DONALD TRUMPS KAMALA HARRIS

onald Trump was Wednesday elected the Unite States' President for a second term in one of the greatest political comebacks in American history, four years after an election loss in 2020 sparked a violent insurrection at the US Capitol. The 78-year-old Republican leader, convicted of felony charges and awaiting sentencing in a hush-money case in New York, defeated his Democratic rival Kamala Harris in a bitterly fought election.

According to races called by the Associated Press up to 7 pm (IST), 277 electoral votes had gone to Trump and 224 to Harris. Trump, the oldest person in US history to be elected president, crossed the halfway 270 votes-mark in electoral college votes with victory in the battleground state of Wisconsin.

Addressing his supporters at West Palm Beach in Florida, Trump declared his victory in the presidential election, calling mandate "unprecedented and powerful". "Many people have told me that God spared my life for a reason," Trump said, referring to the two

Amid cheers of his jubilant supporters and his family by his side, Trump declared that this will be the "golden age" of America. "This is a magnificent victory for the American people. This was a movement like nobody's ever seen before, and frankly, this was, I believe, the greatest political movement of all time. There's never been anything like this in this country, and maybe beyond," Trump said. "And now it's going to reach a new level of importance because we're going to help our country heal. We'll help our country...We have a country that needs help, and it needs help very badly," he said. Soon after projections indicated victory, Trump's congratulatory messages started pouring in from world leaders. including Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Minister Israeli Prime Benjamin Netanyahu, British Prime Minister Keir Starmer and French President Emmanuel Macron, for his "historic return to the White

After President Grover Cleveland (1885-1889 and 1893-1897), Trump is the only person to return to the White House for another term after a gap of four years. Trump served as President from January 2017 to January 2021. "We made history for a reason tonight, and the reason is going to be just that we overcame obstacles that nobody thought possible, and it is now clear that we've achieved the most incredible political thing," Trump said in his speech.

'I want to thank the American people for the extraordinary honour of being elected your 47th president and your 45th president," he said. "I will fight for you, for your family and your future." "Every single day, I will be fighting for you and with every breath in my body, I will not rest until we have delivered the strong, safe and prosperous America that our children deserve and that you deserve. This will truly be the golden age of America," said Trump, who wrapped up his speech with a playful dance to the song YMCA by the band Village People. The victory by Trump is being seen as a remarkable comeback after he lost the 2020 presidential election to Joe Biden, which seemed then to be the end of his political career. Trump challenged the election results and even indirectly urged his supporters to march on the US Capitol that reportedly triggered the violent attacks and clashes inside the seat of American democracy, sending shockwaves across the globe. In the following months, Trump unsuccessfully challenged the results in court. A grand jury found him guilty on 34 counts of falsifying business records. The Biden-Harris campaign said at the time that no one is above the law while Trump called the verdict the result of a "rigged" political system.

Look forward to renewing our collaboration: PM Modi

RAHUL DATTA ■ NEW DELHI

India and the United States' ties across the spectrum including commerce, strategic affairs and defence are likely to see a healthy boost with Donald Trump winning the presidential polls, as he shares a warm relationship with Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Prime Minister Modi was one of the first world leaders to congratulate "friend" Donald Trump on his 'historic" victory. In his message, Prime Minister Modi on Wednesday said he looks forward to renewing their collaboration to further strengthen the India-US Comprehensive Global and Strategic Partnership.

"Heartiest congratulations your historic election victory. As you build on the successes of your previous term, I look forward to renewing our collaboration to further strengthen the India-US Comprehensive Global and Strategic Partnership," Modi said in a social media post.

'Together, let's work for the betterment of our people and to promote global peace, stability prosperity," he said. The prime minister also posted pictures of his previous meetings with Trump, who was the US president from 2016-2020.

Both leaders share the same views regarding strategic co-operation and defence. They also shared a hard stance against terrorism, which strengthened ties,

CBSE cracks whip on 'dummy' admissions

n a crackdown on 'dummy' Ladmissions, the Central Board of Secondary Education Wednesday withdrew affiliation of 21 schools and downgraded six to secondary level, officials said. The move comes following a surprise inspection at the schools in Rajasthan and Delhi in September during which several lapses were found.

"The practice of dummy or non-attending admissions contradicts the core mission school education, compromising students' foundational growth. To address this issue, we are taking decisive action to combat the proliferation of dummy schools and send a clear message to all affiliated institutions to resist the lure of accepting dummy or nonattending admissions," CBSE Secretary Himanshu Gupta said.

He said the vital observations of the surprise inspection committees regarding the irregularities observed during inspections were communicated as a report to the respective schools. "The replies submitted by the schools were examined in detail by the Board. Based on the inspection findings and supported by videographic evidence, affiliation of 21 schools was withdrawn and six schools were downgraded from senior secondary to secondary level," Gupta added.

Abandoned at birth, miracle baby Krishna defies death

PTI PRAYAGRAJ KANPUR (UP)

In a tale of miraculous survival, an abandoned newborn found clinging to his life from the branches of a tree in Uttar Pradesh's Hamirpur in August has fought back from the jaws of death after surviving 50 wounds, including a deep animal bite, that dotted his tiny, fragile frame.

The boy, who was barely two days old when he was found abandoned in Hamirpur, has defied all odds to not only get a new lease of life, but also a new name - 'Krishna' - and most recently, a temporary abode, the government-run children's home in Prayagraj. Prayagraj district probation officer Sarvajit Singh told PTI that the "fully fit" child is now being properly looked after at the children's home, where he was shifted following the orders of the Bal Kalyan

(child welfare Samiti committee) in Hamirpur. Asked about the possibility of adoption, Singh said, "The profile of every such child is uploaded on the website of the Central Adoption Resource Authority. Whoever wants to adopt a child can apply on the website. However, the profile of this child is yet to be uploaded."

Before he arrived in Prayagraj, the paediatrics department of miraculous recovery in about two months, where his charming smile endeared him to the doctors and nurses alike. So it didn't come as a surprise when the medical staff of the hospital were moved to tears at the time of his discharge after a triumphant death-defying battle.

Kumar Arya, head of the paediatrics department at the GSVM Medical College, said in a statement. "Against all odds, this small and innocent baby endured unimaginable hardship, suffering multiple dog bites and scratch marks on his entire body before being mercifully rescued," Dr Arya said. The child was found in an abandoned field in Hamirpur district and later rescued by the police after being notified by the local authorities, he added. The child was "severely malnourished" and "in desperate need of medical attention" at the time of his rescue. The unfed boy had multiple infected wounds on his body and his cries could be heard from afar, Dr Arya said. "The child was admitted to the neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) on August 31.

Ballot-field heats up as key leaders | 2 lakh eligible landless beneficiaries to gear up for intense campaigning

s Punjab's four assembly Aseats — Barnala, Dera Baba Nanak, Chabbewal, and Gidderbaha — prepare for the November 20 by-elections, the political battlefield is set to ignite. Next week, major party leaders are expected to storm the campaign grounds, intensifying an already-heated race as they rally support, stake claims, and press home their agendas. With the ruling Aam Aadmi Party (AAP), Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), and Congress mobilizing, this fierce contest will determine the future of these strategic con-

BJP Heavyweights Leading

For the BJP, Gujarat's former Chief Minister and Punjab BJP in-charge Vijay Rupani has already arrived to coordinate efforts, meeting with local leaders to shape strategies. Over the next three days, he will traverse these constituencies to energize the saffron brigade.

Additionally, the BJP's list of 40-star campaigners is poised to launch rallies across these battlegrounds. Senior BJP figure and Union Minister Ravneet Singh Bittu, who has been actively campaigning in Gidderbaha and soon to be in Barnala, brings clout to the campaign, leveraging BJP's recent 18 percent vote share in Lok Sabha elections to boost confidence. With the Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) absent from the race this time, the BJP eyes the SAD's voter base, base formerly aligned with its 10year alliance with SAD until is vying for Dera Baba Nanak seat, and former Akali Minister Sohan Sisngh Thandal from Chabbewal. BJP's emphasis on experienced leaders signaled its strategic investment in these elections as a test of its expanding presence in Punjab.

AAP's Full-Court Press Led by Mann, Kejriwal

The ruling AAP, meanwhile, has also entered the fray with its signature vigour. Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann has been holding rallies across all constituencies, reaching out to constituents with promises of sustained development under AAP's Government. AAP's national convenor and Delhi's former Chief Minister Arvind Keiriwal is expected to join from November 9. Kejriwal's schedule includes campaigning in Chabbewal and Dera Baba Nanak on November 9, followed by Gidderbaha and Barnala the next day, further underscoring AAP's commitment to securing support and target undecided

Mann and Kejriwal aim to showcase the achievements of AAP's government over the past two and a half years, reinforcing AAP's popularity and appealing directly to voters with promises of continued development. This byelection is significant for AAP as it could consolidate their political standing, particularly since these by-elections have symbolic importance for the ruling government in Punjab. AAP has already placed constituency ground, ensuring Groundwork On the Congress front, local leaders are leading efforts with the support of the newly-formed strategic planning committee, coordinated by senior leader Pratap Singh Bajwa. The leader of the opposition in Vidhan Sabha, Bajwa has taken up a pivotal role as the committee's coordinator, alongside seven other senior leaders. Congress, in contrast to BJP's reliance on highprofile figures, has adopted a grassroots approach, focusing on strengthening its appeal among local voters. The party has established a committee of senior leaders to oversee campaign activities, banking on strong community ties and grassroots mobilization to sway voters. The grand old party has emphasized grassroots outreach over national influence, aiming to rally local

SAD's Absence Shapes the

While the Akali Dal has opted out of the race, its legacy remains a critical factor in shaping voter sentiment. In fact, its decision to abstain from these byelections has reshaped the competition. Having governed Punjab in alliance with the BJP from 2007 to 2017, SAD's withdrawal from these by-elections opens a vacuum — providing an opening for other parties to attract its loyal voter base. SAD's absence could potentially fragment its traditional voter base offering an opportunity for BJP to consolidate support. Although many SAD leaders and supporters reportedly desire a renewed alliance with the BJP, this election is an opportunity for the BJP to gauge the strength of its independent appeal in SAD's stronghold regions.

Additionally, the lack of SAD representation could influence how Sikh voters, particularly those who align with the party's panthic (religious) values, participate in this election. With campaigns in full swing, voters can anticipate an action-packed final stretch as party leaders rally on ground, making pledges and firing up supporters. As Punjab's four constituencies brace for the election day, the stakes are higher than ever.

Sikh scholars and intellectuals, was organized by Akal Takht Jathedar Giani Raghbir Singh at the Sri Akal Takht Secretariat with the meeting focusing on Sukhbir's being declared 'tankhaiya' — one who has violated Sikh religious codes - a status conferred on August 30 due to actions taken during his leadership from 2007 to 2017. Sukhbir's status as 'tankhaiya' stemmed from his alleged role in decisions that the Akal Takht believed harmed the image and interests of the Sikh panth (community). His actions during his tenure as SAD president and Deputy Chief Minister have been criticized for purportedly causing a rift within the Sikh community and leading to SAD's political decline. This designation marked a significant setback for Sukhbir, as it impacted both his religious standing and his leadership within the SAD, challenging his influence among While the Akal Takht has withheld specifics, a detailed letter from SAD dissidents highlighted controversial decisions that contributed to Sukhbir's tankhaiya status. Chief among these is his alleged involvement in securing an attempted pardon for Dera Sacha Sauda leader Gurmeet Ram Rahim Singh, who faced serious backlash within the Sikh community for imitating the tenth Sikh Guru in 2007. The attempt to seek forgiveness for Ram Rahim, seen as a blasphemous act by many, reportedly left lasting damage on the SAD's relationship with Sikh voters, especially in rural Punjab. Additionally, detractors accuse Sukhbir of insufficient action following the 2015 sacrilege incidents in Bargari, where sacred texts were desecrated — a pivotal issue in Punjab politics. As the Home Minister at the time, critics claimed Sukhbir's inaction deepened mistrust among Sikhs, who felt the sacrilege cases were inadequately investigated. These incidents, critics argued, not only undermined Sikh faith but also damaged the SAD's standing as a panthic (Sikh-centered) political party.

During the meeting, the Sikh scholars and intellectuals presented their views on Sukhbir's case, emphasizing the importance of holding leaders accountable to Sikh values, particularly those holding high office within the panth.

Jathedar Giani Raghbir Singh, along with Jathedars from Takht Sri Damdama Sahib and Takht Sri Kesgarh Sahib, stressed that discusaimed at gathering collective insights before making any formal decisions. The meeting represented a broader consultation process within Sikh leadership aimed at ensuring community sentiments are reflected in the Akal Takht's ultimate decision.

Akal Takht to hold further consultations to decide on punishment

The Akal Takht intended to continue consultations with other Sikh organizations, panthic entities before announcing Sukhbir's fate. The next phase of deliberation will involve the five 'Singh Sahibans' (the heads of Sikh Takhts) who may convene a conclusive meeting to decide on Sukhbir's punishment. Soon, the Jathedars (head priests) of all five Sikh Takhts are expected to convene, and Sukhbir Badal may be summoned to discuss further

Understanding "Tankhaiya"

In Sikhism, "Tankhaiya" status is given to those who have violated religious principles. This decision is made by Akal Takht, Sikhs' highest temporal seat. Once declared tankhaiya, individuals can request forgiveness in front of the Sikh community and have their actions reviewed in the presence of the Guru Granth Sahib, with punishments decided accordingly.

Receiving a 'tankhaiya' punishment can result in social exclusion, with Sikhs refraining from socializing, conducting marital arrangements, or participating in events at the individual's home. Recently, SAD decided four assembly segments in Punjab after Akal Takht clarified that Sukhbir Badal cannot campaign for his party.

for "Tankhaiya" According to Akal Takht guidelines, those declared 'tankhaiya" in the Sikh community often receive duties in Gurdwaras as a form of penitence. Such tasks may include cleaning shoes, washing utensils, or sweeping floors.

M oving forward in capacity building and crime control, Haryana Police have made significant strides by expanding its dog squad. The squad's strength has been increased from 36 to 63 trained dogs, each equipped with advanced training to aid in solving crimes and catching criminals. Director General of Police

(DGP) Shatrujeet Kapur on Wednesday said that from January to October 2024, the State Police Dog Squad contributed to the resolution of 24 cases, leading to the seizure of substantial quantities of nar-cotics. These include 24.45 kg marijuana, 17.18 grams heroin, 42.45 grams smack, 10.572 kg poppy husk, and 62 grams cha-

Kapur explained that the State Police utilise three types of skills: First is the tracker dogs that assist investigating officers in cases like thefts and murders. They are mainly labrador breeds and are managed by the state crime branch. The second is the explosive detection dogs used for VIP security and bomb detection at suspicious locations, these labradors are managed by the CID. And the third was the narcotics dogs, specialized in detecting drugs in various locations like buildings, vehicles, and open spaces, these dogs play a crucial role in narcotics control. Currently, State Police have a total of 63 dogs, with five deployed in the state Narcotics Control Bureau and 58 across all districts. Each dog is handled by a dedicated dog handler and assistant dog handler. The squad

Belgian Shepherds, German Shepherds, and labradors, all of which receive high-quality care and maintenance.

The narcotics dogs are acquired from specialised firms when they are three to six months old, undergo medical examinations, and receive a rigorous six-month narcotics training course before deployment.

After about 10 to 11 years of service, these dogs retire, at which point handlers and assisoption to adopt them. If declined, the dogs are placed with NGOs or organisations. The DGP said the importance of the dog squad in crime control, adding their training programmes are specially designed to improve detection skills and assist in bringing offenders to justice. The squad also performs demonstrations on Republic Day and Independence Day, showcasing the dogs' skills in crime prevention and public safety, DGP added.

Controversy erupts over BCAS order banning Sikh employees from wearing kirpan at airports

security or any other.

A fresh controversy has erupted in Punjab following a recent directive by the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security (BCAS) which bans Sikh employees at Indian airports from wearing the kirpan due to security concerns. Issued on October 30, this order has raised significant protests, with prominent religious and political figures condemning it as a violation of religious freedom.

The directive, which was communicated to airport staff just a day prior, has ignited widespread outrage. Shiromani Parbandhak Gurdwara Committee (SGPC), known as Sikhs' mini parliament, on Wednesday condemned the directives barring Amritdhari Sikh employees from wearing religious symbols, including the kirpan, while on duty at airports.

SGPC president Harjinder Singh Dhami called the move discriminatory, stating that it infringes on religious rights and undermines Sikh contributions to India's independence. He described the decision as a "push against Sikhs" and a violation of their religious rights. In a letter to Civil Aviation Minister Rammohan Naidu, he urged the Government to revoke the order immediately, asserting that such policies disrespect the Sikh community and its sacrifices. Dhami emphasized the importance of respecting religious freedom in India's diverse

'The Government of India should remember the sacrifices Sikhs made for the country's freedom. It is disheartening to see the very community that fought for this nation facing such discrimination on its own soil," he said, adding that policies infringing on religious sentiments should be avoided, and governments should uphold respect for the diverse faiths within the nation.

Takht Sri Damdama Sahib jathedar (high priest) Giani Harpreet Singh also voiced his strong opposition to the order, stating that the kirpan is a sacred symbol in Sikhism, representing both spiritual and physical readiness

He argued that forbidding Sikh employees from wearing it while on duty violates their constitutional rights to practice their faith. He further emphasized that such decisions had previously caused distress within the Sikh community, and he called for a more respectful handling of religious symbols.

The controversy is not just confined to religious circles. Youth Akali Dal (YAD) president Sarabjeet Singh Jhinjer has also criticized the BCAS order, describing it as an attack on Sikh identity and an infringement on the religious freedoms guaranteed under India's Constitution. Jhinjer urged both the Civil Aviation Ministry and the BCAS to revoke the directive, asserting that the kirpan is one of the five articles of faith (the 'Five Ks') central to Sikhism, and banning it would only perpetuate religious discrimination.

This is not the first time that

Sikh religious symbols have been at the center of airportrelated controversies. In 2022, the Ministry of Civil Aviation issued a similar order prohibiting Sikh employees from carrying kirpans at airports. After facing backlash, including from the Gurdwara Shiromani CommitteeParbandhak (SGPC), the Ministry had to retract its decision.

Historical incidents further highlighted the sensitivity of this issue. In 2017, farmer leaders traveling through Delhi Airport were stopped from boarding their flight due to their kirpans, with security citing safety concerns. Similar incidents have occurred in the past, sparking protests from the Sikh community, which claimed that such restrictions are rooted in a broader pattern

Religious groups, along with political and social organizations, are also questioning the need for such directives. The Amritsar Vikas Manch and Fly Amritsar Initiative have stressed that while security is paramount, it must not come at the cost of religious freedom. They argued that any policy should strike a balance between safety concerns and the rights of individuals to freely practice their religion.

In line with current regulations, Sikh passengers are allowed to carry kirpans on domestic flights within India, provided that the length of the kirpan does not exceed 23 cm (nine inches) and the blade is no longer than 15 cm (six inches). However, the new order barring Sikh employees from wearing the kirpan, while on duty, has only fueled further debate.

As the controversy continues to unfold, the Sikh community and its supporters are demanding that the government and aviation authorities rethink their stance, respecting both security protocols and reli-

AMITABH SHUKLA

A fter the pomp and show of Diwali where celebration is the key and materialism rules the roost, comes the festival of Chhath in which the devotees connect with the Supreme Being through tough rituals, strong belief, and solemnity. The festival and the vrat honours and remembers the natural forces which have been sustaining the human body, mind and spirit since the dawn of civilization. This is the country's only festival in which prayers are offered not only to the rising sun but also to the setting sun. The symbolism is inherent - never forget one who is down and out.

Unlike other festivals, there may not be any structured myth or tale associated with Chhath as it evolved naturally over centuries. It is a festival of prayer and propitiation observed with extreme solemnity. Spirituality is inherent in the numerous observations rather than celebration. It is the inner self and its purification which is the core of the festival. People observing the vrat, fast without food and water for 36 hours. The idea is to purify their body and spirit in the process. Only after all the numerous rituals are complete is the person permitted to have his food which reinforces their belief in nature and its numerous bounties.

Thanksgiving and seeking blessings from the forces of nature - Sun God, Mother Earth and the river (water) is the core of the festival. The people believe that the wish of a devotee who has followed all the prescribed rituals is always fulfilled Like other festivals, different devotees seek different meanings from the festival and have their own interpretations. For many, it is Chhathi Maiyya whom they honour, giving a feminine touch to the worship of the sun God. But the basic premise that nature is all powerful and human beings a small

It also reminds us of the days when human civilization was confined to the river banks and sustained itself only through the forces of nature. The strict discipline during the festival means that people go for a strict salt-less vegetarian diet cooked in earthen vessels a day after Diwali. The devotees sleep on floor and wear unstitched clothes. In the evening, in the midst of the setting sun, holy water and milk are poured into the river or a water body (argya), and blessings of God are sought for the entire family. The devotees stand in knee-deep water performing this ritual.

Interestingly, there is hardly any mythology behind the Chhat puja and there are no religious books that define how the puja has to be carried out. This has been traditionally carried over through the centuries by word of mouth and imitations, passing from one generation to the other without sing its essential meaning.

is its universality among all castes and communities among Hindus of Bihar and eastern UP. People living in those areas have taken this festival to wherever they live, in India or The offerings to the gods make it clear that twice in the year, at the time of harvesting season (Chait and Kartik) people thank their creator for providing them ample food. The offerings include thekua made of wheat flour, all seasonal vegetables, gram, coconut, lemon, sugar cane and milk. The offerings are made in new baskets made of green bamboo. Every activity and offering is natural, derived from the five elements of nature - earth, fire, sky, water and air - the five pillars of life. Chhat also is a symbol of Hindu philosophy which says that a person is made of these five elements and then dissolves himself in those five elements after his life cycle he pioneer

Trump wins hands down

Donald Trump makes a sensational comeback in the closely fought US presidential elections

he US presidential election is one of the most influential political events worldwide, with major implications not only for domestic policy but also for international relations, economic stability, and global security. In 2024, the election has been particularly charged, with significant issues driving the race. Though the counting is still on and the winner is yet to be officially announced but going by the trends, Trump has won and he has already claimed victory. Kamala Harris failed to perform in the swing states leading to her defeat. Trump's victory brings a mix of continuity and radical shifts in several key areas. The 2024 US election has revolved around several pressing issues which were important not only for the Americans but for the people across the world. High inflation rates and concerns over economic recovery post-pandemic have been at the forefront. Voters were focused on job security, rising costs of living, and access to affordable healthcare. Trump's stance included pushing for lower taxes, reducing government spending, and deregulation to stimulate growth, which he claims would address inflation and boost job creation. Another major issue that was widely debated was immigration. The debate over immigration intensified, with Trump advocating for stricter border controls and policies aimed at reducing illegal immigration. His focus includes building stronger physical barriers at the US-Mexico border and increasing enforcement, framing immigration as a matter of national security and economic stability. Besides, Healthcare accessibility and costs remain contentious topics. Trump in his campaign emphasised reducing healthcare costs and revisiting the Affordable Care Act. His approach included providing tax credits and fostering competition among providers, but it also drew criticism for potentially reducing access to affordable care for some citizens. Interestingly Trump has taken a critical stance on climate regulations, advocating for energy independence through expanded oil and natural gas production. His stance contrasts with those calling for robust climate action, as he argues that deregulation is essential for economic stability and growth. However the issue that is of utmost importance for the world at large is the US foreign policy. Foreign policy has emerged as a defining factor, particularly in relation to China and Russia. Trump's "America First" strategy focuses on reducing overseas military commitments and renegotiating trade agreements to protect American interests. This stance resonates with some voters concerned about national sovereignty but worries international allies and those advocating for a more collaborative global approach. However, Trump's victory may be well taken in New Delhi as he has had good chemistry with Prime Minister Modi and has supported India's stand. It would be interesting to see how Trump would steer international choppy waters this time as Ukraine war and Palestine issue would be two major issues he would need to handle immediately after assuming the office.

Hazardous Delhi air is putting lives at risk

As Delhiites face a significant decline in their health and life expectancy due to pollution, there is an urgent need for finding solutions to tackle this menace

elhi's air quality has reached dangerous levels, with the Air Quality Index (AQI) crossing into the "hazardous" zone shortly after Diwali celebrations. This post-Diwali spike is not new, as the city frequently ranks among the most polluted in the world. In early November 2024, AQI levels in Delhi surged to nearly 500 in some regions, a threshold considered extremely harmful. According to the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB), key areas in Delhi like Anand Vihar, Alipur, and RK Puram reported AQI readings above 300. This rise indicates severe pollution levels far above the World Health Organisation's (WHO) recommended safety limits, posing substantial health risks for millions of residents.

The AQI measures air quality on a scale that categorises air quality into six levels: "good," "satisfactory," "moderate," "poor," "very poor," and "hazardous." Readings above 300 signal critical pollution, while values over 400 reach the "severe" range. At such levels, exposure to fine particulate matter (PM2.5) becomes dangerous, as these minuscule particles can infiltrate deep into the lungs, affecting respiratory and cardiovascular health. The factors behind this annual pollution crisis are complex, involving both local and regional contributors. Delhi's high vehicular emissions, industrial output, construction dust, and waste burning are persistent contributors. However, during the harvest season, stubble burning in nearby states like Punjab, Haryana and Uttar Pradesh intensifies the problem. In October and November, farmers often burn leftover crop residue, producing vast smoke clouds that drift toward Delhi and blend with local pollutants.

Vehicular pollution is another significant factor, with over 15 million registered vehicles in Delhi alone. Despite policies mandating regular Pollution Under Control (PUC) checks, enforcement remains a challenge. Emissions from diesel vehicles and two-wheelers, which lack proper pollution controls, further degrade the air quality. Attempts by the public health and quality of life.

During high-AQI periods, particularly vulnerable groups, like children and the elderly, are advised to stay indoors to avoid severe respiratory and cardiovascular issues. Outdoor activities are restricted, with schools occasionally closed to protect students from toxic air exposure. Additionally, dense smog disrupts transportation, leading to frequent flight and train delays due to poor visibility. As residents increasingly rely on air purifiers to maintain indoor air quality, the economic and psychological impacts of Delhi's air pollution crisis only deepen.

In response to the deteriorating situation, the Delhi Government announced a series of measures to tackle pollution. These include developing green pathways, walkways, and open spaces along roads to reduce dust and improve urban greenery. Efforts are underway to enhance municipal waste management, including recycling 100 per cent of construction and demolition waste by 2025. To further manage waste, the Municipal Corporation of Delhi is establishing a fifth recycling unit in Tehkhand, capable of processing 1,000 tons daily. Biomining is also planned at major landfill sites, such as Oknia, Gnazipur, and Bhalswa, to excavate and treat years' worth of accumulated waste. Expanding public transportation is another goal, with plans to grow Delhi's bus fleet to 10,500 by next year, 80 per cent of which will be electric. This is accompanied by a focus on impounding older, polluting vehicles. Such measures aim to address longstanding pollution sources sustainably. Experts emphasize, however, that reducing air pollution in Delhi will require more than Government policies; public engagement and behavioral change are also

Why are women overlooked for leadership? It's time for a change!

Deep-rooted biases and outdated stereotypes frequently overshadow women's capabilities, despite evidence that women leaders enhance company performance and culture

n India, women are frequently overlooked for management and senior leadership roles despite their proven capabilities in both personal and professional settings. It's a complex issue often attributed to stereotypes, unconscious biases, and a society that still grapples with entrenched gender roles. Yet, if we pause and consider the day-to-day roles women play, particularly in an Indian household, it becomes evident that they possess an array of skills crucial to any organisation's success Imagine a typical day for a woman managing her household. She coordinates with household help, ensures that her family's needs are met, oversees children's schedules, and often also supports extended family members. Each of these tasks requires quick thinking, negotiation skills, empathy, and time management. Such daily acts of coordination and problemsolving are, at their core, management skills.

The inquiry at hand is, why do we fail to acknowledge these abilities when they are showcased in a professional setting?

Do these skills lose their validity simply because they originate from home-based experience? Many argue that women's ability to blend emotional intelligence with logical decision-making makes them especially adept at leadership roles.

Their approach is often holistic—they not only focus on completing tasks but also on nurturing relationships, fostering team morale, and ensuring that the process is as smooth as the outcome. Research indicates that companies with gender-diverse leadership teams tend to achieve better financial performance and foster a more satisfied workforce, conpany culture. Women bring different perspectives and problem-solving approaches, which complement male colleagues' styles. When women are given a seat at the table, companies gain a more nuanced understanding of their markets and customers.

And yet, despite clear advantages, women remain vastly underrepresented in senior roles. The reasons are rooted in a long history of gender bias. Women are often pigeonholed as too "emotional" or too "soft" for the challenges of executive positions, while men are assumed to be inherently more decisive and resilient. Yet, resilience is something that women exemplify every day—balancing multiple roles in a society that demands more of them both at home and at work. Change is on the horizon, with many organisations now actively working to bridge the gender gap in leadership. However, it requires a deeper cultural shift to truly unlock the leadership potential of women. Organisations need

Moreover, celebrating women's leadership styles rather than forcing them to fit into traditionally masculine roles can create more authentic, powerful leaders. The argument is simple: women already demonstrate essential leadership skills every day, whether in boardrooms or in households. It's time to recognise their contributions and give them the opportunities they deserve.

For any organisation that values growth, empathy, and resilience, overlooking women isn't just unfair—it's a missed opportunity. Let's champion a future where leadership is based on talent and vision, not on outdated biases. Women are ready for the challenge, and it's time we give them the space to

PAPER BALLOTS OVER MACHINES

Madam —In spite of being at the top of technologically advanced countries, the United States of America falls back on ballot paper voting to root out any suspicion of foul play stemming from voting through EVM. Over the last two decades, the United States has gradually moved back from electronic voting machines to paper ballots. Given ballot paper voting, unlike EVM, builds confidence among voters and opposition party members, it undoubtedly strengthens democracy. Another highly commendable step the USA election authorities have taken.

They have printed the ballot papers in all major languages of a state, depending on its demography. While a voter in New York can choose a ballot paper in Bengali instead of English, Chinese, Spanish, and Korean, voters in Illinois can opt for a ballot paper printed in Hindi. It also shows how a democratic country should honour the mother tongue of even those voters who have origins in different countries. These actions reflect the attitude of catering and prioritising the interests of the demos (people) above everything. India needs to get back to ballot paper voting without any delay. It must also be remembered that to impose a language ignoring the major languages spoken in a particular area flouts democratic principles. There is no room for the 'one nation, one language' policy in a multilingual democratic country like India.

Several reports, news, opinions and articles have been published in all the leading newspapers and magazines, as well as on social media. Though the issue of the caste census has not yet come under the judiciary's lens and scrutiny, the issue is a presser in desperation, as if the political class is failing to address the upliftment of the downtrodden, who genuinely deserve governments' welfare schemes with the entire society's helping hand. The demand of the caste census has been perceived as a tool for dividing society on the caste lines, and a counter has emerged, 'Batenge to Katenge,' which appears to have caught the nerve and put the caste census demand on defense.

THE ART OF HEALING

True healing must be comprehensive, nurturing both the physical and spiritual self

RAVI VALLURI

■ umans are creatures of their habits. I was addicted to smoking, drinking and consuming 'Gutakha'. It had become almost a quotidian habit and had taken a severe toll on my health. Ailments could be self-inflicted or they could be a professional hazard. In all such cases, the victim suffers physically and emotionally. The healing must be both physical and spiritual. I vividly recall how the Sri Lankan cricket team was a victim of terror and violence in Lahore. They underwent therapeutic care by psychiatrists and underwent several mind management and mental strengthening therapies. Similarly, the Tsunami victims of 2004, those affected by the 26/11 Mumbai terror strikes and the earthquake victims of Gujarat (2001) and Uttarakhand (2013) were revved up by the bouquet of self-healing courses by several spiritual organisations and professional help offered by numerous self-help groups. Such tragedies are traumatic experiences. Cities, towns, villages and settlements are razed to rubble.

I come back to my story, where like an ignoramus I started consuming liquor, ignoring all warnings. Thus, my moral compass fell prey to the predilections of a weak mind. It was at this time that my mother, a trained social worker, and a practitioner of Siddha and Pranic healing, refused to entertain my supercilious and specious arguments and extolled certain dormant virtues in me so that I could upend the pyramid. My mother was afflicted by repeated attacks of Paroxysmal Atrial Tachycardia (PAT). This is a type of arrhythmia (irregular heartbeat) that is accompanied by severe sweating, dizziness, palpitations, angina and acute breath-lessness. I had seen my mother suffering from this condition on several occasions and being admitted to the ICU. However, after undergoing the ten-day Vipassana spiritual sojourn, she recovered from the debilitation. She simultaneously learnt Siddha and Pranic healing, which augured well for her recovery.

These healing techniques along with proper medication and diet helped her in healing. This is the unbounded power and scientific attribute of the breath. Breathing techniques, meditation proper medication and diet are all healthy habits. These can change the traction of our lives and rejuvenate the body and mind. During 'Operation Parakram' our defence forces, after a protracted stay of more than a year at our borders, returned to their cantonments. The fractious behaviour of our unfriendly neighbour did not make them lose their sanity. It is not only the deaths, but defence personnel get maimed during such operations.

Further, their mental state becomes foggy and they become highly irritable. Mere administration of drugs does not act as a panacea. It is medication plus something more to revive their physical and mental bodies. As our defence and para-military forces work in hostile environments it is heartening to know that yoga, Vipassana and Art of Living Courses are conducted for them so that they can maintain physical and mental equilibrium. A soldier asked Gurudev whether he would become passive if he continued with his sadhana, to which Guruji responded, "Most certainly not." Further, he added that Gita Upadesh itself was revealed by Lord Krishna during the Mahabharata war. Arjuna regained the power of discrimination after witnessing the "Divine Spectacle." Be it an individual or a cricket team, those affected by environmental disturbances or our defence forces, all require continuous physical and mental healing to continue their journey. The mystic Rumi has succinctly said, "The wound is the place where the light enters you."

CoP 29: A pivotal moment to act on climate crisis

BKSINGH

With the upcoming CoP 29 summit in Azerbaijan, world leaders face mounting pressure to deliver on pledges for climate finance and reduced fossil fuel reliance to invite more frequent disasters.

Earth is already warmed by 1.2

ack-to-back hurricanes Helene and Milton originating from the Gulf of Mexico, that have battered the western coast of Florida in the United States have led to political debates and blame games ahead of the US Presidential election. The Republican team targeted the Biden-Harris duo for not doing enough to save lives and restore electricity. More than 200 people have perished in each of the hurricanes and also people have lived without electricity for more than 24 hours. Tropical typhoon Trami over the South China Sea claimed more than 150 lives in the Philippines, and 10 in Vietnam, injured thousands and damaged properties and infrastructures in both countries. Further, the deadliest flood in 50 years in Spain has also claimed more than 250 human lives. As against this, India's disaster management response during cyclones has been praise-

Whether it was cyclone Nisarga on our West coast in 2020 cyclone Fani in West Bengal in 2019, or the recent Dana in Odisha and West Bengal we have evacuated million of people on each occasion in a record time of 24 to 48 hours and as a result, there has hardly been any loss of life. Recent images from Valencia and other regions of Spain, last month's image from Italy where vehicles were swept away as roads became rivers, and before that similar flooding in France, Poland, Austria, and Czech are reminders of frequent flooding and associated misery to people. The global physics of fossil fuels has destabilised the world. The warmer the atmosphere gets; the more moisture it can hold. This would mean more intense downpours and longer drought.

In Spain, a year's worth of rain was dumped in half a day. While India's track record in dealing with disasters is good, what it should relook is its decisions to sacrifice natural forests for infrastructures, development projects and mining. Consumption of coal, oil and natural gas is swelling worldwide, despite leaders knowing that the surge in emission of greenhouse gases leads to increased warming of the planet and we face more destructive and frequent climatic catastrophes. Scientists are consistently forecasting that beyond 1.5 degrees Celsius warming, part of many countries especially island nations will be submerged in the Sea. United Nations Framework Convention for Climate Change (UNFCCC) has provided a forum for World leaders to meet annually and decide on actions to be taken to keep the warming within 1.5 degrees.

In the annual conference (CoP 25) in Paris in 2015 countries pledged their nationally determined contributions (NDC) to cut the consumption of fossil fuel and to develop renewable energy at speed and scale by 2030. Among G20 countries India is the fulfil the pledge. Donald 1rump as US President in 2017 refused to toe the line with the Paris Agreement and said that climate

If climate finance and loss and damage funds were made available, there was no need to cull threatened species and endangering the ecological security of the region further. The pledge regard-ing cutting fossil fuel consumption and transition to renewable energy especially by Western nations and China has been overlooked. There has been unprecedented growth in oil and gas drilling in the US and coal pro-

Biden and other European leaders are not on course to fulfil their commitment to bring down fosonly one, which is on course to sil fuel consumption by 2030 and acnieve net zero by 2050. China has pledged net zero by 2060 and India by 2070. Scientists are telling us to keep the warming within 1.5 degrees lest we face the consequences. 2050 and 2060 are far ahead and the question is whether we will be able to stand the disasters till annually has been agreed upon in ahead substantially, yet they need to step up their efforts.

Renewable energy transition should take place at such a pace that we automatically cut fossil fuel consumption. Countries' demand at Glasgow CoP 26 to 'phase out' fossil fuel did not have total acceptance and was modified to 'phase down' on the insistence of China and the support of India. Further at Dubai CoP 28 another phrase 'transition away from fossil fuel' was agreed upon. Irrespective of the phrases used in the CoP resolutions, leaders are only concerned about the growth and GDP and are not inclined to bring down fossil fuel consumption.CoP 29 is scheduled to commence in Baku, Azerbaijan on November 13th, when world leaders will again take stock of the situation and roll out further actions.

Unfortunately, the host country along with its neighbours Armenia and Georgia is experiencing relatively more warming as compared to the global average. While every nation should put in their efforts to cut emissions, India should have relook at the projects requiring the sacrifice of natural forests, whether for linear infrastructures in the Himalayas, in Western Ghats or deforestation of 130.75 sq km forests for great Nicobar Development projects.

India's track record for growing compensatory afforestation for the trees lost is very poor. Supreme Court recently threatened contempt against agencies for not taking up planting ten times the trees lost in the project. 3700 trees were sacrificed in 2015 for the widening of NH 123 Bharatpur Dholpur road and Apex court's condition to plant up 37000 trees has not been fulfilled

In an Op-ed published three days before the November 5 election, Harris recollected her frequent visit to India as a child and remembered her late mother, Shyamala Gopalan, a cancer researcher and civil rights activist.

"Growing up, my mother raised my sister and me to appreciate and honour our heritage. Nearly every other year, we would go to India for Diwali. We would spend time with our grandparents, our uncles, and our 'chitthis' (aunts)," Harris said in the article for The Juggernaut, an online South Asian publication. And she was one of only three Asian Americans in the Senate and the first Indian-American ever to serve in the chamber.

She has been likened to Barack Obama, the country's first Black President.

More than a decade ago, journalist Gwen Ifill called Harris "the female Barack Obama" on the "Late Show With David Letterman". Later, a small businessman from Willoughby, Tony Pinto, called her "a young, female version of the president".

She is considered close to Obama, who endorsed her in various elections, including that for the US Senate in 2016, Vice President in 2020 and the presidential election in 2024. Harris was born to two immigrant parents: a Black father and an Indian mother. Her father, Donald Harris, is from Jamaica, and her mother, Shyamala Gopalan, migrated to the US from Chennai in 1958. She, however, defines herself simply as "American"

After her parents divorced, Harris was raised primarily by her Hindu mother. She says that her mother adopted Black culture and immersed her two daughters — Kamala and her younger sister Maya — in it. Harris grew up cing her Indian culture proudly African American life.

"My mother understood very well that she was raising two black daughters," she wrote in her autobiography 'The Truths We Hold'. "She knew that her adopted homeland would see Maya and me as black girls and she was determined to make sure we would grow into confident, proud black women."

Harris was born in Oakland and grew up in Berkeley. She spent her high school years living in French-speaking Canada — her mother was teaching at McGill University in

"Harris was raised in a middle-class family by a working mother who taught her to believe in the promise of America. Her mother also taught her the value of hard work, bringing Kamala to her breast cancer research lab and showing her how to clean test tubes as a child," according to the Harris campaign website.

She attended college in the US, spending four years at Howard University, which she has described as among the most formative experiences of her life. After Howard, she went on to earn her law degree at the University of California, Hastings and began her career at the Alameda County District Attorney's Office. She became the top prosecutor for San Francisco in 2003 before being elected the first woman and the first Black person to serve as California's attorney general in 2010, the top lawyer in America's most populous state.

In her nearly two terms in office as attorney general, Harris gained a reputation as one of the rising stars of the Democratic Party. In 2017, she was sworn into the US Senate, where she championed legislation to fight hunger, provide rent relief, improve maternal health care expand access to capital for small businesses, revitalise America's infrastructure, and combat the climate crisis.

Harris is married to Douglas Emhoff, a lawyer, for the past 10 years. She is the stepmother of two children, Ella and Cole, who are her "end less source of love and pure joy."

Her role as vice president was more than just symbolic. Unlike her predecessors, she wielded considerable power during Biden's presidency. As president of the Senate, she set a new record for the most tie-breaking votes cast by a Vice President in history - surpassing one that had stood for nearly 200 years have been consequential.

World leaders hail Trump's 'historic' comeback

PTI ■ LONDON/JERUSALEM

ongratulatory messages poured in Wednesday from world leaders, including Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and his UK counterpart Keir Starmer, for Donald Trump after his "historic" comeback in the US presidential election.

Starmer was among the first world leaders to issue a congratulatory message soon after Trump addressed a rally in Florida to claim victory in the US presidential race.

He said the "special relationship" between the UK and the US would continue to prosper under the new American administration after Trump clinched crucial battleground states in

According to races called by the Associated Press up to 4 pm (IST), 277 electoral votes had gone to Republican candidate Trump and 224 to Democratic Party's Kamala Harris.

"Congratulations President-elect Trump on your historic election victory. I look forward to working with you in the years ahead," Starmer said in a statement released by 10 Downing Street in London.

"As the closest of allies, we stand shoulder to shoulder in defence of our shared values of freedom, democracy and enterprise. From growth and security to innovation and tech, I know that the UK-US special relationship will continue to prosper on both sides of the Atlantic for years to come," he said. Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu congratulated Trump for his "historic return to the White House".

Addressing Trump and his wife Melania Trump, Netanyahu in a post on X said, Congratulations on history's greatest comeback! Your historic return to the White House offers a new beginning for America and a powerful recommitment to the great alliance between Israel and America. This is a huge victory!" Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese congratulated Trump on his "election victory".

"Australians and Americans are great friends and true allies. Working together, we can ensure the partnership between our nations and peoples remains strong into the future," he posted on X.

French President Emmanuel Macron in a post on X said, "Ready to work together as we were able to do during four years. With your convictions and mine. In respect and ambition. For more peace and prosperity."

Ukraine President Volodymyr
Zelensky congratulated Trump on his "impressive" election victory.

Recalling his "great meeting" with the Republican leader in September during which they discussed "the Ukraine-US strategic partnership, the Victory Plan, and ways to put an end to Russian aggression against Ukraine", Zelenskyy in a post on X said he appreciated Trump's commitment to the "peace through strength" approach in global affairs.

This is exactly the principle that can practically bring just peace in Ukraine closer. I am hopeful that we will put it into action together. We look forward to an era of a strong United States of America under President Trump's decisive leadership. We rely on continued strong bipartisan sup-port for Ukraine in the United States.

Congratulating Trump, Italian Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni said Italy and the US are "sister" nations, linked by an unshakable alliance, common values, and a historic friendship.

"It is a strategic bond, which I am sure we will now strengthen even further," she said in a post on X.

European Union Commission President Ursula von der Leyen in a post on X congratulated Trump and underlined that the EU and the ÛS are "more than just allies".

We are bound by a true partnership between our people, uniting 800 million citizens. So let's work together on a strong transatlantic agenda that keeps delivering for them," she said. Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban said Trump's win is the "biggest comeback" in US political history and is "a much-needed victory for the World".

No information on whether Putin will congratulate Trump

Ahead of the presidential race call, Kremlin spokesperson Dmitry Peskov said he had no information on whether Russian President Vladimir Putin plans to congratulate Donald Trump but emphasised that Moscow views the US as an "unfriendly" country. Peskov reaffirmed the Kremlin's claim that the US support for Ukraine amounted to its involvement in the conflict, telling reporters: "Let's not forget that we are talking about the unfriendly country that is both directly and indirectly involved in a war against our

Asked if Putin's failure to congratulate Trump could hurt ties, Peskov responded that Russia-US relations already are at the "lowest point in history," adding that it will be up to the new US leadership to change the situation.

He noted Putin's statements about Moscow's readiness for a "constructive dialogue based on justice, equality and readiness to take mutual concerns into account."

Peskov noted Trump's campaign statements about his intention to end wars. saying that "those were important statements, but now after the victory while getting ready to enter the Oval Office or entering the Oval Office, statements could sometimes change."

Republicans get Senate majority

AP WASHINGTON

Republicans seized control of the US Senate late Tuesday after flipping Democratic held seats, holding onto GOP incumbents and wresting away the majority for the first time in four years.

The unexpected battleground of Nebraska pushed Republicans over the top. Incumbent GOP Sen Deb Fischer brushed back a surprisingly strong challenge from independent newcomer Dan Osborn.

Democrats watched their efforts to salvage their slim majority slip out of reach as tallies rolled in across a map that favoured Republicans. Early in the night, Republicans flipped one seat in West Virginia, with the election of Jim Justice, who easily replaced retiring Sen Joe Manchin. Democratic efforts to oust firebrand Republicans Ted Cruz of Texas and Rick Scott of Florida collapsed. While Texas hasn't elected a 30 years, Colin Allred, a Dallas-area congressman and former NFL linebacker, positioned himself as a moderate and leaned into his support for reproductive rights amid Texas' abortion ban, which is one of the strictest in the nation.

Cruz's victory came after Democratic efforts to salvage their Senate majority evaporated when Democratic Sen Sherrod Brown in Ohio lost his reelection to Republican Bernie Moreno, a wealthy Trump-era newcomer.

Brown's loss to Moreno, an immigrant from Bogota, Colombia, who built a fortune as a luxury car dealer and blockchain entrepreneur, puts the Democrats on the edge of losing Senate control. A threeterm senator, he is the first incumbent to lose reelection. The Ohio race between Brown and Moreno, who was backed by Donald Trump, is the most expensive of the cycle, at some $400 million.

With control of Congress at stake, the contests for the House Senate will determine which party holds the majori- never before have two served at presidential election.

ty and the power to boost or block a president's agenda, or if the White House confronts a divided Capitol Hill.

The focus now turns to the Democratic "blue-wall" states of Pennsylvania, Michigan and Wisconsin, where Democrats are fighting to protect seats in what's left of their slim hold on the Senate. In the end, just a handful of seats, or as little as one, could tip the balance in either chamber. With a 50-50 Senate, the party in the White House determines the majority, since the vice president is a tie-breaker. Already several states will send history-makers to the Senate. Voters elected two Black women to the Senate, Democrat Lisa Blunt Rochester of Delaware and Democrat Angela Alsobrooks of Maryland, in a historic first. Blunt Rochester won the open seat in her state while Alsobrooks defeated Maryland's popular former governor, Larry Hogan. Just three Black women the same time. And in New Jersey, Andy Kim

Iran's currency at all-time low as Trump wins

AP TEHRAN

Iran's currency fell on Wednesday to an all-time low as Donald Trump clinched the US presidency again, sig-nalling new challenges ahead for Tehran as it remains locked in the wars raging in the Middle East.

The rial traded at 703,000 rials to the dollar, traders in Tehran said. The rate could still change throughout the day. Iran's Central Bank could flood the market with more hard currencies as an attempt to improve the rate, as it has done in the past.

The slide comes as the rial already faces considerable woes over its sharp slide in value and as the mood on the streets of Tehran among some dark-

"One-hundred per cent he will intensify the sanctions," said student. "Things that are not in our favour will be worse. Our economy and social situation will surely get worse." He added: "I feel the country is going to blow up."

In 2015, at the time of Iran's nuclear deal with world powers, the rial was at 32,000 to USD 1. On July 30, the day that Iran's reformist President Masoud Pezeshkian was sworn in and started his term, the rate was 584,000 to USD 1.

Trump unilaterally withdrew America from the accord in 2018, sparking years of tensions between the countries that persist today.

Iran's economy has struggled for years under crippling international sanctions over its rapidly advancing nuclear program, which now enriches uranium at near weapons-grade levels.

Pezeshkian, elected after a helicopter crash killed hard-line President Ebrahim Raisi in May, came to power on a promise to reach a deal to ease Western sanctions.

However, Iran's government has for weeks been trying to downplay the effect on Tehran of whoever won Tuesday's election in the United States. That stance continued on Wednesday with a brief comment from Fatemeh Mohajerani, a spokeswoman for Pezeshkian's administration.

"The election of the US president doesn't have anything specifically to do with us," she said. "The major policies of America and the Islamic Republic are fixed, and they won't heavily change by people replacing others. We have already made necessary preparations in advance." By midday Wednesday in the Middle East, Donald Trump was elected the 47th president of the United States in a remarkable political comeback. Tensions still remain high between the nations, 45 years after the 1979 US Embassy takeover and 444-day hostage crisis that followed.

Six Indian Americans taste success me to take on the toughest Representatives. Shri Thanedar

Six Indian Americans have won the elections to the House of Representatives, increasing their number from five in the current Congress. Indian-American lawyer Suhas Subramanyam created history by becoming the first from the community to be elected from Virginia and the entire East Coast.

Subramanyan defeated Mike Clancy of the Republican Party. He is currently a Virginia State Senator. There is a possibility that the number of Indian Americans in the House of Representatives could increase to seven as Dr Amish Shah was leading by a slender margin against his Republican incumbent in the first Congressional District of Arizona.

"I am honoured and humbled that the people of Virginia's 10th District put their trust in fights and deliver results in Congress. This district is my home. I got married here, my wife Miranda and I are raising our daughters here, and the issues our community faces are personal to our family. It is an honour to continue serving this district in Washington, Subramanyam said. Subramanyam, who previously served as a White House Ádvisor to President Barack Obama, is a Hindu by faith and is popular among Indian Americans nationwide.

European leaders seek common future at summit but all eyes on Washington

AP BUDAPEST

Dozens of European leaders will be gingerly seeking to chart a more common future during a one-day summit in Hungary's capital on Thursday. Yet despite myriad economic challenges and two wars in the neighborhood, all eyes will be glued on Washington to see whether the pivotal US election will cause a political rift throughout the continent. ## Russia ratifies N Korea military alliance pact

10,000 North Korean troops deployed to Kursk: US

The upper house of Russian parliament on Wednesday ratified a treaty with North Korea envisioning mutual military assistance, a move that comes as the US has confirmed the deployment of 10,000 North Korean troops to The "comprehensive strategic partnership treaty," which Russian President Vladimir Putin signed with North Korean leader Kim Jong Un on a visit to Pyongyang in June, obliges Russia and North Korea to immediately provide military assistance using "all means" if either is attacked. It marked the strongest link between Moscow and Pyongyang since the end of the State Duma, on Oct 24. On Monday, US State Department spokesperson Matthew Miller told reporters that up to 10,000 North Korean soldiers were in Russia's Kursk region and were preparing to join Moscow's fight against Ukraine in the coming days. If they engage in combat, it would be North Korea's first participation in a large-scale conflict since the end of the 1950-53 Korean Moscow and Pyongyang have responded vaguely to South Korean and Western claims of the North Korean troop deployment to Russia, emphasizing that their military cooperation conforms with interna-tional law, without directly admitting the presence of the North's forces in Russia.

On Monday, Putin met with North Korean Foreign Minister Choe Son Hui, who was on an official visit to Russia since late last week. During her talks with Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Layrov, Choe reiterated Pyongyang's support "for the just fight of Russia's military and people to defend their country's sovereign rights and security interests" in Ukraine. Russia and North Korea have previously rejected assertions by the US and its allies that Pyongyang has given Moscow ballistic missiles and millions of artillery shells for use in Ukraine.

South Korean and Western officials voiced concerns about Russia's possible transfer of technology to North Korea to enhance its nuclear and missile programmes in exchange for its troops. On Tuesday, North Korea fired a barrage of short-range ballistic missiles into the sea in a demonstration of its military capability hours before the US presidential election.

Yoav Gallant in a surprise announcement that sparked protests across the country. Gallant's replacement is Foreign Minister Israel Katz, a longtime Netanyahu lovalist and veteran Cabinet minister.

While Netanyahu has called for continued military pressure on Hamas, Gallant said military force created the necessary conditions for at least a temporary diplomatic deal that could bring home hostages held by the militant group. The Israel-Hamas war began after Palestinian militants stormed into Israel on Oct 7, 2023, killing some 1,200 people — mostly civilians — and them back to Gaza as hostages. Israel's military response in Gaza has killed more than 43,000 people, Palestinian health officials say. They do not distinguish between civilians and combatants, but say more than half of those killed were women and children.

Since the conflict between Israel and Hezbollah erupted in 2023, at least 3,000 people have been killed and some 13,500 have been wounded in Lebanon, about a quarter of them women and children, the Health Ministry reported. A report by Lebanon's crisis response unit said that 361,300 Syrians and over 177,800 Lebanese have crossed into Syria between Sept 23 and Nov 1, to escape the fighting.

Hezbollah continues to send dozens of rockets and drones towards Israel. The projectiles have killed 72 people in Israel so far, including 30 soldiers, according to Netanyahu's office.

On Wednesday, sirens blared across northern and central Israel, including in the populous metropolitan area of Tel Aviv, as Hezbollah launched 10 rockets towards Israel. Israel's Magen David Adom rescue services said there were no reports of injuries.

A large portion of a rocket slammed into a parked car in the central Israeli city of Raanana. Rockets also struck an open area near Israel's main airport, Israeli media reported, though the airport said flights were operating as normally. Israel's Magen David Adom rescue services said there were no injuries. Israeli police said they arrested 40 people during protests on Tuesday night when the demonstrators blocked Israel's main highway in Tel Aviv. Another night of protests was planned across Israel on . Wednesday evening, over Gallant's firing. Netanyahu and Gallant have repeatedly been at odds over the war in Gaza but the prime minister had avoided letting go of his rival before the US presidential election on Tuesday.

By midday Wednesday in the

Incoming data on GDP growth mixed but positives outweigh negatives: Reserve Bank Governor

Reserve Bank Governor Wednesday said the incoming data on economic growth is "mixed", but the positive factors outweigh the negative

Speaking at Business Standard's annual BFSI event here, Das stressed that the underlying economic activity by and large remains strong. "Data which is coming in is mixed but the positives outweigh the negatives and by and large underlying activities remain strong," Das said.

It can be noted that many analysts have been voicing concerns about growth, especially after official data showed growth slowing to a 15-quarter low of 6.7 per cent in the first quarter of FY25. The RBI, however, has been holding onto its estimate of 7.2 per cent real GDP growth for FY25, even as some expect it to be lower than 7 per cent. Das said the RBI tracks over 70 high-speed indicators to arrive at its estimates and described both the positive factors pushing the number and the negatives pulling it

The industrial production or way bills, toll collections, air IIP data, and moderation in passenger traffic, and steel

Besides, subsidy outgoes have increased in the September quarter and will impact the Q2 GDP number, Das said. "I would not rush to declare that the economy is slowing down," the RBI governor said amid some analysts saying that the economy is in a cyclical growth slowdown.

When reminded of his animal analogies on inflation and asked to choose the animal which describes the Indian economy, Das said national animal "tiger" which is also there in the RBI logo best reiterated that the RBI has "corrective" in nature wherein and the ability to sustain the describes the country.

RBI provides the "agility", which is another key attribute of the tiger.

On inflation, Das said the October headline consumer price inflation number to be announced on November 12 be higher than September's 5.5 per cent, but added that the central bank had already pencilled in the higher numbers for the two months. The shift in stance of the monetary policy should not be seen as a precursor to a rate cut at the very next meeting of the rate-setting panel, Das said adding that the panel is under no pressure on the next course of action.

On the issue of regulatory and supervisory actions against four non-banks recently, Das

It is only when an entity refuses or delays RBI's suggestions that such actions are taken, Das said, adding that the number of entities marked out for the need to improve is far higher than the ones against whom actions are taken.

The RBI has done a quick study to understand the use of borrowed funds deployed to punt on the capital markets, Das said and added that this phenomenon does not pose a major risk to the banking sector or lead to "systemic instability".

He urged banks to look at the end use of funds even in unsecured loans, admitting that it is very difficult to monitor the same.

The RBI does not have a prescribed credit deposit ratio for the banks, Das said, adding that this ratio has improved to 80 per cent at the systemic level in the last few months. However, there are a few entities which are the outliers on this, he admitted. Quality of loan underwriting

The RBI endeavours to "smell around" constantly, and be preemptive in identifying and rectifying risks before they become into systemic trouble,

Replying to a question on the future of central bank digital currency (CBDC), Das said the RBİ is in no hurry to have a national launch of what is a pilot project at present and added that new use cases are emerging like Odisha's transfer of cash support to beneficiaries under a scheme or some transferring corporates lunch vouchers to employee

ristiano Ronaldo scored the second Ugoal as Al-Nassr defeated defending champion Al-Ain of the United Arab Emirates 5-1 in the AFC Champions League Elite to put Saudi Arabian teams in the top three places in the 12-team

Al-Nassr has 10 points from four games, two behind local rivals Al-Hilal and Al-Ahli who both have a perfect record with

Anderson Talisca opened the scoring in Riyadh after just five minutes with a shot into the bottom corner from the edge of the area. Ronaldo then netted his second goal of this season's competition from close range just after the half-hour mark after goalkeeper Khalid Eisa could only parry Sadio Mane's shot from outside the oco Gauff earned her Csecond victory over Iga Swiatek in 13 career matchups, winning 6-3, 6-4 at the WTA Finals to reach the semifinals season-ending of the tournament.

Wesley and Talisca added late goals for Al-Nassr to cement the Saudi dominance of the western zone's group. The top eight from each of the two groups progress to the knockout stages.

It was Gauff's first victory over Swiatek since the 2023 Cincinnati Open, snapping a four-match losing skid head-to-head. Gauff, the 2023 U.S.

Open champion, also put an end to five-time Grand Slam champ Swiatek's six-match unbeaten run at the WTA Finals, an event the Polish star won a year ago.

Manas Dhamne can become Mr. Dependable of Indian tennis: Davis Cup coach Ashutosh Singh

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Manas Dhamne could be the answer to Indian tennis' desperate search for 'Mr Dependable', reckons new Davis Cup coach Ashutosh Singh, who is mighty impressed with the teenager's diligent approach workmanlike attitude.

Ashutosh, who replaced Zeeshan Ali as coach, observed the youngster from Malegaon in Stockholm, where India competed in the Davis Cup Group I tie against Sweden. Dhamne, 16, did not get to play a match but was part of the squad that travelled to Stockholm along with another youngster, Aryan Shah. It was a clear sign that the team management and the selectors wanted Dhamne and Shah to have the Davis Cup experience, what it means to be with the national squad and what it takes to represent the country at the World Cup of tennis.

While India were bested 0-4 by the hosts, coach Ashutosh chose to see a silver lining in the forgettable outing in

"Manas is a quintessential hard worker with a workman like attitude," said Ashutosh, who is son of former Davis Cupper

"He just makes eye contact and nods 'ok' for any on-court work he's asked to do. He has Dependable in singles that Indian tennis has long been searching remarked for," Ashutosh.

"Of course it's miles to go but the road he's taken looks possible with his diligent approach. One has to keep in mind that Manas is only 16 and does need careful supervision in certain aspects of his workload management but it seems he's in experienced hands at his training base in India have just one player in top-100 in Sumit Nagal (83) and the next best is Ramkumar Ramanathan, way behind at number 309, followed by Sasi Kumar Mukund (365). All others are outside the top-500

Center in Bordighera. Dhamne made a quick potential to become the Mr impression when he won the singles titles at the ITF Asia-championships in 2022, becoming the youngest Indian to win the prestigious event at the age 14 years and nine months.

A year later, he was given a wild card by the MSLTA for the Tata Open Maharashtra, the ATP250 event, and again he impressed with his baseline game and range of strokes against American Mihale Mmoh, who was ranked 113

In the season 2024, Dhamne has consistently competed on the ITF Men's Tour. He himself has not vet broken into top-1000 but already has wins over Nicholas David Ionel (378) Japanese veteran Tatsuma Ito (top-60 a few years back) and Vlad Dancu Romania's (ranked 565)

Ashutosh said India may have lost badly in Sweden but not everything was bleak.

"The main thing is to keep the main thing as the main thing. I want to bring to the forefront

"Aryan is hard working and a quick learner with an enterprising head on his shoulders. Being inquisitive is a good indication of the eagerness of a young mind to learn, Aryan definitely checks that box. "Alongside Manas, he brings much-needed unbridled energy of youth into the team. Having played all four junior grand slams in singles, he has foundation of top tier exposure to firmly understand the points of his game he needs to work on? Ashutosh had an interesting take on how India's junior players approach the domestic tournaments. He said it was worrying that many players, equipped with talent and the game, were not succeeding, simply because they were burning themselves out by playing more tournaments than necessary. "Till U12, players shouldn't play more than 12 weeks. U14 because each player plays two age groups, and they end playing almost 30-40 weeks per year. So, there is no time for working on the game and

Standout boxing nation at Paris Olympics joins new body aiming to keep the sport at 2028 Games

AP LAUSANNE

The most successful boxing 1 nation at the Paris Olympics has joined the new governing body that aims to keep the sport in the 2028 Los Angeles Games after years of turmoil outside the ring.

The boxing federation of Uzbekistan, whose fighters won five of the 13 gold medals in Paris this year, is among four new members of World Boxing, said the Switzerlandbased body that is trying to win formal recognition by the International Olympic Committee. The IOC has set a deadline of "early 2025" to work with a new governing body replacing the Russian-led International Boxing Association, which was banished from the Olympic movement last year.

In a years-long dispute with the IBA over finance and integrity concerns, the IOC has overseen boxing tournaments at the past two Olympics in Paris and Tokyo but does not want to organize for a third time in Los Angeles. The dispute intensified in 2018 when boxing officials defied IOC warnings and elected Uzbek businessman Gafur Rahkimov as their leader.

The IOC recently warned boxing federations that stay loyal to the IBA, now led by Russian Umar Kremlev, they will be cut off from funding and liaison with their national Olympic committee effectively blocking their path to the 2028 Summer Games. "The addition of Uzbekistan and Kazakhstan, which are two of the world's leading boxing nations, is a major coup for World Boxing," the emerging governing body said, which also added Guatemala and Laos to a roster of 55 members. World Boxing president Boris van der Vorst said the recruits 'recognize it is the only way to keep the Olympic dreams of their boxers alive. The new members joined at a meeting in Pueblo, Colorado which hosted World Boxing's first global championships, at under-19 level.

Southern rivals Kerala Blasters FC and Hyderabad FC will seek a turnaround in their fortunes when they locks horns in the Indian Super League here on Thursday, having suffered reverses lately.

Kerala Blasters FC and Hyderabad FC currently stand at the 10th and 11th spots in the points table -- coming into this match on the back of defeats to Mumbai City FC and Mohun Bagan Super Giant respectively.

This match gives them a chance to fix things up and get their respective seasons back on track. The wind can be said to be swaying in the favour of the Kerala Blasters, as the Kochibased outfit has won three out of their last four matches against Hyderabad FC. However, they have never won thrice in a row in front of the visitors, presenting this match as an unprecedented opportunity for them to do so.

Hyderabad FC will be eyeing points on the road to build upon one win and draw each that they have accumulated in ISL 2024-25.

Kerala Blasters FC have found the back of the net in each of their previous 14 ISL matches at home. They have struck at least twice in eight of those games, and only Chennaiyin FC, Delhi Dynamos FC and Bengaluru FC (16 games each) have gone on longer such runs in the competition.

With the power-packed attacking duo of Noah Sadaoui and Adrian Luna in their ranks, the Mikael Stahre-coached team is all set to delight the home fans further with their offensive firepower this term.

Simultaneously, Kerala Blasters FC have not kept a clean sheet in their previous 18 consecutive matches in the league. This is the joint second-longest such sequence in the ISL, along with FC Goa and Hyderabad FC, with only NorthEast United FC having conceded goals in a longer stretch of matches. It might prove out to be difficult for the team to climb up the league ladder unless they set their

That win must have infused greater belief in them to produce similar such performances in unfamiliar conditions, and the offensive cohesion displayed by Hyderabad FC will keep the Kerala Blasters FC defence in check as well. Hyderabad FC have ended up conceding at least a goal each in seven out of their last nine away fixtures. They have been defeated in all those games, and in fact won the two matches when they kept a clean sheet, drawing a clear parallel between defensive discipline and a greater possibility of them capturing the three
