Oh Canada! Student Direct Stream service scrapped

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Indian students dreaming of studying in Canada may face hardship now, as it has ended the fast track visa programme. The decision came in the backdrop of ongoing diplomatic tension between the two countries. The decision to cancel the fast-track visa service known as Student Direct Stream (SDS) raised concerns over delays in processing and uncertainty for many international students from India. In 2023, nearly 200,000 Indian students received study permits. The SDS was launched in 2018 to provide faster processing for eligible post-secondary students. It was introduced to simplify the visa application process for students from 14 countries, which included India.

experience' to "meet this commitment" the SDS was scrapped on November eight. Study permits applied for after the announcement will be processed under the regular stream. The Canadian government has refrained from giving an explanation for ending the fast-track visa service. The move comes at a time when India and Canada's ties are strained due to the Trudeau government blaming the Indian government agents for the killing of Khalistani terrorist Hardeep Singh Nijjar. Indian aspirants are now likely to face extended waiting times for their study permits, which can be a significant setback. Indian students now have to navigate additional hurdles to secure their study permits on time. Meanwhile, a PTI report from Ottawa, on Saturday, said Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has acknowledged the presence of Khalistani supporters in Canada but said they do not represent the Sikh community as a whole. His comments came during Diwali celebrations at Ottawa's Parliament Hill recently amid an ongoing diplomatic row with India over the killing of Khalistani extremist Hardeep Singh Nijjar. "There are many supporters of Khalistan in Canada, but they do not represent the Sikh Community as a whole. Similarly, there are supporters of Prime Minister (Narendra Modi's government in Canada, but they do not represent all Hindu Canadians," Trudeau said. The relations between the two countries came under severe strain following Trudeau's allegations in September last year of a "potential" involvement of Indian agents in Nijjar's killing. New Delhi rejected Trudeau's charges as "absurd". India expelled six Canadian diplomats and withdrew its high commissioner Sanjay Verma and other "targeted" officials from Canada after strongly dismissing Ottawa's charges. India has been maintaining that the main issue between the two countries is that of Canada giving space to pro-Khalistani elements operating from Canadian soil with impunity. Last week, Khalistani supporters disrupted a consular event co-organised by the Hindu Sabha temple in Brampton and the Indian Consulate. The incident was condemned by Trudeau who said every Canadian has the right to practise their faith freely and safely. In a statement, the Ministry of External Affairs said that New Delhi remains "deeply concerned" about the safety and security of Indian nationals in Canada. The Indian consulate in Toronto said it was scrapping some of the planned consular events this month because of Canadian "security agencies conveying their inability to provide minimum security protection" to organisers.

Congress turns states into its ATMs: PM Modi

T N RAGHUNATHA ■ MUMBAI

Citing the examples of Himachal Pradesh, Telangana and Karnataka, Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Saturday charged that "wherever the Congress forms the government, that state becomes an Automated Teller Machine (ATM) of the party's shahi parivar" and said that the BJP would not allow the Opposition Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) to turn Maharashtra into the ATM of the grand old party. Addressing an election rally at Akola in Vidarbha region of Assembly poll-bound Maharashtra, Modi accused the Siddaramaiah-led Congress government of collecting Rs 700 crore from liquor shop owners in Karnataka. "Wherever Congress forms the government, that state becomes an ATM of the 'shahi parivar' of the Congress. These days, states like Himachal Pradesh, Telangana and Karnataka have become the ATMs of the royal family of Congress," the Prime Minister said. "People are saying that these days with elections in Maharashtra, the Congress has doubled the quantum of 'vasooli' (extortion) in Karnataka and neighbouring Telangana. The BJP will not allow MVA to turn Maharashtra into the Congress' ATM for 'Mahaghatobabai', PM Modi said. Singling out the grand old party for allegedly indulging in corruption in states ruled by it, the Prime Minister said that the MVA - comprising the Congress, Shiv Sena (UBT) and NCP (SP) - "stands for multi-crore scams, for extortion and token money. It stands for transfer posting racket and is completely immersed in scandals, loot, and corruption." Repeating the allegations that he had made in his election speeches on Friday that the Congress was dividing the SCs, STs and OBCs, PM Modi said: "The Congress knows the weaker the country becomes, the stronger the Congress will be. That's why the Congress has all along been resorting to the tactics of divide and rule. Over the years, the Congress created rifts within the SC-Dalits, ST-Adivasis and OBCs" Describing the BJP as "ek hai toh safe hain" party, Modi said: "For a safe and united Maharashtra, people should choose BJP-led Maha Yuti...ek hai toh safe hain". A day after he dared the MVA to get Rahul Gandhi to speak in praise of Veer Savarkar, Modi invoked Dr. BR Ambedkar's legacy to tear into the Congress to prove its respect for the architect of the constitution and his contributions to the country.

AMU does not exclusively belong to Muslims, says Yogi Adityanath

BISWAJEET BANERJEE ■ LUCKNOW

Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, responding to the recent Supreme Court decision on Aligarh Muslim University's (AMU) minority status, asserted that AMU "does not exclusively belong to Muslims." He also invoked his controversial "batenge to katenge" (If Hindus are divided, they will be slaughtered) statement, calling for unity among Hindus to prevent historical divisions.

The Supreme Court recently overturned the 1967 Azeem Basha judgement, with a regular bench set to make the final determination on AMU's minority status. "AMU doesn't belong solely to Muslims," Adityanath stated at an election rally in Khair, Aligarh, questioning AMU's plans to reserve 50 per cent of its seats for minorities despite receiving central government funding. "If AMU is funded by the government, Scheduled Castes (SC), Scheduled Tribes (ST), and Other Backward Classes (OBC) should also have reservation there," he added. Adityanath accused opposition parties - Samajwadi Party (SP), Bahujan Samaj Party (BSP), and Congress - of denying reservations at AMU to SCs, STs, and OBCs, alleging that these parties prioritised vote bank politics. "These people are playing with your sentiments. Don't be blinded by them. If we are divided, we will be slaughtered," he said, referring to historical incidents of Hindu oppression through division.

Delhi AQI is likely to worsen

RAJESH KUMAR ■ NEW DELHI

The air quality index (AQI) in Delhi remained in the "very poor" category with an average AQI of 352 on Saturday, marking the ninth consecutive day of smog due to calm wind, and local factors including vehicular emissions. The AQI is likely to worsen in the coming days as per the forecast by the India Meteorological Department (IMD). Meanwhile, the Commission for Air Quality Management (CAQM) has held a meeting with Delhi Chief Secretary and directed to intensify efforts to remove highly polluting end-of-life (EoL) vehicles (petrol vehicles older than 15 years and diesel vehicles older than 10 years) that are still in use in Delhi. The PM2.5 concentration is currently 32 times the World Health Organization (WHO) annual PM2.5 guideline value. The transport sector is the most significant contributor at 11.43 per cent, as per the Decision Support System data by the Indian Institute of Tropical Meteorology (IITM). While the residential sector contribution is 2.872 per cent, industries contributed 2.537 per cent, construction 1.492 per cent, energy sector 1.317 per cent, waste burning 1.043 per cent, and road dust 0.82 per cent. According to the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB), numerous areas across Delhi still registered AQI levels between 370 and 400, with some zones even surpassing the 400 mark. Nehru Nagar recorded AQI at 431, New Moti Bagh at 411 and Bhawana at 409. In contrast, other locations like Dilshad Garden (220) and Chandni Chowk (257) reported relatively lower AQI readings.

Oops! A Diwali greeting that shocked Varanasi

BISWAJEET BANERJEE ■ VARANASI

In an unusual incident, around 40 unmarried girls from Ramna village in Varanasi received messages meant for pregnant women from the Ministry of Child Development on Diwali, sparking confusion and concern among villagers. Following complaints, the Chief Development Officer (CDO), Himanshu Nagpal, acknowledged the error and launched an investigation into the matter, delegating it to the District Panchayati Raj Officer (DPRO). The CDO confirmed that all erroneous data entries have been removed from the portal and attributed the incident to a "human error." Nagpal explained that complaints from the village indicated that 40 unmarried girls were registered incorrectly as pregnant women on a government portal. As a result, these girls received a message from the Ministry of Child Development on Diwali, stating, "Welcome to Poshan Tracker. As a breastfeeding mother, you can avail services like hot cooked meals or ration, consultation, child health monitoring, and breastfeeding support through home visits with the help of Anganwadi Center." The message, designed to promote services for pregnant and breastfeeding women, caused confusion and anxiety among the girls and their families. The CDO traced the error to an Anganwadi worker from Ramna village who also serves as a Booth Level Officer (BLO). Currently, as part of the ongoing voter list summary revision, BLOs are required to visit households, collect Aadhaar information for residents above 18 years, and help register them for voter ID cards.

From Tihar, Sukesh Chandrashekar keeps his Bollywood fantasy alive

Offers 1,500 Crore, in cash for 50 per cent stake in Karan Johar's Dharma Productions

RAJESH KUMAR ■ NEW DELHI

In a development that has left both Bollywood and business circles in shock, alleged conman Sukesh Chandrashekar, currently in Tihar Jail on charges of extortion, has made an audacious offer to buy a significant stake in one of India's most prestigious film production houses, Karan Johar's Dharma Productions. In his revised offer to Karan Johar, submitted through the legal firm Anantam Legal, Sukesh said it has been brought to his notice that you (Karan Johar) have finalised the sale of a 50 per cent stake for Rs 1000 Crore at a company valuation of Rs 2000 Crore. "I am valuing Dharma at a 3,000 Crore valuation. Hereby, I am willing to acquire a 50 per cent stake at 1,500 Crore, all cash deal, this very day. As I mentioned before in my first offer letter to you, I did not want to put a number as movies are a passion and Dharma comes a legacy, and that is prime to me, and not the value," the letter states. Sukesh said if the 50 per cent stake is not possible, Dharma could consider offloading a 20 per cent stake. "I am offering Rs. 600 Crore for the 20 per cent stake, at a valuation of 3000 Crores of your company. If the above mentioned offer is accepted or even under considerations, as of today we could Escrow the amount in full for you to understand our seriousness for this deal. If you consider our offer, the structure of your organisation will remain exactly the same, the way you want it to be, there would not be any riders, as we only want to associate and have no interest in the way the company operates, nor we want to appoint any person from our side in the company," the letter, shared by Sukesh's legal team, states. "Kindly consider this offer of ours by either offloading the 50 per cent or at least the 20 per cent stake at a valuation, which is way above than anything offered to you. Once again to remind, all our Financials, legality could be produced for your full satisfaction and Due Diligence". This is the second time that Sukesh has sent a 'letter of Intent', to Dharma Productions. The bid, which Chandrashekar claims is motivated by his admiration for Jacqueline Fernandez, has sparked widespread curiosity, scepticism, and controversy across the country. While Sukesh's reputation is mired in controversy and legal issues, his letter portrays a deep-seated passion for films.

Shah leads grand roadshow, announces BJP set to come to power

PNS : JAMSHEDPUR

Union Home Minister Amit Shah electrified the city with a massive roadshow on Saturday, as he campaigned for BJP's bid to reclaim power in the State. Riding through crowded streets, Shah was visibly moved by the overwhelming turnout, later expressing on social media platform X, "The love and enthusiasm of the people in Jamshepur show that the BJP is set to come to power in Jharkhand." The show of support underscored BJP's strategic efforts to consolidate its voter base in the region ahead of the upcoming assembly elections. Accompanying Shah were two prominent faces of the National Democratic Alliance

(NDA) in Jamshepur: BJP's Purnima Sahu, contesting from the Jamshepur East seat, and Saryu Rai of the Janata Dal (United), the NDA's candidate for the Jamshepur West seat. Together, they rode through the city in an open-top vehicle, waving to crowds and greeting supporters as flower petals rained down upon them. The streets of Jamshepur were filled with the fervent chants of "Jai Shri Ram" and "Bharat Mata Ki Jai" as thousands of locals lined up to witness the spectacle. Youth, women, and elderly citizens stood side by side, waving flags and cheering as the Home Minister's convoy made its way through the heart of the city. Many locals saw the roadshow as an opportunity to show their support for the BJP, while others viewed it as an important moment for Jamshepur in the national political spotlight. Throughout the rally, the fervor and optimism were evident among BJP supporters, who expressed hope for political change. "Amit Shah's presence here shows the seriousness with which BJP is taking Jharkhand," said Ravi Singh, a local businessman who attended the roadshow. "We need stronger leadership to address our city's issues, and seeing the Home Minister here gives us confidence that BJP is ready to make that change." The decision to spotlight Jamshepur East and West in this roadshow reflects BJP's strategic focus on these key constituencies. Jamshepur East, a highly contested seat, has long been a battleground between the BJP and its rivals. This time, with Purnima Sahu as the BJP candidate and the support of NDA's Saryu Roy in Jamshepur West, the alliance aims to consolidate its influence across the steel city. The roadshow's route covered several key areas in Jamshepur, where party workers, dressed in saffron, had meticulously prepared decorations and flags. The sight of the Home Minister in an open vehicle, alongside Sahu and Rai, drew cheers and chants from every corner. Local resident Preeti Mishra, who participated in the rally, described the excitement: "It's not every day that a leader of Amit Shah's stature comes here. The energy in the crowd reflects our hope for positive change under BJP." SIKH COMMUNITY ACCORDS GRAND WELCOME

Jamshepur: People from different communities welcomed the Union Home Minister Amit Shah during the roadshow. On behalf of the Sikh community, young BJP Sikh leaders Satvir Singh Somu, Chanchal Bhatia, Joginder Singh Jogi, Rocky Singh, Ravinder Singh Rinku, Satinder Singh Romi, Gurbinder Singh Bunty, Avtar Singh Pintu, Akash Singh, Vinay Khurana, Harpreet Singh, Daljit Singh, Pintu Saini and many other Sikh youths welcomed him by showering flowers in Sakchi. Satvir Singh Somu said that the public is with the BJP and the formation of the BJP government in the state is certain.

JHARKHAND A 'HUB OF INFILTRATORS': AMIT SHAH

PNS : JAMSHEDPUR

Union Home Minister Amit Shah addressed an enthusiastic crowd at an election rally in Potka, East Singhbhum, on Saturday, rallying voters to support BJP candidate Meera Munda. Shah's message was clear: a BJP-led government in Jharkhand would prioritize the removal of infiltrators from the state, which he accused the Hemant Soren government of harboring to secure votes. Shah launched a direct attack on the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha-led administration, alleging that Chief Minister Hemant Soren has turned Jharkhand into a "hub of infiltrators" for political gain. "The people of Jharkhand will teach them a lesson in this election," Shah declared. He assured the crowd that, if elected, the BJP would immediately act to address and economic opportunities, pledging that a BJP government would restore transparency and accountability. In a bid to resonate with local sentiments, Shah also assured the gathering that his government would ensure the return of every penny lost in the Sahara financial scandal. Further, he emphasized BJP's commitment to Jharkhand's rich cultural heritage, promising to add local languages, such as Ho, to the official list of state languages and to push for their inclusion in the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution. The Potka rally infused fresh energy into BJP's campaign efforts, solidifying the party's promises of security, transparency, and cultural pride. Before arriving in Potka, Shah conducted a roadshow in Jamshepur, where hundreds of supporters greeted him, demonstrating strong backing for the BJP.

this pressing issue. Addressing nepotism concerns, Shah accused the ruling coalition of favoring family interests over the welfare of the state. He remarked, "The Jharkhand Mukti Morcha, Congress, and RJD are only focused on developing their own families. Such a government cannot be expected to bring genuine development to Jharkhand." This sentiment was echoed by supporters at the rally who expressed frustration with the state's slow progress under the current administration. Shah also tackled the issue of corruption, calling the Soren government "neck-deep in corruption" and blaming it for stalling Jharkhand's growth. Shah highlighted how rampant corruption has deprived citizens of essential services

Soren rejects BJP's allegations; says, raids not a 'surprise' during polls

PNS : RANCHI
 Chief Minister Hemant Soren today said that he doesn't feel obligated to respond to questions or allegations put forward by the BJP and its allies in the National Democratic Alliance (NDA), as he believes many of their claims are baseless. Speaking to the media during a press conference at his residence, Soren remarked that various allegations and accusations are being circulated by the opposition, yet he does not see it as his duty to address every single one. During his address, Soren commented on recent Income Tax raids that targeted individuals in his close circle. "It has come to my attention that IT raids have been conducted on people around me," he said, suggesting that such incidents rarely occurred in the middle of elections before 2014. He continued, "Income Tax raids targeted locations associated with some of my colleagues. I have spoken previously on the current state of constitutional agencies. People across the nation are witnessing who these agencies choose to target and the grounds upon which they operate. Can you recall actions like this in the midst of elections? Before 2014, such measures were seldom seen in our country." The Income Tax Department today raided multiple properties connected to Sunil Srivastava and his wife, conducting searches at about nine locations across Ranchi and Jamshedpur.

When questioned about issues such as Bangladeshi infiltrators, Soren reaffirmed his position, saying, "I do not find it necessary to respond to every question posed by them. I haven't taken it upon myself to address all their concerns." He also took a swipe at the BJP, remarking that while they may consider themselves intellectually superior, his focus remains on addressing issues faced by the poor. "For me, it is more important to work on resolving the challenges faced by impoverished communities," he added. Addressing questions about his potential to win the elections and form a government again, Soren avoided predictions. "I do not make forecasts—you might have better insight into that," he said, emphasizing his preference to stay focused on governance rather than speculative statements. When asked about a divisive narrative suggested by BJP's slogan, "If they are divided, they will be cut," Soren responded confidently. "They will neither be divided nor cut; instead, they will face a political defeat." Soren also addressed the issue of employment in Jharkhand, promising to take personal responsibility for ensuring that pending government jobs in the state are filled. He assured that no conspiracy would prevent him from following through on his commitment to job creation and employment for the people of Jharkhand.

RAHUL GANDHI CALLS TO DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION AND UNIFY INDIA

AICC leader Rahul Gandhi along with Congress candidates Banna Gupta and Dr Ajoy Kumar during a rally in Jamshedpur on Saturday. PNS

PNS : JAMSHEDPUR
 Rahul Gandhi electrified the crowd at Gandhi Maidan in Mango on Saturday as he took the stage to campaign for Congress candidates Banna Gupta (Jamshedpur West) and Dr. Ajoy Kumar (Jamshedpur East) in the Assembly Elections 2024. Addressing thousands of supporters, Rahul Gandhi passionately advocated for unity, love, and a commitment to protect India's Constitution amid rising political and economic pressures.

In a sharp critique of the BJP and PM Narendra Modi's government, Gandhi accused the BJP of fostering divisions within India, claiming that they seek to dismantle the Constitution and promote hostility. Holding up a copy of the Constitution, he affirmed, "This document belongs to India. It protects the people, the poor, and the marginalized, and we cannot let it be eroded by forces of hatred and arrogance." Highlighting Congress's commitment to unity, he evoked the historic "Bharat Jodo Yatra," where Congress leaders, including Rahul himself, walked 4,000 kilometers

Rahul pauses during Namaz

JAMSHEDPUR : In a defining moment, when the Azan for Namaz began at the nearby Bari Masjid, Gandhi paused for his speech, honouring the call to prayer. Resuming after the Azan, he affirmed, "This country belongs to everyone; it is a land of brotherhood." His gesture and words underscored his message of inclusivity, unity, and respect for all faiths. Closing his speech, Rahul Gandhi assured supporters that the Congress and the India Alliance stand unwaveringly against what he termed the divisive tactics of the BJP. "We are here to open a shop of love in the market of hatred. We will work 24 hours a day to defeat hate with love," he said, calling upon the people to save the Constitution and uphold the values of unity, brotherhood, and respect for diversity.

from Kanyakumari to Kashmir in an effort to unite India's diverse communities. "Our message was simple: unite India," he said, underscoring Congress's vision to "open a shop of love in the market of hatred." Accusing the BJP and RSS of sowing discord by exploiting divisions of religion, caste, and language, Gandhi reminded the crowd of Congress's legacy of uniting the nation through the freedom struggle and drafting the Constitution under the guidance of leaders like Ambedkar and Mahatma Gandhi.

He outlined Congress's vision for Jharkhand, promising a range of initiatives aimed at empowering women, farmers, and marginalized communities. Key promises included: Women's Financial Assistance: Monthly support of Rs 2,500 to every woman in Jharkhand, alongside a subsidized gas cylinder priced at Rs 450 and 60 kg of ration per person. Health Care: A health insurance scheme providing free treatment up to Rs 15 lakh for every family, ensuring affordable healthcare for the state's residents. Support for Farmers: Increased rates for paddy at Rs 3,200 per quintal, aiming to alleviate farmers' economic burdens.

Educational Expansion: Plans to open degree colleges in every block and professional colleges in every district, promising to make higher education accessible across Jharkhand. Increased Reservation: Proposals to raise reservations for Dalits, tribals, and backward classes, as well as a commitment to conducting a caste census for accurate representation in public institutions. Gandhi sharply criticized the economic policies of GST and demonetization, describing them as tools designed to favor the wealthy while harming small traders, farmers, and the poor. "GST is swallowing people," he argued, emphasizing the hardships faced by laborers and farmers. He contrasted this with the media's focus on high-profile figures, notably remarking that "farmers and poor laborers are not visible on TV, but Ambani's wedding is."

BJP reduced reservation for backward classes: Kalpana

PNS : RANCHI

In an election rally organised in favour of Congress candidate Amba Prasad in Barkagaon, Gandey Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) MLA Kalpana Soren said that when Jharkhand became a State, the people of BJP itself reduced the reservation for backward classes from 27 per cent to 14 per cent. When the party got the bill passed from the assembly to give 27 per cent reservation to backward classes, they did not have the courage to speak, he added.

Regarding the reduction of reservation for backward classes by BJP, Kalpana Soren said, "These people only talk about the party, not about the people. Whether it is the reservation bill from the assembly or the tribal Sarna Dharma Code, we get it passed. Today our Mahagathbandhan government is standing to bring that 27 per cent reservation," he added. The JMM MLA slammed Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath. Kalpana Soren said that the Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh had come here a few days ago. "What does he want to say by riding on a bulldozer? Was he trying to say that bulldozers will be used on the houses of the local people of Barkagaon? No Yogi ji, this is Jharkhand, not UP, there will be no bulldozers here, the Mahagathbandhan's vehicle of development will run here. Big leaders come here, but they do not talk about basic needs, they only talk about mutual differences," he added. Kalpana Soren said that the Mahagathbandhan Government will ensure 95 per cent participation of the local people in all the mining companies running here. "All of you need to think why big leaders come only during elections but Amba Prasad of Barkagaon always stands among you. In your happiness and sorrow," he added.

'JMM to fight to get back investors' money from Sahara'

PNS : RANCHI

Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM), on Saturday, said that JMM is ready to fight for the rights of investors invested in Sahara Finance at every level. Although this is not a matter of the State Government, despite this we will fight for the investors of Jharkhand against the Central Government, the party said.

JMM General Secretary Vinod Kumar Panday along with others during a press conference in Ranchi on Saturday. PNS

Addressing a press meet JMM General Secretary cum Spokesperson Vinod Pandey said that a big scam was carried out by creating a multi-state cooperative society in the name of Sahara. "The Union Home Minister of the Country and the Ministry of Cooperation is responsible for this, whose minister is Amit Shah. Shah has rubbed salt on the wounds of about 1.50 crore investors and victims of Jharkhand by coming to Jharkhand recently. The cooperative minister came and left after giving a slogan," he added. Pandey said that if BJP forms the Government, then the money of the investors of Jharkhand will be returned. "What is this deal with Jharkhandis? Will the investors' hard earned money be returned only if BJP forms the Government in Jharkhand, otherwise not. This is completely the matter of the Central Government. Why don't you return the money of the investors," he added. He said who is responsible for not returning the money of those who invested in Sahara, the State or the Central Government. The party General Secretary said that after putting Subrata Roy in jail on the orders of the Supreme Court, Rs 25 thousand crores were collected by selling the assets of Sahara, but why did Amit Shah not distribute this amount among the investors while being the Cooperative Minister. "Even if the Central Government ignores the investors of Jharkhand, but JMM is ready to fight for the rights of the investors at every level. Although this is not the matter of the State Government, despite this we will fight for the investors of Jharkhand against the Central Government," he added. Pandey said that on July 19, Union Minister Amit Shah had said that the investors' money will be returned in three to four months. For this, a web portal was created and applications were sought from investors, but 90 per cent of the applications were approved. It is unfortunate that today the people of Sahara family are enjoying themselves abroad with the Country's money and investors are committing suicide. These are the same people who did not take care of even a single family who committed suicide and went to Subrata Roy's house when he died," he added. On this occasion, Janardan Mishra of Vishwa Bharati Janseva Sansthan, who is fighting a legal battle to get back his invested amount from Sahara, said that his Rs 1 crore is stuck in Sahara. "His only son has died. He pleaded several times for his invested money but I was told that I will get the money only if I have access to the top. Every time I was cheated. Amit Shah is the cooperative minister, why doesn't he pay our money? Only the principal amount of Rs 1800 crore of the people of Jharkhand is stuck in Sahara," he added.

Shah likens Jharkhand Govt to 'burnt transformer'

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ RANCHI

Taking a jibe at the JMM-led coalition in Jharkhand, Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Saturday equated it with a "burnt transformer" that "failed" to relay the power of prosperity sent through the "high tension line" of Prime Minister Narendra Modi-led Centre.

He also appealed to the people to vote for the BJP for peaceful Ram Navami celebrations, promising that he would participate in such festival in Hazaribag if the BJP government was voted to power. "Narendra Modi's government is like an HT (high tension) power line. An HT line cannot supply electricity directly to your homes; a transformer is needed. The Hemant Soren government (Jharkhand CM) is like a burnt transformer. The Centre sends lakhs of crores of rupees through its HT line for development, but it is not transmitted to you. The time has come to change this burnt transformer," Shah claimed addressing a poll rally in Hazaribag.

Shah alleged that the JMM-led regime was involved in multiple scams, including Rs 1,000 crore in MGNREGA, Rs 600 crore in land deals, Rs 1,000 crore in mining, and liquor. He further accused the state

Water quality of Ganga in UP deteriorating due to discharge of sewage, observes NGT

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

The National Green Tribunal (NGT) has observed that the water quality in the Ganga in Uttar Pradesh is deteriorating because of the discharge of sewage or sullage into the river.

Earlier, while considering the prevention and control of pollution in the Ganga, the green body sought compliance reports from various states, including Uttar Pradesh.

In an order dated November six, a bench of NGT Chairperson Justice Prakash Shrivastava said according to the report from Uttar Pradesh, there was a gap of 128 million litres per day (MLD) in sewage treatment in Prayagraj district.

Also, 25 untapped drains discharged untreated sewage into the Ganga in the district and 15 untapped drains discharged the sullage into the Yamuna, the bench, also comprising judicial member Justice Sudhir Agarwal and expert member A Senthil Vel, said. "We find that out of the 326 drains disclosed in the report of the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB) dated October 22, 247 drains are untapped (in the state) and discharging 3,513.16 MLD of waste water into the river Ganga and its tributaries," the tribunal said.

Expressing dissatisfaction, it directed the state's chief secretary to file an affidavit disclosing the information regarding each drain across different districts, the sewage generated from those, the sewage treatment plants (STP) to which those were proposed to be connected and the timeline for making the STPs functional.

"The affidavit will also disclose the short-term measures that will be adopted to prevent the discharge of untreated sewage in the river in respect of each of the districts and drain till STPs are made fully functional and 100 per cent household connectivity is achieved," the bench said.

It also took note of the CPCB report disclosing the status of 41 STPs across 16 Ganga-front towns, which said six plants are non-operational and of the 35 operational STPs, only one complied with the rules.

Demonising Constitutional institutions pastime for some, cautions VP Dhankhar

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Demonising constitutional institutions and sermonising people is fast becoming a "pastime", Vice President Jagdeep Dhankhar said on Saturday and cautioned that such actions are a recipe for chaos.

He also said even those who "constitutionally matter in the political arena" are "sermonising all and demonising our constitutional institutions".

Addressing an event of an educational institution here, the vice president said it is time to "bid adieu to this".

"Also, I say with utmost restraint -- time for our elites to be elites. To them, I appeal -- to be a worthy elite, you have to be spurred by the fervour of nationalism," he said, without naming anyone.

Dhankhar also spoke on the crucial role of the alumni in strengthening the educational ecosystem, urging for active participation and contributions to alumni associations.

"The alumni of an institution are in several ways its lifeline.... I strongly urge to have an alumni fund. Making annual contributions is all important. Some of the best institutions globally have been on an upward trajectory because these institutions are fuelled by alumni energy," he said.

The vice president said associations of trade, industry, business, and commerce must also come forward to fuel research and spur innovation through liberal financial contributions.

BJP claims Congress' Maharashtra unit has assured Muslim body of 10 per cent reservation, other demands

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

The BJP on Saturday here claimed that the Maharashtra unit of Congress has assured a Muslim body that it will take steps to fulfil its demands including a 10 per cent quota for the minority community in jobs and education and a ban on the RSS if Maha Vikas Aghadi is voted to power in the state assembly polls.

Addressing a press conference at the BJP headquarters, senior party leader Ravi Shankar Prasad said that the All India Ulama Board (AIUB) has written to Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) offering its conditional support in the assembly elections.

"In its letter, the organisation has said that if Nana Patole (Congress), Uddhav Thackeray (Shiv Sena-UBT), Sharad Pawar (NCP-SP) and other parties want their support they will have to fulfil their demands which include opposition to Waqf Bill, 10 per cent reservation to Muslims in jobs and education..." he claimed.

It has also demanded a ban on the RSS if the MVA is voted to power in Maharashtra, Prasad claimed, terming the organisation's demands as "divisive and a charter for the disintegration of the country".

What is "painful" here is that the Maharashtra Pradesh Congress Committee in its reply to the organisation has assured that it will "definitely" take steps to fulfil their demands if voted to power in Maharashtra, the BJP leader claimed.

"We vehemently oppose such disruptive demands. We will never let them be implemented," he said, adding that the BJP will also "expose the so-called INDIA coalition" before the people and show that they can go to any extent for votes.

Prasad said that Muslims cannot be given a 10 per cent quota on the basis of religion as it is not permissible under the Constitution.

If a 10 per cent quota is given to Muslims on other grounds it will slash the existing share in reservations meant for the OBCs, SCs and STs, he said and asked Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge and Rahul Gandhi if it is acceptable to them.

"What has happened to you, Uddhav Thackeray? You forgot your own legacy. Balasaheb Thackeray had struggled so much against these things... You are his son."

"We vehemently condemned founded by late Bala Saheb Thackeray. It's now an organisation out to grab power by making all compromises."

He said the RSS is a nationalist organisation that has done "historic work" in the service of the nation and society, and slammed Uddhav Thackeray.

"What has happened to you, Uddhav Thackeray? You forgot your own legacy. Balasaheb Thackeray had struggled so much against these things... You are his son."

"We vehemently condemned

it. It's very painful because we were once together," the BJP leader said as he accused Uddhav Thackeray of deviating from his party's original ideology.

Prasad also took on Sharad Pawar, asking why he has kept silent on the issue. "You are a seasoned player. I know you understand the Constitution. You are 80 plus and you command a lot of respect there. Did you make them understand that it's not possible (to fulfil AIUB's demands)... How far will you go for votes," he said.

Congress poses questions to PM Modi on his vision for Marathwada region

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Congress on Saturday posed questions to Prime Minister Narendra Modi on his vision for the Marathwada region including his solution for water scarcity and inadequate rail infrastructure.

"The non-biological PM is in Nanded and Akola. Four questions for him - Where does the BJP stand on the issue of a caste census and raising the cap of 50% once 50 percent cap reservations for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and OBCs imposed by the Supreme Court?" Congress General Secretary Jairam Ramesh said in a statement.

He claimed the Congress government in neighbouring Telangana is starting its door-to-door caste survey on Saturday and will cover 1.17 crore households.

"Meanwhile, the non-biological PM will be in Vidarbha - which has played such a central role in the struggle for social justice in the country - and will likely be entirely silent on the pressing issue of a caste census and the raising of the cap of 50% on reservations for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, and OBCs.

Why is the non-biological PM so silent? What is he afraid of?" he asked.

Congress leader also asked whether the PM will deliver on his promise to put the BJP's Rajya Sabha MP Ashok Chavan in jail. Ramesh said while campaigning in Nanded on March 30, 2014, Modi had announced he would send Ashok Chavan to jail "within six months" if he became PM.

Ten years later, Ashok Chavan has joined the BJP and been rewarded with a Rajya Sabha seat.

His daughter is now a BJP contestant from the Bhokar assembly seat, he noted.

"Will this prove to be a promise delayed but not denied - or has the BJP Washing Machine cleared Mr. Chavan of any alleged wrongdoing?" Ramesh asked. The Congress leader also asked why has the Indian Railways performed so poorly in the Nanded division.

The Congress leader said the railway infrastructure in the Nanded division, which serves many areas in Marathwada, has been subjected to blatant neglect by the Modi government.

According to data furnished by the South Central Railway (SCR) in 2021, Nanded only has 35 km of route electrification and only 83 km of track-doubling.

This puts it at the bottom in terms of electrification and only marginally ahead of the bottom in track-doubling compared to other SCR divisions, Ramesh said.

Additionally, it is the only division in its zone that still has 130 km of colonial-era meter-gauge tracks, he claimed.

In 2019, he said, the then Maharashtra Chief Minister Fadnavis promised a 20,000 to 25,000 crore package to build a water grid from Marathwada that would supply piped drinking water to every village.

Summer this year marked five years of this promise -- and it was one of the most water-scarce years that Marathwada has faced, the former Union minister said. He claimed that more than 600 villages and 178 hamlets in Marathwada were dependent on water tankers.

SC agrees to hear plea seeking to restrain felling of trees in Delhi without its nod

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

The Supreme Court has agreed to hear a plea seeking to restrain the Delhi government from allowing felling of trees in the national capital without the apex court's permission.

The application, which stated that five trees are felled in Delhi every hour, also sought to restrain the Union Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change from permitting diversion of forests in Delhi without the top court's nod.

The matter came up for hearing before a bench of Justices A S Oka and A G Masih on Friday. The court asked the Delhi government and others to respond to the application by November 22.

The application has also sought the constitution of an expert committee, headed by a retired judge of the SC or the Delhi High Court, to assess the tree protection regimen in the national capital. A report containing its recommendation for the protection and preservation of existing trees and forests in Delhi should be submitted by the committee before the apex court, it said.

The application referred to a February 2023 order of the Delhi High Court and said it was recorded that five trees were felled every hour in the national capital, based on the data provided by the Forest Department of Delhi.

It sought to restrain the Delhi government from allowing felling of trees in the national capital without the apex court's permission.

The preamble of the Delhi Preservation of Trees Act (DPTA), 1994 clearly states that it is "an Act to provide for the preservation of trees in the National Capital Territory of Delhi", it said.

"There are procedural safeguards provided within the DPTA which are clearly visible in the flow of the Act wherein protection and preservation of trees precede the regulatory mechanism for felling of trees. These procedural safeguards have been grossly violated," it added.

Referring to Section 7 of the DPTA, it said it is clearly enshrined in the Act that it shall be the responsibility of the tree authority to "preserve all trees within its jurisdiction" and also undertake critical study of the proposals of various government departments for construction of buildings, roads and factories with regard to the protection of the existing trees and planting more.

"A comprehensive study of all the meetings of the tree authority revealed that the tree authority has met a total of only eight times since its inception in 1995 till March 2021. Whereas, the tree authority had an obligation to meet once every three months," the application said.

It said the importance of preserving fully grown trees, including generational trees or heritage trees, cannot be undermined and it was the need of the hour.

The law laid down by the apex court has great significance for Delhi as the National Forest Policy mandates that one-third of the total land area of the country should be under forest or tree cover, it said.

Indian Navy set to demonstrate its maritime capabilities in Odisha on Navy day

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

The Indian Navy is set to demonstrate its formidable maritime capabilities and operational strength at the Blue Flag Beach of Puri in Odisha on the occasion of Navy Day on December four, officials said on Saturday.

President Droupadi Murmu has consented to be the chief guest for the event, a Navy spokesperson said in a statement.

This event showcases the Navy's multifaceted competencies, enhances maritime awareness among citizens and honours India's rich seafaring heritage.

The 2024 'Operational Demonstration' or 'Op Demo' is set to be held against the backdrop of the pristine Blue Flag Beach that symbolises the connection between the Indian Navy and the maritime legacy of the state of Odisha, the statement said.

Puri received the Blue Flag Beach certification a few years ago.

The Blue Flag designation signifies an eco-tourism model aimed at providing beachgoers with clean and hygienic bathing facilities, a safe environment, and sustainable development practices.

The Indian Navy said it is working closely with the Odisha government and local authorities to ensure the smooth execution of the event. Seating arrangements would be made to accommodate local spectators and tourists, offering everyone a chance to witness the live demonstration from the beach.

The event will also be broadcast live on national television and streamed via the Indian Navy's YouTube channel to reach a wider audience, it added. In 2022, President Murmu witnessed the operational demonstration by the Indian Navy at Visakhapatnam on December 4.

LJP (Ram Vilas) to counter RJD's 'MY' combine in Bihar with own support base: Chirag

Tarari (Bihar), Nov 9 (PTI)

Union minister Chirag Paswan on Saturday claimed that his Lok Janshakti Party (Ram Vilas) would counter the RJD's formidable 'MY' (Muslims and Yadavs) combine in Bihar with its own support base of women and the youth.

The NDA partner was talking to reporters in Tarari assembly constituency, on the sidelines of a rally he addressed for BJP candidate Vishal Prashant along with Chief Minister and JD(U) president Nitish Kumar, among others.

"I am glad at the candidature of Vishal Prashant who is young. My party had contested and won five seats in Lok Sabha polls. Four of our candidates were young", said Paswan, who himself clinched Hajipur, the pocket borough of his late father Ram Vilas Paswan.

The 42-year leader, who did not mention the RJD by name, said "There are some who speak of an MY combination which is just mobilisation along the lines of cast and religion. My party, too, has its own MY combination which stands for mahila and yuva. Our stance towards women is obvious with two of our MPs being females".

Paswan, who is known to have excellent personal relations with the family of RJD supreme Lalu Prasad, extended birthday greetings to the latter's son and heir apparent Tejashwi Yadav, calling himself a "big brother" of the young leader.

When asked whether he would like to give any political advice to Yadav, the third-term MP broke into a sheepish grin and remarked

"Given his family background, he has no dearth of good advisors".

Paswan, however, deplored a statement by RJD's Buxar MP Sudhakar Singh who recently threatened to "beat up with sticks" BJP workers in Ramgarh assembly constituency where assembly by-poll has been necessitated by his election to Lok Sabha and his party has fielded his younger brother Ajit. Paswan said, "This is the type of language and behaviour that is always associated with RJD, a reason why the party is blamed for jungle raj in Bihar while it was in power. I was a teenager back then and still remember how much the bad reputation of the state used to rile its self-respecting people".

Responding to another query, the Union minister said "Hindus are being targeted, in countries where they are a minority, by extremists from other faiths. Canada is an example. But, it is disgusting that when Narendra Modi government brought the CAA for persecuted Hindus, the opposition criticized it".

"Fear-mongering has become the defining trait of INDIA bloc. They claimed CAA would deprive a section of population of citizenship though there was no such provision in the Act. They also said Modi, in his third term, will do away with quotas and scrap the Constitution. That too has been proven false", Paswan said.

Asked about Independent MP Rajesh Ranjan alias Pappu Yadav's claims of getting threatening calls from people posing as aides of jailed gangster Lawrence Bishnoi, the Union minister "if he is making such complaints, these must be investigated and he must be provided with adequate security".

Safety must get highest priority while constructing roads: Gadkari

PTI ■ RAIPUR

Union minister Nitin Gadkari has drawn attention to the rising number of road accidents and consequent deaths, and stressed on giving safety the highest priority while constructing pathways in the country. Addressing the 83rd annual session of the Indian Roads Congress at Pt Deendayal Upadhyay Auditorium here on Friday, he said if anyone dies in an accident due to road engineering fault in the future, then he will hold himself guilty for it. Highlighting the Centre's efforts to prevent road accidents, he urged government engineers to quit their jobs and start a good DPR (detailed project report) making company, assuring them to give work on a priority basis. The Minister of Road Transport and Highways emphasized on production of bitumen and CNG from stubble in agriculture-dominated Chhattisgarh, arguing the move will cut dependence on fossil fuels and check pollution. He announced a slew of road projects for Chhattisgarh and said he believes the state will have a road network similar to that of America in the next two years. "Every year 1.50 lakh deaths due to road accidents are reported which has now increased to 1.68 lakh. Efforts are on to improve the shortcomings in road engineering and automobile engineering but defective DPR has created a major problem," the minister maintained. He advised government engineers to quit their jobs and start a good DPR-making company. "We have been making serious efforts to prevent road accidents. Nearly 60 per cent victims of road accidents are aged between 18 and 34 years. I would like to urge you to build roads where no accidents take place (due to defective engineering works)," he said.

Improvement in road engineering will curb accidents and save lives, Gadkari asserted. "We have made rules in automobile engineering. If anyone dies in an accident due to road engineering in the future, then I will feel that I am guilty for it," he told participants at the event. Pointing at the gathering of officials and engineers, the minister said no tenders should be issued without carefully examining DPR for projects. Road safety should be given the highest priority to prevent accident deaths, he added.

Gadkari emphasized the significance of waste-to-energy technologies and urged Chhattisgarh to work on producing CNG and bitumen using paddy straw. The Central Road Research Institute (CRRI) and the Indian Institute of Petroleum, Dehradun, have developed bio-bitumen from paddy straw and it is being used in Meghalaya, he told the gathering. "It (paddy straw) can be used up to 35 per cent in bitumen. The country's requirement of bitumen is 90 lakh metric tonnes and capacity of refinery is 40-50 lakh metric tonnes. We are importing 50 lakh metric tonnes," Gadkari said. If Chhattisgarh starts producing bitumen from stubble, it will be a waste-to-wealth move, he said. Similarly, 400 projects for producing bio-CNG and bio-LNG from paddy straw have started in Punjab and Haryana. If Chhattisgarh will do the same, no petrol and diesel will be required in the state, the Union minister opined. Gadkari underlined the need to develop robust infrastructure to realise Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of "Atmanirbhar Bharat" (self-reliant India).

Indian Army flags off motorcycle expedition in Arunachal Pradesh

PTI ■ ITANAGAR

A motorcycle expedition organised by the Indian Army was flagged off from Mipi in Arunachal Pradesh's Dibang Valley, an official said on Saturday. The expedition was organised to honour the soldiers who fought for the nation during the 1962 Sino-India conflict and commemorate the Battle of Walong, defence spokesperson Lt Col Mahendra Rawat said. Dao Division's General Officer Commanding Major General VS Deshpande flagged off the expedition on Friday in the presence of Anini MLA Mopi Mihi and state government officers. The expedition team, comprising 10 personnel of the Army's Spear Corps and 10 civilians, have scheduled halts at Roing in the Lower Dibang Valley district and Hayuliang in the Anjaw district. Lt Col Rawat said the motorcyclists will ride through the Mishmi ranges and cross the pristine Dibang and Lohit valleys. The ride will end at the historic Walong War Memorial in Anjaw district on November 11, he said. The fierce Battle of Walong unfolded in the unforgiving terrain of Kibithu, Namti Tri Junction (famously known as Tiger's Mouth), Walong and adjoining features in the easternmost parts of Arunachal Pradesh, according to the Army. "In October 1962, as Chinese forces advanced aggressively into Indian territory, the responsibility of defending the strategically crucial Walong sector fell upon the gallant 11th Infantry Brigade of the Indian Army's esteemed 2nd Infantry Division," the Army earlier said. This brigade, comprising the battle-hardened units of 6 Kumaon, 4 Sikh and 3/3 Gorkha Rifles, was tasked with holding their ground against an adversary that was not only numerically superior but also better equipped and entrenched in advantageous positions, it added. The valiant stand of the 11th Infantry Brigade delayed the Chinese advance, providing a critical morale boost to the nation and demonstrating the unyielding courage of the Indian soldiers, the Army said. The route, tracing a historic path through the beautiful landscapes of Arunachal Pradesh, symbolises the Indian Army's commitment to fostering unity and promoting adventure tourism in border areas, Lt Col Rawat said. Each halt will be an opportunity for the riders to connect with the local communities, highlighting the strength, resilience and solidarity that define the spirit of the region, and promote national integration, he said. The motorcycle expedition is a part of the month-long celebrations that started on October 17 to mark the 62nd anniversary of the Battle of Walong fought during the 1962 Sino-Indian War.

India has effective mechanism to monitor oceans: Navy Chief

PTI ■ KANNUR

India has a highly effective mechanism for monitoring the oceans, known as maritime domain awareness, and is fully aware of "who is where and who is doing what" to ensure the country's interests are not compromised, Chief of Naval Staff, Admiral Dinesh K Tripathi has said. The Navy Chief also dismissed the dual carrier operation by China in the South China Sea as "nothing we should be concerned of". Addressing the media after the grand finale of THINQ 2024, a nationwide quiz competition organised by the Indian Navy on Friday evening, Tripathi also said India keeps a "close watch" on activities in its "area of interest". He made these remarks at the Ezhimala Naval Academy here in response to a question on China's growing influence in the region through its cooperation with Sri Lanka. "What China does in any part of the globe, let them do it. What they do in our area of interest, we are keeping a close watch. Nothing happens in our part of the world which we do not know," CNS added. He said the Navy is keeping a very close watch in our areas so that India's national interests are not compromised in any way, anywhere. "When their units, whether military or non-military, operate in the Indian Ocean region, we do ensure that our national interests are not compromised. We have got a fantastic organisation to keep the oceans under watch, which is maritime domain awareness, and we know exactly who is where and who is doing what," the Navy Chief said. He said the dual carrier operation is nothing concerning India. "We have done these dual carrier operations for many years now," he added. Tripathi also said the Indian Navy is very proud of the two young women Naval officers who are now on a mission to circle the globe in a boat as part of the Navika Sagar Parikrama-2. "They are reaching their first port of call in Australia on Saturday. During the voyage, they will only touch four ports across the globe. It is a very challenging journey, as they will have to face rough seas and weather. But they are well-equipped and well-trained. They already have training for 36,000 nautical miles," Tripathi said. Talking about the initiatives like THINQ quiz competition, he said that the Navy has several such initiatives to popularise the force among the countrymen, especially youths, and educate them on what the Navy does during peace and during 'not-so-peaceful times'. He said innovation is one of the top priorities for the Navy, and the Indian Navy always wanted to remain on top of the technology curve. "There is a process in which we recruit our officers and cadets. We assess the suitability. I am not worried about the quality (of resources) which we are getting," he added. He said the Navy also involved big public sector undertakings, medium, small, and micro establishments, and start-ups for technology sessions in an initiative to popularise the Navy's pursuit of technological mastery. For the THINQ 2024 editions, as many as 12,600 schools from 3,800 cities and towns in the country participated. Sixteen teams entered the semifinals, and eight teams contested in the grand finale held here.

Odisha DCM announces date for three-phase disbursement of Subhadra Yojana's first installment

PTI ■ BHUBANESWAR

Odisha Deputy Chief Minister Pravatī Parida on Saturday said that around 20 lakh more beneficiaries under the Subhadra Yojana are likely to receive their first instalment of Rs 5,000 by November end in the third phase of disbursement. The state government so far has disbursed Rs 5,000 each to about 60 lakh beneficiaries in two phases. Parida told reporters that about 20 lakh women beneficiaries during the third phase of disbursement are likely to get the money in their bank accounts on November 24 at a function to be held at Sundergarh. Union Ministers Dharmendra Pradhan and Jual Oram are scheduled to attend the function. The remaining eligible beneficiaries will get the money in the 4th phase of disbursement sometime in December, she said. The scheme was launched by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on September 17. The state government's flagship Subhadra Yojana is aimed at empowering women under which each beneficiary is entitled to get Rs 50,000 over a period of five years. The beneficiaries will receive Rs 10,000 in two instalments in a year. While around 25 lakh women received the money in the first phase, the amount was credited to the bank accounts of 35 lakh beneficiaries in the second phase on October 9. Asked about the applications rejected so far, Parida said that every panchayat office has been asked to publish the rejection list. "We also have a list of those with problems in their bank details. They can be included in the subsequent phase," she said adding that applications of around 2.67 lakh women beneficiaries have reportedly been rejected for various reasons. Stating that about 1 crore women would be covered under the Subhadra Yojana, Parida said the government would expand its coverage, extending the benefits to Anganwadi workers, without a government employee in their family.

AP CM launches demo seaplane flight from Vijaywada to Srisaillam

PTI ■ AMARAVATI

Andhra Pradesh Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu on Saturday launched a seaplane demo flight from Prakasam Barrage in Vijayawada to Srisaillam in Nandyal district. Within an hour, he landed on water at Srisaillam project (reservoir) in Nandyal. After disembarking from the flight, the chief minister, who was also accompanied by Union Civil Aviation Minister K Ram Mohan Naidu, was received by the district officials. Later, the CM took a ropeway to reach the top of a hill at Srisaillam project and boarded a bus to visit Sri Bhramaramba Mallikarjuna Swamy Varla Devasthanam (temple). Earlier, addressing a meeting during the launch of the demo flight at Punnami Ghat on the Krishna river in Vijayawada, the CM said, "This is a new experiment (seaplane demo flight). I am very happy. If anything new, happens in the country, it should happen in Amaravati. We are going ahead with that motto." According to Naidu, seaplane services would be an innovative opportunity which will promote economic activities to create employment.

Air quality poor in large parts of Punjab, Haryana; Chandigarh very poor

PTI ■ CHANDIGARH

The air quality in several parts of Punjab and Haryana was recorded in the 'poor' category on Saturday, while it was worst in the joint capital city of Chandigarh with an AQI of 322 which falls in the 'very poor' band. According to the Central Pollution Control Board's Sameer App, which provides hourly updates, Haryana's Bahadurgarh recorded an Air Quality Index of 314 -- also in the 'very poor' category -- at 9 am. Among other places in Haryana, the AQI at Sonapat was 290, Hisar (285), Bhiwani (277), Jind (275), Charkhi Dadri (258), Gurugram (259), Faridabad (220), Yamunanagar (213), Rohtak (238), Kurukshetra (202), Kaithal (205), Fatehabad (198), Ambala (160), Sirsa (181), and Karnal (144). In Punjab, the AQI was registered at 264 in Mandi Gobindgarh, 258 in Amritsar, 257 in Rupnagar, 248 in Jalandhar, 197 in Ludhiana, 183 in Bathinda, 176 in Khanna, and 133 in Patiala. An AQI between zero and 50 is considered 'good', 51 and 100 'satisfactory', 101 and 200 'moderate', 201 and 300 'poor', 301 and 400 'very poor', 401 and 450 'severe', and above 450 'severe plus'. The rise in air pollution levels in the two states and Delhi during this time of year is often blamed on farm fires. Punjab reported 730 farm fire incidents on Friday, taking the total count to 6,029 in the state this season. As the window for the Rabi crop -- wheat -- is very short after paddy harvest, some farmers set their fields on fire to quickly clear off the crop residue for sowing of the next crop.

I-T raids Soren's aide ahead of Jharkhand polls

PTI ■ RANCHI

The Income Tax Department on Saturday conducted searches at multiple locations in poll-bound Jharkhand, including on the premises of a person linked to Chief Minister Hemant Soren, as part of a tax evasion probe, official sources said. A total of nine premises in the state's capital Ranchi and Jamshedpur are being raided in an operation that started early morning. A security team of the CRPF is assisting the I-T sleuths, the sources said. The locations linked to Sunil Shrivastava, an aide to the CM, are also being searched, they said. The action is linked to recent probes launched by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) over alleged illegal liquor trade and mining in the state, the sources said. The assembly elections are scheduled for November 13 and 20, and the counting of votes will take place on November 23.

IAS officer in dock for Mallu Hindu Officers WhatsApp Group

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ KOCHI

The controversial WhatsApp groups-Mallu Hindu Officers and Mallu Muslim Officers-- were created using the same phone, according to the Forensic Science Laboratory of the Kerala Police. Sources in FSL said that a serious scrutiny of the phone belonging to IAS officer K Gopalakrishnan has shown that the phone number was not at all hacked and the groups would not have been formed without the concurrence of the person who owns the phone. On 30th October two WhatsApp Groups were set up based on communal lines from the phone used by Gopalakrishnan, director of industries, government of Kerala. When some of the officers whose names figured in the WA Group Mallu Hindu Officers questioned the admin (none other than Gopalakrishnan) about the propriety of including their names in the Group, the IAS officer washed his hands off the controversy and said that his phone has been hacked. He also said that he had filed a police complaint against the hacking of his phone. Both the Groups have been taken off the cyberspace following widespread condemnation of the same. Initial investigation by the Kerala Police with WhatsApp, Google and the Internet Service Provider proved that Gopalakrishnan's phone was not hacked. They also established the fact that the Mallu Muslim Officers' Group too was formed making use of the same phone and that too hours after the formation of the Hindu Officers Group. "It has been done to ward off any adverse comments arising out of the charge that a WA Group was formed to create a communal divide among the officers," said a police official. The initial investigation found that no unauthorized applications have been installed in the handset. Dr M G Gireeshan, a cyber expert and hackathon specialist, had said that hacking was possible when strange and unfamiliar applications were installed by the phone users. If the findings of the FSL are true, Gopalakrishnan stands facing serious charges of attempting to divide the bureaucracy on communal lines destroying the secular fabric of the society. The officer remained incommunicado while his office staff said that he was travelling.

VHP demands liberation of Sabarimala shrine from Government control, wants Vavar mosque to go

KUMAR CHELLAPPAN ■ KOCHI

In a major development akin to the agitation for the control of Kasi Viswanatha Temple and Lord Krishna Temple, Mathura, a demand has been made by the Kerala wing of Viswa Hindu Parishad (VHP) to "liberate" the holy shrine of Lord Ayyappa atop the Western Ghats from the shackles of government control and hand over the administration to the devotees. Viji Thampi, president, Kerala VHP, told the media after a daylong conclave of the "Save Sabarimala Action Committee" at Chengannoor that political parties like the CPI(M) and Congress are working overtime to make Sabarimala Temple a milch cow to harvest the income received by the shrine to fill their party coffers. "It has been thrice proved through Deva Prasnam (astrological probe) that there never was a character by name Vavar in the history associated with Lord Ayyappa whose birth is recorded in Bhagavata Purana. Ayyappa was born out of the union between Lord Shiva and Mohini (the female form of Lord Vishnu) and there never was an Islamic character named Vavar in this chronicle," said Thampi while addressing the media after the deliberations. The VHP as well as the Save Sabarimala Action Committee demanded that the ritual of worshipping at Vavar Mosque by Ayyappa devotees should be stopped forthwith. "There is no evidence of any connection between Vavar and Lord Ayyappa. The Ayyappa devotees paying obeisance at the Mosque during the pilgrimage to Sabarimala shrine is against tradition and customs. Vavar is part of created history by vested interests," said Thampi. Interestingly, this demand has been made a week ahead of the annual 41-day festival (Mandala Pooja) in the holy shrine which commences on 16th November. This is the period when lakhs of devotees assemble at the shrine after observing a stringent 41-day observation of fasting, celibacy and prayers. The VHP also alleged that mainline political parties are trying to create a wedge among the followers of Sanatana Dharma. Those who attended the conclave and addressed the gathering include Kummanam Rajasekharan, former governor of Mizoram and the representative of the Pandalam Royal Family, the traditional trustee of the shrine. Thampi exhorted the devotees making the pilgrimage to the shrine not to make any financial offerings at the temple as the entire income generated in the temple is diverted to non-spiritual purposes. "The Travancore Devaswam Board that administers the shrine is charging exorbitant rates for the prasadam which has not been blessed by Lord Ayyappa. The Board is cheating the believers," said Thampi. This is the first time Ayyappa devotees, who throng the shrine from India and abroad cutting across caste, communities, religions and nations, coming out with a statement openly condemning the concept of Vavar and 'mismanagement' of the temple administration. A Constitution Bench of the Supreme Court is all set to hear a petition filed by believers challenging the earlier order of the apex court allowing women devotees between the age group of 12-55 from worshipping at the sanctum sanctorum of the temple situated in the dense forests of the high ranges.

B'desh interim govt not to allow Awami League rally

PTI ■ DHAKA

Terminating Awami League as "fascist", Bangladesh's interim government on Saturday said it will not permit the deposed prime minister Sheikh Hasina's party to hold Sunday's planned rally. Chief Adviser Muhammad Yunus's press secretary Shaqqil Alam in a Facebook post said that the interim government won't tolerate any violence or any attempt to break the law and order situation in the country.

verified Facebook page, urging supporters to gather at Shaheed Noor Hossain Chattar, or Zero Point, in Gulistan on Sunday to protest what they described as "misrule". "Our protest is against the deprivation of the rights of the people of the country; our protest is against the rise of fundamentalist forces; our protest is against the conspiracy to disrupt the lives of the common people," read the Facebook post. This was the first call for a rally by the Awami League since August 5, when Hasina fled to India amid a mass student-led uprising against her government. Awami League also urged party men to stage rallies at grassroots levels across the country on Sunday in line with "the spirit of the call" as described in the Facebook post. The protest venue, Shaheed Noor Hossain Chattar, holds historical significance, as it was where Awami League youth leader Noor Hossain was killed on November 10, 1987 during a demonstration against the autocratic rule of the then military dictator General HM Ershad. The interim government earlier banned Awami League's student front Bangladesh Chhatra League over allegations of its "fascist role" during and before the July-August Anti-Discrimination Students Movement. Initially launched as a campaign for job quota reforms, the student-led movement intensified into a mass protest that ultimately led to the fall of the Hasina government. While several political factions have called for the Awami League to be banned, Yunus said such a decision is up to political parties. Some ministers of the interim government also oppose the ban, emphasising political inclusivity. Awami League's main rival Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) led by former prime minister Khaleda Zia also opposed banning any political party.

Japan vows military buildup and deeper ties with US

AP ■ TOKYO

Japan's Prime Minister Shigeru Ishiba on Saturday pledged to build up his country's military and deepen its alliance with the United States under President-elect Donald Trump. Ishiba, who made the comments at an annual troop review held at Camp Asaka in the Tokyo suburbs, said the security environment surrounding Japan and the international community has significantly worsened due to escalating tensions with China, Russia and North Korea. He pledged to reinforce Japan's military power. He said breaches of Japanese airspace by Chinese and Russian warplanes earlier this year "not only violated Japanese sovereignty but also threatened the safety of Japan and are absolutely unacceptable". He said Japan faces growing threats from China's accelerating military activity around Japanese coasts and from North Korea's repeated missile firings. "As we face the most severe and complex security environment, I will balance and strengthen Japan's diplomacy and security," Ishiba said in his speech before hundreds of troops gathered for the ceremony. The Japan-US alliance is the lynchpin for achieving this, Ishiba said, pledging to elevate Japan's ties with the United States and work closely with Trump as they agreed during a brief telephone conversation Thursday. Ishiba took office on Oct 1, replacing his unpopular predecessor Fumio Kishida but his governing coalition badly lost a recent parliamentary election and could face difficulty pursuing his party's planned policies and budget plans in coming months. Ishiba pledged to pursue the ongoing military buildup plan under the 2022 security strategy adopted by his predecessor, Fumio Kishida, which calls for a counter-strike capability with long-range cruise-missiles, a break from its self-defence only principle. Ishiba said he will pursue strengthening of command system to improve operation between Japanese and US troops. After its devastating defeat in World War II, Japan had prioritised economic recovery over defence under its war-renouncing constitution, but has steadily strengthened its defence capability over the past years.

Justice Dept brings criminal charges in Iranian plot to kill Donald Trump

AP ■ WASHINGTON

The Justice Department on Friday disclosed an Iranian murder-for-hire plot to kill Donald Trump, charging a man who said he had been tasked by a government official before this week's election with planning the assassination of the Republican president-elect. Investigators were told of the plan to kill Trump by Farhad Shakeri, an accused Iranian government asset who spent time in American prisons for robbery and who authorities say maintains a network of criminal associates enlisted by Tehran for surveillance and murder-for-hire plots. Shakeri told the FBI that a contact in Iran's paramilitary Revolutionary Guard instructed him this past September to set aside other work he was doing and assemble a plan within seven days to surveil and ultimately kill Trump, according to a criminal complaint unsealed in federal court in Manhattan. The official was quoted by Shakeri as saying, "We have already spent a lot of money" and that "money's not an issue." Shakeri told investigators the official told him that if he could not put together a plan within the seven-day timeframe, then the plot would be paused until after the election because the official assumed Trump would lose and that it would be easier to kill him then, the complaint said. Shakeri is at large and remains in Iran. Two other men were arrested on charges that Shakeri recruited them to follow and kill prominent Iranian-American journalist Masih Alinejad, who has endured multiple Iranian murder-for-hire plots filed by law enforcement. "I'm very shocked," said Alinejad, speaking by telephone to The Associated Press from Berlin, where she was about to attend a ceremony to mark the arrival of the tearing down of the wall. "This is the third attempt against me and that's shocking." In a post on the social media platform X, she said, "I came to America to practice my First Amendment right to freedom of speech — I don't want to die. I want to fight against tyranny, and I deserve to be safe. Thank you to law enforcement for protecting me, but I urge the US government to protect the national security of America." Lawyers for the two other defendants, identified as Jonathan Loadholt and Carlisle Rivera, did not immediately return messages seeking comment. Iran's UN Mission declined to comment. Shakeri, an Afghan national who immigrated to the US as a child but was later deported after spending 14 years in prison for robbery, also told investigators that he was tasked by his Revolutionary Guard contact with plotting the killings of two Jewish Americans living in New York and Israeli tourists in Sri Lanka.

Chinese jailed for trying to enter Mar-a-Lago estate

AP ■ FORT LAUDERDALE

A Chinese national was ordered held Friday on trespassing charges after police say he tried to enter President-elect Donald Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate in violation of a court order that he stay away following previous attempts. Zijie Li, 39, is being held without bond at the Palm Beach County Jail after being arrested Thursday when he arrived at Mar-a-Lago's entrance gate in an Uber, the latest in a series of contacts he's had with police and Secret Service agents at or near the estate since July. Li, who lives in suburban Los Angeles on a student visa, had just been released from a mental hospital, where he had been placed in late October after police found him near the estate. He is now facing two counts of misdemeanor trespassing. Li's arrest comes after a sniper nearly killed Trump at a July rally in Pennsylvania and an alleged would-be assassin stalked him in September at his Palm Beach County golf course. On Friday, the US Justice Department announced it had broken up an Iranian plot to kill Trump. During Trump's term as president, there were numerous illegal incursions at Mar-a-Lago, including two by Chinese nationals, but none were attempts to harm him. According to Town of Palm Beach police reports, Li first tried to enter Mar-a-Lago in July, telling Secret Service agents he had information tying China to the Pennsylvania assassination attempt. He was told to leave and not return.

DOUBTED HIS ABILITY AFTER FAILURES BUT SKY, COACH'S SUPPORT HELPED HIM: SAMSON

PTI ■ DURBAN

India batter Sanju Samson reflected on his early struggles in international cricket, saying that a string of failures made him doubt his ability, but self-belief and support of the captain and coach helped him stage a strong comeback. Samson hit back-to-back centuries in T20 Internationals with a breathtaking 50-ball-107 to headline India's comfortable 61-run win over South Africa in the opening game here on Friday.

"I have faced a lot of failures in my career. I think when you go through that failure, you have lot of doubts in your mind. People definitely say that social media definitely plays a role," Samson told reporters in the post-match press conference. "But you also think a lot about yourself. Sanju, are you not made for international level? I think you are doing well in IPL. Why are you not doing well internationally? So I have a lot of such thoughts. But after so many years of experience, I know what my ability is.

"If I spend some time in the wicket, then I have a shot-making ability in spin and pace and I know that I can definitely contribute well to the team. I can win the match. This is also a reality. There are definitely a lot of downs happening but the upside is also really good. So I kept telling myself that." Samson, who turns 30 on Monday, has often been criticised for not fulfilling his potential despite abundant talent. He had scored successive ducks in Sri Lanka but responded with a 111 against Bangladesh in the third T20I and followed it up with another ton on Friday.

The Kerala batter acknowledged the crucial support he received from Captain Suryakumar Yadav and Coach Gautam Gambhir during his low phase. "When you have a supporting captain like Suryakumar Yadav and Gautam bhai and VVS Laxman sir, they all support you during failures. The way they communicate with you in your failures is very important. Everyone knows that if we are going through a negative phase, then the player can get lost there," he said.

"So at that time, I received a lot of phone calls from Gautam bhai and Surya, telling me what to work on. Your spin is a little bit like that. You collect all the spinners in Kerala and practice in rough wickets there. You do this, you do that. "So if your Indian team's captain is calling you and telling you how to practice after a duck, then you have confidence that the captain is trusting you. He wants you to do well. So I think all those small, small things plays a huge role, I think, coming back here," Samson said.

"I'm very grateful about the trust shown on me. I think I've been able to give it back to my team management. I feel that it's just a start. I would like to just practice hard, train hard, just be very grateful walking out to play for my country and just look to contribute and win games for my country every time I walk in." His innings included as many as 10 monstrous sixes which propelled India to 202 for 8 in 20 overs. "When you score 100 for your country, it's definitely a very special feeling. The wicket was a little more bounced, a little spongy in the beginning. It's been raining here for 3-4 days, so I think it was a bit more challenging condition," Samson said.

"So according to that, we are talking to the team and we are preparing accordingly. Even when it rained for 3-4 days, our team came here and practiced. We did batting for 2-3 hours, so it was a little beneficial." "We're the World Champions and we need to play like that," Samson said they are focused on playing an aggressive brand of cricket, regardless of conditions, to live up to their reputation as world champions.

"What we have been talking in the dressing room from so many seasons right after winning the World Cup or even from last 2-3 years is even if you lose the toss and even the conditions are tough, we have to go all in." "We can't think that we will have to look for something like 160-170 in these wickets because I think chasing becomes a bit easier. We were just looking to attack even knowing that the condition is slightly helping the bowlers," he said.

"We are definitely the world champions at the moment. So I think we have to play like that and just keep on looking to dominate in this format," he said.

Stewart Cink maintains lead in PGA Tour Champions finale, with 67-year-old Langer 2nd after a 64

AP ■ PHOENIX (US)

Stewart Cink shot a 5-under 66 to maintain a three-stroke lead in the PGA Tour Champions' season-ending Charles Schwab Cup Championship. Bernhard Langer, the 67-year-old German star who has a Champions-record 46 career victories, was second after a 64 on Friday. He shot his age or better for the 21st time on the tour.

"Every once in a while I look back at my career and have to almost pinch myself and say, 'Man, that's pretty amazing what you've done the last whatever so many years,'" Langer said. "Like a day today, to shoot 64 - 3 under my age - not a whole lot of people can do that." The 51-year-old Cink had a 12-under 130 total at Phoenix Country Club, shooting a 64 of his own in the first round. The Ally Challenge winner in August in Michigan for his first senior title, Cink entered the week 12th in the season standings.

"It was actually probably a cleaner round than yesterday as far as just my processes and the quality of the shots was probably a little bit better overall," Cink said. "I just didn't have the hot long putts going in today quite as much, but it was a really solid round. I would love to play golf like that every day."

Langer birdied five of the first seven holes and closed strong with birdies on 17 and 18. He's trying to win at least one event for the 18th consecutive year.

"It's fun to make some putts, that's what the game is all about," Langer said. "If you want to score low, you've got to make some putts." Alex Cejka was third at 7 under after a 66. Defending champion Steven Alker, second behind Ernie Els in the season standings, was tied for fourth at 4 under after a 68 - putting himself in position to pass Els for the $1 million bonus. Vijay Singh (65), Miguel Angel Jimenez (68), Jerry Kelly (70) and Cameron Percy (68) also were 4 under. Els was 3 under after a 70. Stephen Ames, third in the standings, was 2 under after a 72.

The top 36 players on the points list qualified for the event, with Steve Stricker the lone qualifier not in the field.

Czech legend Zelezny comes on board as Neeraj's coach ahead of 2025 season

PTI ■ NEW DELHI

Star Indian javelin thrower Neeraj Chopra on Saturday roped in three-time Olympic champion and world record holder Jan Zelezny as his coach, setting the ball rolling for the upcoming season, where he will defend his World title.

The star Indian athlete said he was a great admirer of Zelezny, 58, is widely considered the greatest javelin thrower of the modern era. The Czech won three Olympic gold medals (1992, 1996, 2000) and as many world titles (1993, 1995, 2001) in his illustrious career. Zelezny holds the world record of 98.48m in the event.

Chopra till recently worked with German biomechanics expert Klaus Bartonietz, who also doubled up as his coach. Neeraj, after becoming the first Indian athlete to win a gold at the Tokyo Olympics, finished second best at the 2024 Paris Games.

The star Indian athlete said he was a great admirer of Zelezny in his formative days and watched the Czech legend's videos to hone his skills.

"Growing up, I admired Jan's technique and precision and spent a lot of time watching videos of him. He was the best in the sport for so many years, and I believe that working with him will be invaluable because our throwing styles are similar, and his knowledge is unmatched," Neeraj said. "It's an honour to have Jan by my side as I push towards the next level in my career, and I can't wait to get started," he added.

Neeraj, who has not crossed the 90m mark in competition so far, would be eager to break the 'barrier' and Zelezny's experience could come in handy.

The collaboration also symbolises a fusion of generations, with the young champion drawing inspiration and expertise from what many consider the greatest javelin thrower of all time.

Zelezny expressed his happiness, saying he was always looking forward to train the Indian star as he still has a lot of potential. "I have already spoken about Neeraj as a great talent many years ago. When I saw him early in his career, I realised great possibilities for top results," Zelezny said in a statement.

"I also said that if I should start to coach somebody from outside Czechia (Republic), my first choice would be Neeraj. I like his story and I see big potential, as he is young and able to improve." "There have been many athletes contacting me for coaching, so for me to take this up means that it is a great honour to have him in my team. We are getting to know each other more closely and will start in person at a traditional winter camp in South Africa.

India needs top-order to bat better in second T20I against South Africa

PTI ■ GQBERHA

Sanju Samson will look to continue his domination of the bowlers but India need more stability in the top order when they clash with South Africa in the second T20I South Africa, aiming to extend their superior run in the shortest format, here Sunday.

Samson's stunning 107 off 50 balls powered India to a commanding 61-run victory in the series opener, but the lack of runs from other key batters remains a concern for the visitors.

India need address this issue to ensure that the burden doesn't fall too heavily on their in-form keeper-batter.

The continued failure of opener Abhishek Sharma, who has squandered multiple opportunities, would be worrying the team management.

Apart from his memorable 47-ball century against Zimbabwe in Harare earlier this year, Sharma has struggled for runs with scores of 0, 10, 14, 16, 15, 4, and 7 in recent outings.

The dashing left-hander's lack of consistency at the top of the order could prompt India to rethink their options moving forward.

While the team management is unlikely to make changes to the playing XI, it will be disappointed with Sharma's continued failure, especially as India look for second-line opening option after Yashasvi Jaiswal following Rohit Sharma's retirement from the format.

Tilak Varma showed promise with a quick-fire 33 off just 18 balls in the first match but will need to convert such cameo into bigger knocks. Varma has been largely off the radar since his last appearance against Afghanistan in January, and with competition for spots in the middle order heating up, the young batter will want to cement his place in the side.

Skipper Suryakumar Yadav also got a start but fell cheaply, while all-rounder Hardik Pandya was unable to live up to his potential in the opening match.

India's middle-order, which looked solid on paper, struggled to build partnerships as they lost six wickets for just 36 runs, slipping from a commanding 166/2 to 202/8 by the end of their 20 overs.

This collapse highlighted the fragility of India's middle and lower order, something that they will aim to address before the second T20I.

In the bowling department, India were clinical as they restricted South Africa to just 141 in 17.5 overs in the opening match.

Busquets, once ruled out, now may play alongside Messi for Inter Miami against Atlanta United

AP ■ FORT LAUDERDALE (US)

Inter Miami practiced thinking there was no way Sergio Busquets was going to play in its win-or-else playoff match against Atlanta United. A few hours later, the team got quite the surprise on Friday.

Busquets - who coach Gerardo "Tata" Martino said was ruled out for Saturday's game - received medical clearance on Friday afternoon to play and is being listed as questionable. Busquets went through a training session on his own after the rest of the team worked out Friday, meaning Lionel Messi could have one of his most trusted teammates alongside him with the season on the line.

"We're confident in the progression of his recovery, and are hopeful he'll be available for (Saturday's) match," the team said. Busquets was struck somewhere around his midsection in Game 1 of the best-of-three series and developed pneumonia-like symptoms. He didn't play in Game 2 last week - a 2-1 Atlanta win - and Inter Miami has to win Saturday just to extend its season and reach the second round of the MLS Cup playoffs.

"At best, there are four finals left," Martino said on Friday morning, in the same interview session during which he revealed that Busquets wouldn't play - because that's what he truly thought at the time.

"Each of the remaining games has the characteristics of a final game and we, with the expectations we have, are ready to face it in the best way."

Inter Miami hopes to have four games left this season -

Saturday's conclusion to Round 1, and then a conference semifinal, conference final and the MLS

Cup final. If Inter Miami keeps winning, all four of those matches would be at home. If it loses a match, the season ends there for the team that won the Supporters' Shield and posted the best regular-season record in MLS history. Atlanta has already won four elimination games this season - their two must-win matches to keep hope alive at the end of the regular season against the New York Red Bulls and Orlando City, then a wild-card match at Montreal and Game 2 of this series against Inter Miami.

The difference is that this one is an elimination match for Messi as well. And when asked this week about how Messi's numbers haven't been great in this series - no goals and one assist in the two matches - Atlanta interim coach Rob Valentino wanted no part of that storyline.

"Messi is fantastic," Valentino said.

"There is no slander on my end. He's a fantastic player. Whether people say he's produced, not produced, I don't want to hear it because he's fantastic."

Atlanta is the only MLS team to beat Inter Miami twice this season, and both wins came with Messi in the lineup; the club is 2-1-1 so far this season against the No. 1 overall seed.

The rest of MLS, combined, went 0-12-5 against Inter Miami when Messi was in the lineup. But Atlanta's plan against Messi seems to have worked; he has one goal on 19 shots, eight of which were on target, in the four matches between the clubs this season. "What he brings to a game, what he brings to a team, just him standing on the field it requires your attention," Atlanta United goalie Brad Guzan said.

"There's very few times that Plan A works. It's Plan B and Plan C and Plan D and you have to adjust very quickly." Busquets, the team said, will be listed as questionable, which typically means that the club's medical staff will see how he is feeling on game day before making a final determination.

ROHIT BAL A TRAILBLAZER WHO REDEFINED INDIA'S FASHION

As the fashion world mourns his loss, his legacy lives on in the countless designers, artisans, and fashion enthusiasts inspired by his pioneering spirit and dedication to Indian craftsmanship, writes GYANESHWAR DAYAL

Rohit Bal's name is synonymous with elegance, luxury, and a unique fusion of traditional Indian aesthetics with modern sophistication. Over the course of his illustrious career, Bal has not just defined fashion but also revolutionised how India perceives style. His journey, marked by innovation and passion, is one of resilience and unparalleled creativity, shaping not just the Indian fashion scene but also placing it firmly on the global map.

THE EARLY DAYS: DISCOVERING FASHION

Born in 1961 in Srinagar, Kashmir, Rohit Bal's early influences came from the serene beauty of his homeland. The majestic valleys, the rich heritage, and the intricate craftsmanship of Kashmiri artisans were integral to his formative years. Little did he know, these elements would later form the core of his designs. Initially, Bal pursued a degree in science before realising that his true calling was in fashion. In the late 1980s, he moved to Delhi to study at the prestigious National Institute of Fashion Technology (NIFT), where he refined his skills and honed his vision.

In a pivotal moment during his early career, Bal was encouraged by a family friend, the iconic model and former Miss India, Madhu Sapre, to create his first collection for the fashion circuit. His debut at the Indian Fashion Week in the 1990s marked a milestone, both for him and the industry. It was a time when the Indian fashion scene was still finding its identity, and designers like Rohit Bal were about to change the game.

THE RISE TO FAME: PIONEERING LUXURY FASHION IN INDIA

Rohit Bal's first collection was a masterful blend of contemporary design with classical Indian elements. His signature style, which combined luxurious fabrics, intricate embroideries, and a sharp, modern sensibility, quickly set him apart from his contemporaries. His work showcased a perfect juxtaposition between the old and the new, a unique touch that made his designs instantly recognisable.

One of the defining episodes in his career was the launch of his haute couture collection in the early 2000s. His show, featuring garments embroidered with intricate Kashmiri motifs, paid homage to his roots and captured the essence of India's rich textile traditions. Bal's use of luxurious materials like silk, brocade, and velvet created a new kind of opulence that spoke to the Indian elite. His designs were not just clothes; they were expressions of heritage reimagined for the modern world.

What truly set Bal apart from his peers was his ability to blend the modern with the traditional. He took Indian textile traditions, from Kashmiri shawls to Rajasthan's mirror work,

Rohit Bal's Last Show at Lakmé Fashion Week

BY SAKSHI PRIYA

No one could have imagined that Rohit Bal's show at Lakmé Fashion Week would be his last. But after witnessing his breathtaking final collection, Kaaynaat: A Bloom in the Universe, it's clear this was a farewell like no other.

The grand finale was a celebration of nature's timeless beauty, as Rohit Bal's signature craftsmanship unfolded on the runway. Kaaynaat was a poetic tribute to the delicate elegance of flowers and the boundless beauty of the universe. Inspired by the Lakmé Rouge Bloom launch, the collection embraced the slow, graceful unfolding of life, much like a flower blooming in full glory. The runway featured a beautiful mix of flowing fabrics, detailed embroidery, and bright colours, with each piece reflecting the wonders of the universe. Every garment had a story to tell, with delicate floral motifs symbolising the cycle of life, from the tiniest bud to the full bloom under the starry sky. The collection's use of colour was bold yet serene, capturing both the wildness and tranquillity of nature. Lakmé muse Ananya Panday walked the ramp as the showstopper, embodying the essence of the collection's celestial beauty. Her presence perfectly complemented the theme of the collection. The entire show was a fusion of fashion, beauty and nature, with Rohit Bal's expert tailoring and design sensibility meeting the elegance of Lakmé's Beauty X Fashion philosophy. It wasn't just a grand finale to Lakmé Fashion

Week, but a tribute to a designer who has shaped India's fashion landscape for decades.

Rohit Bal's words about the collection now resonate even more deeply: "Kaaynaat was a journey through the wonders of nature, celebrating the bloom of life and beauty. Partnering with Lakmé has been an incredible experience, and this collection reflects both the grace of nature and the enduring power of beauty." This show was not only a fitting farewell but a lasting memory of the artistry and vision of a true icon.

immense talent coming out of India, challenging global perceptions of what Indian fashion could be.

A LEGACY OF INNOVATION: ROHIT BAL'S LASTING IMPACT

Rohit Bal's influence on the Indian fashion scene cannot be overstated. Over the years, he has played an integral role in redefining how India's fashion identity is perceived—both at home and abroad. From his breakthrough collections that fused the traditional with the modern, to his innovative designs that have kept his work relevant through decades, Bal remains at the forefront of Indian luxury fashion.

What makes Bal's legacy even more special is his commitment to the artistry of India. He has continually worked with local craftspeople, helping preserve and promote India's textile traditions. His designs are often crafted using handloom fabrics, making them not just products of high fashion but also instruments of cultural preservation.

Today, as the Indian fashion industry continues to evolve, Rohit Bal's name stands as a symbol of what can be achieved when passion, creativity, and heritage come together. He not only helped put India on the world fashion map but also created a space for future designers to draw from the country's rich history while embracing global trends.

It Ends With Us

The emotional story of love and abuse, enhanced with the courage of leaving, writes ABHI SINGHAL

Starring Blake Lively and Justin Baldoni as the lead actors, It Ends With Us is all set to release on Netflix after a phenomenal box-office response from the cinema in August. The film is the cinematic adaptation of the best-seller novel It Ends with Us by Colleen Hoover.

Keeping the book aside, and talking about the film baldly for those unfamiliar with the book, the film gives a complete glimpse of a relationship with physical abuse with what comes with mental instability. It is a complete package initially starting from the butterflies of a relationship to the phase of its exciting and it then beyond.

The characters fit in their role perfectly watching from the movie purpose Blake Lively as Lily Bloom, Justin Baldoni as Ryle Kincaid, Jenny Slate as Allysa (Ryle's sister) and Brandon Sklenar as Atlas Corrigan.

The plot starts with the dreamy relation between Lily and Ryle, even after Lily being informed about the record of Ryle in relationships and his nature with girls. With the movement of the story, Lily starts to face abuse from Ryle. The temper and aggression is linked to some past experiences in his life and the first abuse incident comes after the first half. Things get worse between Lily and Ryle when Atlas (played by Brandon Sklenar) is made to enter their life.

The story beautifully describes Atlas, Lily having a past and understanding each other without uttering words meeting after years. The unsaid love in the last scenes between Atlas and Lily is the core strength of the film.

The many songs and the background scores in the film add life to the shot scenes categorising them as sad, loving and broken. The scores like Opening, It Was Nice Meeting You, Lily's Past, Seeing Atlas add the needed depth to the scenes with the sensual and reciting tunes.

The dialogues in the film, talking about my favourite one by Atlas to Lily, "In the future, if you ever find yourself in the position to fall in love again, fall in love with me". The dialogue will make your heart heavy and touch your emotional quotient. The characters have well fitted into the frame except Lily. Blake could have played more with expressions and body language. Blake's dressing in the movie seemed like a fashion disaster. Ryle aced the game with his reactions and attitude playing an aggressive man.

The climax with Lily having a baby and finally deciding if she would continue it with Ryle or not (continue to watch the film for the answers) is the whole sort of courage depicted in the film. The film addresses the social issue with the beauty of giving a message of having courage and stepping up to speak up for the steps that personally affect your mind and life.

Overall, the film depicts a journey of physical abuse initiated with romantic days in a relationship. It Ends With Us is a must watch with learning and lessons.

SINGHAM AGAIN A MIXED COP UNIVERSE CLASH

Singham Again is entertaining but falls short of the high standards set by previous sequels, says ABHI SINGHAL

Director Rohit Shetty expands his cop universe with yet another high-octane sequel, Singham Again. This latest installment stars Ajay Devgan reprising his iconic role as DCP Bajirao Singham, with Kareena Kapoor Khan returning as his wife, Avni.

Joining them in cameo roles are Akshay Kumar as DCP Veer Sooryavanshi and Ranveer Singh as ACP Sangram "Simmba" Bhalerao, adding familiar faces to the cop universe. The film introduces many fresh elements, linking its storyline loosely to the epic Ramayana, blending it spiritually with its typical action-packed spectacle. New characters include Arjun Kapoor as the antagonist, and Deepika Padukone as DCP Shakti Shetty, along with Tiger Shroff as ACP Satya Bali.

Ajay Devgan, the hero, felt a little undermined from his role if compared to the super hit cop film Singham. Kareena played her role well in the movie. The characters have somewhere done justice to their characters except some. The entry of Jackie Shroff as Omar Hafeez and Arjun Kapoor playing Zubair Hafeez, dominate the first half of the film and bring intensity and menace to their roles as the villainous duo. Jackie Shroff could have been better in his little time on the screen. Deepika Padukone's role wasn't of much need and looked forceful just to introduce the character to the film.

Tiger Shroff playing Satya Bali looked too flat for the film. Enhancement of these two strong actors could have changed the outcome of the film. Akshay Kumar comes with a dashing helicopter entry in the very end fitting into the well said cameo role. Ranveer Singh enters later in the film, and his comedy grips the audience giving a reason to hold on till the end.

Ranveer as Simmba single handedly takes off the second half. His entry linking to the past movie Simmba was accepted by whistles and cheers in the cinema hall. The comedy doesn't look forced due to his past introduction as a naughty cop in the cop universe.

The climax with a major action sequence will be loved by the audience as all the characters get along for the final scene to get Avni back from Zubair Hafeez's abduction giving it the Sita angle. While Singham Again is a visually impressive film with well-executed action sequences, it suffers from a rushed screenplay and inconsistent character development. It misses the demanded depth in the characters and misses the element of Rohit Shetty to be honest.

"My family put a lot of emphasis on homework, so there weren't too many comic books or video games for me, when I was growing up"
— Wentworth Miller

With a resurgence fueled by events like Comic Con India and the upcoming Comic Creator Championship, Indian comics are making a powerful comeback, writes SUPRIYA GHAYTADAK

A COMIC JOURNEY FROM NOSTALGIA TO A BRIGHT NEW FUTURE

Growing up, comics were an integral part of my life. My brother and I would save every bit of our pocket money just to buy our favourite comics. Whether it was Champak, Amar Chitra Katha, Super Commando Dhruv, Nagraj or Chacha Chaudhary stories fueled our imagination and became a key part of our reading journey. Whenever someone asked what we wanted for our birthdays, the answer was always the same-comics! Those colourful pages, filled with heroes and adventures, were more than just entertainment; they were treasured gifts that we eagerly awaited and cherished.

SUPRIYA GHAYTADAK

There was a time when streetside stalls, bookstores, bus stands, and railway stations buzzed with the vibrant display of comic books. The chatter of children and adults alike, poring over pages that transported them to fantastical worlds, was a common scene. Comics like Amar Chitra Katha's mythological tales, Chacha Chaudhary's wit, or Raj Comics' heroic sagas, invoked a sense of wonder and excitement. For many of us, these stories were more than just a form of entertainment; they were an integral part of our childhood—a gateway to imagination and learning. As years passed, digital platforms gradually replaced the physical charm of these marvels. Yet, in this fast-paced world, the nostalgia for these stories remains strong. Many long for the days when characters like Bahadur, Super Commando Dhruv, Parmanu, Tenali Raman, Suppandi, and Shikari Shambu lived not just in our imagination but in the comic strips that shaped our understanding of bravery, wit, and justice. For older generations, these comics represent a simpler time, filled with cultural knowledge and entertainment. For the younger generation, revisiting them now holds the potential to rediscover India's rich folklore and mythologies while connecting with modern interpretations of these beloved characters.

The Indian comic industry, once a booming sector from the 1970s to the 1990s, produced iconic characters and stories that captured the hearts of millions. The 'Golden Age' of Indian comics brought us legendary creators like Pran, whose Chacha Chaudhary became a household name, and the rise of superhero giants from Raj Comics.

household name, and the rise of superhero giants from Raj Comics. It was an era when Indian superheroes, mythological epics, and social commentary blended seamlessly, creating relatable content that resonated with generations. However, at the turn of the millennium, the industry witnessed a decline. Changing reading habits, the rise of television, and the flood of digital content pushed these comics to the background. Yet, despite this downturn, the comic book medium is quietly experiencing a resurgence, aided by digital platforms and a renewed interest in India's rich storytelling tradition. The resurgence of Indian comics is further boosted by the growing popularity of Comic Con events across India. These conventions unite fans, creators, and industry experts, celebrating iconic Indian characters while introducing international comics and pop culture trends. Through cosplay, artist meet-and-greets, and panel discussions, these events keep the love for comics alive, connecting younger generations to India's comic legacy while embracing global influences. In a landmark move, the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting (I&B), Government of India has partnered with the Indian Comics Association (ICA) to spearhead the first-ever Comic Creator Championship (CCC), a centrepiece event at the upcoming World Audio Visual & Entertainment Summit (WAVES). This three-phase comic-making competition is designed to nurture emerging talent and showcase India's creative potential on a global stage. By providing a platform for both amateur and professional creators, the CCC encourages fresh voices to engage in storytelling that tackles contemporary issues while preserving India's timeless narrative traditions. Interested creators can find more details and register on the website of WAVES. Comics remain one of the most accessible mediums to convey stories—whether educating the youth about history, addressing social issues, or providing pure escapism through fantasy. With initiatives like the CCC, Indian comics are poised for a modern golden age, where tradition meets innovation. Now, more than ever is the time to reignite our love for comics. These aren't just stories from the past; they symbolise an ongoing dialogue between India's cultural heritage and the present. Comics have the power to inspire new generations, offer solace, and spark the imagination. As digital platforms democratize access to these narratives, an entire world of possibilities opens up for creators and readers alike. As we look to the future, let us celebrate this revival by participating in the World Audio Visual Entertainment Summit (WAVES), to be held in New Delhi from February 5th to 9th, 2025. This summit promises to be a landmark event, uniting industry experts, creators, and fans. It will also host the final round of the Comic Creator Championship, where India's brightest new talents will be showcased. Together, we can ensure that the stories of the past continue to inspire, innovate, and captivate audiences in the future. India's comic industry stands on the threshold of a renaissance, and all are invited to be a part of it. Now is the time to turn the page and start a new chapter in the vibrant world of Indian comics. Let's revive and elevate Indian comics to their rightful place in popular culture. Will you join this journey?

A TASTE OF CHINA, PAINTED

IN RED

At 'RED', Radisson Blu MBD Hotel Noida, the new menu brings the vibrant flavours of authentic Chinese cuisine to life. A perfect mix of traditional and modern dishes, it's a dining experience that's bound to excite your taste buds, says SAKSHI PRIYA

Step into 'RED' at Radisson Blu MBD Hotel Noida and you're instantly transported to the heart of China, where every dish tells a story. With a fresh new menu that celebrates authentic Chinese flavours, the restaurant brings together traditional recipes and innovative twists, promising a dining experience unlike any other. Whether you're a vegetarian or a meat lover, the culinary journey here is one that caters to all tastes, with bold flavours and unforgettable textures that will leave you craving more. The ambience of 'RED' is equally remarkable. With its dark, red-lit interior, the space exudes a cosy, intimate vibe, evoking the feel of an authentic Chinese restaurant. As you settle in, you know you're in for something special. Ms. Sonika Malhotra Kandhari, Joint Managing Director of MBD Group, shares, "The RED menu has been meticulously crafted with our guests in mind. This menu reengineering underscores our commitment to authentic Chinese flavours. We look forward to welcoming guests to explore this exciting new offering." At the heart of this dining experience are the sauces, a crucial part of any authentic Chinese meal. 'RED' offers a variety of carefully crafted options, including the classic Chilli Black Bean, the Soya Chilli

Coriander and their signature special sauce made with onion, tomato, chilli and garlic. And for those who enjoy a bit of spice and fermentation, the kimchi adds a delightful punch to any dish. The sauces truly elevate the experience and don't forget to master the art of eating with chopsticks - a fun and authentic way to enjoy the full flavours.

Next up, I moved on to the Dim Sum & Bao section. The Truffle Edamame offered a delightful twist on the classic, with a subtle truffle flavour that complemented the beans beautifully, giving them a soft yet earthy taste. However, the Tofu Bao with Chilli Bean Relish turned out to be my absolute favourite. The silken tofu paired with the chilli bean relish was a perfect blend of soft and spicy, all encased in a delicate, fluffy bao bun. This dish encapsulated the balance of textures and flavours that make Chinese cuisine such a treat. Moving into the Appetisers, the Chilled Mould Tofu with Peanut Sauce was a refreshing change, delicate, smooth tofu dressed in a creamy, slightly tangy peanut sauce. As someone who isn't a big tofu fan, I found it intriguing. It's a dish that might take some getting used to, but the pairing of tofu with peanut sauce certainly creates a unique, palate-expanding experience. This dish left a lasting impression, as did the Mogu with Dry Red Chili and Sichuan Pepper, a crispy fried button mushroom stir-fry that managed to stay crunchy even as it cooled. This level of attention to texture and flavour is a hallmark of authentic Chinese cooking, blending tradition with a modern twist. The bold, balanced flavours in each appetiser felt like a true celebration of Chinese culinary heritage.

Moving on to the main course, the Mapo Tofu was a definite standout. Known for its bold, spicy flavours, the tofu here was incredibly silky, bathed in a slightly fiery sauce that was rich yet balanced. For those who prefer their spice with a subtle twist, the Braised Style Eggplant with Sichuan Pepper Corn was another highlight. The tender eggplant soaked up the flavours of the sauce beautifully, creating a comforting dish with just the right amount of heat. If you're after something more filling, the Red Signature Jasmine Bamboo Fried Rice should be your go-to. This fragrant dish, infused with exotic vegetables and bamboo shoots, was packed with flavour and left a lasting impression. While 'RED' offers a delightful selection of vegetarian dishes, the restaurant's non-vegetarian options are known to truly shine. As a vegetarian, I haven't tried them personally, but from what I've heard, 'RED' delivers on authentic Chinese non-vegetarian flavours. Crafting exceptional Chinese cuisine in a vegetarian style is no easy feat, but Chef Sachin Malik and his team have truly excelled in creating vegetarian dishes that rival their meat counterparts. From Shandong Style Seafood Soup to Kung Pao Chicken and Braised Lamb, each dish offers a window into authentic Chinese cuisine. Reflecting on the culinary vision, Chef Sachin Malik, Executive Chef, reflects, "We aim to celebrate the vibrant flavours of China. Our new menu is a tribute to this culinary heritage, blending traditional elements with modern techniques, with Chef Ghanshyam Thapa's expertise." The dessert menu is a lovely, light way to end the meal. The Matcha Baked Cheesecake stands out, with its creamy, indulgent dessert with earthy matcha notes that balance the sweetness. It's rich, so sharing it with someone is a great idea to end the meal on a satisfying note without it feeling too heavy. Beyond the food, the drinks at 'RED' deserve a special mention. The beverages selection is inspired by China's rich cultural heritage, with classics like the Lion's Tail and innovative creations like the Dragon on the Sky and Junshan Island Sundowner. For those preferring non-alcoholic options, the Chinese Tonic, with lychee, star anise and lime juice is refreshingly fragrant. Meanwhile, the Silver Tips, a ginger-infused drink garnished with dragon fruit, is the perfect quencher, ideal for pairing with the rich flavours of RED's menu. 'RED' offers a dining experience that celebrates both authenticity and creativity. The vegetarian options are exceptional, proving that creating perfect Chinese dishes without meat is possible. Chef Sachin Malik and his team have truly outdone themselves, making this a must-visit spot for anyone craving a true taste of China. Whether you're a fan of vegetarian or non-vegetarian dishes, the menu offers something for everyone, ensuring that your journey through Chinese flavours will be a memorable one.

THE TIMELESS ALLURE OF DELHI BAZAARS

Delhi's bazaars are more than just places to shop, they're vibrant, historical hubs where the city's past and present blend seamlessly, writes KANISHKA SRIVASTAVA

Delhi's bazaars, pulsing with life, colour, and history, are much more than marketplaces. They are a blend of heritage and modernity, places where the past and present meet in a seamless confluence of aromas, sounds, and sights. From the labyrinthine lanes of Chandni Chowk to the bustling avenues of Dilli Haat, Delhi's markets tell stories of centuries gone by and reflect the city's evolving culture.

Delhi's bazaars have been central to the city's identity since its days as the capital of empires. Mughal emperor Shah Jahan established Chandni Chowk in the 17th century as a marketplace that would rival any in the world. Its name, meaning "Moonlight Square," was inspired by a water canal that once reflected the moonlight, lending a magical glow to the surroundings. Chandni Chowk became the heart of trade in Mughal India, where merchants from across Asia brought in silk, spices, and jewels, turning the area into a melting pot of cultures.

As the years passed, other bazaars sprang up, each with its own speciality and charm. For instance, Khari Baoli, the spice market, emerged as a go-to for spices and dried fruits, its intense aromas filling the air and adding a signature fragrance to Delhi's streets. Over time, bazaars like Daryaganj, which once hosted booksellers and publishers, and Sarajini Nagar, famous for its affordable fashion, have added layers to Delhi's shopping culture.

Every festive season, Delhi transforms into a radiant hub of celebration, where joy, traditions, and community take centre stage. Festivals like Diwali, Navratri and Dussehra infuse the city with vibrant energy, filling its streets with lights, colours, and shoppers in search of the perfect outfits, decorations, and gifts. From historic bazaars rich in tradition to modern malls showcasing top designer brands, festival shopping in Delhi is an experience that beautifully combines heritage and contemporary flair.

CHANDNI CHOWK: WHERE HERITAGE MEETS STYLE

Steeped in history, Chandni Chowk is the ultimate destination for exploring Delhi's cultural roots. With narrow lanes lined with shops, this iconic market offers an impressive selection of traditional wear, including bridal lehengas, sarees, and intricate jewellery. The new Omaxe Chowk adds modern amenities to the shopping experience, blending historic charm with contemporary conveniences. Chandni Chowk is a must-visit for

DOWNTOWN BY MANSAN — SOUTH DELHI'S MODERN SHOPPING DESTINATION

Soon to open, Downtown by Mansan Group brings a new shopping experience to South Delhi, conveniently located near the Sarajini Nagar Metro Station. Spread over 2.18 acres, this modern retail complex combines high-street brands with luxury outlets, offering a blend of shopping and contemporary office spaces. With ample parking and a range of dining options, Downtown is set to become a favourite for festival shoppers seeking convenience and a touch of sophistication.

KHAN MARKET: THE UPSCALE MARKET

One of Delhi's upscale markets, Khan Market presents a more sophisticated experience. Although it originated as a market for refugees from Pakistan after Partition, Khan Market has evolved into a high-end shopping hub, known for designer boutiques, international brands, and posh eateries. Its ambience strikes a balance between global trends and Indian tastes, attracting the city's elite and expatriates.

Delhi's bazaars are not just shopping destinations—they are cultural institutions that hold a mirror to the city's diverse population. During festivals like Diwali and Eid, bazaars take on a life of their own, with streets decked in lights, special offerings at every stall, and an air of celebration all around. Vendors and shoppers, coming from varied cultural and economic backgrounds, interact with warmth and camaraderie, making these spaces truly inclusive.

Besides, the food scene in Delhi's markets is an experience in itself. From Paranthe Wali Gali's fried delights to the chaats of INA Market and the kebabs of Jama Masjid, the bazaars have something to tantalise every palate. Street food vendors, often in families for generations, have honed their craft, turning simple snacks into icons of Delhi's culinary landscape.

The Future of Delhi's Bazaars: Balancing Heritage with Modern Needs.

As Delhi modernises, its bazaars are also evolving. The government has initiated efforts to preserve historical markets, restoring facades and improving infrastructure to cater to tourists and preserve heritage. However, challenges persist: rapid urbanisation, increased footfall, and modernisation pressures can sometimes erode the traditional spirit of these markets. Yet, the resilience of Delhi's bazaars lies in their adaptability.

anyone looking to immerse themselves in Delhi's rich heritage during the festive season.

LAJPAT NAGAR: A FESTIVAL SHOPPER'S PARADISE

Known for its affordability and variety, Lajpat Nagar is a favourite among festival shoppers. This lively market offers everything from ethnic wear to home décor and accessories, all at competitive prices. Whether you're after an elegant saree or bridal outfit, Lajpat Nagar's vibrant atmosphere and wallet-friendly options make it a popular spot for families prepping for the festive season.

KAROL BAGH: THE HEART OF TRADITION

Karol Bagh is famous for its mix of traditional and contemporary attire, making it a top destination for wedding and festival shopping. With stores packed into narrow, bustling streets, shoppers can explore an extensive range of bridal wear, textiles, and unique jewellery. The energetic vibe and variety make Karol Bagh ideal for those seeking traditional attire and festive accessories.

GREATER KAILASH: ELEGANCE IN EVERY CORNER

If you're looking for a more luxurious shopping experience, Greater Kailash is the place to be. # A Soulful Sojourn in Puri and Konark

Puri and Konark, two jewels of Odisha, offer a rich tapestry of spirituality, history, and culture that captivates the soul of every traveler, writes VISHESH SHUKLA

In quest of spiritual enlightenment, I embarked on a spiritual journey to Jagannath Puri, the revered abode of Lord Krishna. Boarding a local train from Dhenkanal railway station at dawn, I felt a thrill of excitement for the adventure ahead. The weather was beautiful, with the sun just beginning to rise, casting a warm glow over everything. As the train moved along, I found myself pondering my plans for the day once I reached Puri, eagerly anticipating the experiences that awaited me.

After a few hours of the train's rhythmic motion, I finally arrived at my destination. Upon exiting the station, I immediately started looking for a place to stay. Fortunately, I found Hotel Nemili nearby. I settled on renting 1400 to the hotel reception to get a room. The room was cosy and inviting, a perfect spot to rest after my journey. After resting and freshening up for a while, I felt rejuvenated and ready to explore.

Eager to soak in the local ambience, I grabbed a cup of tea from a nearby stall, enjoying the vibrant atmosphere around me. The streets buzzed with life, filled with locals and tourists alike, all making their way to the temple. Soon, I decided to take a shared auto to the famous Jagannath Temple. The driver charged me Rs. 20 and dropped me a short distance from the temple entrance.

TEMPLE

As I walked along Chakratirtha Road, I noticed a significant crowd gathering, likely due to the weekend and the special occasion of Govardhan Puja. A police officer stationed nearby mentioned that it would take at least three hours to have darshan due to the rush. Many brokers approached me, promising faster entry for a fee of Rs. 500, but I decided not to engage with them and continued on my way, determined to experience the authentic essence of the pilgrimage.

The heat was intense, and I felt a bit uneasy, the sun bearing down as I moved through the throngs of people. After a while, I reached the temple's entrance, where I stored my mobile and shoes in the locker provided by the temple trust. I joined the long line for darshan, the anticipation building with each step. After two hours of waiting and moving through the crowd, I finally had darshan of Lord Jagannath, along with visits to the Sakshi Gopal and Ganesh temples within the premises. The atmosphere was electric with devotion, and I took a moment to soak in the spiritual energy that filled the air. I also made sure to visit the Mahalakshmi Temple before leaving the complex, feeling grateful for the blessings received.

As I emerged from the sacred precincts of the Jagannath Temple, I was blessed with a profound spiritual experience witnessing the live installation of the Patitapabana Bana, a revered flag atop the temple's majestic spire. This sacred ritual, steeped in tradition and significance, left an indelible mark on my soul, with a sense of serenity and connection to the divine. By the time I exited the temple, my stomach growled in protest. I walked down Chakratirtha

Road again and stopped at Ram Lalla restaurant, where I enjoyed a satisfying meal. The flavours were delicious, and I found myself reflecting on the incredible experience of the day—the vibrant sights, the sounds of prayers, and the palpable sense of community. To make the evening even better, I set out for Puri's popular Golden Beach, where many people were already present. After sitting there for a while, I felt a deep sense of peace watching the waves crash against the shore. The sight of the ocean calmed my mind, and I enjoyed an ice cream being sold nearby.

savouring the moment. After spending some more time lost in thought and tranquillity, I decided to call it a day and returned to my hotel to rest.

DISCOVERING KONARK

The next morning, I woke up early, checked out of the hotel, and placed my luggage in the locker room near the station. With excitement bubbling within me, I made my way to Vatika Restaurant for breakfast, relishing the local flavours before setting off for Konark. I took a shared auto to reach there, and as soon as I arrived, I was greeted by intense heat, much stronger than in Puri. My first stop was the Sun Temple, an incredible historic site under the Archaeological Survey of India, which required an entry ticket for Rs. 35. Thankfully, tickets can be easily purchased online, making it convenient for travellers. The temple's architecture was mesmerising, a true marvel of ancient Indian craftsmanship. I spent some time exploring the intricacies of the carvings and the grandeur of the structure, feeling a sense of reverence as I walked through the sacred grounds.

After immersing myself in the history of the Sun Temple, I continued to Chandrabhaga Beach, just 4 kilometres away. The beach is very popular among tourists and offers fun activities like ATV bike rides and boat rides. I spent a while enjoying the beach, feeling the soft sand beneath my feet and the refreshing sea breeze against my skin. The vibrant energy of the beach was infectious, and I could see families enjoying picnics, children building sandcastles, and friends laughing together.

As the day went on, I checked the time and decided it was best to head back. I knew I had to catch the 5 PM local train back to Dhenkanal. Returning to Puri, I caught the train and settled in, watching the scenery change outside the window. I reached home with a heart full of cherished memories and stunning sights that stayed vividly in my mind, knowing that this journey had deepened my connection to my spirituality and left me yearning for more adventures in the future.

THE INDEBTED LIFE

THE TUNING FORK

C V Srikanth

Devotion to our rishis, sages, Gurus and following their guidance, one must unfold the meaning of and uphold their teachings, and sacred wisdom

Just like a Financial Balance sheet, Vedic traditions look at another balance sheet - analysing the Karmas of an individual with a focus on our Rina or Debts. Rina (debts) a key concept in Vedic tradition, emphasises the accountabilities and obligations each individual is born with and is compelled to repay-as an obligation towards the karmic inheritance to help understand one's duties for spiritual & material progress. The debts include an obligation towards Deities, seers & sages, ancestors, nature & elements, and community & mankind. We strengthen our karmic balance sheet, when we fulfil our duties with humility and no expectations. Rishi Vyasa Deva says in the Shrimad Bhagwatam says: ऋणसन्निर्दिनजो जातो देवर्षिपितृणां प्रभो । यज्ञध्यान-पुत्रेसनसित्यजन्पतत ।। rinās tribhīr dvijo jaato devarṣhi-pitṛiṇaam prabho. Yajñāadhyaana-putrais taany anisteerya tyajanpate. A twice born (Brahamaana) has three debts: to God, to the sages and to the ancestors. These are cleared by yajnas sacrifice, studying and learning of the Vedic texts and looking after children. A successful person accomplishes these before forsaking the body. The sacred texts, including the Matsya Purana, elaborate on 5 primary debts -

The first 3 one is born with Debt to the Gods (Deva Rina) Debt to the Ancestors (Pitru Rina) Debt to the Sages (Rishi Rina) Debt to Fellow Humans (Manushya Rina) Debt to Nature and All Living Beings (Bhuta Rina) Deva Rina: The debt to the Gods emphasizes Bhakti devotion, worship, performing rituals and Yajnas sacrifices paying obeisance to the Divine power seen as nourishing and sustaining the cosmic order. यज्ञशिष्टाशिनःसन्तोमुच्यन्तेसर्वकिल्बिषः । भुञ्जतेतेत्वघ्नपापायेपचन्त्यात्मकारणात् ।। Yajñashishtāshino santomuchantesarvakilbīṣhaiḥ Bhūñjate te tvaghñāṁ pāpā ye pachantyāt-makāraṇāt The wise and spiritually-minded, who eat the food that is first offered in sacrifice, are released from all kinds of sin. Others, who eat food for their own enjoyment, verily eat only sin. A reminder to eat food as prasada (sanctified food from the rituals) as a sense of gratitude towards the Divine order that is the provider. Pitru Rina: The debt to ancestors involves rituals like Shraadh and Tarpanto ensure the peace and well-being of our forefathers - an expression of reverence and connection to the Cosmic order reinforcing the values of family lineage.

अथैतानिप्राणधारारश्चवर्चसस्तिष्ठन्ति यस्त्वयमुक्त्वा । सर्वअपामथस्तुस्वामिभूतास्थितातत्स्वाक्रत्विजयस्त्वेानुत्तम् ।। Atha itānīprāṇādhārāraśchavarṇasasthiṣṭhanti yas tvayāni bhuktvā Sarvā apāmātha santu svāpi bhūtā sthītā-tastva rtvijaṇi yastevānūttam "These offerings, rooted in our forefathers, sustain our vitality and merit. Those who partake of these and perform the rites in adherence to tradition, their ancestors are respected, and their lineage remains blessed." Remembering and performing with devotion Shraaddh (rituals for ancestors) is crucial to fulfilling this debt and ensuring their spiritual contentment. Rishi Rina: The debt to sages underscores the obligation to perpetuate the wisdom of seers. It is about engaging in jigyasa - inquiry and learning the scriptures and living by their teachings. गुरुपितरं वसिष्ठं च स्वधर्मण्यो बलत् । सर्वमूलविमुञ्चत्यस्मिन्गृहे तु सदा हिता ।। Gurūṇi pitarāṇi vasiṣṭhaṁ cha svadharmenayobalāt Sarvamūlaṇi vimuchatyasminguhye tu sadā hitā "He who adheres to his Svadharma - his Dharma duties and responsibilities and respects the Guru, teacher, father, and the sage Vasishtha, is freed from all fundamental debts." Devotion to our rishis, sages, Gurus and following their guidance, one must unfold the meaning of and uphold their teachings, and sacred wisdom. Manushya Rina: The debt to humanity highlights virtuous conduct and social responsibility... being compassionate and empathetic to our community. विवेकदृष्टिं प्रजानां पुण्यायेत वयं यथा । गुणानामुपतिष्ठन्ति सन्तो च हिता तु ।। Vivekadarṣṭiṁ prajānāṁ puṇyāyeta vayaṁ yathā Guṇānām upatiṣṭhanti santāḥ santo cha hitā tu "May we always look upon people with discernment and fulfil our duties towards them. The virtuous, by maintaining this, ensure their own welfare and that of others." Fulfilling social duties is vital to maintaining harmonious relationships and societal balance. Bhuta Rina: The debt to Mother Nature and the elements, is key to our sustenance and evolution. Being sensitive & considerate to all life forms. विवेकदृष्टिं प्रजानां पुण्यायेत वयं यथा । गुणानामुपतिष्ठन्ति सन्तो च हिता तु ।। Riṇaṁ tu pṛthivyāḥ pitṛiṇāṁ ca sarvadā Pitarāṇi ca vṛṣṭivyaḥ gṛhaṇi dānaṁ ca tuyat-nataḥ "One is always indebted to the Earth and to one's ancestors. Always be diligent in offering reverence and donations to both the Earth and the forefathers." It is our conscientious duty to respect Nature and all the Universal forces. This Balance sheet provides comprehensive framework for understanding one's Dharma towards life and its stakeholders, living authentically, and fulfilling our dues to the Universe.
