeoning drug trade along its border and the proliferation of centers in Myanmar at which cyberscams are run, with workers trafficked from China and elsewhere in the region.

China then helped broker the cease-fire in January, bringing the major fighting in the northeast to an end, even as other ethnic armed organizations and PDF groups launched their own attacks on regime positions elsewhere around the country.

Overall passenger vehicle registrations stood at 2,81,566 units last month, as compared to 3,02,000 units in June 2023. "Despite improved product availability and substantial aimed discounts at stimulating demand, market sentiment remains subdued due to extreme heat resulting in 15 per cent less walk-ins and delayed monsoons," the Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (FADA) President Manish Raj Singhania said in a statement. With the festive season still some time away, it is crucial for passenger vehicle Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEMs) to exercise caution, he stated.

onfident that India's bid the 2036 will be to host Olympics successful, Prime Minister Narendra Modi has urged athletes bound for this month's Paris Games to share their views on the arrangements in the French capital to help his government's ambitious plan to bring the quadrennial showpiece here.

In an interaction with Parisbound athletes, conducted both in person and online on Thursday, Modi said those travelling to the French capital would do the country a huge service by providing inputs from their experience.

Norris cleared the air with Verstappen when the friends spoke twice this week. 'I don't think he should apologize. New look India start their journey without Virat, Rohit against Zimbabwe new-look Indian T20 team would embark on a journey A of self-discovery without their constant talismans, Rohit Sharma and Virat Kohli, hoping to unearth their mainstays for the future in a five-match series against Zimbabwe starting here on Saturday.

CHANDIGARH | SATURDAY | JULY 6, 2024

Even as the euphoria of T20 World Cup triumph sweeps through the length and breadth of India, Shubman Gill, who was a reserve in that squad, will hit a refresh button along with a bunch of IPL performers.

All the fresh faces are expected to make their international debut during the series scheduled to be played entirely in the Zimbabwean capital.

Two young men, who are lined for debut could be Punjab's Abhishek Sharma, who had a stupendous IPL for Sunrisers Hyderabad and the young Assamese lad Riyan Parag, who has given ample demonstration of his capabilities as a competent T20 batter. Both of them tick all the boxes for this format.

While over the past few years, Rohit and Kohli have skipped a lot of bilateral series, especially in the shortest format, their international retirement from the format is bound to be felt more strongly.

the pioneer

The skills and quality that the two modern greats brought to the table will be hard to replicate but as it is the order of nature, the old guard has to make way for the new one. Zimbabwe certainly isn't the most formidable opposition but in T20 format, the gulf between sides is comparatively lesser than the other two traditional forms of the game. The hosts, led by the gutsy Sikandar Raza, who played for Punjab Kings in the IPL recently, could prove to be a handful on nippy afternoons at the Harare Sports Club where the ball will jag around during the afternoon starts.

Some solid performances in this series will keep these youngsters in contention for future when the first team players of the world champion side are back on national duty. Shivam Dube, Sanju Samson, and Yashasvi Jaiswal will be available from the third match onwards and some of the young men would only get a couple of games to prove their mettle.

In future, the likes of T20 captainin-waiting Hardik Pandya, his likely deputy Suryakumar Yadav, Rishabh Pant, Axar Patel, Arshdeep Singh, and Kuldeep Yadav will also be back playing the format and there won't be too many vacancies in the playing eleven. From now till the 2026 T20 World Cup in India, the national team will play 34 games in the shortest format.

While skipper Gill is expected to open, one needs to see whether his best friend Abhishek gets his maiden India cap or the seasoned CSK skipper and captain of the Asian Games gold medal-winning team Ruturaj Gaikwad ends up being the chosen one.

In case Abhishek opens, Gaikwad could come in at No.3 or swap positions with the Punjab southpaw. Parag's chances of a debut are brighter compared to Abhishek as he can bat at No. 4 in the first match, a slot he made his own for the Royals.

Rinku Singh, the designated finisher of the Indian T20 team for years to come, is expected to arrive at No. 5 in this new look line-up while one among Jitesh Sharma or Dhruv Jurel will bat at No. 6 while donning the big gloves. If one looks at selection pattern, Jurel was the second keeper behind Sanju Samson for this series and Jitesh was a late entrant because of the unavailability of the World Cup squad members.

Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board Limited

Shimla: The Board has issued a strong response to a video clip released on social media today by BJP MLA Sudhir Sharma on alleged irregularities in a tender in Himachal Pradesh State Electricity Board Limited. This tender is related to the adoption of smart grid technology in Solan, Parwanoo, Badi, Nahan and Paonta Sahib cities under the improvement of power supply in the IBRD funded project. The Board has said that whatever facts have been stated by the Hon'ble MLA in the video clip are incorrect and wrong.

The Chairman of the Board, Mr. Sanjay Gupta has clarified that the decision regarding the tender has been taken by a majority of all the members after a detailed discussion in the matter by all the members in the recently concluded Board of Directors (BOD) meeting. He has said that in the meeting, a member, Special Secretary Finance, had raised some objections in this matter, about which detailed information was provided to the member during the meeting and this proposal has been passed by a majority of seven to one and full information of the proposal has been provided in the proceedings of the meeting and the comments of the Special Secretary on 14 points have also been found to be baseless and against government rules. He informed that in this project, all the rules prescribed in the notification issued on October 29, 2021 by the Finance Ministry of the Central Government are being followed, which are about single tender. The central government is putting a lot of impetus pressure to complete this project within the time limit. In the absence of this project, the state will be deprived of this ambitious project and consumers will have to face problems. Expressing surprise at the allegation of allotment of a tender of Rs 175 crore for Rs 245 crore, he informed that from where did the amount of Rs 100 crore come in it, whereas according to the price index, the value of this tender has increased by only Rs 65 crore. In this tender, its price at the rates of Himachal Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (HPRC) is Rs 224 crore for the year 2023-24, whereas in the current financial year 2024-25, this tender has been approved for Rs 240 crore.
