BUDGET 2025 FOR MIDDLE INDIA AND BIHA

PROF. GOURAV VALLABH

The Union Budget 2025-26 has been presented, reaffirming Prime Minister Narendra Modi's unwavering vision for a Viksit Bharat. Over the past decade, while the goal has remained steadfast, everything else has evolved-transformative reforms spanning agriculture, MSMEs, youth empowerment, global trade, and middle-class welfare have redefined India's economic trajectory. In these turbulent global times, the budget emerges as a beacon of hope. Pragmatic yet bold, visionary yet rooted in reality, it reaffirms the government's unwavering commitment to building a future where growth is inclusive, opportunities are boundless, and India's rise on the global stage remains unstoppable. The Indian middle class is no longer a silent observer; it is a dynamic force shaping the nation's future. Over the past decade, more than 25 crore Indians have transitioned out of poverty, fueling aspirations in fields such as sports, startups, space exploration, and technological advancements. This budget builds upon previous commitments, ensuring continued financial relief and empowerment. Steady rise in tax exemption limits, offers greater financial relief and empowers millions of taxpayers. From ₹2.5 lakh in 2014 to ₹5 lakh in 2019, then ₹7 lakh in 2023, and now a remarkable ₹12 lakh in 2025this consistent expansion has, for the first time, left a vast majority of the middle class completely out of the burden of paying personal income tax. Under the new tax regime, a taxpayer earning ₹12 lakh will receive a substantial benefit of ₹80,000-effectively eliminating their entire tax liability under the existing rates. This means 100% of the tax payable as per previous slabs is now saved, allowing individuals to retain more of their hard-earned income. And this comes at a time when the share of income tax in total government receipts has actually increased from 19% to 22%. This makes it even more impressivestronger tax compliance and a rapidly expanding formal economy have ensured that despite widespread tax relief, revenues remain robust and sustainable.

In a deeply considerate step the government has doubled the tax deduction limit for senior citizens from ₹50,000 to ₹1 lakh, recognizing their evolving financial needs and ensuring a dignified, secure future. Yet, even as tax relief is extended to millions, fiscal prudence remains paramount. The fiscal deficit target has been firmly set at 4.4% of GDP, reinforcing the government's commitment to responsible economic management.

benefit 7.7 crore farmers, providing them with greater financial stability. A visionary 5-year mission to boost cotton productivity will enhance Îndia's textile competitiveness, while the establishment of a dedicated Makhana Board in Bihar will offer vital institutional support to farmers engaged in niche agriproducts. Additionally, a sixroadmap Aatmanirbharta in pulses will reduce import dependence, ensuring food security and improving rural incomes. In India, MSMEs have often remained small, not just by circumstance but sometimes by choice-to evade regulatory complexities and compliance However, this government does not see MSMEs as entities meant to stay small; it envisions them as dynamic engines of growth, capable of scaling, innovating, driving economic transformation. In line with this vision, the budget introduces structured interventions to propel MSMEs forward so that they are not just surviving but thriving, contributing more significantly industrial and economic landscape. In a significant move, the MSME classification criteria have been revised, with turnover and investment limits more than doubling-easing regulatory constraints and enabling more businesses to thrive. The credit guarantee cover has been doubled to ₹10 crore for Micro & Small Enterprises (MSEs) and ₹20 crore for start-ups, ensuring greater financial security and access to capital. To facilitate financial inclusion, 10 lakh credit cards with a ₹5 lakh limit will be issued to micro enterprises, enabling them to expand operations with ease. Additionally, a special scheme has been introduced to provide term loans of up to ₹2 crore for 5 lakh first-time entrepreneurs, with a special focus on women, Scheduled Castes, Tribes. These Scheduled transformative measures will not only fuel growth but also drive formalization and job creation across the sector. Recognizing that India's youth are its greatest asset, the budget places a sharp focus on education, research, and skill development. The expansion of IIT capacities and the introduction of the Bharatiya Bhasha Pustak scheme will strengthen higher education and promote learning in regional languages. To foster innovation from an early age, 50,000 Atal Tinkering Labs will be set up in government schools over the next 5 years, igniting young minds with hands-on scientific learning. Increased investment medical education will help meet the growing healthcare demands of the nation, ensuring a skilled workforce in critical sectors. Furthermore, broadband connectivity for all government secondary schools and primary health centers will bridge the digital divide, ensuring equitable access to knowledge and healthcare services. A significant ₹20,000 crore allocation for private-

initiatives will accelerate India's technological advancements and global competitiveness. The government's unwavering commitment to infrastructure development remains a defining pillar of this budget, reinforcing India's journey toward economic transformation. With a ₹1.5 lakh crore outlay for 50-year interest-free loans to states for capital expenditure-linked to incentives for structural reforms-the focus is firmly on sustainable and inclusive growth. The Monetization Plan 2025-30, targeting ₹10 lakh crore in investments for new projects, will unlock value from existing assets while fueling fresh infrastructure expansion. Meanwhile, the extension of the Jal Jeevan Mission till 2028 ensures that the dream of 100% safe drinking water coverage becomes a reality for every household, improving public health and quality of life. These strategic investments will drive economic expansion, generate employment, and elevate India's global competitiveness. To make India a more business-friendly destination, budget introduces progressive regulatory reforms A regulatory framework based on trust and principles to boost productivity and employment. A High-Level Committee for Regulatory Reforms to ease compliance burdens and Jan Vishwas Bill 2.0 to decriminalize over 100 provisions in various laws will enhance ease of doing business and attract both domestic and foreign investments. With an eye on global leadership, the 'BharatTradeNet' (BTN), a digital unified public infrastructure platform for international trade documentation and financing. A National Framework for Global Capability Centers (GCCs) to promote emerging Tier-2 cities as investment hubs. Exemptions on key imports, including 36 lifesaving drugs, LED/LCD TV components, 35 capital goods for EV battery manufacturing, and 28 capital goods for mobile phone battery manufacturing, are expected to boost domestic production and affordability. Rationalization of the customs tariff structure will take place, removing seven tariff rates to enhance competitiveness. The 2025-26 budget is not merely a budget but a bold statement of vision, defining India's path towards selfdependency, global competitiveness, and shared prosperity. With a sharp accent farmers, MSMEs, infrastructure, and ease of compliance, it creates a strong platform for long-term growth and yet keeps in consideration that anyone and everyone in India must have an opportunity to flourish.

consolidation, the government has delivered a citizen-first, progressive budget-one that inspires hope, induces investments, and accelerates national development.

Gone are the days when India was counted among the Fragile Five. Today, we stand on the cusp of greatness-soon to be recognized as one of the world's foremost economic powerhouses, a leader in business, resilience, and global influence. With structural reforms, strategic investments, and a future-ready approach, India is not just navigating change but shaping it. The journey toward Viksit Bharat is well underway, and this budget ensures that no Indian is left behind. From the fields of our farmers to the ambitions of our entrepreneurs, from the aspirations of our youth to the well-being of our senior citizens-this is a budget that empowers, uplifts, inspires. The future belongs to India, and with unwavering resolve, we are building a nation that is strong, selfreliant, and unstoppable.

Investment Western Koshi command area Prime Minister Dhan-Dhaanya Krishi Yojana' for 100 districts with low productivity, moderate crop intensity and below-average credit parameters, customised Credit Cards with a ` 5 lakh limit for micro enterprises registered on Udyam portal are the few revolutionary steps which will not only Check unmindful and forced migration but will create a farmer centric robust Agriculture Value chain. India's agricultural sector has long been the backbone of its economy, but its true potential remains untapped due to a lack of value addition and processing infrastructure. Traditionally, farmers have been confined to primary production, leaving them vulnerable price fluctuations, middlemen, and post-harvest losses. However, Budget 2025 lays a strong foundation for an agri-led manufacturing economy, recognising that the future of rural prosperity lies in food processing, agro-industrial clusters, and cooperativebased manufacturing. This shift from a raw-producebased economy to a valueadded agricultural powerhouse will not only boost farmers' incomes but also generate large-scale rural employment, reduce distress migration, and foster self-reliant communities. With a focus on pulses, oilseeds, Natural farming, and farm-to-factory linkages, India is poised to become a global leader in highvalue agri-products and rural

The government's renewed Pulses Mission is a key step towards achieving nutritional security and self-sufficiency in pulse production. This mission will not only reduce India's dependence on imports but also create employment in rural processing units, packaging industries, and export logistics, reinforcing the role of pulses as an economic driver. The budget's emphasis on food processing and rural industrialisation marks a paradigm shift in how agriculture contributes to economic growth. India's agririch states-Bihar, Jharkhand, Chhattisgarh, and the Northeast-are blessed with unique agricultural produce but suffer from inadequate processing and market linkages. To address this, the government is investing in farm-to-factory models that integrate small farmers into formalised supply chains, cold storage and logistics hubs to reduce post-harvest losses, and cooperative-led food processing units that ensure farmers retain value in their Additionally, produce. branding and global marketing of region-specific products, such as Bihar's makhana Board, maize, and litchi, Himachal's apples and walnuts, and the Northeast's organic spices and medicinal plants, will boost exports and enhance rural incomes. By shifting from raw exports to high-value agri-based manufacturing, India can significantly enhance its agricultural GDP, boost rural wages, and create new employment avenues in food processing, packaging, and distribution. One of the most promising aspects of Budget 2025 is its strengthening of cooperative movement through the PACS-to-APEX model. Primary Agricultural Credit Societies (PACS) will now function as multi-service agribusiness hubs, connected state and national cooperative federations. This cooperative networks will use

Beyond manufacturing, the future of Indian agriculture lies in integrating primary production with high-value services. Agri-tourism, AIdriven farm advisory, blockchain-backed supply chains, and rural fintech hubs are poised to revolutionise the employment landscape in villages. Key initiatives under the budget include rural startups and ease of getting credit, 5 Lakh Rs Credit card to those registered with UDYAM portal for those and fintech hubs, enabling digital banking, crop insurance, and agrifinance services; AI-powered soil testing and precision farming, reducing input costs and enhancing productivity; drone-assisted irrigation and weather forecasting, mitigating climate risks for farmers; and e-commerce platforms for farmers, allowing direct-toconsumer sales of organic and specialty crops. This multisectoral approach ensures that rural youth no longer must migrate to cities for employment. Instead, they can become Agri-entrepreneurs within their own villages, in logistics engaged management, organic certification, digital marketing, organic and farm consulting services. The integration of AI, IoT, and blockchain in Indian agriculture is set to revolutionise productivity, transparency, and financial security for farmers. Some key developments include AI-smart contracts to ensure payments, prevent timely fraud, and build trust in rural financial transactions. AIpowered logistics planning will optimise transportation networks to ensure that perishable goods markets efficiently, reducing waste and increasing farmer incomes. Additionally, datadriven lending and models will allow small farmers to access credit and insurance without bureaucratic hurdles. By embedding AI into PACS-led financial models, warehouse management, and e-trading platforms, Budget 2025 is democratising access to technology for rural India.

The comprehensive focus on industrialisation, agri-led technology-driven services, and cooperative empowerment ensures that India's villages become selfreliant economic hubs, rather than sites of agrarian distress. This transformation also has socio-political ramificationseconomic security and cooperative-led development will diminish rural unrest, insurgency, and distress migration. Furthermore, this budget aligns with the Ek Bharat, Shreshtha Bharat vision by ensuring regional economic parity integrating rural economies into national and global markets. By fostering rural entrepreneurship, cooperative wealth creation, and AI-driven agricultural solutions, India is positioning itself as a global leader in sustainable agribusiness. Towards 21st century with geopolitical headwinds suggesting lower economic growth over the medium term, certainly our aspiration for a Viksit Bharat inspires us, and the required transformative action point will fuel the Bio-Energy led growth. Budgetary provision is helpful in turning our fastest growing towards a Net Zero Emitter. Our development track record of the past 10 vears and structural reforms have drawn global confidence in India's capability and the potential will exponentially grow as an effect of this budget. We see in the next five years a unique opportunity to realise 'Sabka Vikas', stimulating balanced growth of all regions.

fter the presentation of the Atter the prescritation of Hullion Budget, Haryana Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini said that it will provide a new boost to the country's development and play an important role in making Haryana selfreliant. In a statement, he said that the budget has been designed to benefit all sections of society and Haryana will also receive substantial benefits from the budget's provisions, which will aid in the state's continued progress and development.

Saini expressed his gratitude to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman and described the budget as a strong foundation for a Viksit Bharat. He said that it will further empower youth, the poor, women, and farmers, adding that the Modi government at the Center has identified these four groups as the pillars of a developed India.

He said that the Finance Minister's budget includes several key announcements for farmers. The loan limit on the Kisan Credit Card has been increased from Rs 3 lakh to Rs 5 lakh. In addition, 100 districts with low agricultural productivity will be prioritized under the Dhan Dhanya Krishi Yojana.

As Haryana is an agriculturebased state, the Chief Minister said that the state will greatly benefit from this budget. He described it as a significant step towards improving the living standards of farmers and strengthening the agricultural

Furthermore, the loan guarantee cover for the MSME sector has been raised from Rs 5 crore to Rs 10 crore, providing greater support to small industries. The focus will also be on increasing the production of pulses like masoor and toor over industry will also be launched under the 'Make in India' initia-

Saini said that the Finance Minister has announced a new scheme for 5 lakh women from the SC-ST category, offering them term loans of up to Rs 2 crore. Furthermore, to promote startups, the loan limit has been increased from Rs 10 crore to Rs 20 crore. This initiative is a significant step towards empowering women, making them self-reliant, and strengthening the startup ecosystem.

The budget also includes significant announcements for the education and health sectors. In the next five years, 75,000 new seats will be added to medical education. Additionally, IIT Patna will be expanded to accommodate the needs of 1.35 lakh students across the 23 IITs. A special allocation of Rs 500 crore has been made for artificial intelligence (AI) development. The Chief Minister expressed that this budget marks the beginning of a new era in health and education, offering better opportunities for the youth. He assured that the Haryana government will ensure the effective implementation of the schemes announced in this budget so that the state can reap maximum benefits and every citizen can directly benefit from these initiatives.

Himachal CM Sukhu describes Union budget ine uitable and o ortunistic

PNS ■ SHIMLA

Himachal Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu on Saturday expressed his disappointment over the Union Government's budget- 2025-26, labeling it as "inequitable" as the major part of it is focusing on the State of Bihar. He highlighted several key areas of concern and called for immediate revisions to address the needs of the wider population of the State.

Sukhu said that the budget has once again failed to address the pressing issues that plague our country, particularly unemployment, poverty and rising prices. He said the apple growers of the State, who contribute significantly to the State's economy, are facing severe financial constraints and this budget offers no measures to alleviate their struggles or increase the import duties on apples, which would have provided much-needed

He said that unfortunately, the budget fails to address the issue of expansion of rail network in Himachal Pradesh. A robust rail network is essential for economic growth, yet it remains overlooked. He said that the allocation for interest-free loans of States to Rs. 1.5 lakh crore has not been increased and the tough conditions attached to it do not favour small States like Himachal Pradesh due to cost disabilities. He said that the cessation of GST compensation has put Himachal Pradesh in a precarious financial position, resulting in an annual loss that our State can ill afford. He said that a special financial package is urgently needed to mitigate this loss and support our State's fiscal stability. The absence of such a package in the budget is a significant setback, he added.

The Chief Minister said that the benefits to the middle class in the form of income tax rebates have come too late in the day as the benefits of the new direct structure may just be used to rebuild the savings eroded during earlier years rather than giving a push to consumption and demand. "It's an anti-poor budget and not futuristic. It is a total opportunistic budget" said Sukhu. He said that the relief is not commensurate with the contribution being made by the middle-class taxpayers towards the growth of national economy. There is also a mention of the New Income Tax Bill next week. Sukhu said that budget lacked significant measures to address the ongoing issues in the agricultural sector, such as inadequate support prices and insuf-ficient funding for modern agricultural practices and infrastructure. He said that the Union budget falls short of being the inclusive and supportive financial plan that India needs. It fails to address the critical issues of unemployment, rising prices, and growing inequality. Himachal Pradesh, like many other States, is left grappling with the consequences of a budget that prioritizes the rich over the common people. It is high time for a budget that truly reflects the needs and aspirations of all citizens, ensuring equitable growth and prosperity for every section of society, he said.

 $P^{\text{unjab Finance Minister}}_{\text{Harpal Singh Cheema has}}$ criticized the Union Budget, terming it as a "disappointing budget" for the people of Punjab, saying that it is focused on Bihar's election, catering to the BJP's political interests rather than addressing the needs of the nation.

Addressing a press conference here, Cheema expressed his disappointment that none of the demands made by Punjab during the pre-budget meeting held in Jaisalmer, Rajasthan on December 20, 2024, were met in the budget. He pointed out that the budget failed to mention the names of states other than belonging to parties in alliance with BJP at centre, highlighting the Prime Minister's bias towards specif-

Detailing the demands put forward by Punjab in the prebudget meeting, the Finance Minister emphasized that Punjab, as a border state, has demanded a special industrial package for its five border districts to promote employment and development. He said the state has also demanded Rs 1000 crore for strengthening police infrastructure along the 500 km hostile border with Pakistan. Furthermore, he expressed disappointment that the long-standing demands for the Rajpura to Chandigarh railway line and Vande Bharat Rail services from Amritsar and Bathinda to Delhi were

"Punjab, which contributes about 21 percent of rice and 51 percent of wheat to the central pool, needs support to move away from this crop cycle", said Cheema while mentioning that the state-center formula to resolve the issue of stubble burning was presented in the pre-budget meeting but was ignored in the budget. Furthermore, there was no mention of the release of funds from the Rural Development Fund and National Health Mission, which are pending with the center, nor any solution provided for the annual loss of Rs. 800 to Rs 1200 crores to Punjab due to high interest rates on the Cash Credit Limit (CCL). Cheema criticized the Union Budget for increasing the limit of the Kisan Credit Card rather than focusing on increasing their income, which he argued would further increase farmers' debt.

The Punjab Finance Minister also highlighted the demand raised in pre-budget meeting to increase the remuneration of mid-day meal workers from Rs 600 per month for 10 months, which has been stagnant for the last 15 years, to Rs 2000 per month for 12 months. He noted that there was no mention of this demand in the budget, nor the demand to increase the salary of Anganwadi workers. He said the budget has neglected the needs of Punjab's people, farmers, industrialists, and traders, despite the state's repeated requests to the central government. He emphasized that the Prime Minister's claims of a heartfelt bond with Punjab are mere rhetoric, as the reality reflects a deep-seated hatred

The complainant approached the VB and alleged that the accused Deputy Chief Engineer had called him to his office and demanded a bribe of Rs 50,000 and asked him to handover this amount to the accused lineman Kewal Sharma. The spokesperson added that after a preliminary enquiry on his complaint a VB team from Hoshiarpur unit laid a trap during which both the accused were arrested red handed while accepting Rs 50000 as a bribe from the complaint in presence of two official

HIMACHAL DOES NOT REQUIRE 153 IAS OFFICERS FOR A POPULATION OF 70 LAKH, SAYS CM SUKHU

Shimla: The Himachal government has decided against inducting new IAS and IPS officers into the state cadre, as the state does not require 153 IAS officers for a population of approximately 70 lakh, said Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu. Furthermore, the government aims to reduce the number of Indian Forest Service (IFS) officers, he added in a statement issued here. Talking to the media on the sidelines of a programme in Solan, he mentioned that the state lacks a single international-standard airport and that the entire cost of constructing such an airport should be borne by the Central Government. Additionally, the Centre should also fully fund the construction of the Bhanupalli-Beri and Chandigarh-Baddi railway lines, he said response to a question, he highlighted the poor condition of the Solan-Parwanoo four-lane highway, attributing the issue to a flawed design. He mentioned that he had already discussed this matter with Union Minister for Road Transport and Highways, Nitin Gadkari, and had requested a redesign and realignment of the highway to improve its condition. Sukhu reiterated the state government's commitment to enhancing the living standards of the people and affirmed that positive reforms are being undertaken across

DHARMINDER SHARMA TAKES OVER AS PRINCIPAL CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS

Chandigarh: An Indian Forest Service, IFoS, of the 1994 batch Dharminder Sharma took over the charge of Principal Chief Conservator of Forests and the Head of Forest Force, Punjab (PCCF, HoFF) here at the forest complex in Sector - 68. Besides, he would continue to hold the charge of PCCF Wildlife and Chief Wildlife Warden, Punjab till the next incumbent gets posted. Sharma said that boosting eco Tourism, proper upkeep of the wetlands, evolving steps for increasing green cover in the State and employment avenues at local level would be his focus areas. Stating further that the 'Van Mahotsav' to be held in July 2025 would be a unique event, Sharma gave a clarion call to the people to plant more trees as bequeathing a legacy of clean and green environment for future generations is the need of the hour.

Parliamentary constituency in 2019 with a record margin of 4.77 lakh votes, which accounted for 72.2 per cent of the total polled votes.

State Governor Shiv Pratap Shukla called Kapoor a dedicated leader who worked tirelessly for the welfare of the people of Himachal Pradesh. "His contribution to the progress of the state will always be remembered," Shukla said. He extended his condolences to the bereaved family and prayed for their strength during this difficult time.

Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu said that Kapoor's contributions to the development of the state, especially for bered by the people for a long time. He prayed to the almighty to grant peace to the departed soul and strength to the bereaved family members to bear this irreparable loss. Expressing grief, Deputy Chief Minister Mukesh Agnihotri said that Kapoor was a visionary leader who served the people of the state with utmost dedication. "Kapoor worked selflessly and was entirely committed to the upliftment and welfare of the people, as well as the overall development of the state," he

The SAD leader said Punjabis were also looking forward to allocation of funds to make diversification a reality by incentivizing farmers to give up paddy cultivation. "Sadly the government failed to do this". He said it was also unfortunate that no infrastructure or rail project had been earmarked for Punjab or any major institution. "Punjab is in need of funds to revamp its canal irrigation system but these have also been denied to the State. The State has also been denied a special package for industry in the border zone even as there is no assurance of reopening of trade with Pakistan from the Wagah- Attari border.

Badal said the union budget had also failed to simplify GST collection. He said the trade and industry has been calling for simplifying and rationalizing the GST collection but this demand was also ignored. He said it was also unfortunate that cuts had been imposed on the budgets of key sectors like education, transport and rural development even as nothing was done to tackle rising unemployment by creating job opportunities for the youth.

Cenior Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) leader Sukhbir Singh Badal on Saturday said it was unfor-Itunate that the union budget 2025 did not go in for inclusive development of the nation and concentrated on poll-bound States even as he asserted the agricultural economy had been put in peril by ignoring all the demands of farmers including providing a legal guarantee on MSP and and Assam which go to the polls this year even as an important State like Punjab has been completely ignored". He said it was unfortunate that the government had failed to earmark funds for ensuring Minimum Support Price (MSP) on all crops as per the assurance given by Prime Minister Narendra Modi four years back. He said similarly no funds were earmarked for a comprehensive farm loan waiver which was needed across the country keeping in mind the distress in the agriculture sector. Badal said no attempt was even made to rework the PM Fasal Bima Yogna and earmark more funds for it so that farmers could derive benefit from the scheme.

Giving his reaction to the budget, Badal said "it is unfortunate that the focus was on Bihar in the government led by Jai Ram the Dharamshala assembly con-Thakur from December 2017 to stituency and Kangra parlia-May 2019. Kapoor was elected to mentary constituency were the Lok Sabha from the Kangra immense and will be remem-

the Messiah of Farmers

Deen Bandhu Sir Chhotu Ram Ji

on his birth Anniversary

Heartiest Greetings on the occasion of Basant Panchami

सर छोटू राम जी ने न केवल किसानों के अधिकारों के लिए संघर्ष किया, बल्कि वह समाज के कमजोर, वंचित और शोषित वर्गों की आवाज बने। समाज के उत्थान के लिए उनका योगदान सदैव अविस्मरणीय रहेगा।³⁵

Farmers' Welfare

MSP for All 24 crops, Farmers receive payment directly into their bank accounts within 48 hours of procurement.

Farmers will get 200% compensation of the market rate for the land of towers of high-tension electricity lines passing through their fields.

In the Haryana, houses of up to 500 sq. yard built on panchayat land for more than 20 years are being regularized.

Prime Minister laid the foundation of Maharana Pratap Horticulture University to be built at a cost of ₹700 crore in Karnal.

In case of less rainfall, farmers are being given a bonus of ₹2000 per acre and ₹1345 crore has been paid so far.

Hamas frees 3 hostages, Israel begins releasing Palestinian prisoners

PTI ■ KHAN YOUNIS (GAZA STRIP)

amas militants released three male hostages ▲ being held in the Gaza Strip on Saturday and Israel began releasing 183 Palestinian prisoners from Israeli jails, part of a ceasefire deal that has halted 15 months of intense fighting. Militants handed Yarden Bibas and French-Israeli Ofer Kalderon to Red Cross officials in the southern city of Khan Younis, while American-Israeli hostage Keith Siegel, looking pale and thin, was released to the Red Cross later Saturday morning in Gaza City to the north. All three were abducted during the Hamas-led attack on Israel on October 7, 2023, that sparked the war. Their release brings to 18 the number of hostages released since the ceasefire began on January 19. Both of Saturday's events were quick and orderly, in contrast to chaotic scenes that unfolded on Thursday when armed militants appeared to struggle to hold back a crowd during a hostage release.

Surya Ki Antim Kiran Se Pehli Kiran Tak, performed at Bharat Rang Mahotsay is one such production that Mahotsav, is one such production that draws the audience into its world with raw emotions and a compelling narrative. Directed by Satyendra Parmar and written by Surendra Verma, this powerful drama from Upasana School of Performing Arts, Gujarat University, takes the audience into the depths of personal struggles shaped by social customs.

A Story That Demands Reflection

Set in the 10th century BCE, the play follows Queen Sheelavathi, a woman of strength and dignity, who is forced into the ancient practice of Niyog, a tradition that allows a woman to conceive with a man other than her husband if the king is unable to father an heir. Sheelavathi, despite her unwavering devotion to her husband, finds herself bound by this custom. What follows is an emotionally charged night where both Sheelavathi and King Okkak struggle with their inner conflicts, she with the burden of an unwanted fate, and he with the helplessness of being unable to protect the woman he loves.

The narrative explores personal loss, sacrifice and the weight of expectations. Sheelavathi's silence is heavy with emotion, her pain evident in every scene. The dialogues are sharp and thought-provoking, forcing the audience to question societal norms that impose restrictions individual choices. The emotional yodhya, the birthplace of Lord Ram, offered Hemant Shukla a divine experience with its serene Saryu River, vibrant ghats, and the grandeur of Ram Mandir amidst spiritual awakening.

As soon as the semester break began, I packed my bags, filled with excitement and patience, for a 23hour train journey from the Temple City of India, Bhubaneswar, to the birthplace of Lord Shri Ram, Ayodhya. Since there is no direct train to Ayodhya, I boarded the Puri-Gwalior Express from Bhubaneswar to Prayagraj (Sangam Ĉity), arrived at midnight, and then took another train early in the morning, reaching Ayodhya around 9 a.m.
As I entered the Ayodhya Dham Station amidst a trail of morning mist, I could feel an aura of spirituality. The station itself resembled a temple,

Ayodhya's spiritual essence, sacred sites and vibrant ghats offer a deeply immersive and divine experience beautifully adorned with carved paintings, banners, and lights, with a temple-like structure on top. Modern facilities ensured effective crowd tradition management, blending mischievous monkeys, notorious for snatching food items. Accommodation options ranged from economical dormitories and Dharamshalas for under ₹500 to mid-range hotels for ₹2,000 and even luxurious stays.

After stepping out, I made my way to the nearby Neeraj Tea Stall, a beloved spot among locals. A Short walk led me to the New May a Chart. A short walk led me to the Stall, a beloved spot among locals. A short walk led me to the Stall walk led me to the Stal hot cup of tea for ₹10 and a plate of pakoras for serene banks of the Saryu River. The sacred river ₹20, accompanied by a free-of-cost cheerful chat welcomed many devotees. Despite the winter chill with the locals. They advised me to beware of the and fog, I mustered the courage and plunged into the sacred waters, feeling an inexplicable connection with the divine.

Next, I visited the Nageshwar Nath Temple, established by Kush, Lord Ram's son, to honour Lord Shiva with sacred Saryu water. Ram ki Paidi especially on floodlit nights. Every year on Diwali, that will forever resonate in my heart. Ayodhya's Deepotsav is celebrated on these ghats with lakhs of diyas and laser shows. The vibrant energy surrounding the ghats during the festivities is truly blissful. From there, I walked to the road and took a ₹10 e-rickshaw to Choti Devkali Mandir, where Goddess Parvati is worshipped as Sita Mata's family deity. Near the main road, I treated myself to some delicious dahi jalebi at Maurya Misthan Bhandar for ₹50-a delightful experience for both my taste buds and

Before visiting the grand Ram Mandir, I headed towards the Hanuman Garhi Temple. This temple, dedicated to Lord Hanuman, had a long queue of devotees, but the wait was worth it. With 1 kg of prasad—besan ladoos made in desi ghee—for 480, I was ready for my next destination.

After that, I visited the Ram Mandir, which is within walking distance. I was amazed by the sight of the temple. Although it is still under construction, the energy and emotions I felt there are beyond words. It was a deeply spiritual experience. The temple has proper arrangements and facilities for pilgrims, including a dedicated facilitation centre to assist visitors. One can also pre-book a slot for the Ram Mandir Aarti Darshan online. By 4 p.m., I had completed all these activities and had lunch at Chandra Restaurant, which cost ₹500. Afterwards, I took some rest, preparing for another surreal experience yet to come.

s the clock struck 7 p.m., Ayodhya dazzled in vibrant lights. The symbolic streetlights, soulful bhajans blending with city sounds, and the lively yet peaceful atmosphere felt surreal. Walking through the illuminated streets, I reached Kanak Bhawan, believed to have been gifted by Kaikeyi to Sita after her marriage to Lord Ram. The temple's architecture, reminiscent of Rajasthani palaces, left me in awe. The idols of Lord Ram and Sita exuded divine charm. As I sat in the temple's courtyard, time seemed to stand still. Attending the Shayan Aarti at 9 p.m. was a transcendent experience, with devotees singing bhajans in reverence.

After the aarti, I had dinner at Kanak Rasoi for ₹150 before heading back to my stay. The next morning, I caught my train back to Bhubaneswar, but a part of my soul remains in Ayodhya, especially in the divine embrace of Kanak

EXPLORE GOA LIKE NEVER BEFORE!

Mansão Curtorim invites guests to experience the lesser-known, tranquil side of Goa, where time slows down amidst lush paddy fields and historic landscapes, says SHARMILA CHAND

estled in the heart of Curtorim, a tranquil village in South Goa surrounded landscapes, Mansão Curtorim is a 236-year-old Indo-Portuguese heritage villa that seamlessly blends the region's cultural and architectural facets with modern comforts.

I was fortunate to experience this meticulously restored heritage property which offers a serene retreat, inviting guests to immerse themselves in Goa's hidden gems, its timeless charm, and the tranquil pace of life in a peaceful village setting.

For me, sitting in the garden early morning with my precious cup of tea created an unforgettable revelry. The garden overlooks the lake which is lovely with several egrets playing perfect hosts to migratory birds. As I sip my tea, looking at pretty ducks gliding over the water of the lake, a gentle whisper of a cuckoo lures me to her charm, I can't stop looking at the sky in pretty hues of dawn while Coucal manages to steal the spotlight in the nearby gorgeous Champa tree with its deep resonant notes. Here the air hums with vibes that are beautifully soothing invigorating.

THE STUNNING VILLA - HERITAGE MEETS MODERN COMFORT: With its Indo-Portuguese architecture, Mansão Curtorim blends colonial-era charm with modern luxury. Every corner of the heritage villa set on a 1.5-acre estate, speaks of finer details embracing elements of elegance and comfort. Truly, it's a haven for the discerning traveler. The villa is a testament to Goa's rich colonial history, with its striking redhued façade, colonial-era furniture, and intricate details like rosewood beds and ornate mirrors. When you enter the villa, you are transported to a bygone era, where traditional Portuguese design meets modern-day amenities.

Spacious living areas, breezy balconies, and carefully preserved vintage elements like patterned cement tiles and vintage ceilings highlight the villa's colonial heritage, making it a place where history is honored without compromising on comfort.

Mansão Curtorim features six elegantly appointed bedrooms, each offering a perfect balance of comfort and charm, blending the charm of traditional Portuguese architecture with modern comforts.

CULTURAL HERITAGE: Beyond its aesthetic beauty, Mansão Curtorim offers a rich cultural experience rooted in the local community and culinary traditions. Tucked away in Curtorim, a serene village adorned with sprawling paddy fields, coconut groves, and historic water bodies, the villa provides the perfect setting for those seeking both relaxation and a deeper connection with Goa's heritage. The nearby Church of St. Alex, dating back to 1597, and the peaceful flow of the Zuari River enhance the area's charm, making it a haven for birdwatchers, history enthusiasts, and those simply looking for tranquility.

CURATED IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCES: Guests at Mansão Curtorim can explore the area through curated experiences that showcase the essence of traditional Goan life. Guided village walks, scenic cycling trails, and visits to heritage sites like Chandor and Rachol offer a glimpse into Goa's rich cultural fabric. The villa's serene surroundings are also ideal for creative pursuits, making it the perfect retreat for artists, writers, or anyone looking to unwind in an intimate and restorative environment. Whether you're looking to paint, write, or simply relax in nature's embrace, Mansão Curtorim aligns perfectly with CGH Earth Saha's philosophy of providing meaningful, intimate, immersive experiences.

CULINARY DELIGHTS: A key highlight of Mansão Curtorim is its culinary offerings, which provide a delightful journey through Goa's rich and diverse food culture. The villa's chef has carefully crafted a menu that combines traditional Goan delicacies with popular Western favorites, catering to both vegetarians and meat lovers. The enticing aroma of Chorizo Pilaf, the delicate flavors of Cauliflower Čaldine, and the rich, spicy notes of Pork Sorpotel and Bharlelim Aimi exemplify the depth of Goan cuisine. Guests can embark on a flavourful journey with iconic dishes like Bebinca, Sol Kadi, Xacuti, and Vindaloo, all rooted in Indo-Portuguese culinary traditions and enhanced by the region's distinctive spices and fresh ingredients. For me every meal was a memorable event in a relaxed outdoor setting overlooking the lush courtyard. Right from cooking every dish to highlight the vibrant flavors of South Goa to impeccable presentation, the team takes Gastronomy to another level.

GOAN FENI AND TAPAS FOOD TRAIL: For those seeking a true Goan culinary adventure, the Goan Feni and Tapas Food Trail is an exciting opportunity to savour Goa's iconic spirit, paired with delectable tapas. This immersive food trail adds an extra layer of authenticity to the experience, giving guests the chance to taste the best of Goan cuisine in a truly unique setting.

TO CONCLUDE: Whether you are seeking a quiet retreat to reconnect with loved ones, indulge in creative pursuits, or explore Goa's cultural and natural wonders, Mansão Curtorim offers the perfect escapade. With its blend of history, beauty, and modern comfort, it is more than just a place to stay-it is an invitation to experience Goa in its truest, most immersive form.

The issues you face primarily stem from external sources rather than yourself, as others may not be fulfilling their responsibilities, contributing to challenges you encounter. If you feel trapped or exposed, it's crucial to address these challenges without delay. Start by liberating your thoughts from any fixed ideas to achieve a broader perspective. Once you gain more clarity and openness in your thinking, dedicate time to reflect deeply on your true aspirations. Additionally, a supportive individual could provide valuable guidance and encouragement, helping you navigate through these times.

The Sadhus, those mystical figures who populated my dreams, present themselves in all their contradictory glory

y hands tremble as I pack my bags for Mahakumbh, each item I place

Linside carrying the weight of generations of spiritual seekers before me. The anticipation burns in my chest like sacred incense, filling me with both excitement and trepidation. Years of listening to my grandmother's stories about this divine gathering have created a tapestry of expectations in my mind visions of enlightened sadhus with eyes that pierce through the illusions of everyday life, of holy waters that shimmer with ancient blessings, and of an atmosphere so pure it could lift one's soul closer to the divine. In the weeks leading up to my journey, sleep becomes elusive. I lie awake; my mind painting pictures of what awaits me. I imagine myself sitting cross-legged at the feet of wise Sadhus, their words flowing like honey into my eager consciousness, transforming my understanding of existence itself. In these pre-dawn reveries, I see the mighty Ganges, her waters carrying centuries of devotion, prayers, and tears, ready to embrace me in her sacred flow. My heart races at the thought of joining millions of seekers, all united in their quest for spiritual elevation. But oh, how reality strikes with the force of a temple bell's resonance! The Kumbh that hurricane of humanity where the lines between the sacred and the mundane blur carefully constructed mental image shatters into something entirely unexpected. My greets me is a beautiful paradox - a swirling reformed into something far more complex and, surprisingly, more meaningful. Here I stand, my feet planted in the same sacred soil as celebrity stars and famous personalities. I have only seen on television. The sight of them stripped of their glamour, dressed in simple white cotton, their faces bare of makeup, stirs something profound within me. There is an raw beauty in watching a famous personalities wait patiently for their turn to take a dip, their usual entourage replaced by the company of ordinary devotees. In these moments, I realise that fame and fortune are but floating leaves on the eternal river of spirituality. The Sadhus, those mystical figures who populated my dreams, present themselves in all their contradictory glory. Some sit in deep meditation, their dreadlocks touching the ground, their eyes closed to the material world, exactly as I had imagined. Others, to my initial shock and subsequent amusement, chat on smartphones while blessing devotees, their ancient wisdom finding new channels of expression in the digital age. My heart struggles to reconcile these contrasts, but gradually, I begin to understand that spirituality doesn't require a rejection of the present but it demands finding the sacred within it. The crowds – oh, the crowds! They overwhelm my senses like a tidal wave. Bodies press against bodies, moving like a living, breathing organism with its own consciousness. The air is thick with the scent of incense, sweat, and flowers. Sometimes, the press of people triggers a primal panic in my chest, but then, mysteriously, moments of profound peace emerge from the chaos.

When the evening aarti begins, and thousands of diyas set the river aglow, time seems to stand still. In these precious moments, all differences dissolve into the gathering darkness, and I feel connected to every soul around me in a way that transcends physical discomfort. The presence of VIP zones and special arrangements initially fills me with a bitter disappointment that tastes like ash in my mouth. How can true spirituality coexist with such worldly distinctions? But then I witness a prominent politician sitting barefoot in the mud, listening intently to a sadhu's discourse, his security detail maintaining a respectful distance. I see a famous cricket player queuing up with common devotees, his celebrity status surrendered to his role as a seeker. These sights soften my judgment, teaching me that the path to spiritual understanding takes many forms.

As days pass, my expectations continue their dance with reality. The Kumbh reveals itself not as a perfect spiritual haven untouched by modernity, but as a living, breathing manifestation of India's soul - complex, contradictory, and utterly magnificent in its ability to embrace both tradition and change. My heart swells with unexpected joy when I see young influencers promoting ancient Sanskrit shlokas on their social media, or when a group of international tourists joins a traditional bhajan session with genuine devotion in their eyes. The transformation I experience is not the one I anticipated. Instead of finding escape from the modern world, I discover something far more valuable - the ability to sense the divine pulsing within the heart of our contemporary reality. Each dip in the holy waters teaches me that spirituality isn't about escaping life's complexities but about finding meaning within them.

As I prepare to leave, my heart full and my soul stirred, I understand that the true miracle of Mahakumbh 2025 lies not in its adherence to ancient ideals, but in its power to remain relevant while honouring tradition. I carry home not just holy water in a copper pot, but also the profound realization that in our quest for spiritual connection, we are all equal - celebrities, saints, and common seekers alike. The Kumbh has taught me that divinity does not require isolation from the modern world; it thrives in our ability to maintain faith and seek meaning within the beautiful chaos of contemporary life, regardless of who we are or where we come from. My journey may not have matched my expectations, but it has given me something
