PIONEER NEWS SERVICE/PTI ■ NEW DELHI/BEIJING

With India and China reaching an agreement on patrolling along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in Eastern Ladakh, Army Chief General Upendra Dwivedi on Tuesday said as of now "we are trying to restore the trust" and both sides will have to "reassure each other" to achieve this.

His assertion in New Delhi came a day after India announced an agreement with China on patrolling. China on Tuesday confirmed that it has reached an agreement with India to end the standoff between the two armies in eastern Ladakh.

It means both the armies will now resume patrolling in their respective zones as was the practice before May

Following the Galwan clash in June that year, both sides deployed a large number of troops on the LAC leading to heightened tension.

Delhi is most polluted city: IQAir STAFF REPORTER

 $E^{\mathrm{ven}} \ \ \text{before the arrival of} \\ \text{Ewinter, Delhi along with}$ several cities of north India is gasping for clean air as air quality has degraded to alarming levels over the past few days. Based on the real time data, Delhi ranks top on he list of most polluted in the country. It was the second-most polluted city in the world on Tuesday, a live ranking on IQAir's a Swiss based air quality monitoring website indicated, after only Lahore in neighbouring Pakistan. AQI in Lahore recorded 394.

A layer of smog engulfed Delhi and surrounding areas, including Noida, on Tuesday morning, even as the air quality plummeted to the 'very poor' category at 327, followed by Haryana's Jind where the AQI stood at 311.

Meanwhile, out of 36 monitoring stations in the National Capital, 26 are in the red zone, with the AQI recorded in the "very poor" category, according to data from the Central Pollution Control Board. These stations include Anand Vihar, Bawana, Dwarka, Jahangirpuri, Mundka, Narela, Patparganj, Rohini, Shadipur, Sonia Vihar, Wazirpur, Alipur, Ashok Vihar, Aya Nagar, Burari, Mandir Marg, and others. A thick layer of fog was seen in areas like Anand Vihar, Kalkaji, Nehru Place, and Akshardham Temple, as Delhi's air quality continued to deteriorate.

contributing Factors significantly to pollution include transportation, stubble burning, and dust pollution, from with emissions transportation accounting for approximately 11.45 percent of Delhi's air pollution, according to the Centre's Decision Support System for Air Quality Management.

As the air pollution in Delhi reaches the red zone, Delhi Environment Minister Gopal Rai on Tuesday wrote letters to the transport ministers of Haryana, Uttar Pradesh and Rajasthan, urging them to ensure no diesel buses from their states plied to the national capital in view of GRAP II restrictions in place. Rai announced a slew of measures, including enhanced water sprinkling to control road dust, use of dust suppressants and deployment of additional traffic personnel to ease traffic congestion, among others.

Driving to Gurgaon? Pack a meal, and a diaper

District administration has identified 18 hot spots on the city roads

BY PARVESH SHARMA

To tackle traffic congestion in the city, the Gurugram district administration has identified 18 spots on the city roads which have reported heavy traffic movement and congestion. The officials have asked traffic police and other departments to take correctional steps in this regard.

These places include Delhi-Gurugram Expressway, Sohna Road, Delhi-Jaipur Highway, Sheetla Mata Road, Old-Delhi Road and other major roads. The city administration recently wrote to traffic police asking for a reduction in jams at the identified spots. Officials have advised enforcement and increased police presence on roads so that road congestion is cleared quickly.

"We conduct drives to reduce congestion and ensure traffic movement remains smooth. We have also increased the presence of traffic police personnel at these 18 hot spots and the enforcement has been made strict. We are also conducting awareness among the vehicle owners to follow traffic rules," Virender Vij, Deputy Commissioner of Police (Traffic) told The Pioneer.

Another traffic congestion reason is rain. A few hours of rain causes severe water logging in different areas of Gurugram, which in turn results in traffic disruption in the city. The traffic police have also identified more than 55 places in the city, including major key points on the expressway, that witnessed water logging due to rain.

Rainwater collected at various spots also hampers the traffic movement on the Delhi-Jaipur Expressway. The traffic movement at this major junction of the expressway slowed especially when two-wheelers and wheelers faced huge inconveniences due to rainwater.

Among the 18 spots identified are Ambience Island, Iffco Chowk, Subash Chowk, Hero Honda Chowk, Umang Bhardwaj Chowk, Sohna Chowk, Kherki Daula toll plaza, Dwarka Expressway, Huda City Centre, Hero Honda Chowk, Subhash Chowk Underpass and Subhash Chowk.

Gurugram Deputy Commissioner has asked authorities to take strict measures to check violations of traffic norms. He asked officials to launch a drive to check wrong parking, ferrying of dangerous goods and seizure of old vehicles that are not allowed to ply on roads.

The city traffic police department said they have increased police presence at these hot spots and measures in line with the Graded Action Response Plan (GRAP). Traffic police issued over 24,000 penalties in the previous month. Offences include wrong-side driving, helmet-less riding, wrong parking, jumping signals, underage driving, speeding, without a driving licence, without a highsecurity number plate, using a mobile phone while driving, overloading, and driving without seat belts.

"To make people aware of traffic rules in Gurugram, people should follow the traffic rules in public places so that they can save themselves and their families from road accidents and avoid being victims effort is being made by the traffic police in Gurugram to get rid of the problem of traffic jams and ease the traffic in the cyber city by taking continuous action against the violators as per the rules," Vij said.

'To curb the traffic menace across Gurugram we have been organising special drives from time to time. We have issued a clear direction to the traffic personnel to be present on the roads and curb traffic violations, he added.

BJP announces 3 out of 4 candidates for Punjab Bypolls; All turncoats

MONIKA MALIK ■ CHANDIGARH

The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on Tuesday announced its candidates for three of the four constituencies set to witness by-elections next month. The list included highprofile names — all of whom have previously been associated with rival parties — underscoring the shifting dynamics in the state's political landscape. The BIP has fielded former Finance Minister Manpreet Singh Badal from Gidderbaha, former Akali leader Ravi Karan Singh Kahlon from Dera Baba Nanak, and former Congress MLA Kewal Singh Dhillon from Barnala. However, the party has yet to declare a candidate for

The upcoming by-elections in these four constituencies were triggered after their sitting legislators won seats in the recent Lok Sabha elections, vacating their positions in the state assembly. The bypolls are scheduled to take place on November 13, and the contest is expected to be a tough battle, particularly as political loyalties have been shifting in the region.

Manpreet Badal: Returning to Gidderbaha after 12 yrs

Manpreet Singh Badal, the most high-profile candidate among the three, has a longstanding connection with Gidderbaha. Once an influential leader in SAD and Congress, he has held the post of Finance Minister in governments led by both parties. His political career has seen several shifts, with his most recent switch to the BJP in January 2023. Manpreet's return a towering figure in Punjab gap of 12 years, is seen as a crucial move by the BJP to gain ground in an area traditionally dominated by the Badal family's influence. No stranger to the Gidderbaha constituency, Manpreet first entered the political arena in 1995, when he contested and won the Gidderbaha seat in a by-election after his uncle, the five-time Chief Minister late Parkash Singh Badal, vacated it for him. Over the years, Manpreet established a formidable presence, winning four consecutive elections from the constituency between 1995 and 2007. His political career has seen him serve as Punjab's finance minister twice - first during the SAD-BJP alliance in 2007; and later during the Congress-led Government in 2017. In 2011, citing differences within the SAD over economic policies, Manpreet broke away from his uncle and formed the People's Party of Punjab (PPP). However, the PPP's failure in 2012 elections prompted him to merge with Congress, where he continued to play a key role, including winning the Bathinda Urban seat in 2017. After a loss in the 2022 elections, Manpreet made a significant shift by joining the BJP in January 2023.

For Manpreet, the by-election in Gidderbaha represents a return to familiar political turf, where his family has held considerable influence for decades. His campaign is expected to focus heavily on his past record and his family's legacy, particularly that of Parkash Singh Badal,

Delegation of Deprived

Ravi Kahlon: Continuing a Legacy in Dera Baba Nanak

Ravi Karan Kahlon, BJP's candidate for Dera Baba Nanak constituency, hails from a prominent political family. His father, the late Nirmal Singh Kahlon, served as Punjab Vidhan Sabha Speaker and held several ministerial positions SAD-BJP the during Government. Ravi Karan has been active in Punjab's politics for years and was a key leader within the SAD before his recent shift to the BJP. Ravi Karan's move to the BJP came after the SAD readmitted another senior leader, Sucha Singh Langah, triggering dissatisfaction within certain factions of the party. Ravi Karan contested the 2022 assembly elections from Dera Baba Nanak but lost to Congress' Sukhjinder Singh Randhawa by a narrow margin. With his switch to the BJP, he now faces the challenge of reclaiming the seat in a constituency that has traditionally seen close contests. His campaign will likely emphasize his family's contributions to the region and his plans for local development.

Kewal Dhillon: From Congress to BJP in Barnala

Kewal Singh Dhillon, BJP candidate for Barnala, is another veteran who has switched political affiliations. Dhillon was a two-time Congress MLA, winning the Barnala seat in 2007 and 2012. However, in 2017, he lost to the Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) Gurmeet Singh Meet Hayer by a margin of approximately 2,300 votes. Despite this setback, Dhillon remained a prominent figure within Congress until 2022, when internal disputes over ticket allocation prompted him to leave the party. Dhillon formally joined the BJP in June 2022, in the presence of Union Home Minister Amit Shah. In the upcoming by-elections, Dhillon is expected to leverage his extensive experience and local connections in Barnala. His campaign will likely focus on the constituency's development issues and his track record as a former legislator. However, he faces stiff competition, particularly from the

AAP, which has already

Litmus Tests For All

These by-elections are not just about filling the vacant assembly seats; they are a litmus test for the shifting political alliances in Punjab. All three BJP candidates have deep roots in the state's politics, with extensive histories in the Congress and Akali Dal. Their shifts to the BJP signal a broader strategy by the party to establish a foothold in Punjab — a state where it has traditionally played a smaller role compared to the Congress and the Akali Dal. Meanwhile, AAP, which currently holds power in Punjab, has already announced its candidates for all four constituen cies. Congress and the Akali Dal, on the other hand, have yet to reveal their candidates, adding an element of suspense to the upcoming contest.

Mann talks with HM Amit Shah on paddy procurement

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

To address the ongoing challenges in the state's paddy procurement process, Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on Tuesday spoke with the Union Home Minister Amit Shah highlighting key concerns impacting the smooth purchase of paddy in the state, including issues related to transportation costs, storage shortages, and complications with the hybrid variety of grains. Mann, during the telephonic conversation, also dis-cussed the losses faced by rice millers, urging the Centre to intervene and resolve these matters for the greater good of the state's agriculture sector.

Conveying his expectations of swift action, Mann pointed out that these obstacles were hampering an otherwise well-prepared procurement season. "This year, Punjab is set to contribute 185 lakh metric tons of paddy to the central pool, and our government has made comprehensive arrangements to ensure a smooth process," he said. However, he noted that issues with transportation, storage space, and grain lifting have slowed down the procurement process, which he has now brought to the attention of the

Meeting with Millers in Delhi

In a move to push forward the state's agenda, Mann announced that he would be heading to Delhi on Wednesday with a delegation of rice millers. Union Home Minister Amit Shah, alongside Union Minister for Coal and Mines Pralhad Ioshi, will attend the meeting, where the Punjab Government will present the demands and concerns of the millers. "It is essential that these genuine demands be met to ensure the timely completion of paddy procurement in Punjab," said Mann, emphasizing the importance of millers, farmers, and arhtiyas (commission agents) in ensuring the country's food

A day before, the State Government had taken several steps to assist rice millers before the discussion with Amit Shah. One major reform was reducing the charge for surplus paddy release orders (RO) from Rs 50 per ton to Rs 10 per ton. Additionally, the fee is waived entirely if the crop is lifted the next day. To address long-standing cases against certain millers, the Government has allowed millers' sister partners or guarantors to operate without hindrance, benefitting around 200 rice mills. Moreover, the geographical scope for millers to lift paddy has been expanded by creating larger district circles for operations

Storage Challenges

One of the most pressing issues raised by the Chief Minister is the shortage of storage space. Due to delays in the previous season's milling, around 120 lakh metric tons of storage space is still occupied. Mann urged the Central Government to expedite the release of this storage space to accommodate the fresh harvest. "This issue must be resolved at the earliest to safeguard the interests of our farmers and to ensure national food security," he added, noting that the upcoming wheat season added urgency to this matter. Mann also pressed the Centre to release Punjab's pending share of the Rural Development Fund (RDF). "The state has fulfilled all formalities, and it is time for the Centre to release our rightful share of funds," he stated, adding that states should not have to plead for their legitimate dues.

SAD expresses concern on farmers' difficulties in Mandis

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) on Tuesday voiced concerns regarding the difficulties faced by farmers in Punjab's mandis, attributing these challenges to Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann's policies. After SAD's core committee meeting led by the party's working president Balwinder Singh Bhunder, senior leader Bikram Singh Majithia revealed that the meeting primarily focused on the ongoing paddy procurement issues, emphasizing the need for immediate action. The committee plans to approach Governor Gulab Chand Kataria to discuss the situation and demand a CBI inquiry into alleged coercive tactics employed by Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) officials and private players to force farmers to sell their produce below the Minimum Support Price (MSP).

Majithia criticized the government's failure to procure early varieties of paddy, like PR-126, which the Chief Minister had encouraged farmers to plant. Many farmers now find themselves in a dire situation as government agencies, including Markfed, Pungrain, and Punsup, are not buying these varieties, leading to significant financial losses.

"Farmers are being misled by AAP functionaries and private traders into selling their paddy for prices significantly lower than the MSP, causing distress that is unacceptable," he said. Reports indicated that Basmati rice is selling for only Rs 2,700 per quintal, down from last year's Rs 4,000, translating into losses of Rs 20,000 to Rs 30,000 per acre for farmers, he said.

Majithia emphasized the lack of government intervention to alleviate these hardships, pointing out that no AAP Minister has visited the mandis to address the procurement delays or shortages of essential supplies.

Hry Govt suspends 24 officials over failure to curb stubble burning

PNS ■ CHANDIGARH

Department of ▲ Agriculture and Farmers Welfare has suspended 24 officials for their alleged failure to prevent and control paddy stubble burning in their respective areas. Department sources said that the officials, ranging from agricultural development officers (ADOs) to agriculture supervisors, have been placed under suspension on administrative grounds.

This move comes ahead of the October 23 hearing in the Supreme Court and reflects the administration's strict stance on enforcing the ban on stubble burning, an annual agricultural practice that contributes significantly to air pollution in the region. Although the official suspension order did not mention the reason, department sources confirmed that the suspension was related to their inability to manage the stubble burning situation during the current harvesting season.

Among the suspended officials, two each are from Panipat, Jind, Hisar, and Sonepat districts, while three each are from Kaithal, Karnal, Fatehabad, and Ambala districts. Kurukshetra district recorded the highest number of suspensions, with four officials facing action.

Sources further said that as many as 24 officials have been suspended on administrative grounds. Some were absent from duty when assigned to control stubble burning, while some failed to curb it in their areas. In certain regions, the number of stubble-burning incidents was alarmingly high, prompting the authorities to take this strict step.

Stubble burning continues to be a major environmental concern, contributing to air pollution and health hazards. Despite government efforts to discourage the practice, the issue persists. As per the satellite data till October 21, the state has recorded 655 active fire locations (AFLs). Kaithal leads the tally with 127 cases, followed by Kurukshetra (91), Ambala (74), Karnal (68), Jind (49), Sonepat (40), Fatehabad (40), Faridabad (31), Panipat (28), and Palwal (26).

Amid concern over the rise in stubble-burning incidents in Punjab, a demand for financial incentives to manage paddy stubble is emerging from farmers who assert that it is not financially viable for small cultivators to buy crop residue management machin-ery to clear their fields. They also said as the window for Rabi crops like wheat is very short after paddy harvest, many farmers are forced to set their fields on fire to quickly clear the straw for sowing the next crop.

Many farmers were of the view that the minimum support price on alternative crops like maize, pulses etc should be guaranteed so as to wean away growers from the water-guzzling paddy crop. As the paddy harvesting is progressing in the state, the incidents of stubble burning are picking up in the two foodgrain growing states, prompting the state authorities to register FIRs and impose fines on erring farmers. "Each child has a special talent given by God. Some may excel in writing, while others are great in sports. We must stop comparing them with others and appreciate their individuality," said

The Chief Minister pointed out that the immense pressure of expectations can sometimes negatively impact children. Drawing on an example from Elon Musk's company, Mann inspired the students to become that they have no competition. His words aimed to boost the students' confidence and encourage them to pursue their passions without undue stress.

Highlighting the government's efforts to improve the state's education sector, Mann revealed that more than 10,000 students, including 7,200 girls, are now benefiting from the newly-introduced bus service in government schools. "Our government is working hard to ensure that teachers focus solely on teaching. Administrative and other non-teaching tasks are being allocated to support staff, ensuring that educators can devote their time and energy to students," Mann said, emphasizing the government's dedica-

During the PTM, parents were given the opportunity to discuss their children's academic progress and areas for improvement. Teachers conversed with parents in their local languages, ensuring clear communication. The Education Department also sought feedback from parents about the facilities provided in schools and discussed potential improvements.

Education Minister Harjot Singh Bains and MP Malwinder Singh Kang, who were present at the event, reiterated the government's commitment to educational excellence. Bains emphasized that the government is focused on nurturing young talent and providing them with the resources they need to suc-

Mann also shared details of the government's ongoing efforts to revolutionize the education system in Punjab. He mentioned that the state has sent batches of teachers and education officers to countries like Singapore and Finland, as well as to premier institutes like IIM Ahmedabad, for training in modern educational techniques. The objective, Mann said, is to ensure that students in Punjab receive world-class education, enabling them to excel in their fields.

In addition, the Chief Minister highlighted that 118 government schools have been transformed into Schools of Eminence, with a focus on high-nfrastructure. Uniforms have been distributed, and a transport facility has been initiated for these schools. The Punjab government has also regularized over 12,000 employees in the School Education Department and recruited more than 10,000 teachers since April 2022.

Mann urged the parents to have faith in their children's capabilities and to allow them to pursue the career paths they are passionate about. "We must encourage our children to explore their own interests and trust that they will excel when given the right support," he said, adding that the government's top priorities are education, health, power, water, and infrastructure.

Breathless in Delhi

Delhi's air quality has once again plunged into the 'Very Poor' category, marking the beginning of the dreaded annual pollution season s the Air Quality Index (AQI) stood at 312 on October 21, 2024, the Commission for Air Quality Management (CAQM) announced the activation of Stage 2 of the Graded Response Action Plan (GRAP) in Delhi-NCR, which came into effect from October 22. The city is bracing for several days of toxic air, with forecasts indicating that the AQI will remain in the 'Very Poor' range due to unfavourable climatic and meteorological conditions, such as calm winds and stagnant air. Over the years, Delhi has consistently struggled with air quality issues, particularly during the winter months when pollution levels spike to alarming levels. The problem intensifies due to a combination of factors including the burning of crop stubble in neighbouring states, construction dust, vehicular emissions and industrial activities. In previous years, the city witnessed severe smog days that not only disrupted daily life but also had long-lasting effects on public health. Efforts to curb pollution have included initiatives such as the implementation of the GRAP, which consists of a set of emergency measures that are triggered based on the severity of air quality. These measures have previously helped prevent air quality from worsening further, but the results have been mixed. While temporary improvements have been achieved, long-term solutions remain elusive. The annual nature of the problem indicates that past measures, though helpful, have not addressed the root causes effectively.

A significant contributor to Delhi's poor air quality is the burning of crop residue in neighbouring states like Punjab and Haryana. Despite bans and incentives for alternative disposal methods, stubble burning remains a widespread practice due to economic and logistical challenges faced by farmers. Besides this vehicular emission and construction activities adds to the pollution. With the invocation of GRAP Stage 2, a range of measures will be implemented to tackle the escalating pollution levels: To reduce dust on roads, mechanical sweeping and water sprinkling will be conducted daily on identified roads. Besides, strict enforcement of dust control measures at construction and demolition sites will be carried out. The use of diesel generator sets will be discouraged, except for essential services. These actions will supplement the Stage 1 measures that have been in place since October 15, which include banning garbage burning, banning coal and firewood usage in hotels and restaurants, and imposing restrictions on brick kilns. Indeed, the 'Very Poor' air quality has serious implications for the health and wellbeing of Delhi's residents. While GRAP provides a framework for emergency measures, long-term strategies are needed to bring about lasting improvements in air quality. Without a comprehensive approach that combines policy interventions, technological innovations, and behavioural changes, the cycle of pollution will continue to haunt the city each year. Till that happens, Delhiites will have yet another season to breathe the polluted air.

Trump tries hard to win the second term

The traits Trump exhibits on the golf course serve as a metaphor for his approach to life and politics: a willingness to bend the rules and win at any cost merican sportswriter Rick Reilly wrote a called Commander Cheat: How Golf Explains Trump, to explain Donald Trump's incorrigible ways. He alludes to Trump's selfclaimed prowess in Golf and his purported handicap of 2.8 by a fawning Golf Digest by saying, "If Trump is a 2.8, Queen Elizabeth is a pole vaulter."

However, perhaps the most damning reality check for Trump is the fact that both his 'wingman' (former and current) i.e., Vice President Mike Pence and his current running mate, JD Vance, would have the maximum access to Trump and know him as a person, have been critical - even if expediency forces Vance to conveniently renege from his earlier views and for Pence says a lot with his deafening silence and refusal to endorse his former boss's candidature.

For all his matching vitriol, boorishness (remember, 'childless cat ladies') and Oorah-style brouhaha as a former Marine, JD Vance was once stoutly anti-Trump. Vance had once declared himself as a 'never-Trump guy' and called Trump 'reprehensible' and an 'idiot'. Vance then had the clarity to articulate the reason for his non-support of Trump by insisting, "The reason, ultimately, that I am not...is because I think that (Trump) is the most raw expression of a massive finger pointed at other people."
In the 2016 US Presidential elections, Vance had rationalised Trump's authoritarian, illiberal and intolerant ways by slamming, 'back and forth between thinking Trump is a cynical a-hole like Nixon who wouldn't be that bad (and might even prove useful) or that he's America's Hitler"! For all his matching vitriol, boorishness (remember, 'childless cat ladies') and Oorah-style brouhaha as a former Marine, JD Vance was once stoutly anti-Trump.

Vance had once declared himself as a 'never-Trump guy' and called Trump 'reprehensible' and an idiot. He was quick to take down' uncomfortable views that he had expressed about Trump would have hoped. like the one he had put about the Much as he remained loyal to 'Access Hollywood' tape where the bitter end, Pence did final-

Trump had shockingly claimed that fame had enabled him to grope women!

Then Vance had heeded to his moral conscience as a practising Christian and lamented, "Fellow Christians, everyone is watching us when we apologize for this man. Lord help us". But all his conscience came to nought at the altar of political ambition as Vance meekly retracted later, "I've been very open that I did say those critical things and I regret them, and I regret being wrong about the guy". With that, everything was supposedly forgotten, and Vance now 'presumably' sees Trump as a paragon of Christian values, morality, and dignity that America needs for the future!

Meanwhile, the elephant in the room who says a lot by not speaking at all is former Vice President Mike Pence - once the most devout and virtuous of Christians who was earlier the most loyal confidante of Trump. Presumably, the diehard Republican had put up with all of Trump's crassness in the silent hope that the Republican Presidency would set things right with conservative and far-right policies, as

TODAY, THE FORGOTTEN IMAGE OF PENCE IS REFLECTIVE OF THE CONUNDRUM THAT MANY COMMITTED REPUBLICANS FACE IN TRUMP'S CANDIDATURE – HE REFUSES TO

SUPPORT TRUMP AFTER "ALL THAT HE HAS DONE" AND CANNOT BRING HIMSELF TO ENDORSE A PARTISAN RIVAL, KAMALA HARRIS,

ly put fealty to the Constitution above the unreasonable demands of a man he had once slavishly addressed as 'my President', on the fateful 6th January 2021.

That Trump had showed his true character by shrugging his shoulders with a 'so what' refrain when told that Pence was at physical risk with rioters chanting 'hang Mike Pence, is a footnote in the long history of Trump's unhinged, amoral and reckless politics. Importantly, Pence had held his head, heart, and soul intact, when he played a pivotal role in saving America's democracy by confirming the electoral process and result, to the utter dismay of Trump.

Pence was to later reflect philosophically, "like the Bible says, at some point, you've just got to wipe the dust off your feet and go your separate ways". In Trump's golfing world, the term 'Mulligan' (an extra stroke allowed after a poor shot) is best applicable to Pence's tumultuous tenure, unceremonious parting, and subsequent redemption with the Trump era.

Today, the forgotten image of Pence is reflective of the Donald Trump. conunarum that many committed Republicans face in Trump's candidature – he refuses to support Trump after "all that he has done" and cannot bring himself to endorse a partisan rival, Kamala Harris, either.

This lurking ambiguity in Republican ranks (or amongst the 'undecided') could tilt things decisively in the forthcoming cliffhanger of a Presidential contest. Meanwhile Trump's view of his former 'wingman' Pence is as expected of a cribbing, complaining and bitter man who vaingloriously claims that Pence lacked the 'courage' and 'stamina' in the ultimate bidding. Even Vance's own mealymouthed and almost forced views on Trump's "stolen mandate" in the 2020 Presidential elections are also, hardly convincing.

This is situationally reflective of the 'cultlike campaign' of Donald Trump that is hoping to cross the bridge even if it tramples on imperatives that are constitutional, moral or ideological/partisan, as in Donald Trump's world, if you can cheat in Golf.

You can surely cheat in life winning at any cost is only an extension of the selfish and deceitful spirit that represents

Seeking validation: A necessity more than an add-on to our vanity

Though contentment offers a deep sense of inner peace, validation serves as a crucial motivator uch to the contrary of the popular belief Labout happiness being commensurate with the degree of material success, my late father asserted that the key to happiness lies in contentment. Both views have their share of advocates, the former often relying on validation from outside, and the latter, a more philosophical contention anchored in an irrevocable sense of self-assur-

The philosophy of contentment is a long shot for many of us embroiled in making it materialistically big, and we tend to seek a lot of external validation to determine our core worth. Maybe, the philosophies are based on two entirely different life principles and the value of neither can be dismissed. Success has its sweet trimmings and contentment has its merit, and both may be equally coveted.

What distinguishes one from the other is the element of endorsement we crave for our endeavours. Even the most self-assured person looks for acceptance and recognition, and there is no others is indeed required for us to stay on course, not simply for the ego boost it brings but also for the motivation it gives us to strive and march forward in making a mark in the world. The more sagacious ones among us may, however, hold a different view. I have heard several suggestions that we should not seek approval from others and instead rely solely on our inner convictions.

While this notion seems noble, it underestimates a fundamental human needto feel seen, heard, and acknowledged by those around us. To deny the significance of external validation is to ignore an essential part of the human experience. Whether we realise it or not, the approval shame in it. Validation from we seek from others has a even just a simple "well profound impact on our selfperception and our efforts to

When someone validates our work, it serves as a confirmation that we are on the right track. It is a form of recognition that can affirm our abilities, encourage us to push further, and give us the confidence to take risks that we might otherwise avoid.

Take, for instance, the world of creative endeavours. Writers, artists, musicians those of us in professions where the outcomes are subjective—often look to their audiences for validation. It's not just about ego or pride. When someone appreciates a piece of art or writing, it signals to the creator that their expression has resonated with others, creating a connec-

It is this recognition that gives an artist the courage to continue crafting, to improve, and to share their innermost thoughts with the world. Without that validation, their passion might wither in isolation. In professional contexts, validation can often come in the form of promotions, awards, or done." These acknowledgements are crucial motivators. They tell us that our efforts matter, that our contributions are recognised, and that we are moving in the right direction. While selfbelief is vital, external acknowledgement adds weight to that belief, making it more tangible. It confirms that our skills and efforts are seen as valuable by others, which can propel us toward even greater heights. Furthermore, seeking validation is not just about personal gain—it also creates a cycle of mutual encouragement. When we validate others, we lift them, creating a supportive environment where everyone's contributions are acknowledged.

It doesn't just boost their morale; it strengthens their commitment to the work they're doing. Of course, we must also be wary of relying solely on external validation. The danger lies in overdependence, where we begin to measure our worth only by what others say.

MAHAYUTI GAINS EDGE Madam — This refers to the news report,

'BJP releases 99-strong candidate list' (October 21). On one hand, alliance partners of Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) are still struggling to finalise the seat-sharing formula for Maharasthra Assembly polls, the BJP has announced candidates for the majority of seats in its share. The MVA dealt a deadly blow to the Mahayuti by winning 29 out of 48 Lok Sabha polls. But, in the last 4 months, political equations have drastically changed in the state, which may help the ruling dispensation, i.e. the BJP-led Mahayuti, which was just 1.52 per cent behind the MVA in terms of Lok Sabha vote share. The Shinde government's Ladki Bahini Yojana scheme has been very popular among women

The Congress which won 13 seats and secured lead in 63 assembly segments in Lok Sabha polls, appeared to lose momentum after its poor performance in recent Assembly polls in Haryana and J and K. In addition, the Mahayuti has less discord over the chief ministerial face in the Assembly polls though it is going in the polls without any CM face. But the MVA is a divided house on CM face. The Shiv Sena (UBT) wants projection of former CM and party chief Uddhav Thackeray while Sharad Pawar is repeatedly hinting to support Jayant Patil as CM face. Unexpected success in Lok Sabha has also driven ambitions of the Congress high for the CM post in case of the victory of the MVA. The Manoj Jarange factor is also unlikely to be as effective as in Lok Sabha polls.

NAIDU'S BOLD MOVE

Madam — Andhra Pradesh CM Chandrababu Naidu is a part of the farright government at the centre, which has been demanding for more than 10 years that 'population control policies should be implemented as soon as possible to control India's population growth. But

Yamuna pollution on the rise

Yamuna River has been raising concerns for the past few days as the festive season arrives. The river is covered with a very thick layer of froth. The froth can cause major health problems, which can affect both human opposite and talking about bringing the opposite policy to his state. He wants to encourage those who have more children and is planning to punish those who have fewer. He said that the increasing average age of people in the state is becoming a matter of concern. Families should have at least two or more children. In the coming times, only those who have two or more children will be able to contest local body elections.

The state government will soon make a law for this. Naidu further said that there are many districts in Andhra Pradesh where only elderly people are left in the villages. The fertility rate is continuously falling in the southern states. While the average fertility rate in the country is 2.1, this figure has fallen to 1.6 in the southern states. Is India really getting old? The young population is decreasing. According to the Centre's Youth in India-2022 report, by 2036, only 34.55 crore of the population of the country will be young, which is more than 47 per cent right now. Currently, 25 crore youth in the country Chandrababu Naidu is going exactly the are between 15 and 25 years of age. In the health and wildlife in the areas surrounding the river Yamuna. Now, as we see, pollution levels have reached an alarming stage. Instantaneous steps should be taken in order to address the issue as soon as possible.

According to experts, the froth contains high levels of ammonia and phosphates, which can lead to respiratory and skin disorders. Recently, the Environment Minister, Gopal Rai, mentioned that a few days ago, the officials were instructed to recognise the regional sources of pollution. 13 hotspots have been chosen for this purpose, where the main local source of pollution will be identified, which was causing the area's pollution levels to rise significantly above Delhi's AQI.

IMMIGRANTS FACE UNCERTAINTY

Madam — The escalating diplomatic row between India and Canada will have the more than 4 lakh Indian students studying in Canada worried and concerned about their future. Many have sold everything they owned in Índia to study in Canada, which is seen as a gateway to a better future. The 20 lakh Indians will wonder what their future is going to be. The first thing the government needs to do is reassure the immigrants that their interests will be protected by the government of India. The Indian media too should stop bashing Justin Trudeau the way they have been doing. India needs also to be worried that other nations like America, the UK, Australia and New Zealand have come out in support of Canada over the plot to assassinate Canadian citizens on its soil.

THE PATH TO TRUE GROWTH

Constant comparison overshadows cooperation, empathy and joy of life

RAJYOGI BRAHMA KUMAR NIKUNJ JI

Il of us, whether we like it or not, have to compete from the time we are born until the time we die. Though most of us indulge in healthy competition all the time, nevertheless, one thing common to all kinds of competitions is the underlying desire to win a victory for the self or to defeat others. While competing, a person brings out their skill, ability, art, acumen, or talent to show that they are superior, stronger, better, more powerful, more skilful, more learned, or more competent than others. It is this habit of making comparisons with others that creates the competition background.

That is why we always see this subtle desire in people who are winners, to hear some words of praise about themselves or their performance. To fulfil this ultimate objective of massaging their egos, one does not care if the other person feels disappointed, depressed, defeated and even humiliated, ridiculed, or booed. This drive to be recognised as "better" than others sometimes overshadows the simple joy of participating or improving oneself. To understand this kind of behaviour, one needs to understand human psychology because the roots of comparison and competition have been sown into our minds since our childhood days. From school grades to sibling rivalries, we are conditioned early to pit our success against others' failures. Hence, they become more rigid with time. We need to understand that the core objective behind the competition is not simply the desire to win, but it is intertwined with the motive of laying aside the softer and nobler sentiments of cooperation, kindness, and gentleness, even if only for a while. In competition, one puts all energies and talents into bogging down or defeating another person, leaving them behind in the race while making a forward thrust to reach the goal before anyone else. As the famous philosopher Schopenhauer said, "The world is a battle of will and intellect." But in this battle. one often loses sight of empathy and connectedness, which are essential for human growth.

It may also put a limit on one's spirit of giving, helping, cooperating and sacrificing. Remember! Anything small and insignificant in the beginning has the potential to grow and become big. Hence, we must not forget that even though a spark or flame of fire may be small to start with, it can reduce a big apartment with valuables to ashes if it grows into a big fire. Thus, we should be careful and vigilant, because if the whole society catches this contagion or infection of selfishness or rivalry, it may spoil the charm of life and the atmosphere in society. Some people link competition to motivation and developing an attitude toward high performance. But they fail to understand that this evil trait to defeat others, which may look like a harmless thing initially, may eventually develop into a spirit of revenge, feelings of hatred or enmity, bitter jealousy, confrontation, hostile attitudes and ugly outbursts. These effects are not limited to the individuals involved but spill over into communities, organisations and even nations. Look at global politics or corporate boardrooms, and you will see this principle at play on a massive scale. Hence, it all depends upon the emotional maturity of a person whether or not he or she is affected. Because this seed of evil, as it grows, takes the form of a big tree with many branches; so, too, does selfishness or the spirit to downgrade others to gain ascendance for the self. It may proliferate into many evils or obnoxious habits. Hence, one must try to curtail selfishness and give up the ambition of winning by vengeance for the applause and praise of the self. Remember! The only competition that should matter to us is the one that takes place within ourselves. Hence, it is better to defeat one's inner demons first and become victorious from within to be an example for others to follow.

NEP 2020: A blueprint for transformative education

While NEP promises radical changes through holistic learning and flexible assessments, implementation challenges continue to hamper its progress

EP 2020 was founded on the guiding principles of Access, Affordability Accountability. This was primarily to prepare the young ones to face the diverse national & global challenges for the present & future. The Policy aims to lead to a multi-disciplinary, holistic under-graduation syllabus, create wider choices of combinations of Subjects, Integration of Vocational Education with regular Subjects and multi-entry and multi-exit points with regular appropriate certification at various stages. The aim is to ensure that no child loses any opportunity to learn and excel because of the circumstances of birth, economy and/or background. This should eventually lead to transformative changes which shall change the lifeline of education in our country. The emphasis is going to be on holistic edu-cation, early childhood care, flexible assessments, skill development, integration of technology, teacher training and higher education reforms. These are aimed at designing a learner-centric and inclusive education for a future-ready

By embracing these India is poised to provide quality education to everyone with the necessary skills and knowledge to thrive in the 21st century. The motto has been to provide "Equitable and Inclusive Education" to ensure that no child should be denied quality education because of their socio-cultural background and 100 per cent GER is reached by 2030. Looking at all the facts presented alone, one gets a feeling that this is going to be a real game changer in the education system of our country but the reality remains that it has not taken off even after three years of its approval. The major reason is that a majority do not understand the spirit of this very meaningful policy. If implemented in letter and spirit then our country shall be comparable to the best in the world in the field of education. An in-depth analysis and exploring what lies ahead; One can divide this whole NEP-2020 into four main capsules which this Policy envis-

Teaching in the mother tongue or spoken language, Learn to leave, Teach to Transform and Educate to Empower. These highlighted Capsules shall com-pletely sum up the entire NEP-2020, which none has so far put appropriately and completely. Elaborating each one of these shall drive home all the points: Teaching in spoken language: The importance of this cannot be undermined. Original thinking comes only in the mother tongue (spoken languages) and this advantage has never been given to our students in any of our earlier policies. English has always been overemphasised and a wrong notion has been created that English is knowledge whereas the fact remains that it is just a language and not knowledge. Knowledge can always be acquired by knowing a lan-guage. Our beginners have always been worried about learning English rather than developing an understanding of a concept in their way, therefore majority of the students are lost in this learning of the English language rather than focussing on the original thinking. This has been given an appropriate weightage under NEP. A student shall learn to develop an understanding of what subjects to learn and what to pick up eventually in higher classes which has not been the case so far. A course used to be thrust upon them. This very important facet has been very appropriately addressed in this. Learn to Leave: Having decided what course to take up for secondary and higher education, a student used to be trapped forever whether one liked the subject/ course or not. (In the older education system for example if one had opted for Physics or Sanskrit: one was struck with that forever whether one liked these subjects

INDIA IS POISED TO PROVIDE QUALITY EDUCATION TO EVERYONE WITH THE NECESSARY SKILLS AND or not) KNOWLEDGE TO THRIVE IN THE 21ST CENTURY. THE MOTTO HAS

BEEN TO PROVIDE "EQUITABLE AND EDUCATION" TO ENSURE THAT NO CHILD SHOULD BE DENIED BECAUSE OF THEIR SOCIO-CULTURAL

There was no way to move out unless one gave up higher education or started afresh. The other difficulty was that due to some odd circumstances if one had to discontinue the education there was no way to restart unless you lose years/ time, but in this, one could leave anytime or rejoin anytime (Comes under Multi INCLUSIVE entry/ Multi exit system).

In the present system if one stayed away for a few years one could not come back to education in desired subjects but under NEP-2020 one can restart anytime one's education by including the credits earned before leaving. Therefore, under the present NEP, QUALITY no one shall stay away or be denied education because of cir-EDUCATION cumstances. This was not the case in the older system.

Education to empower: Under this education is to give due benefits to society by developing the right kind of skill. For Example, an electronic engineer is not able to do even basic electrical repairs or a mechanical engineer is not in a position to rectify even a basic fault. Integration of vocational courses with regular ones to provide practical skills for employment, benefiting students with ited access to traditional pathways or linking them with one another are some of the hallmarks of the present system. This is to develop the right syllabus to reduce disparities. Emphasis in this is on equitable access to quality education. Essentially NEP 2020 shall be attempting to reduce unwanted syllabus for comprehensive under-standing towards skill-based edu-

Teach to transform: the teaching in the older system was not of any speciality. One acquires the right skills through one's efforts to be useful to society. Under this, it shall be essential to train teachers and educational staff to deliver child-centred education for job placement, which shall be an important feature so far lacking to a large extent.

Challenges: One of the biggest features of this has been the wide choice of subjects that one could take. Now this wide spectrum of subjects will be possible to be taken by students if there is a way to keep a record of a student's movement and subjects taken. In a Country like ours which has more than 39K colleges, about 1000 Universities and 4.33 crores students (Nearly 80 per cent are in graduation and the remaining 20 per cent are from post-graduation classes), it shall be impossible to maintain a record of this kind unless there is a mechanism similar to computerised banking arrangement which maintains all types of record impeccably. For this an Academic Bank of Credit has been proposed where every institution shall be registered to enable a record of these movements of students, subjects taken and credits earned can be maintained like what is done in bank-

Biggest flaw so far: Unfortunately, to date, not even 50 per cent of Institutions have registered themselves in this (in ABC) which is the real key to the success of this policy. This is a way to keep records of students' subjects, their movements and credits earned.

Sharing of resources: Under NEP a wide umbrella of choice of subject, record of early education, movement from one institution to another and credits cleared/ earned by a student shall be possible only if the resources are shared by various institutions.

It will be impossible for any particular college to offer all subjects and to offer teaching in a variety of courses unless there is a huge staff to do this. It will be humanly impossible to achieve all this unless sharing is done particularly when online teaching has now come in a big way in our university system.

Similarly, the resources for science laboratories, libraries research facilities as well as Entrepreneurship schemes can well as be very effectively shared to make the education truly per the aims of NEP 2020. Therefore, in conclusion, this policy shall succeed if: Every institution registers with ABC (Academic Bank of Credit) Sharing of resources starts in a big way in earnest in all areas like teaching, especially in online modes, libraries, Laboratories and instrumental facilities; Open schooling system for all without any conditions and Establishment of the Higher Education Commission of India immediately to monitor the registration of ABC etc. It shall not become a roaring success unless all agencies like MOE, UGC etc take concerted efforts to bring about a radical change.

Revolutionising India's food security: Route optimisation cuts costs, carbon emissions

With over 81 crore beneficiaries, the Govt is now leveraging advanced data-driven route optimisation tools as part of the PM GatiShakti master plan

¬he Government of India provides free food grains to more than 81 crore beneficiaries under the Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Anna Yojana (PMGKAY) making it the largest food security programme in the world. This vast operation from sourcing food grains from farmers to delivering them to ration cardholdersrelies on a complex, decadesold supply chain. The Food Corporation of India (FCI), state procurement agencies, millers, transporters, warehouses, and Fair Price Shops (FPS) all play a critical role in this network. However, its design has historically been shaped by administrative convenience more than scientific optimisation. Supply routes were planned manually by state officials, a process prone to sub-optimality, bias and human error. In October 2021, the Prime Minister launched the PM GatiShakti Master Plan aiming to enhance multimodal connectivity and optimise logistics across the coun-

One of its key pillars, "Optimisation," envisions selecting the most efficient routes for transporting goods, each state. Using this data, cus-ing costs. In line with this vision, the Department of Food and Public Distribution (DFPD) launched a national route optimisation exercise in March 2023, in partnership with the World Food Programme (UNWFP) and the Foundation for Innovation and Technology Transfer (FITT) from IIT Delhi. This exercise, targeting the thereby saving time and reduc-annual transportation of 6.8 crore metric tons of food grains through the PDS, marks a transformative step towards building a more efficient and cost-effective food supply chain. The process was comprehensive: geo-locations of warehouses and FPS, along with their capacities and road distances, were collected from tom algorithms were developed for each state to determine the most optimal supply chain routes. More than 50 physical workshops were held by DFPD and FITT officials to guide states in data collection and demonstrate the benefits of route optimisation. These optimised routes were then validated on the ground to ensure they accounted for local conditions, and a statespecific intra-state optimisation tool was developed to allow for adjustments in the supply chain - such as adding or modifying entities like ware-houses or FPSs. For instance, Bihar developed an annual movement plan based on its PDS requirements, food grain volume, and monthly transport routes. The customised algorithm factored in different ment within the state and the grain required to be sourced from the FCI. This gave the state a clear view of its yearly logistics, allowing for cost-saving adjustments. By choos-ing the optimal option, Bihar reduced transport distances by 19 per cent, saving over Rs 3.09 crore per month. Similarly, Mizoram optimised its routes by eliminating unnecessary transfers of food grains 30 out of 31 states, with intra-between warehouses, achieving a 50 per cent reduction in distance and saving an estimated Rs 1.27 crore monthly. A significant milestone in this effort was the integration of the route optimisation tool with the GatiShakti platform, which now houses geo-locations of FPSs and warehouses across all

This integration enables the platform to generate the shortest possible motorable routes from FCI godowns to state godowns, and further from state godowns to FPSs.

The platform also allows realtime route re-optimisation based on updated infrastructure data (such as new roads) from other ministries. Since March 2023, route optimisation assessments have been completed for state route optimisation tools developed for 15 states so far. Early results from 12 states show tremendous promise, with transportation costs reduced by an estimated Rs 112 crore annually. Once fully implemented across all states, savings could exceed? 250 crore per year. This initiative is not only an economic win but also an environmental one. Global food miles-representing the distance food travels from production to consumption—account for nearly one-fifth of total food system emissions. Optimising India's food distribution routes can contribute significantly to reducing CO2 emissions, aligning with the country's climate change commitments under the Paris Agreement and its Conference of Parties (COP) targets. The will also help conserve foreign exchange reserves. Looking ahead, DFPD is exploring the possibility of earning carbon credits under the Carbon Credit Trading Scheme (CCTS), offering states an added incentive to complete the route optimisation process and earn tradable caroon credit certificates. This step would not only strengthen India's commitment to a climatesmart supply chain but also potentially generate financial penefits. In conclusion, The integration of advanced technologies and data-driven tools is setting the stage for a smarter future in public distribution, one that safeguards both our resources and the planet. Pak's special parliamentary panel to nominate new chief justice special parliamentary com-Amittee, formed to decide on the appointment of Pakistan's next chief justice, will meet on Tuesday to nominate the new top judge from among the three most senior Supreme Court judges.

The recently adopted 26th Constitutional Amendment brought numerous changes pertaining to the judiciary, among which is appointing the chief justice by a Special Parliamentary Committee (SPC) out of three top judges against the previous rule of the senior-most judge becoming the chief justice under the seniority principle

The incumbent chief justice, Qazi Faez Isa, is set to retire on rule, senior puisne judge, Justice Mansoor Ali Shah, was set to be the next chief.

Under amendments to clause 3 of Article 175A, instead of the president appointing the "most senior judge of the Supreme Court" as the chief justice, the top judge will now be "appointed on the recommendation of the Special Parliamentary Committee from amongst the three most senior" judges of the Supreme Court.

After Justice Shah, the next two senior apex court judges are Justices Munib Akhtar and Yahya Afridi.

Under a new clause 3C of Article 175A, the first nomination after the Amendment was in force is to be sent "within three days prior to the retire-

October 25 and under the old ment" of the outgoing CJ, rule, senior puisne judge, which sets the deadline for nomination by tonight.

The SPC comprises eight members of the national assembly and four senators nominated by their respective parliamentary leaders. Political parties have representation in the committee based on their strength in the parliament. The attorney general is also part of the com-

But the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf decided to stay away from the meeting of the SPC. "Of course, we will not be part of any parliamentary committee. We believe not only the amendments but in the manner they were passed itself was illegal," PTI leader Zulfi Bukhari said in a statement on X. "Why would we legitimise them and be part of this mafia that is destroying the independence of our judiciary?" he asked rhetorically. "We are not going to part take in parliamentary committee, loud and clear." The committee's task is to vet the top three senior judges. Once the name is finalised, it will be sent to the prime minister, who will then forward it to the president for the appoint-

The new process signals a significant departure from the judiciary's long-held autonomy in determining its leadership. Apparently being tired of judicial overreach, the parliament tried to curtail the judiciary's influence in political and governance matters, which the courts were accused of exercising in recent years.

The mystery surrounding a crashed cargo plane in Sudan purportedly downed by the paramilitary Rapid Support Forces deepened on Tuesday as had been de-registered in Kyrgyzstan. Just who was flying the Ilyushin Il-76 at night over war-torn Darfur remains in question. The aircraft previously was linked to an effort by the United Arab Emirates to arm the paramilitary force known as the RSF, something the UAE has strenuously denied despite evidence to the contrary. But the plane's crash early Monday highlights the chaos gripping Sudan since April 2023, when the RSF and Sudan's military went to war.

Yellen says isolationism 'made America and world worse off'

Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen is telling world financial leaders that the US economy has grown stronger because the Biden administration rejected isolationism, offering a barely veiled criticism of former President Donald Trump's policies two weeks before the US election. Yellen was opening the IMF and World Bank annual meetings on Tuesday by highlighting US economic growth since the nation was in the grips of the COVID-19 pandemic. Without mentioning Trump by name, she said in an advance draft of her remarks that the Biden administration had ended a period of international isolationism that "made America and the world worse off". "We went from millions having lost their jobs to a historic labour market recovery," Yellen says. She said US economic growth has been "almost this profession of the same that the same than the twice as fast as most other advanced economies this year and last, even as inflation came down sooner".

The IMF released its international outlook on the global economy on Tuesday morning and upgraded its economic outlook for the United States expectations for growth in omy — the world's largest — to expand 2.8 per cent this year, down slightly from 2.9 per cent in 2023 but an improvement on the 2.6 per cent it had forecast for 2024 back in July. Growth in the United States has been led by strong consumer spending, fuelled by healthy gains in inflation-adjusted

Europe and China.
The IMF expects the US econ-

The meetings mark the last major international finance gathering held during the Biden administration and come as economic issues are a top concern for American voters. Republicans have blamed the Biden-Harris administration for inflation that reached a 40year high before dropping. Trump campaign press secretary Karoline Leavitt said in a statement that the Biden-Harris administration "created an inflation crisis, record-high gas prices, skyrocketing mortgage and interest rates resulting in the lowest consumer and small business confidence in decades".

Voters remain largely divided over whether they prefer the Republican nominee, Trump,

President Kamala Harris to handle key economic issues, according to an October survey by The Associated Press-NORC Centre for Public Affairs Research.

Who wins the US election will also have enormous impacts on global finance and the world's economy.

Trump and Harris have spoken little about their plans for the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. But they have differing views on trade, tariffs and other economic issues. Trump has been scepti-cal of world financial bodies and is promising heavy tariffs if elected. Harris is more likely to continue the Biden administration approach favouring international cooperation over threats, though she has supported some tariffs. Yellen, like other federal officials, is barred from partisan political activity by the Hatch Act and chose her words carefully in her speech. But she praised Biden-Harris initiatives on climate, health care, infrastructure spending and other areas.

She alluded to Trump's international leadership saying: "From day one, we rejected isolation-world worse off and pursued global economic leadership that supports economies around the world and brings significant benefits to the American people and the US economy

Trump, who has embraced isolationism and criticised multilateral institutions, promises as president to impose a 60 per cent tariff on all Chinese goods and a "universal' tariff of 10 per cent or 20 per cent on everything else that enters the United States, insisting that the cost of taxing imported goods is absorbed by the foreign countries that produce those goods. Mainstream economists say that would amount to a tax on American consumers that would make the economy less efficient and send inflation surging in the United States.

The Biden-Harris administration has not eliminated tariffs imposed on China during the Trump administration and in May also slapped major tariffs on Chinese electric vehicles, advanced batteries, solar cells, steel, aluminum and medical

Initial report shows Liam Payne had cocaine in his system when he died AP BUENOS AIRES widely reported in local media

An initial toxicology report for ex-One Direction singer Liam Payne, who died last week after falling from a third-floor hotel balcony in Buenos Aires, showed that he had cocaine in his system after his death, an Argentine official said. The final toxicology results are not expected to be made public for some weeks. But the preliminary toxicology report of the wildly famous boy band star, handed to local prosecutors on Monday, suggested evidence of exposure to cocaine, the official said, stressing that these initial results don't offer an accurate reading of just how much was circulating in his blood when he The official spoke on condition of anonymity because he was not authorized to brief journalists. The preliminary report was on Monday. Argentina's public prosecution is investigating the case — which is not uncommon when a death is sudden or unexpected. Payne's autopsy concluded that the traumatic injuries that caused his death were consistent with his three-story fall from the hotel window. Prosecutors have ruled out anyone else being involved. Argentine investigators found what appeared to be narcotics and alcohol strewn about broken objects and furniture in 31vear-old Payne's hotel room, leading the public prosecution to surmise Payne had suffered a substance abuse-induced breakdown around the time of his fall. The prosecution said Payne could have plunged from his hotel room balcony in a state of "semi or total unconsciousness." Photos purportedly taken from inside Payne's hotel room published by local media showed snowlike powder left on a table and a smashed-in TV screen. Police also discovered a blister pack of clonazepam, a central nervous system depressant, and overthe-counter medications scattered among Payne's belongings. Shortly before Payne's death, the hotel manager called 911 to report a guest acting aggressively and under the influence of drugs and alcohol. Investigators are also trying to figure out who sold Payne the drugs he took at the CasaSur Hotel in Palermo, a chic neighborhood of the Argentine capital. Police have taken statements from at least three hotel employees, as well as two women who visited Payne's hotel room a few hours before his death.

India well positioned to capitalise growth opportunities: FM Nirmala Sitharaman global l environment may present challenges but India is well positioned to capitalise on new growth opportunities, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman has underlining that as nations re-evaluate their supply chains, India hopes to become a key partner for many countries seeking to diversify their sources of goods and made Sitharaman remarks on Monday while delivering a special lecture on 'India's Economic Resilience and Prospects Amidst A Challenging and Uncertain Global Environment' at Columbia University here.

She said that India is looking towards boosting domestic capacities, and building resilience against external shocks.

"While the past decades saw global growth led by broad multilateral trade, the coming years, I think, will likely be defined by strategic economic partnerships and India is very well poised to take advantage of this transition.'

She said that the global economic environment may present challenges, but "India is well positioned to capitalise on new growth opportunities. "The shift towards a more fragmented global economy, characterised by redefined alliances and changing trade patterns, could in fact work to

India's advantage. As nations re-evaluate their supply chains, India hopes to become key partner for many countries seeking to diversify their sources of goods and services," she said at the lecture organised by the Deepak and Neera Raj Center on İndian Economic Policies at Columbia's School of International and Public Sitharaman arrived in New York Sunday from Mexico where she had chaired the Tech Leaders Roundtable in Guadalajara. She had also visited the TCS headquarters in Guadalajara.

In New York, she addressed a Roundtable on 'Investment of Opportunities in India' at the New York Stock Exchange and participated in a fireside chat on India's decadal reforms economic growth with IBM Chairman and CEO Arvind Krishna.

From New York, Sitharaman will head to Washington DC to participate in the Annual Meetings of the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank, the 4th G20 Finance Ministers and Bank Governor Central (FMCBG) Meetings, besides the G20 Joint Meeting of Environment FMCBGs. Ministers, and Foreign Ministers; and G7 - Africa Ministerial Roundtable.

Sitharaman noted that it may be an understatement that we are living through times profound uncertainty, which is steadily rising before "The world today grapples with multiple challenges, such was the 10th largest economy and presently, it is the fifth largest economy.

The International Monetary Fund has projected it to become the third-largest economy by 2027. "India's contribution to global growth is projected to see an increase of 200 basis points in the next five years," she said.

She further stressed that India's trade policies have also undergone significant reform, with a focus on facilitation and greater integration with key economic partners. India fostering a more competitive and exportoriented economy trade free pursuing agreements with nations like the UAE and Australia, alongside initiatives such as the Production Linked Incentive schemes and One One Product District schemes.

"Furthermore, India must continue to strengthen its position in the geopolitical landscape. As the world undergoes a realignment of power dynamics, emerging economies like India would need to navigate complex international relationships. This would require a nuanced approach to diplomacy where economic interests are balanced with strategic she said adding concerns," as countries look inwards, globally there is the added risk of regress towards de-industrialisation. She said India's rise in the its growing influence in sectors like high-end capital goods, renewables pharmaceuticals, signal its potential to become a vital player in global markets. Another vital aspect of the policy agenda has been the strengthening of India's financial sector. The soundness of our banking system marked by low levels of NPAs (nonperforming assets) and enhanced provisioning for bad loans reflects the reforms we have undertaken to improve asset quality," she said.

She added that by 2047, as India celebrates 100 years of independence, "we will have a chance to define a new era of prosperity, not just for our own citizens, but for the global community as well. "India's role in the world is expanding, and we stand ready engage constructively with the international community, sharing our innovations and contributing to global peace and prosperity," she said, as she cited the example of the COVID-19 pandemic during which India supplied vaccines developed and manufactured by it to nations across the world. "The coming decades will be defined by how effectively India manages its dividend, demographic strengthens its global partnerships, and navigates the complexity of a rapidly changing world," she said.

Insurance industry can use ecommerce, telecom network to distribute policies: LIC chief Ctate-owned life insurance Sbehemoth LIC's chief executive and managing director Siddhartha Mohanty on Tuesday pitched for using the e-commerce and telecom network to distribute policies deep in the country.

'As we are serious about 'insurance for all', we must rethink how we distribute and market insurance products, Mohanty said, speaking at an event organised by CII here. He said the current channels including agents, brokers, and bancassurance have been effective, but fraught with its own limitations given the challenge of taking insurance to each citizen of the country. Specifically, the current models have "limitations" to taking insurance to the vast and underserved rural market, the LIC executive said, adding that the future is in opening non-traditional channels.

"Collaborating with nontraditional players, such as telecom companies, fintech firms and e-commerce platforms, we can significantly people "is no easy task". Moĥanty also said that digital technologies should be a key to reaching rural and lowincome groups and sought regulatory support to ensure that any innovations are "nurtured and appropriately".

India eye Paris revenge against Germany in Test series as international hockey returns to Delhi

nternational hockey will return to the capital after a 10-year gap when Olympic bronze-medallists India take world champions Germany in a two-Test bilateral series starting here on Wednesday, aiming to test some new faces and extract revenge for a heartbreak inflicted by the visitors.

For the last 10 years, the capital's Major Dhyan Chand National Stadium, once considered the spiritual home of the game, has not hosted any international match.

The last game played here was the 2014 Hero World League Final, although interdepartmental hockey has been held here occasionally. But the two Tests against the world No.2 and Paris Olympics silver-winning outfit on Wednesday and Thursday would be a perfect comeback for the sport.

It has been learnt that over 12,000 fans have already registered for the free tickets on offer through a private ticketing portal. The National Stadium has a seating capacity of just over 16,000. The two Tests hold great significance for Indian hockey, which is on an upswing following back-toback Olympic bronze medals in Tokyo and Paris.

Singh's leadership, lost 2-3 to Germany in a closelycontested semifinal.

"This series is not just about the two teams playing; it's about reviving the spirit of hockey in Delhi. We hope this will inspire more young players from the region to take up the game," Harmanpreet had said after the rubber was announced. That sentiment aside, India also have a very good opportunity to avenge their

Zverev sympathises after routing local wild card in Vienna

No. 3-ranked Alexander Zverev was sympathetic for Joel Schwaerzler after hammering the 18-year-old wild card in his hometown debut at the Erste Bank Open. Zverev won by a quick 6-2, 6-2 then gave 347th-ranked Schwaerzler, appearing in his second ATP tour-level match, encouragement when they met at the net.

NO POINT SUGARCOATING, THERE'S FIGHT FOR A SPOT BETWEEN RAHUL AND SARFARAZ: TEN DOESCHATE

ndia assistant coach Ryan ten Doeschate said on Tuesday that middle-order batters KL Rahul and Sarfaraz Khan are locked in a selection battle for the second Test against New Zealand here even though head coach Gautam Gambhir is keen to give the former,

With India looking to bounce back from the eight-wicket thrashing at Bengaluru in the opening Test, focus will be on the team combination with Washington Sundar being added to the squad. Shubman Gill and Rishabh Pant are both aiming to shake off injury concerns for the match starting Thursday.

"Yeah, there's no point in sugarcoating it, there's a fight for a spot," ten Doeschate told the media when asked if Rahul and Sarfaraz were battling for a place in the team, here at the MCA Stadium ahead of India's training session.

"Sarfaraz was obviously brilliant in the last Test. I went to KL after the last Test (and) said how many balls do you play at (and) miss at? He didn't play at (and) miss at one ball and that's what tends to happen when you're not getting runs.

"There's certainly no concerns about KL, he's batting nicely, he's in a good mental space. But we are certainly going to have to fit seven pieces into six spots for this Test and look at the pitch now and decide what's going to be best for the team," he said.

Sarfaraz scored a second-innings 150 in the Bengaluru game, while Rahul remained off-colour in both

While admitting that it is difficult to keep Rahul out of the equation in the Test format, ten Doeschate said head coach Gautam Gambhir is "keen to" give him a long rope. "It's not like we're worried about his form. If you go on just the past three months since Gauti has been in here, he's keen to give him (Rahul) as much rope as we can. We have a lot of faith in him," he said.

"But at the same time, it's a very competitive environment, with Sarfaraz getting 150 plus runs (222 not out) in the Irani Trophy final. The decision will be what's best for the team, but we'll certainly back all the guys in," he added.

Pant, who did not keep wickets for a significant part of the opening Test, and Shubman Gill, who missed the match due to stiffness in his neck, are close to attaining their full

"Rishabh is pretty good. I think Rohit (Sharmna) touched on it the other day. He was having a little bit of discomfort at the end range of his movement with the knee. But fingers crossed, he'll be good to keep in the Test as well," he said.

"He (Gill) looks so (available for this Test). He has batted last week in Bangalore, he had a few nets, he's got a little bit of discomfort, but I think he'll be good to go for the Test," he

Ten Doeschate said the addition of Washington Sundar is "no desperate measure" but to add a bowling option who would take the ball away option who would take the ball away from the Kiwis left-handers.

"Definitely not. They (New Zealand) are filled with four left-handers in the XI. We've had Washy around the white-ball squad for a while and we like the way he operates. It's also nice to see that guys are getting rewarded for Ranji Trophy performance as well."

well."
"We just want to make sure we're absolutely prepared for conditions here and if that does mean taking the ball away from the left-hander, we want that option," he added.

Ten Doeschafe said Mohammed Siraj could be going through a "wicket-drought" but there was withching to suggest that he was struggling for rhythm.

"Siraj bowled beautifully in the second innings. That hour of Test match cricket on the last morning was really high quality," he said. "It maybe wasn't a nicking wicket, which is obviously his big strength, particularly to left-handers when he moves the ball across. There's nothing there to say like he's not bowling well or his rhythm is not

Cook backs Root to surpass Sachin Tendulkar as leading run-getter in Test cricket

Palastair Cook feels Joe Root has the potential to surpass the legendary Sachin Tendulkar as the leading rungetter in Test cricket thanks to his insatiable hunger and incredible talent.

33-year-old The currently has 12716 Test runs and is 3205 short of the Indian icon (15921).

Root occupies the fifth spot in the leading run-getter's chart at the moment with Rahul Dravid (13,288), Jacques Kallis (13,289) and Ricky Ponting (13,378) and Tendulkar ahead of him.

"I think Joe Root could set a mark, certainly on an English side, that'll be very hard to beat. But, you just never know," Cook was quoted as series, the tour will serve as saying by the ICC.

"I hope he can get very close, if not be the first person who scores 16,000 Test runs. It'd be a great achievement.

Root overtook Cook as England's leading run-scorer in the longest format during the Multan Test against Pakistan earlier this month. Having watched

"I watched the moment, then

I rang him after the end of the play. I couldn't think of the right words to write in a text message," Coon said.

"So, I thought I'd just ring him, see what he was up to, and make sure he had a beer in his hand, which I think he Root's remarkable form over the past four years has seen him score more than half of his total 35 Test centuries in that period, averaging close to 60.

Cook believes that he is currently the best batter in the world with New Zealand's Kane Williamson coming close to matching him.

"I think at this precise moment in time, I find it hard to see anyone playing as well as Joe Root. Over the last year or so, of the so-called 'Big Four', I think Williamson and him are probably in the best form at the moment.
"They're all wonderful, wonderful players, all very different, actually, in their methods and ways of playing. But one thing, which kind of unites them is that hunger and desire to keep improving and keep churning out the runs," Cook said.

Root will look to continue to amass big scores and add to his tally during the third Test against Pakistan Rawalpindi, beginning on Thursday.

Moving to another topic, Cook has expressed his support for England's 'Bazball' style of play in Test cricket.

"I think the game has certainly made a big jump forward in what is now deemed possible in Test cricket. "I think the jump happened in one day cricket first, probably. The fundamental change, certainly from the English point of view, is when Owen Morgan took the side forward in 2015. And obviously the Ben Stokes era has changed the mentality of what was possible."

India will come into the contest with the Border-Gavaskar Trophy firmly in their grasp, having held it for nearly a decade and winning two consecutive series in Australia. Top order batter Prithvi Shaw has been left out of the Mumbai squad for their next Ranji Trophy match against Tripura owing to fitness and disciplinary issues. The match is scheduled to be played in Agartala from October 26 to 29.
