everal passengers were injured when gunmen attacked a train in Pakistan's troubled Balochistan on Tuesday, prompting the provincial government to direct authorities to take emergency measures".

Jaffar Express, with around 500 passengers on board in nine coaches, was on its way from Quetta to Peshawar in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa when it was fired on between Gudalaar and Piru Koneri areas, according to officials.

The Balochistan Liberation Army (BLA) claimed that it seized control of the train by derailing it, killed six security personnel and took over 100 passengers, including active duty personnel, into custody. However, there was no independent confirmation of their claim.

In a statement, the BLA warned that if the Pakistan military launches an operation, "all hostages will be executed". The group is banned in Pakistan, the UK and the US.

Official data on casualties was not available, but security sources said that the train driver and several passengers were injured in the gunfire.

There are reports of intense firing at a Jaffar Express, which was heading from Quetta to Peshawar, between Pehro Kunri and Gadalar," Balochistan government spokesperson Shahid Rind said.

Rescue teams and security forces have reached the scene, and an operation is underway to track down the assailants. Emergency has been declared in the local

A provincial government statement said an emergency was imposed at Sibi hospital and ambulances and security forces were on their way to the site.

Interior Minister Mohsin Naqvi condemned the incident, saying: "The beasts who fire on innocent passengers do not deserve any concessions.

In the past, the railway tracks in this area have been attacked by Baloch militants using rockets or remote-controlled bombs, and the BLA claimed responsibility for most of the attacks.

In October last year, Pakistan Railways announced the restoration of train services between Quetta and Peshawar after a suspension of more than a month and Balochistan has witnessed an uptick in terrorist attacks over the past year. In November 2024, at least 26 people were killed and 62 injured after a suicide blast ripped through a Quetta Railway Station.

Balochistan, bordering Iran and Afghanistan, is home to a long-running violent insurgency. Baloch insurgent groups frequently carry out attacks targeting security personnel, government projects and the USD 60 billion China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) projects in the oil and mineral-authorities denied entry to Pakistan's ambassador to Turkmenistan and deported him from Los Angeles, a media report said on Ambassador KK Wagan, who holds a valid US visa and all necessary travel documents, was stopped at Los Angeles airport by US immigration authorities, The News quoted diplomatic sources as saying.

"Ambassador KK Wagan was deported from the US. He had an immigration objection, which led to his deportation," a senior foreign ministry official said.

The officials forced him to return to his last port of departure, raising concerns about diplomatic protocol and the nature of the decision.

Foreign Office confirmed the envoy had gone to the US on a private visit.

It said the Ministry of Foreign Affairs was looking into the matter and an investigation was underway.

The Foreign Office also advised avoiding any speculation in the matter.

Earlier, sources said the US immigration system flagged Wagan over "controversial visa references", leading to his immediate deportation. It remains unclear what specific concerns triggered this response from American authorities. Wagan is a seasoned diplomat with extensive experience in Pakistan's foreign services.

Over the years, he has held several key assignments, including second secretary at the Embassy of Pakistan in Kathmandu, deputy consul general at the Consulate General of Pakistan in Los Angeles, deputy head of mission and ambassador in Muscat, Oman, head of mission at the Embassy of Pakistan in Niamey, Niger, Overseas Pakistanis, Consular Affairs, and Crisis Management Unit Director General at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Quetta quakes under terror | Foreigners Act merged with Immigration Bill

RAIPUR

¬he new Immigration and Foreigners Bill 2025 was introduced in Lok Sabha on Tuesday to strengthen and streamline the rules relating to immigration and foreigners' entry and exit. The new bill is expected to replace the current colonial era laws including the Foreigners Act, 1946, the Passport (Entry into India) Act, 1920, the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1939, and the Immigration (Carriers' Liability) Act, 2000. The Opposition objected to the new Bill, saying there are certain provisions violating fundamental rights mentioned in Constitution like preventing entry of persons who are not in the good books of Government.

Rejecting suggestions that the Parliament lacked the legislative competence to bring the Immigration and Foreigners Bill, 2025, Minister of State for Home Nityanand Rai said the Central government has all the rights under the Union list to bring legislations on the subject. He asserted that while tourists were welcome to come to India, it was the government's responsibility to ensure peace and sovereignty of the nation remain intact.

The objective is to enhance national security, control immigration procedures, and introduce stricter penalties on foreigners who violate entry and stay conditions, said Minister Rai. The bill mentions that any foreigner posing a threat to national security, sovereignty or the integrity of the nation will not be allowed into the country or will be denied the permission to stay in India. The bill mandates registration for foreigners upon arrival, restricting their movement, name changes, and access to protected and restricted areas.

Transport carriers like Airlines carrying foreigners without valid documents will be held liable and can be fined up

FEATURES OF NEW BILL

As per the bill, violations will attract heavy penalties. Arriving in India without a valid passport or visa may attract imprisonment of up to five years and a fine of up to ₹5 lakh. Foreigners using forged documents could face a jail term of two to seven years, with fines ranging from ₹1 lakh to ₹10 lakh. Additionally, overstaying, violating visa conditions or trespassing in restricted areas could result in three years imprisonment and fine of up to ₹3 lakh.

The bill also gives authority to immigration officers to arrest individuals without a warrant and gives powers to the central government to regulate the movement of foreigners. Further, no person can not leave the country if their presence is required by any authorised Opposing the bill at the introduction stage, Manish Tewari (Congress) said the bill is violative of multiple provisions of the Constitution and various laws. He said the bill violates the principle of fundamental rights and the government may use the provisions of the proposed law to deny entry to those who are not in sync with the ideology of the ruling dispensation of the day.

Saugata Roy of the TMC said the proposed law could prevent inflow of talent from outside in various fields. In his remarks before formally introducing the bill, Rai said the draft law seeks to correct overlapping and duplicate provisions in prevailing laws governing immigration and foreigners in the country. The legislation is aimed at streamlining various services related to immigration and foreigners, including their entry, exit and stav in India.

According to existing laws, all foreigners on long-term (more than 180 days) student, medical, research, employment, missionary and project visas are required to register with the Foreigners Regional Registration Officer (FRRO) or the Foreigners Registration Officer (FRO) concerned, having jurisdiction over the place where the foreigner intends to stay, within 14 days of arrival.

Ukraine-US talk in Saudi Arabia

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Jeddah

igh-stakes talks between senior delegations from Ukraine and the United States on how to end Kyiv's three-year war with Moscow opened in Saudi Arabia on Tuesday, hours after Russian air defences shot down 337 Ukrainian drones over Russia.

Iwo people were killed and 18 were injured, including three children, in the massive drone attack that spanned 10 Russian regions, officials said. No largescale damage was reported.

In the Red Sea port city of Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, journalists briefly entered a room where senior Ukrainian delegation met with America's top diplomat for talks on ending Europe's biggest conflict since World War II.

US Secretary of State Marco Rubio smiled for the cameras, while Ukrainian officials sat without expression at a table across from them as the meeting got underway at a luxury hotel.

There was no immediate comment from Ukrainian or US officials on the drone attack

Saudi Arabia's foreign minister was on hand for the talks as American, Saudi and Ukrainian flags stood in the background. Officials did not answer any of the shouted questions.

The talks offer an opportunity for Kyiv officials to repair Ukraine's relationship with Trump's administration after an unprecedented argument erupted during President Volodymyr Zelenskyy's February 28 visit to the White House.

Critically, Ukraine needs to persuade Washington to end the subsequent US suspension of military aid and some intelligence sharing. US officials have said that positive talks in Jeddah could mean it may be only a short suspension Ukrainian officials told The Associated Press on Monday that they will propose a ceasefire covering the Black Sea, which would bring safer shipping, as well longrange missile strikes that have hit civilians in Ukraine, and the release of prisoners.

The two senior officials said Kyiv is also ready to sign an agreement with the United States on access to Ukraine's rare earth minerals - a deal that US President Donald Trump is keen to secure.

On his plane to Jeddah, Rubio said the US delegation would not be proposing any specific measures to secure an end to the three-year conflict but rather wanted to hear from Ukraine about what they would be willing to consider.

"I'm not going to set any conditions on what they have to or need to do," Rubio told reporters accompanying him. "I think we want to listen to see how far they're willing to go and then compare that to what the Russians want and see how far apart we truly are."

Delhi's dubious distinction as most polluted

RAJESH KUMAR New Delhi

elhi continues to rank among India's most polluted cities for the seventh consecutive year. With an average PM 2.5 concentration of 91.8 micrograms per cubic metre, the World Air Quality Report 2024 from Swiss air quality technology firm IQAir identified Delhi's status as the most polluted capital city globally, while India ranked fifth in 2024, down from third in 2023.

The report released on Tuesday has painted a grim picture for India as 13 of the world's top 20 most-polluted cities are within the country. The report has picked Byrnihat in Assam as the most polluted city in the world.

The 13 Indian cities in the world's top 20 most polluted cities are Byrnihat in Meghalaya, Delhi, Mullanpur (Punjab), Faridabad, Loni, New Delhi, Gurugram, Ganganagar, Greater Noida, Bhiwadi, Muzaffarnagar, Hanumangarh and Noida. Another four are in neighboring Pakistan, with one in China and Kazakhstan, respectively.

Delhi's air pollution is a result of various factors, including high vehicular emissions, industrial discharges, construction dust, and seasonal stubble

These sources, combined with geographical factors and rapid urbanization, create severe air quality problems that affect health and the environment. Delhi recorded consistently high pollution levels, with an annual average PM2.5 concentration of 91.6 micrograms per cubic metre, nearly unchanged from 92.7 micrograms per cubic metre in 2023. Delhi grapples with high air pollution year-round and the problem worsens in winter when unfavourable meteorological conditions, combined with vehicular emissions, paddy-straw burning, firecrackers and other local pollution sources, make the air quality hazardous.

According to the report, the country saw a / per cent decline in PM2.5 concentrations in 2024, averaging 50.6 micrograms per cubic metre, compared to 54.4 micrograms per cubic metre in

With all those improvements, six of the world's 10 most polluted cities are still in India. Overall, 35 per cent of the Indian cities reported annual PM2.5 levels exceeding 10 times the WHO limit of 5 micrograms per cubic metre. Air pollution remains a serious health risk in India, reducing life expectancy by an estimated 5.2 years.

The only city outside of Asia featured on the list is N'Djamena, the capital of Chad in central Africa - which was named the country with the worst air pollution. Meanwhile the cities with the worst pollution in North America were all in California. The report has relied on data from over 40,000 air quality monitoring stations at 8,954 locations in 138 countries, territories and regions. It was analysed by IQAir's air quality scientists. Only seven countries have achieved the World Health Organisation's (WHO) stringent air quality standards for 2024, and India is not one of them. These countries include Australia, New Zealand, the Bahamas, Barbados, Grenada, Estonia, and Iceland, according to data compiled by IQAir, a Swiss air quality monitoring

Former WHO chief scientist and health ministry advisor Soumya Swaminathan said India has made progress in air quality data collection but lacks sufficient action.

"We have the data; we need action now. Some solutions are easy like replacing biomass with LPG. India already has a scheme for this, but we must further subsidise additional cylinders. The first cylinder is free, but the poorest families, especially women, should receive higher subsidies. This will improve their health and reduce outdoor air pollution," she said.

In its monthly report, the Centre for Research on Energy and Clean Air (CREA) highlighted the severity of winter air pollution in India, revealing that 173 out of 238 cities recorded PM2.5 levels exceeding the National Ambient Air Quality Standards (NAAQS) of 40

Aizawl, Mizoram recorded the lowest winter-average PM2.5 level at 7 μg/m , making it the cleanest city in the analysis. Moreover, none of the 238 cities analysed met the World Health Organisation's (WHO) guideline of 5 μg/m , emphasising the scale of air quality challenges. 'Winter' refers to the period from October 1, 2024, to February 28, 2025 (winter 2024-25).

Airtel partners Musk for high-speed internet services

PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ New Delhi

unil Mittal headed Bharti Airtel on Tuesday said it has partnered with Elon Musk's SpaceX for providing Starlink's high-speed internet services to its customers in India. This agreement is subject to SpaceX receiving authorisations to sell Starlink's satellite communicationsbased services in India, Airtel said in a statement.

This is a distribution agreement allowing Airtel to sell SpaceX's Starlink services in India, a major breakthrough for the Musk-owned satellite Internet firm. The agreement does not mean that services will be offered immediately and Starlink still needs to get necessary authorisations from the Department of Telecommunications (DoT) and the Ministry of Home Affairs before it can commence operations in India. The agreement will enable Airtel and SpaceX to further explore how Starlink could complement and expand Airtel's offerings, and how Airtel's expertise in the Indian market could complement SpaceX's direct offerings to consumers and businesses. Bharti Airtel Managing Director and Vice Chairman Gopal Vittal said that working with SpaceX to offer Starlink services to Airtel customers in India is a significant milestone and further demonstrates company's commitment to next-generation satellite connectivity. "This collaboration enhances our ability to bring world-class high-speed broadband to even the most remote parts of India ensuring that every individual, business, and community has reliable internet,"Vittal said.

After Ganga, Yamuna to host cruises RAJESH KUMAR ■ New Delhi

n a bid to boost tourism, the Yamuna is set to witness a transformation. A four-kilometre stretch between Sonia Vihar and Jagatpur will soon host ecofriendly river cruises- a plan that was on the back burner since 2016. The Inland Waterways Authority of India (IWAI) on Tuesday signed Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with multiple agencies of Delhi government including Irrigation and Flood Control department, the Delhi Development Authority (DDA), the Delhi Jal Board (DJB), the Delhi Transport Corporation (DTC). Under the plan, the ferry services will operate on about a five-km stretch

The MoU signing ceremony was held at Asita Park. Union Minister of Ports, Shipping and Waterways (MoPSW), Sarbananda Sonowal, the Union Minister of State (MoPSW), Shantanu Thakur, Delhi Lieutenant Governor Vinai Kumar

between Sonia Vihar and Jagatpur (Shani

among otherw were present at the occa-

Speaking on the occasion, Sonowal said that the introduction of eco-friendly cruise tourism on the Yamuna is yet another milestone in this journey, paving the way for cleaner, greener, and more efficient waterways that will boost both connectivity and tourism in the heart of

"For years, the people of Delhi were saddened to see dirt and neglect floating on the Yamuna, but this initiative marks the beginning of a long-overdue correction. With the launch of these cruises, Delhiites along with scores of tourists, who flock to the capital, will once again fall in love with their river, experiencing its beauty in a way they never imagined," he said.

Delhi Lieutenant Governor Vinai Kumar Saxena accused the previous AAP government for delaying the pro-

The project will see the introduction of hybrid boats designed to carry 20-30 passengers at a time. These vessels will be equipped with bio-toilets, public announcement systems, and life jackets to ensure both safety and convenience. Additionally, two high-density polyethylene (HDPE) jetties will be installed to facilitate smooth ferry operations.

The initiative is expected to encourage short-distance water travel and recreational activities, making the river more accessible for both tourists and locals. The solar powered hybrid boats designed to carry 20 to 30 passengers at a time - are planned to be run between Sonia Vihar and Jagatpur, upstream of Wazirabad.

The stretch of Yamuna from Jagatpur Delhi to Sangam in Prayagraj (Uttar Pradesh) has been declared as NW-110 with the enactment of Inland Waterways Act in March, 2016. A draft of the MoU was sent to the departments concerned, including Delhi Development Authority (DDA) and Delhi Jal Board (DJB) in September 2024. However, the Delhi government demanded some changes in the MoU conditions.

Farmers Submit 'MSP Report' to Centre Ahead of Mar 19 Talks

In a significant move ahead of the crucial March 19 meeting with the Central Government, farmers protesting at Punjab and Haryana's Shambhu and Khanauri borders have submitted a detailed MSP feasibility report to the Centre, asserting that the Centre can ensure Minimum Support Price (MSP) procurement at an estimated cost of Rs 25,000 - Rs 30,000 crore — as demanded by the Union Agriculture Minister in the previous meeting.

The report, prepared after consultations with agricultural experts, challenges the Central Government's long-standing claim that legalizing MSP would be financially unviable. With this document, the farmers aim to push the Centre into a corner, demanding a fact-based discussion rather than political rhetoric in the upcoming negotiations.

The Central Government, now in possess sion of the farmers' financial assessment, is set to scrutinize the figures with experts before responding in the high-stakes meeting. The report comes at a time when the movement has already gained significant momentum, and the farmer leaders are warning that failure to accept their demand could escalate the protest to a national level. Meanwhile, the situation at the protest sites remains tense as farmer leader Jagjit Singh Dallewal's indefinite hunger strike has entered its 106th day, with him refusing any medical assistance for the past four days, heightening concerns over his deteriorating health. His condition is being closely monitored by fellow farmers and supporters, who have vowed to intensify their agitation if the government fails to address their demands.

The farmers' agitation at the Shambhu and Khanauri borders has now been ongoing for nearly a year, having started on February 13, 2024. Despite six rounds of meetings between the farmers and the Central Government, a concrete resolution has remained elusive. The farmers have remained steadfast in their demand for a legal guarantee for MSP, arguing that it is the only way to ensure financial security for cultivators. Unlike the 2020-21 farmers' protest, Kisan Morcha (SKM), the current agitation is being carried out under the banners of the Samyukta Kisan Morcha (Non-Political) and the Kisan Mazdoor Morcha, which have brought together multiple farmer unions. Interestingly, SKM itself has not officially joined the ongoing movement, though discussions for unity between different farmer factions have taken place at least six times. The issue has even reached the Supreme Court, reflecting its national significance.

"Now as we have given our report with all the facts and figures to the Centre Government that providing legal guarantee of MSP would not be a massive financial burden, now it is on the Centre to respond with a concrete proposal. We hope that before our next talks, the government hold thorough discussions with the experts to analyze our claims and its financial feasibility," a senior farmer leader said.

As a build-up to the March 19 meeting, farmers have unveiled a series of escalation plans and events to mobilize greater support and put additional pressure on the central government. On March 16, a Kisan Sammelan (farmer conference) will be held in Tamil Nadu's Tenkasi district to discuss the demand for a legal MSP guarantee. The day after, a joint conference with agricultural experts will be organized at Chandigarh's Kisan Bhawan by the Samyukta Kisan Morcha (Non-Political) and Kisan Mazdoor Morcha to strengthen their argument for an

Farmers, Police Clash in Gurdaspur Over Land Acquisition; 7 Injured

A minor clash erupted between farmers and police in Gurdaspur district on Tuesday as tensions flared over land acquisition for the Delhi-Katra Expressway. Farmers protesting in Nangal Jhor and Bharat villages alleged that police forcibly tried to clear land for the project, damaging standing wheat crops in the process. According to the Kisan Mazdoor Sangharsh Committee (KMSC), at least seven farmers were injured in the police action and were later admitted to the Harchowal Government Hospital for treat-

KMSC president Sarwan Singh Pandher accused the administration of forcefully acquiring land without providing compensation to farmers. "The police removed farmers' turbans, destroyed standing crops, and used force to clear the fields. This is a clear violation of farmers' rights," Pandher alleged. He named the injured farmers as Parminder Singh, Ajaib Singh, Gurmukh Singh, Harjit Singh, Ajit Singh, Nishan Singh, and Ajit Singh Bhittewind.

Early Tuesday morning, a team of district officials, accompanied by police personnel, arrived in the villages to remove farmers from the land earmarked for the highway project. As soon as the news spread, hundreds of farmers, including women, gathered near Nangal Jhor Gurdwara and began a sit-in

The situation escalated when farmers, carrying union flags, rushed towards the machines being used to clear their fields. Some even laid down in front of the equipment, refusing to leave. A scuffle broke out, during which police allegedly pushed farmers back, leading to injuries and the forcible removal of turbans. Despite the clash, the administration was ultimately forced to retreat without completing the eviction.

The protest stems from the long-standing dispute over compensation for acquired land. Farmers insisted that they have not received fair compensation, while district authorities claimed that payments have already been made. "We will not allow forced land acquisition without proper compensation," said a protesting farmer.

In response to the violence, Pandher announced that farmers will strategize their next move in a meeting, warning that the agitation will only intensify if the government does not engage in fair negotiations.

Heated debate between treasury, opposition benches over Rs 2,100 allowance for women in Hry Assembly

PNS CHANDIGARH

The Haryana Assembly on Tuesday wit-I nessed heated exchanges between opposition lawmakers and the treasury benches over Rs 2100 monthly allowance for women. On the third day of the Budget session of the Haryana Vidhan Sabha, Congress MLA from Mulana Pooja Chaudhary during Question hour sought to know from the Government the time by which the monthly assistance is likely to be disbursed to the women of the state. Participating in a discussion on the governor's address, another Congress leader and Julana MLA Vinesh Phogat also raised the issue of Rs 2100 allowance for women.

In his reply, Haryana Social Justice and Empowerment Minister Krishan Kumar Bedi referred to the BJP's poll promise and said, "It is under consideration and the government will take a decision on this soon," Bedi informed the House. Ahead of the October 2024 Haryana Assembly polls, the BJP had promised to provide the amount to women each month if it returned to power.

Asking a supplementary question, the Congress MLA said, "I am surprised that this kind of reply is being given in the House. Is this the seriousness of the government?" "During the polls, this was the BJP's first promise to women. They spoke of giving financial assistance to women. And now, five months later, this matter is under consideration. I am asking a clear question about the definite time when the scheme will be implemented," she asked.

Responding to this, Bedi reiterated his reply and told the Congress MLAs in the House that they do not have to worry about the seriousness of the BJP government whose "promises are guarantees". Launching a scathing attack on the Congress, the minister reminded the party about the fate of promises it had made to the people of Himachal Pradesh, Telangana and

Discussion on Governor's Address

Ruling BJP MLAs on Tuesday claimed in the Haryana Assembly that the state is witnessing fast development under the party-led government, which the opposition countered saying that the state has fallen behind on several parameters. The MLAs were participating in a discussion on the Governor's Address in the State Assembly.

The ruling party legislators talked about various steps that the BJP government has taken in the state for the welfare of various sections in the past decade. BJP MLA Laxman Singh Yadav said all-round development has been undertaken by the state government, but the opposition cannot see it. Another BJP MLA Kanwar Singh Yadav said if the opposition claims no development has been undertaken, then why did people bring back the BJP to power for a third consecutive term? He targeted the Congress, saying people have repeatedly rejected them. Their situation is such that today they are unable to even pick up their legislative party leader (CLP)," he said.

Meanwhile, Congress member Ashok Arora, while participating in the discussion on the Governor's Address, said the Address is supposed to be the roadmap of the government, which shows what it intends to do for the public and how to facilitate them, but none of it was mentioned this time. "It is the government's responsibility that people should get good education, good health, security and youth gets employment. But all these things are missing in Haryana today," Arora said.

Arora said that the government talks about making Haryana "viksit", "but 75 per cent of the state population is below the poverty line". He said youth are not getting employment and many are forced to adopt illegal "donkey" routes to go abroad in search of employment where they get caught and then Congress' Pooja Chaudhary targeted the government on various fronts. She said, "3/4th population is living below the poverty line. If the policies of the government were right, the income of the poor would have doubled and not their number". On the farmers' issue, she asked if the government's policies are "farmer-centric", then why are peasants still unhappy? She said the government should specify the income of how many farmers has

Haryana CM presents awards to winning players at All India Police Volleyball Games

PNS CHANDIGARH

Haryana Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini on Tuesday gave away the prizes during the closing event of the 73rd All India Police Volleyball Group 2024-25 games at the Madhuban Police Academy in Karnal and said the competition not only showcased sportsmanship but also symbolized discipline, unity, and dedication of the police

Saini said that sports play a vital role in enhancing the performance of police forces in carrying out their duties. Players from 35 teams representing different states participated in the competition, including 791 men, 297 women, and 65 technical officers.

While congratulating the winning players, he acknowledged the tireless efforts of police personnel, who are engaged around the clock in ensuring the country's internal security and protecting citizens. He said that whether responding to natural disasters, maintaining law and order, or managing public cooperation during emergencies, the police force is always at the forefront. "This competition provided players with an opportunity to showcase their skills and abilities, while also gaining insight into each other's emotions, beliefs, and lifestyles," he said. Director General of Police Shatrujeet

Kapur said that Haryana Police hosted the All India Police Games for the 19th time and highlighted several initiatives undertaken by the state government to support the players

CM Mann Orders Speedy Completion of Hoshiarpur Medical College and Hospital

PNS CHANDIGARH

Dunjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann on PTuesday directed the officials to ensure the swift and timely completion of the Shaheed Udham Singh State Institute of Medical Sciences and Civil Hospital in Hoshiarpur. Mann, chairing a high-level review meeting at his residence, emphasized that the Rs 418.30 crore project is crucial for providing quality healthcare services to the people of Punjab, especially the Kandi region. The Institute, spread over 21.41 acres, will include a 300-bed ultra-modern hospital and a medical college with an annual intake of 150 students.

The hospital will feature two basements, eight floors, and a dedicated service floor within the existing Medical Hospital Campus in Hoshiarpur. The medical college will have an auditorium, service blocks, and hostels for boys and girls, with expansion plans for future needs. To expedite construction, the Chief Minister instructed officials to issue separate tenders for the medical college and hospital, ensuring efficient execution. He stressed that all work must be allotted and completed in a time-bound manner, so the region benefits from modern healthcare facil-

Tributes paid to former PM Manmohan Singh and former MP Kishan Kapoor

Legislators from both the ruling Congress and the opposition BJP on Tuesday paid tributes to former Prime Minister Manmohan Singh and former minister Kishan Kapoor in the Himachal Pradesh Assembly. Former PM Singh, the architect of India's economic reforms, died on December 26 last year at the age of 92 following age-related complications. Kishan Kapoor, a prominent Gaddi leader, passed away on February 1, 2024 at PGI Chandigarh after a prolonged illness. He was 74.

Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu said that it was former Prime Minister Manmohan Singh who initiated MNREGA to provide employment, especially in rural areas, and also started the practice of establishing technology-based institutions. He added that the foundation of the Atal Tunnel was laid by Congress leader Sonia Gandhi during the tenure of Manmohan Singh. During his tenure, Himachal Pradesh received several prestigious institutions, including the Medical College in Ner Chowk, IIM Sirmaur and IIIT Una.

Remembering former MP and Minister Kishan Kapoor, Sukhu said that Kapoor became a legislator for the first time in 1990 and served the people selflessly.

Paying tributes to Manmohan Singh, Leader of the Opposition Jai Ram Thakur said that, generally, Prime Ministers are politicians, but Singh was one who held prestigious positions, including Chairman of the Reserve Bank of India, Economic Advisor, and Finance Minister, before becoming the

Counting of votes for Municipal Corporation elections in Hry today

PNS CHANDIGARH

The Counting of votes for the Counting of Corporation elections will be held on The Counting of votes for the Municipal Wednesday. On March 2, the polling to elect mayors and all ward members in seven corporations of Gurugram Manesar, Faridabad, Hisar, Rohtak, Karnal, and Yamuna Nagar was conducted and about 46 per cent of the more than 51 lakh eligible voters exercised their franchise.

The bypolls for the post of mayor in Ambala and Sonipat municipal corporations were also held on March 2. The Polling for the Panipat Municipal Corporation was held on March 9 to elect the Mayor and 26 Councillors and 52 percent of 4,11,038 eligible voters exercised their franchise.

Haryana State Election Commissioner Dhanpat Singh said that the counting process will begin on March 12 at 8:00 AM, and the results will be declared on the same day once the counting is completed. Singh stated that the election results will be available on the State Election Commission's website at https://secharyana.gov.in. During the vote counting process, no candidate, counting agent, or counting staff will be permitted to bring any electronic devices such as mobile phones, pen drives, cameras, laptops, pens, digital watches, etc., to the counting

To ensure proper and smooth completion of the vote counting process for the urban local body elections, extensive arrangements have been made by the Commission in coordination with the district administration. Election Observers will be present at all the relevant counting locations. For security purposes, and particularly for the protection of the EVMs, a police force will accompany the team transporting the EVMs from the strong room to the counting cen-

Singh said 26 ward members have been elected unopposed in the Urban Local Bodies elections and all elected ward members have been issued certificates by the respective Returning Officers confirming their unopposed election.

The MoU signing ceremony was held in the esteemed presence of Hon'ble Chief Minister of Chhattisgarh, Sh. Vishnu Deo Sai. The MoU was signed by Sh. Sushil Kumar Sharma, Director (Projects) SJVN, Sh. Subodh Kumar Singh, Principal Secretary, Energy Department of Chhattisgarh and Sh. Sanjeev Kumar Katiyar, Managing Director of CSPGCL. On this occasion, senior officials from SJVN and Government of Chhattisgarh were also present. The Kotpali PSP is an off-stream closed-loop type pumped storage project located in Balrampur District, Chhattisgarh. With an installed capacity of 1800 MW, the project is expected to generate approximately 3967 million units of electricity annually. Once operational, it will contribute significantly to India's energy transition goals while ensuring a stable and resilient power supply.

The Babe Ke Educational Trust Organized An Akhand Path At Baba Ke Anghin Gaushala

During the event, special efforts were made to protect the Anghin cows, and an ambulance along with 24x7 health services were provided for the welfare of the cattle. The Akhand Path was a spiritual gathering that attracted a large number of participants who took part in the prayers and rituals, emphasizing the importance of cow protection and animal welfare. Special efforts were made throughout the event to promote the well-being of the cattle, including the provision of health services. An ambulance dedicated to the animals was also introduced, ensuring that immediate medical assistance could be provided when needed. Furthermore, 24x7 health services were set up to offer continuous care and support for the cows

Beyond the rhetoric

It is time to go past symbolic gestures and confront the harsh reality of Women's dignity ven as we celebrated International Women's Day, just two days later, we reported three deeply disturbing incidents: the rape of an Israeli tourist in Hampi, a man creating a public nuisance in Pune by urinating at a crossroads, and the blaring of obscene songs in Bihar. These incidents may seem unrelated, but they share a troubling common thread-our society has become morally degraded, indifferent to the dignity of women, and increasingly insensitive to gender equality.

This decline in values is occurring in a country that once revered womanhood, placing women on a high pedestal. The famous sloka from the Manusmriti, 'Yatra naryastu pujyante ramante tatra devta' translates to, "Where women are honored, divinity blossoms there." It serves as a reminder that women should be respected and valued in society. Historically, women like Apala, Ghosha, Lopamudra, and Gargi were esteemed figures in ancient India. In modern times, countless women have made significant contributions across various fields. Yet, given the current state of affairs, one might wonder if the gods have already abandoned us.

What has gone wrong? Why do we see such pervasive misogyny and moral decline in a country that once celebrated womanhood? When did we lose our way? Blaming Western influence for our own degeneration is a weak excuse. The truth is, while women have been at the forefront of progress, they have also endured some of the harshest forms of patriarchy. From domestic violence to workplace discrimination, Indian women continue to struggle against entrenched biases, even from socalled educated and cultured men who conveniently abandon their ideals when it comes to gender equality.

The three incidents reported may not be the norm, but they are symptomatic of a larger, deeply rooted issue. Over the years, we have only reinforced the objectification of women. Just glance at advertisements where women are reduced to eye candy, Bollywood films where they play second fiddle to male protagonists, or popular fiction where they are confined to stereotypical roles of homemakers and child-rearers. Even the comments from the politicians in the recent past have been rather uncharitable about women. The problem runs deeper than we acknowledge. Society as a whole must awaken to the true power of women and respect them for their inherent worth, not just as decorative figures.

What can be done? First, we must recognise and admit that the state of women in India is deplorable. Ignoring the issue or brushing it under the carpet will not help. When stand-up comedian Vir Das made a pointed remark about how India worships women by day and violates them by night, all hell broke loose. Yet, outrage cannot erase the painful truth. Hypocrisy and pretense cannot change the truth. Token gestures and symbolic celebrations are past their expiry date—it is time for real action. Stronger laws may be part of the solution, but they must be backed by proper implementation. (It is worth noting that the conviction rate for crimes against women remains abysmally low) More importantly, we need to instil respect and gender sensitivity in men from an early age. Boys must be taught that their sisters have the same rights as they do, and society must reinforce this equality at every level.

The time for complacency is over. A cultural shift is needed-one that does not just pay lip service to gender equality but actively fosters a safer, more just environment for women. Only then can we truly claim to honour and respect them. Let us make a beginning. We at The Pioneer have taken an initiative and would like our readers to join us in our campaign to awaken the society from its deep slumber.

The latest data from global institutions paint a troubling picture—economic and political inequality persist, genderbased violence remains rampant. "Accelerated Action" must become a force for real, urgent change

■ he calendar page has turned and March 8, International Women's Day (IWD), fades into the rear-view mirror. Yet, the echoes of pronouncements — of "Accelerated Action" the very theme of IWD 2025 - still reverberate. Newspapers, policymakers, and government and international organisations have once again performed their ritual - churning out reports and issuing platitudes, all while the chasm of the gender gap yawns wider. They speak of strengthening the "fairer sex" — a term that dares to confine the boundless potential of women. Let us be clear: this is not about "disparities." This is about the brutal, systemic discrimination that chokes life from women's ambitions, both in the intimate spaces of their lives and the cold, unforgiving arenas of their professions. "Accelerated Action" is not a theme; it is a desperate, overdue demand for momentum - a seismic shift towards an unrelenting dismantling of the barriers and biases that have held women hostage for far too long.

The World Economic Forum's (WEF) 2024 'Global Gender Gap Report', highlights the slow progress in achieving gender equality, with the global gender gap now 68.5 per cent closed, an increase of just 0.1 per centage points from the previous year. Health and Survival (96 per cent) and Educational Attainment (94.9 per cent) are near parity, but Economic Participation (60.5 per cent) and Political Empowerment (22.5 per cent) remain significantly unequal. The report also points to regional disparities that persist, with Europe (75 per cent) leading the charge, North America (74.8 per cent), and Latin America and the Caribbean (74.2 per cent), while Southern Asia (63.7 per cent) and the Middle East and North Africa (61.7 per cent) lag behind. Iceland, Finland, and Norway are top performers, while Bangladesh, Iran, and Sudan struggle with gender inequality. At the current pace, full gender parity will take until 2158, far beyond the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) target.

In economic participation, women form 42per cent of the workforce but hold only 31.7 per cent of senior leadership roles. The STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) gender gap is stark, with women representing only 28.2 per cent of the STEM workforce versus 47.3 per cent in non-STEM sectors. Political empowerment has improved, with women occupying 33 per cent of parliamentary seats, nearly double the 18.8 per cent in 2006. The report further emphasises the role of caregiving policies, noting an increase in maternity leave from 63 to 107 days since 1970, while paternity remain underrepresented in politics (27 per leave remains low at nine to 15 days. The report issues a compelling call to action, urging governments, businesses, and civil society to accelerate efforts toward gender equality. As the report emphasises, Achieving gender parity is not just a moral imperative, but an economic necessity. Closing gender gaps will drive productivity, sustainability, and societal progress vorldwide".

Further, the UN Women's Report on Women's Rights in Review 30 Years After Beijing" (2025) is worth a reflection, which assesses global progress on gender equality since the 1995 'Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action'. While 1,531 legal reforms have been enacted, disparities persist - women earn 20 per cent less than men, perform three times more unpaid care work, and only 63 per cent of working-age women are in the labour force compared to 92 per cent of men. Gender-based violence remains widespread, affecting 736 Million women globally, with 53 per cent of women in Europe and Central Asia facing online abuse. Maternal mortality rates have stagnated, and 236 Million additional women and girls are projected to face food insecurity by 2050 due to climate change. Further, Women cent of parliamentarians) and peace processes (10 per cent of negotiators in 2023). Despite 112 countries adopting national action plans on women, peace, and security, only 28 per cent have allocated sufficient funding.

accelerate change, the "Beijing+30 Action Agenda" outlines six urgent priorities, such as 'bridging the digital gender divide, 'eradicating violence against women, 'ensuring equal political representation' and 'securing climate justice for women'. Governments must significantly increase funding, implement stronger accountability measures, and prioritise gender-sensitive policies.

Achieving gender equality requires bold, immediate action, ensuring all women and girls have equal rights, opportunities, and safety in every sphere of life. Amidst all the celebrations - and resolutions - that marked IWD 2025, it is equally critical to reflect on the 'Human Rights Watch World Report 2025' that reveals a global regression in women's rights, marked by intensified oppression in numerous regions. Afghanistan witnessed the Taliban's extreme gender-based restrictions, effectively eliminating women from public life through bans on education and employment, alongside reports of severe abuses. In Sudan, conflictdriven sexual violence became a weapon of war, with widespread rape and forced mar-

Moreover, the enduring issue of Crime Against Women (CAW) significantly hinders the attainment of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) by undermining progress across a broad spectrum of objectives, specifically impeding SDG-3 concerning good health and well-being and SDG-5 dedicated to gender equality, as the repercussions of CAW permeate and disrupt these interconnected areas of social, economic, and gender equality. The road to true gender equality remains long and arduous. While progress has been made, systemic barriers, deep-rooted discrimination, and rising global challenges continue to hinder women's empowerment and safety. The need for sustained, bold, and transformative action is urgent.

Navigating coercion and gaslighting am writing this column on a Friday. Exactly a week ago, around this time, a slanging match took place in the Oval Office in full view of the media. As people all over watched the drama unfold, I shook with vicarious consternation when a war-time leader was psychologically conquered by two men who are the powers that be of the Western world. It was a scene that felt unsettlingly familiar, not just as a geopolitical showdown, but as a stark example of the pressures we all face in the presence of unchecked authority. President Trump set an uneasy tone to the meeting right from the word go when he made a stinging remark about President Zelensky's attire as soon they met. Although it was made to sound casual, the dig was front and centre, and the former's discomfort was more than obvious. What I saw that day was a slice of life we've all been part of, in some form or another at work, at home, and in relationships where authority looms large, demanding submission in the face of power imbalances. I cringed at the memories it evoked - of gaslighting and manipulative episodes from my own life - and found myself wondering: What should we do when we're subjected to such mortifying treatment, especially when it is unexpectselves emotionally. Often, bullies thrive by distorting reality — by twisting words, fabricating narratives, and making us feel inadequate, indebted, or small. The psychological manipulation is insidious. But when we step back and see the game being played, we can detach ourselves from the emotional quagmire they attempt to drag us into. It's not about denying the truth of our emotions, but about observing them, questioning their source, and not letting them define us.

Self-validation is the cornerstone of this mental fortitude. In a world where we are conditioned to seek external approval. it is easy to fall prey to manipulation. But when we ground our self-worth in our understanding of who we are, we become less susceptible to intimidation. No longer will we bend or contort ourselves to meet others' expectations. We are enough as we are. And then comes emotional detachment. Bullies feed on emotional reactions. They want us to react, to flinch, to show weakness. The key is not to suppress our feelings but to cultivate a calm, observational stance. When we resist the urge to react impulsively, we throw them off balance. A composed response, or better still, a poised silence, often speaks louder than any words we could muster in the heat of the moment. In the face of a verbal barrage, sometimes doing nothing is the most powerful response. A dignified silence unset-

For instance, if we are pressured to express forced gratitude, we might say, "We have both benefited from this collaboration." By putting the truth back at the centre, we dilute their leverage and reinforce our agency. Ultimately, the key is knowing our boundaries and refusing to make concessions that compromise our dignity. The moment we yield to unfair demands, we allow the cycle of manipulation to continue. So, we must know when to say "No" and stand firm in that decision. But all of this requires confidence, and confidence, like any armour, is built over time. The inner dialogue we carry with ourselves matters immensely. Bullies may make us doubt our worth, but we must reprogram that narrative, affirming daily that we are deserving, and that we need not bend in the face of coercion. Preparing ourselves for difficult conversations through rehearsal and mental preparation can transform panic into poise. In the end, the most profound defence against power plays, gaslighting, and coercion is an unwavering nonchalance. Confidence isn't loud or brash. It is quiet and unshaken. It is the knowing that no matter the forces that may try to knock us down, we are unyielding. We stand tall, not because we are immune to the pain, but because we refuse to let it define us.

Letters to the Editor

India's Golden Shift

Madam— India has always had a deep-rooted connection with gold, a metal that symbolises wealth, financial security, and cultural heritage. From weddings and festivals to religious ceremonies, gold plays an essential role in the lives of Indians.

However, this strong demand for physical gold has led to an over-reliance on imports, contributing significantly to the country's current account deficit and putting pressure on foreign exchange reserves.

Recognising this economic challenge, the Government introduced the Sovereign Gold Bond (SGB) scheme in 2015 under the broader Gold Monetisation Scheme to provide an alternative means of investing in gold while reducing dependency on imports. Over time, SGBs have emerged as an effective financial instrument, gradually shifting India's gold investment landscape towards a more structured and sustainable model.

The SGB scheme was designed to offer the benefits of gold investment without the challenges associated with owning physical gold. These bonds are issued by the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) on behalf of the government, making them a secure and reliable investment. Each bond is denominated in grams of gold, allowing investors to own gold in a digital or paper form rather than in physical form.

America First, World Last

Madam— It appears that United States (US) President Donald Trump is determined to disrupt global amity with unilateral declarations, whether on tariffs or wars. He thinks of America as the overlord and the countries on the earth as vassals. Before the Prime Minister Narendra Modi-President Trump meeting in Washington DC, he made a scathing attack on the BRICS nations over de-dollarisation attempts and declared that "BRICS

He accused the grouping of being made for a 'bad purpose.' He asserted that he had conveyed to the BRICS countries - Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa - that they would be "hit by a 100 per cent tariff" if "they want to play games with the Dollar," adding a warning that "The day they mention that they want to do it, they will come back and say, we beg you, we beg you."

The response to Donald Trump's threats came from Brazil's President Lula da Silva, who said bluntly that "BRICS+ is committed to ending US Dollar dominance no matter what."

President Trump announced unilaterally that India had agreed to slash its tariffs. He said "India charges us massive tariffs. Massive, they have agreed, by the way, they want to cut their tariffs way down now because somebody is finally exposing them.'

Mark Carney replaces Trudeau

Madam—The 23rd and a decade old ruling President of Canada, Justin Trudeau is all set to leave Canadian President office. The coalition government which Trudeau has been balancing since last few years has finally come to an end with the election of Mark Carney as Canada's next President.

Mark election to the apex post is been done at a critical juncture, as there has been so many fragilities for Canada to be handled around. He is supposed to settle down, a long list of issues both domestically and internationally for

Today, Canada is juggling to manage many of its internal problems like increasing food and housing prices, its trade and tariff war with the US, at the same time, it has been trying to find out a solution about the US idea of land

Not only this of coping some of the regional issues, Canada currently hold worst relations specially with India because of her Khalistani supporting commitments. The new appointment of Mark Carney is welcoming. We hope that Canada will be able to find out the appropriate solution of its domestic and international problems and will stand fairly without any bias on account of her internal turbulences. The change in leadership is the must requirement of Canada at this critical time period.

WOMEN'S AWARDS UNDER FIRE

he recent controversy over the Chief Minister's award to a woman on Women's Day in Haryana has raised serious questions. For many years, the Mahila Awards have stood as shining symbols of recognition, highlighting women's achievements in fields where they have often been marginalised. These awards are more than just an inspiration for inclusion, they aim to honour outstanding achievements in a society that has often overlooked women's contributions. However, the integrity of these awards is now at risk, challenged by political influences and changing cultural attitudes. The future of the Mahila Awards depends on society's ability to find a balance between fairness, recognition and inclusiveness. It is important how we honour women's achievements going forward. The Women's Awards have historically played a vital role in acknowledging and honoring female achievements in a variety of fields. Whether in literature, science, sports, or film, these awards have provided much-needed recognition in areas where women often face challenges. However, in our rapidly changing social and political climate, the significance and necessity of these awards are coming under scrutiny. In the past, the Women's Awards represented a hard-earned acknowledgment of excellence in fields where female talent was often overlooked.

They were symbols not just of inclusion, but of resilience, determination, and pioneering success. Today, however, these awards are at risk of losing their integritynot because of a decline in women's achievements, but because their original meaning of recognition is being blurred, politicised, or discarded altogether.

At a time when inclusivity is claimed to be embraced, the unique purpose of the Women's Awards risks backfiring. Some argue that gender-specific awards should no longer exist in a society that aims for equality. But does true equality come from eliminating platforms that once amplified women's voices? Rather than creating a level playing field, we are seeing a worrying trend: the mixing, repurposing, or outright removal of awards designed to honor women's contributions. In today's cultural climate, where representation is often prioritised, some awards have shifted the focus from true achievements to a focus on

Europe: The Unraveling of a Continent in Denial

As the continent clings to outdated illusions of dominance, the war in Ukraine has exposed decades of strategic miscalculations and betrayals. Now, with Washington shifting priorities and internal fractures deepening, Europe faces a stark choice: reclaim sovereignty or fade into irrelevance he spectacle that unfolded in the Oval Office of the White House last week was nothing short of a geopolitical farce-Volodymyr Zelensky, once the West's prized emissary of democracy, now reduced to a beleaguered supplicant before Donald Trump and his inner circle. The desperation in his voice was palpable as he attempted to navigate the most humiliating moment of his political career with forced composure. But Trump appeared to be sizing up the Ukrainian president for obsolescence, searching for a more pliable figure to serve American interests in Ukraine. The bitter irony of history plays out in cycles, and it seems Zelensky is now on the cusp of becoming the sacrificial lamb for the West's mounting failuresmuch like past puppets discarded when their usefulness waned.

Yet this moment is more than just an embarrassing episode for Ukraine's leader; it is emblematic of a much deeper malaise-a reckoning that Europe itself can no longer evade. The European continent, which for centuries positioned itself as the epicentre of enlightenment, democracy, and civilisation, is now teetering on the precipice of its catastrophic undoing. The Ukraine war, a conflict exacerbated by the very hands that claim to seek peace, is but a symptom of an existential crisis decades-if not centuries-in the making.

Europe's ruling elite, basking in the illusions of their hegemonic past, have orchestrated betrayal after betrayal, not only against external powers but also against their long-term survival. The great deception played on the USSR, for instance, was a masterstroke in Western duplicity. The fall of the Soviet Union was not an organic collapse but a carefully engineered dismantling, with Europe-hand in hand with the United States and Britain-undermining Moscow's geopolitical reach under the guise of partnership. Vladimir Putin himself, in his now-infamous 2007 Munich speech, laid bare the West's treachery: "What happened to the assurances given by Western partners after the dissolution of the Warsaw Pact? Where are these declarations today? No one even remembers them. But I will allow myself to remind this audience what was said. I would like to quote the speech of NATO General Secretary Mr Woerner in Brussels on 17 May 1990. He said: 'The fact that we are ready not to place a NATO army outside of German territory gives the Soviet Union a firm security guarantee. Where are these guarantees?

These assurances were nothing more than words on paper-meaningless in the grand chessboard of Western hegemony. NATO expanded, encircling Russia, reneging on every commitment, demonstrating that Europe had no intention of honouring its promises. The deliberate humiliation of Russia post-1991-the eastward march of NATO, the exploitation of Russian economic vulnerabilities under Western-advised 'shock therapy'-was an act of strategic subjugation. And yet, in an extraordinary twist of fate, the very forces that dismantled the USSR are now engineering their disintegration.

History is rife with European fragmentation, political betrayal, and self-inflicted wounds. The Treaty of Versailles, a document intended to secure peace after the First World War, instead laid the foundation for the Second, as European powersdrunk on their perceived victory-imposed punitive measures that sowed the seeds of future destruction. The division of Germany, the appeasement of Hitler at Munich, and the Cold War partitions across the continent all serve as testaments to the European elite's tendency to manufacture crises rather than resolve them.

The Napoleonic Wars saw Europe in constant flux, with alliances forged and broken in pursuit of hegemonic domination. The Concert of Europe, an attempt to stabilise the continent in the 19th century, ultimately disintegrated as nationalist movements undermined its very premise. European unity has historically been an illusion-punctuated by moments of cooperation swiftly followed by bitter enmities. And yet, despite this bloodstained history, modern European leaders refuse to acknowledge the destructive cycle they are perpetuating in Europe, shackled by its servitude to American interests, blindly followed Washington into every geopolitical quagmire-be it in Iraq, Libya, Syria, or now Ukraine-without considering the longterm consequences. The current conflict in Ukraine is not an aberration; it is the logical culmination of decades of strategic miscalculations. The EU, by choosing to weaponise Ukraine as a imperial ambitions and battering ram against Russia rather than seeking diplomatic equilibrium, has sealed its fate. Instead of charting an independent course towards true strategic autonomy, Europe doubled down on its vassal status to the United States, believing that this alignment would ensure perpetual dominance. But as the tides shift-with Washington's attention pivoting towards Asia and Trump poised to prioritise 'America First' over NATO's European commitments-the continent is waking up to a grim reality: it has no viable future without a fundamental realignment.

The past century has been a cycle of European duplicity-not only against Russia but also against the Global South. Latin America, Africa, and Asia suffered under colonial plunder and economic subjugation, all dressed in the language of progress. The European elite, now feigning moral righteousness in Ukraine, were the very architects of untold misery across the world. France still holds African nations in a monetary stranglehold through the CFA franc, Britain continues to exert undue influence in its former colonies, and European financial institutions dictate the economic policies of entire regions. The same Europe that lectures Russia on sovereignty had no qualms about redrawing borders, toppling governments, and instigating wars to maintain its

But this project is now crumbling under its contradictions. The rise of multipolarity-with China, Russia, and the Global South forging alternative economic and political alliances-signals the twilight of Western supremacy. Europe, so accustomed to imposing its will on others, now finds itself adrift: incapable of self-reliance, bereft of true leadership, and, most damningly, out of time.

Macron's recent overtures regarding European nuclear deterrence-an implicit admission that American security guarantees are no longer sacrosanct-reveal a bloc scrambling for existential answers. Yet even now, the European elite refuse to acknowledge their culpability in this crisis. Instead of introspection, they escalate their reckless adventurism, funnelling billions into Ukraine in a deluded attempt to 'bleed Russia dry'a strategy eerily reminiscent of Cold War-era hubris, but one that now imperils Europe itself.

As a result, inflation, energy crises, deindustrialisation, and mounting social unrest are becoming the new normal. The EU, having sanctioned itself into economic paralysis, is watching its industrial base erode while American corporations feast on the carcass of what was once the world's most formidable economic bloc. Germany, the economic engine of Europe, is faltering under the weight of its self-imposed dependence on American diktats. The Franco-German axislong heralded as the linchpin of European unityis fracturing under competing interests. Southern Europe resents Northern Europe's austerity, Eastern Europe is increasingly questioning Brussels' authority, and Britain has already jumped ship.

This is Europe's moment of reckoning. It must either embrace true emancipation-breaking free from the yoke of outdated political dominion, reconciling with Russia, and forging a future dictated by its sovereign interests-or continue its descent into irrelevance. The choice is stark. The EU can either learn from history or become its latest tragic casualty.

The lesson of the USSR should not be lost on Europe. Superpowers do not fall in a day-they rot from within, weakened by arrogance, strategic miscalculations, and a failure to adapt to shifting geopolitical realities. Europe stands at that precipice now. The only question that remains is whether it dares to step back before the abyss swal-

How Three New Societies Are Shielding Agriculture from Global Trade Shocks

→ he world is witnessing a major realignment in global trade as the US tariff war disrupts supply chains and reshapes agricultural exports. Countries that once relied on established trade routes are now facing uncertainty, forcing them to look for alternative suppliers. In this evolving landscape, many fear that India's agriculture exports might be affected, but the reality is different. India is not just insulated from these shocks; it is positioned to thrive. The reason behind this resilience lies in a historic transformation—the creation of three new multistate cooperative societies.

These cooperatives are more than just policy initiatives, they are a strategic shield, ensuring that Indian farmers, agribusinesses, and exporters do not become victims of global trade volatility. Instead of fearing disruptions, India is using this moment to expand its global agricultural footprint, leveraging the power of cooperatives to make its exports stronger, more competitive, and more farmer-centric. The US has been engaged in a prolonged trade war, particularly with China and the European Union.

American tariffs on Chinese goods led to retaliatory measures, including high tariffs on US agricultural products such as soybeans, corn, and pork. These policies disrupted global supply chains, forcing importing countries to search for new suppliers. Historically, such trade wars create volatility, where smaller agricultural exporters struggle to compete with larger economies.

Many feared that India, which is still building its export infrastructure, might lose out in the global realignment. However, this time, India has turned the challenge into an opportunity-by strategically strengthening its cooperative economic framework to ensure that Indian agriculture emerges stronger, not weaker.

The government's bold decision to establish three new multistate cooperative societies has changed the game for Indian agriculture exports. These cooperatives are not just support structures; they are economic engines, ensuring that Indian farmers and agri-businesses are directly connected to global markets without dependency on middlemen or volatile international policies. The National Multi-State Cooperative Export Society is the backbone of India's new export strategy, enabling farmers to directly participate in exports, giving them better prices, and eliminating exploitative middlemen.

By standardising quality, improving logistics, and ensuring compliance with global trade requirements, this cooperative will make India a reliable alternative to disrupted supply chains elsewhere. The National Multi-State Cooperative Organic Society will capitalise on the growing demand for organic and chemical-free produce, helping Indian farmers secure premium prices in global trade. This structured, cooperativedriven supply chain will allow India to emerge as a leading supplier of organic food. The National Multi-State Cooperative Seed Society will strengthen both domestic productivity and India's growing seed export market by ensuring that farmers have access to high-quality, export-

By reducing dependency on foreign seed corporations, India will minimise trade risks and position itself as a global leader in agricultural inputs. Unlike previous trade disruptions where Indian farmers suffered from price fluctuations, this time, India is protected by a cooperative-led economic framework that ensures direct market access, diversified global partnerships, and better price stability.

With cooperatives facilitating direct exports, India's agricultural trade is less dependent on traditional intermediaries, making it immune to tariff shocks. While many countries struggle due to over-dependence on the US or China, India has expanded trade agreements with the Middle East, Africa, and Southeast Asia, ensuring multiple market opportunities. By focusing on processed and high-value agricultural goods, India is building a resilient trade model that rithstands market fluctuations.

Moreover, removing middlemen and securing better trade deals through cooperatives guarantees that farmers are not at the mercy of international price crashes. The rising global demand for organic and speciality agricultural imports further strengthens India's position as a key supplier, allowing the country to fill the supply gaps created by disrupted trade routes. While many countries are struggling with the effects of the US tariff war, India is building a future-proof agricultural

The creation of these three multistate cooperatives is not just a response to global trade challenges—it is a proactive step towards making India the world's next agricultural export powerhouse. By embracing cooperative-led trade, direct farmer participation, and a strong focus on value addition, India is proving that no tariff war can derail its agricultural success story.

Instead of being vulnerable to shifting trade policies, Indian farmers are now in control, charting a new course for global leadership in agriculture. This transformation is not just about increasing exports; it is about reshaping the very foundation of India's rural economy through cooperation. As the world looks for stable, reliable, and high-quality agricultural suppliers, Indiapowered by its new cooperative revolution—stands ready to meet this demand. However, the success of this model will depend on the cooperation among cooperatives, ensuring that they work in harmony to create a seamless economic framework that benefits farmers at every level. The cooperative economic framework is not just about collective trade-it is about collective

It is a movement that redefines how India participates in global trade, ensuring that its farmers are not just contributors but decision-makers in the global agricultural economy. By fostering deeper collaboration between cooperatives, ensuring knowledge-sharing, and building an ecosystem of trust, India is setting an example for the world on how cooperation can drive economic strength.

Conclusion

India's response to global trade disruptions is not just defensive—it is transformative. By establishing three powerful multistate cooperative societies, the country has ensured that its agricultural exports are resilient, competitive, and farmer-dri-

These cooperatives are more than economic instruments; they are a strategic shield that insulates Indian agriculture from tariff shocks and volatile global policies. Instead of relying on traditional supply chains, India is proactively building new trade alliances, particularly in the Middle East, Africa, and Southeast Asia. By focusing on high-value and organic products, streamlining logistics, and removing exploitative middlemen, the country is positioning itself as a reliable glob-

The National Multi-State Cooperative Export, Organic, and Seed Societies collectively empower farmers, giving them direct market access and better price stability.

As the world searches for stable agricultural partners, India is emerging as a global leader, proving that cooperative-led trade is the key to sustainable growth. This is not just about increasing exports; it is about reshaping India's rural economy and ensuring that farmers are at the center of global trade. The cooperative movement is India's answer to economic resilience, making its agriculture future-proof.

This is not just a policy shift; it is a transformation that will define the future of Indian agriculture for decades to come. Cooperation is not just a principle—it is the foundation of India's new economic resilience.

The Qualities That Shape Our Destiny

RAJYOGI

BRAHMKUMAR NIKUNJ JI

ccording to scriptures, there are about 36 divine qualities (36 Gunas), and if one does not have any one of these divine qualities, then it means he/she has the opposite-the demoniacal qualities-which, as everyone knows, result in peacelessness, disease, sorrow, and suffering. Most people do not yet know that the absence of one or the other divine quality is the cause of one or the other kind of human misery.

They, therefore, try to find out its cause in the political, economic, cultural, or social system. The truth, however, is that positive or negative qualities manifest themselves through human behaviour or human activity, whether it be a political, economic, cultural, or social activity. One should, therefore, try to trace the negativity and work for positivity in human behaviour rather than search for the cause elsewhere.

The present society has made marvellous progress in various fields, but emotionally, it is much weaker.

Man has not been able to control his impulsiveness, ambitions, anger, and anxiety. There is thus a lot of imbalance created by rapid and great advancement in science and technology on the one hand and a lack or absence of parallel progress in emotional maturity, self-control, and ethical abilities on the other hand.

This has resulted in many problems that we are facing today. It can thus be said that the qualities in man determine the quality of his life and his peaceful and happy, or peaceless and sorrowful state. But it is a pity that man has been trying to find happiness in ruling over big territories, possessing a lot of property or wealth, and having a great many comforts.

He has, therefore, been making efforts to have economic prosperity even by adopting demoniac qualities. He has been trying to achieve success, name and fame, or political and economic power even if his soul had to give up the divine qualities and resort to negative or demoniacal qualities. This has led to the corruption of the soul. degeneration of society, and peacelessness and suffering of various kinds.

If we accept this analysis of our present predicament, then we have to admit that we have had a fall in moral values and divine qualities, and what we require today is to extricate and uplift ourselves from this situation with the help of education that can restore the divine qualities in us. Our other efforts to make the world a better place to live in would be of no avail unless and until there is a qualitative change in our nature and

Complete peace, it should be remembered,

It should also be noted that demoniacal qualities have linkages among themselves, even as divine qualities are connected among themselves and strengthen and sustain each other. So, liberation from one negative quality leads to at least some liberation from other negative qualities. Thus, even our little effort to inculcate, in ourselves, some divine qualities ultimately leads to a great overall change in our nature and results in enhancement in the quality of our inner happiness. In the current state of the world, qualities has become more evident.

where materialism is often prioritized over spiritual growth, the loss of divine People are increasingly finding themselves trapped in cycles of stress, competition, and dissatisfaction, despite their material success.

This is because material achievements, while significant, cannot replace the profound peace and contentment that come from living a life grounded in divine principles. The more we focus on accumulating wealth and power at the expense of our inner values, the more we drift away from true happiness. Moreover, demoniacal qualities such as greed, envy, and pride not only harm the individual but also have a ripple effect on society as a whole. They lead to corruption, injustice, and conflicts that disrupt social harmony and undermine collective well-being. In contrast, divine qualities like compassion, humility, and selflessness create an environment where mutual respect, understanding, and cooperation can flourish. This, in turn, lays the foundation for a society that is not only prosperous but also peaceful and just.

One must, therefore, in one's interest and in the interest of building a better world, pay attention to the task of restoration of divine qualities and elimination of devilish qualities or negative traits. In this lies not only the hope for our liberation but also the key to improving the overall conditions of the world.

To conclude, the true happiness and peace stem from divine qualities, not material success. The pursuit of wealth and power at the expense of inner values leads to suffering and societal decay. By cultivating compassion, humility, and selflessness, we can restore harmony, uplift humanity, and create a just, peaceful world for future generations.

Trump overstepped his authority in freezing funding for USAID: Judge

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Washington

resident Donald Trump overstepped his constitutional authority in freezing almost all spending on US humanitarian and development work abroad, a federal judge ruled, saying the administration could no longer simply sit on the tens of billions of dollars that Congress has appropriated for foreign aid.

But Judge Amir H Ali stopped short of ordering Trump officials to use the money to revive the thousands of contracts they have abruptly terminated for US aid and development work around the world.

Ali's ruling Monday evening came hours after Secretary of State Marco Rubio announced that the administration had finished what has been a six-week purge of programmes of the six-decade-old US Agency for International Development, cutting 83% of them. Rubio said he would move the remaining aid programmes under the State Department. Rubio made his announcement in a post on X, in one of his few public comments on what has been a historic shift away from US foreign aid and development, executed by Trump political appointees at the State Department and Elon Musk's Department of Government Efficiency teams. Rubio in the post thanked DOGE and "our hardworking staff who worked very long hours to achieve this overdue and historic reform" in foreign aid.

Trump on Jan 20 issued an executive order directing a freeze of foreign assistance funding and a review of all US aid and development work abroad. Trump charged that much of foreign assistance was wasteful and advanced a liberal agenda.

Rubio's social media post Monday said that review was now "officially ending," with some 5,200 of USAID's 6,200 programmes eliminated. Those programmes "spent tens of billions of dollars in ways that did not serve, (and in some cases even harmed), the core national interests of the United States," Rubio wrote. About 1,000 remaining contracts would now be administered by the State Department, he said.

Democratic lawmakers and others call the shutdown of congressionally funded programmes illegal, saying such a move requires Congress' approval. In his preliminary injunction Monday, Ali said Trump could not simply ignore most of what is roughly $60 billion in foreign assistance funding that was given to USAID and State by Congress, which under the US Constitution has the authority to spend money.

"The constitutional power over whether to spend foreign aid is not the President's own and it is Congress's own," Ali wrote, adding elsewhere that Trump officials "offer an unbridled view of Executive power that the Supreme Court has consistently rejected".

But Ali declined the request from nonprofit groups and businesses to revive the cancelled contracts for foreign assistance work around the world, saying it was up to the administration to make decisions on specific contracts. The mass contract cancellations also were a separate matter than the funding freeze that two global health groups, the AIDS Vaccine Advocacy Coalition and the Global Health Council, had originally gone to court to challenge, he said.

Ali also ordered Trump officials to pay all of the roughly $2 billion it owed to aid groups and businesses up to mid-February, and ordered them to do it at a pace of at least 300 back payments a day.

Despite claims from the administration it was continuing to fund at least life-saving programmes in its foreign aid freeze, USAID staffers and the agency's nonprofit and business partners say all payments through USAID were cut off until recently, and that USAID's payment system itself disabled by Musk's DOGE.

Ali's ruling came after the Supreme Court had rejected the Trump administration's appeal in the case.

USAID supporters said the sweep of the cuts have made it difficult to tell what US efforts abroad the Trump administration actually supports.

'The patterns that are emerging is the administration does not support democracy programmes, they don't support civil society... they don't support NGO programmes," or health or emergency response, said Andrew Natsios, the USAID administrator for Republican former President George W

Pakistan ranks third-most polluted country in 2024: Report

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Islamabad

akistan ranked the third most polluted country in 2024 when it faced unprecedented smog, according to a report on Tuesday. According to Swiss air technology company IQAir's 2024 World Air Quality Report, Chad topped the rankings for the most polluted country, followed by Bangladesh, Pakistan, the Democratic Republic of Congo and then India, Pakistan last year witnessed unprecedented smog levels, especially in Punjab, where the situation was declared a "calamity" and around two million people had to seek treatment for resulting health issues.

The government took various steps to combat pollution, including imposing lockdowns and closing schools.

For Pakistan, the average concentration of particles less than 2.5 microns in diameter (PM2.5) was 73.7 micrograms per cubic metre (μg/m) — nearly 15 times higher than the safe levels set by the World Health Organisation (WHO), the report said. Interestingly, despite the record smog, Pakistan's average pollution last year remained the same as in 2023, it added.

In the Central and South Asia region, Pakistan ranked second - just behind Bangladesh - with Lahore, Multan, Peshawar and Sialkot among the 15 most polluted cities in the region. "Pakistan faces persistently high levels of pollution from various sources, including biomass burning, industrial activ ities, vehicular emissions, brick kilns, and construction dust," the report noted.

Compared to 2023, Peshawar, Islamabad, Rawalpindi and Lahore witnessed a spike in their annual average readings, while Faisalabad saw a negligible rise, according to the report.

On the other hand, the PM2.5 readings for Karachi declined from over 55 micrograms per cubic metre in 2023 to around 46 micrograms per cubic metre in 2024.

The report said five Pakistani cities saw levels rise above 200 microns during November.

The study was based on "more than 40,000 air quality monitoring stations across 8,954 locations in 138 countries, territories, and regions analysed by IQAir's air quality scientists".

About seven in 10 people in Pakistan faced health issues because of smog, according to a report by international insights firm Ipsos. Readings for Chad were 18 times higher than WHO safe levels, while those for India were 10 times more than the recommended limits.

Air pollution — atmospheric and domestic — was the main environmental risk to health in 2021, responsible for 8.1 million premature deaths worldwide, according to estimates in the "State of Global Air 2024" report carried out by the Health Effects Institute and the Institute for Health Metrics and Evaluation, reported Dawn.

12 dead, dozens hurt as bus overturns on highway in South Africa

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ JOHANNESBURG

bus overturned on a highway on Tuesday and A passengers were thrown out of it, killing at least 12 people and injuring 45 in the South African city of Johannesburg, emergency services said.

Emergency crews were trying to lift the bus back onto its wheels to see if any more victims were trapped underneath it, said William Nthladi, a spokesperson for the city's Ekurhuleni Emergency Management.

"On arrival we found patients lying across the road," Nthladi said. The early-morning crash happened on a highway near Johannesburg's main OR Tambo International Airport. The bus was lying on its side near the edge of the highway. It had been transporting people from the township or Katlehong, east of Johannesburg, officials said. Nthladi said 12 people were declared dead at the scene of the crash by paramedics. Nthladi said he also couldn't give exact details on the extent of the injuries but said they ranged from serious to critical. The driver was among those taken to the hospital.

No other vehicle was involved in the crash and officials weren't yet able to determine the cause. Police are investigating and the crash was being treated as a crime scene because of the fatalities, Nthladi said.

Syrian Kurds celebrate deal with Damascus

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Qamishli (Syria)

n the city of Qamishli in northeast Syria, revellers took to the streets after the announcement of a breakthrough deal between the central government in Damascus and local Kurdish-led authorities, dancing and chanting "One, one, one — the Syrian people are one," as cars drove by honking in celebration. The scenes of elation following Monday night's declaration came in sharp contrast to the grim scenes in coastal communities wrecked by days of clashes that broke out last week between government forces and armed groups affiliated with deposed President Bashar Assad. Monitoring groups said hundreds of civilians were killed in revenge attacks, primarily targeting members of the Alawite religious minority to which refugees in Lebanon: Some families took refuge in a Russian air base in the coastal province of Latakia as thousands more fled to neighbouring Lebanon, mostly through irregular border crossings in the country's north. The UN refugee agency reported at least 7,616 people had fled to northern Lebanon where humanitarian

IndusInd Bank stock tanks 23 per cent

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

ndusInd Bank on Tuesday fire fought the fallout of a ₹2,100 Crore discrepancy in accounting, saying it has enough reserves and capital to cover for it, but the management's assurance failed to arrest the free fall of shares which tanked over 27 per cent on the bourses.

IndusInd Bank CEO and Managing Director Sumant Kathpalia said that the accounting lapse was noted around September-October last year and the bank gave a preliminary update to the RBI about this last week. The final number will be known after the external agency, which the bank has appointed, finalises its report by early April. In a stock exchange filing, private sector lender IndusInd Bank on Monday disclosed that the bank has noted some discrepancies in its derivatives port-of about 2.35 per cent of the bank's net worth as of December 2024 as per its internal review. Analysts peg the discrepancy at ₹2,100 crore in absolute terms. The bank has, in parallel, appointed an external agency to independently review and validate the internal findings. "The bank's profitability and capital adequacy remain healthy to absorb this one-time impact. The issue was identified by the bank. The bank has enough reserves and capital to manage this," Kathpalia said. Shares of IndusInd Bank nosedived 27.17 per cent to close at the stock had hit its 1 year low of ₹649 a piece, down 28 per cent over Monday's closing price of ₹900. In an analyst call late on Monday night, Kathpalia said that the discrepancy in the derivative portfolio has been accumulated in the book over a period of 5-7 years prior to April 1, 2024.

The discrepancy in IndusInd Bank's treasury business went unnoticed despite multiple audits like that of internal, statutory, and compliance, as well as by the RBI. He said the bank started reviewing its internal trade book after the RBI circular in September 2023 which mandated that internal trade in derivatives were to be discontinued from April 1, 2024.

"We started observing discrepancies in our (derivatives) business in October, and then we hired external agency to review our business. That is why we are comfortable that by March end or early April, we (external agency report) should be able to identify the gaps," Kathpalia said. Kathpalia said that IndusInd Bank had given a "preliminary update" about this discrepancy to the banking regulator RBI last week. Asked in the analyst call as to whether this discrepancy has had a bearing on his re-appointment as MD and CEO, Kathpalia said, "Of course this would have a bearing because they were aware of the issue". The RBI last week approved only one year extension to Kathpalia till March 23, 2026, as against three years proposed by the bank's board. "I don't know what's the rationale for them to give me 1 year. But I think they are uncomfortable with the way my leadership skills of running the bank is and we have to respect that. This is a litmus test for the bank, from a succession point we see how to take the bank forward. I don't think the BAU (business as usual) of the bank will suffer, I don't think the growth agenda will get off the track," Kathpalia said.

India imports 44.19 lakh tonnes DAP till February of FY25: Government

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

ndia has imported 44.19 lakh tonnes of Di-ammonium Phosphate (DAP), a key fertiliser, till February of this fiscal, the government data showed.

The country had imported 55.67 lakh tonnes in the entire 2023-24 fiscal.

In a written reply to Rajya Sabha Minister of State for Chemicals and Fertilisers Anupriya Patel noted that the domestic production of urea and P&K (phosphatic and potassic) fertilisers has increased in India in the last 10 years.

She said urea production has increased from 225 lakh tonnes per annum during 2014-15 to 314.07 lakh tonnes in the last financial year.

"In case of Phosphatic & Potassic fertilisers (P&K), the companies are free to import /produce fertiliser raw materials, intermediaries and finished fertilizers as per their business dynamics," Patel said.

Based on the requests, the new manufacturing units or increase in manufacturing capacity of existing units have been recognised/taken on record under the NBS subsidy scheme, with a view to boost manufacturing and make the country self-reliant in fertiliser production.

She said the production of P&K fertilizers has increased from 159.54 lakh tonnes in 2014-15 to 182.85 lakh tonnes in 2023-24.

As per the government data, India imported 55.67 lakh tonnes of DAP in 2023-24, of which 22.28 lakh tonnes (40.02 per cent) came from China.

Till February of 2024-25 fiscal, the country has imported 44.19 lakh tonnes of DAP, of which 8.47 lakh tonnes (19.1 per cent) were from China.

Sensex settles almost flat

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Mumbai

enchmark BSE Sensex recovered Bmost of its losses to close marginally down in a volatile session on Tuesday even as private lender IndusInd Bank slumped 27 per cent and global markets declined on US recession worries.

The 30-share BSE Sensex settled down by 12.85 points or 0.02 per cent at 74,102.32 with half of its constituents closing lower. The index opened sharply down and slumped further 451.57 points or 0.61 per cent to hit a low of 73,663.60 in early deals following weak global trends. The barometer later recovered losses to close almost flat. Analysts said late-buying in select bluechips such as ICICI Bank, Reliance and Airtel helped recover losses.

The broader Nifty of NSE advanced 37.60 points or 0.17 per cent to close at 22,497.90, rebounding from the day's lows. The index rose by 61.8 points or 0.27 per cent to hit a high of 22,522.10.

Shares of IndusInd Bank plummeted by more than 27 per cent to close at Rs 655.95 apiece on BSE after the private sector lender reported some discrepancies in its derivatives portfolio.

During the day, the stock of Mumbaibased lender tanked 28 per cent to hit a 52week low of ₹649 per share. Additionally, the shares emerged as the major laggard on the 30-share BSE barometer. Infosys, Bajaj Finserv, Mahindra & Mahindra, Zomato, Hindustan Unilever, Power Grid, Axis Bank, UltraTech Cement, Adani Ports, and Tata Consultancy Services were among the laggards in the Sensex pack.

On the other hand, Sun Pharmaceuticals, ICICI Bank, Bharti Airtel, HCL Technologies, Maruti Suzuki India, Larsen and Toubro, Reliance Industries, Kotak Mahindra Bank and Titan were the gainers. "Despite significant sell-offs in the US and other Asian markets driven by concerns over an economic slowdown caused by the ongoing trade war, the domestic market is showing signs of a gradual recovery. "Its relatively lower volatility can be attributed to a moderation in valuations, following recent corrections, along with supportive factors like falling crude oil prices, an easing Dollar Index, and expectations of a rebound in domestic earnings," Vinod Nair, Head of Research, Geojit Financial Services, said.

The attention remains on the upcoming retail inflation data, which could provide insights into potential interest rate cuts, Nair

Ajit Mishra - SVP, Research, Religare Broking Ltd said markets remained volatile but managed to close slightly in the green amid mixed signals. A weak global outlook led to a gap-down opening, but selective buying in heavyweight stocks helped recover losses, he added. Analysts said that US President Donald Trump's flip-flop tariff policy and the high uncertainty has started impacting US stock markets with benchmark indices tanking up to 4 per cent on Monday.

The BSE Smallcap gauge fell 0.70 per cent, however, the midcap index went up 0.72 per cent. Among the BSE sectoral indices, Realty, Telecommunication, Energy, Oil and Gas, Commodities, Consumer Discretionary, Healthcare, Capital Goods, Consumer Durables and Metal were among the gainers. FMCG, IT, Utilities, Auto, Bankex, Teck and Focussed IT were the laggards. As many as 2,506 stocks declined while 1,466 advanced and 119 remained unchanged on the BSE.

Despite the market ended in the negative zone. The market capitalisation of BSElisted firms edged up by ₹ 39,721.99 crore to ₹3,94,25,540.72 crore ($4.51 trillion). In Asian markets, Tokyo and Seoul ended lower, while Hong Kong settled flat. Shanghai stock markets finished in the green territory. European markets were largely positive in the mid-session deals.

Telecom subscriber base grows to 1,189.92 million in December 2024: Trai

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

¬he total telephone subscriber base in India grew marginally to 1,189.92 million in December 2024 with Jio adding the highest number of subscribers in both mobile and fixed-line segments, a Trai report released on Tuesday said.

Total telephone subscribers stood at 1,187.15 million in November, according to the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (Trai). Reliance Jio Infocomm was the fron-trunner with 476.58 million broadband subscribers, followed by Bharti Airtel (289.31 million), and Vodafone Idea (126.38 million). While urban telephone subscriptions rose from 659.87 million in November to 663.37 million in December, rural subscriptions fell from 527.27 million to 526.56 million during the same period.

Wireless subscribers grew from 1,148.65 million in November 2024 to a monthly growth rate of 0.17 per cent.

Wireless teledensity increased to 81.67 per cent at the end of December, against 81.59 per cent at the end of November. Reliance Jio added 3,906,123 wireless subscribers, while Bharti Airtel saw a net addition of 1,033,009 subscribers during the period. Vodafone Idea lost 1,715,975 wireless subscribers, according to the data. BSNL and MTNL lost 316,599 and 896,988 wireless subscribers.

Private access service providers held 91.92 per cent market share of the wireless subscribers whereas BSNL and MTNL had a market share of only 8.08 per cent. Wireline subscribers increased from 38.50 million at the end of November 2024 to 39.27 million at the end of December 2024. The Overall Wireline Tele-density in India increased from 2.73 per cent to 2.79 per cent.

Reliance Jio topped the charts, adding 6,56,823 wireline subscribers. It was followed by Bharti Airtel and Tata Teleservices, who added 1,62,945 and 9,278 wireline subscribers, respectively.

BSNL emerged as the biggest loser in the segment. The company lost 33,306 subscribers. BSNL's sister-concerned MTNL lost 14,054 subscribers.

Total broadband subscribers rose marginally from 944.76 million in November to 944.96 million in December, according to the data. As of December 31, 2024, the top five broadband service providers who held over 98 per cent market share were Reliance Jio Infocomm (476.58 million subscribers), Bharti Airtel (289.31 million subscribers), Vodafone Idea (126.38 million subscribers), Bharat Sanchar Nigam (35.33 million subscribers), and Atria Convergence Technologies (2.27 million subscribers).

Sebi said that rights issues will be kept open for subscription for a minimum period of seven days and for a maximum period of 30 days. In a separate notifica-tion, SEBI said, "The issuer shall file the draft letter of offer with the stock exchange(s)".

The exchanges and depositories have been directed to develop a system for automated validation of the applications in a period of six months.

Also, SEBI has rationalised the content of Letter of Offer to contain only the relevant incremental information regarding rights issue - object of issue, price, record date and entitlement ratio among others It has abolished the mandatory requirement of appointment of a merchant banker by an issuer and making it optional subject to completion of rights issue within the timeline of 23 working days. SEBI has mandated the appointment of a 'monitoring agency' to supervise the use of proceeds from all types of rights issues of equity shares.

Currently, an issuer offering securities worth less than ₹50 crore through a rights issue is not required to rope in a monitoring agency.

industan Zinc Limited (NSE: HINDZINC), India's largest and the world's second largest integrated zinc producer, announced the signing of a power delivery agreement (PDA) with Serentica Renewables, a leading renewable energy company in India. The latest power delivery agreement augments Hindustan Zinc's round-theclock renewable energy up to 530 MW from previously signed PDA of 450 MW, increasing the overall renewable energy contribution to over 70 per cent of its total power requirement. This is a first-of-itskind round-the-clock renewables PDA that guarantees a minimum of 315 MW uninterrupted power supply through every 15-minute time block

The resulting project will build new solar, wind and energy storage on multiple sites across the country and integrate several existing renewables projects. Developed under a captive structure, the project will be strategically spread across high-resource locations in India and is set to be fully operational by 2027. Maradona medics face homicide trial

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA Buenos Aires

even members of the medical team that treated Argentine soccer great Diego Maradona before his death will go on trial for homicide starting Tuesday in Buenos Aires.

The case revolves around allegations that negligence by the health care professionals contributed to the World Cup winner's death in 2020 at the age of 60, which triggered an outpouring of grief in his native Argentina and across the world.

Maradona suffered a heart attack at his rented house in Tigre, an affluent district north of Argentina's capital Buenos Aires, where he had been recovering from surgery to remove a blood clot on his brain weeks earlier.

Widely perceived as one of the sport's greatest players, Maradona famously led Argentina to victory in the 1986 World Cup and inspired his compatriots with a rags-to-riches story that vaulted him from poverty in the hardscrabble outskirts of Buenos Aires to international reverence. Maradona had struggled with drug addiction, obesity and alcoholism for decades, and reportedly came close to death in 2000 and 2004. But prosecutors concluded that — were it not for the negligence of his doctors — his death could have been avoided.

Seven of the eight medical professionals who have been charged in the case, including Maradona's brain surgeon, psychiatrist and nurses, are now standing trial for culpable homicide, a crime roughly commensurate with involuntary manslaughter.

They deny wrongdoing but could face up to 25 years in prison.

Who is on trial?

Maradona's neurologist, Leopoldo Luque, served as Maradona's personal doctor for years and performed the surgery that removed his brain blood clot on November 3, 2020. Luque oversaw Maradona's hospital-to-home transition after the surgery. The swift discharge raised questions at the time, with some experts suggesting that Maradona should have stayed longer in the hospital after his operation.

Psychiatrist Agustina Cosachov had prescribed Maradona's medications. There was no alcohol or illegal drugs detected in the toxicology test performed after Maradona's death. But the report said Maradona had psychotropic drugs for anxiety and depression in his system when he died. The five other defendants this week include: Carlos Diaz, an addiction specialist who had overseen Maradona's treatment for alcohol dependency; Nancy Forlini, a doctor who had helped manage Maradona's home care; Mariano Perroni, a nursing coordinator; Ricardo Almirón, another nurse who tended to the former athlete and Pedro Pablo Di Spagna, a clinical physician.

A third nurse, Gisela Dahiana Madrid, has asked to be tried separately by jury at a later date. The prosecutor's office assembled a medical board made up of a dozen experts — including forensic doctors, cardiologists, psychiatrists and toxicologists — to see if there was evidence of Maradona's medics committing culpable homicide. In an explosive 2021 report, the board accused the soccer star's medical team of acting in an "inappropriate, deficient and reckless manner." "The home confinement did not comply with norms and protocols," the report said.

The experts also questioned why Maradona had been released so soon from the hospital after his operation when he was unable to care for himself and had limited or no access to critical medical devices, like an oxygen tube and a defibrillator, which administers an electric shock to restore heart rhythm.

The team's failure to properly monitor Maradona contributed to his death, the panel determined, describing his treatment as beset by "deficiencies and irregularities." For instance, the report said, medics overlooked Maradona's "unusual body swelling," a sign of possible heart failure. Maradona agonised for more than 12 hours before his heart attack, the panel added. Exacerbating concerns, Maradona had not undergone any heart or lab tests in the two weeks leading to his

To make its case, the prosecution will present more than 120,000 messages and audio recordings from private conversations between doctors and others involved in Maradona's care.

All eight medical professionals deny any wrongdoing. They described Maradona as a difficult patient who resisted treatment. "The death occurred unexpectedly, suddenly, during sleeping hours, without offering us any time," said Luque, the neurologist. In response to the damning medical panel report, the defense commissioned its own forensic study to support its claim that Maradona's death "was sudden and without agony."

Luque stressed that it was Maradona himself who insisted on home-hospitalization. Maradona secluded himself during the height of the coronavirus pandemic, as his chronic health problems made him more vulnerable to becoming infected and more likely to become severely ill.

The isolation unleashed depression and anxiety for the superstar in early 2020, according to hundreds of pages of court documents reviewed by The Associated Press. Maradona turned to alcohol, a vice that had long played a role in his troubled

As Maradona's trusted doctor, Luque conducted a series of medical tests and discovered a subdural hematoma, or bleeding around the brain. After receiving emergency surgery, Maradona left the hospital and headed to a rented home near his older daughters. Doctors encouraged him to pursue treatment for his alcoholism at a clinic, but Maradona would accept nothing but outpatient care.

Injured Neymar criticised for missing semifinal with Santos

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ Sao Paulo

eymar's justification for missing a semifinal with Santos was criticised because he was seen at Carnival last week. Santos lost to archrival Corinthians 2-1 on Sunday in the semifinals of the Sao Paulo state championship, and Neymar sat on the bench for all 90 minutes. On Monday, he said he had a minor injury without elaborating.

Days earlier, the striker was photographed at Rio de Janeiro's Sambadrome, the venue for the glitzy Carnival parade.

Neymar, who rejoined his boyhood club Santos in January, attended the Carnival parade only hours after being substituted in the second half of another Sao Paulo state championship match on March 2 because of an apparent left thigh injury.

He recently recovered from an ACL tear that sidelined him for more than one year. Santos did not reveal Neymar had any injuries before Sunday's semifinal.

"All I wanted was to be on the pitch and help my teammates in some way," Neymar said on Instagram. "But last Thursday I felt a discomfort that prevented me from being on the pitch. We took a test this morning and I ended up feeling it again."

Santos coach Pedro Caixinha said he asked Neymar to stay on the bench despite the injury.

"It was just a discomfort, but it meant he couldn't participate. It was my request and he agreed to be with the squad," Caixinha said in a news conference after his team's elimination. "He's a different player, he is enlightened and has fantastic energy. Neymar suffered a lot for not being able to participate in the game."

Still, many pundits accused Neymar of not focusing on his career, which he is trying to revive at the Brazilian club following spells at Barcelona, Paris SaintGermain and Al-Hilal.

"He chose Carnival over the semifinal," popular pundit Walter Casagrande Jr Said on his social media channels. "Neymar's behavior of the last five, six years has come back. He switches the professional side for pleasure and fun."

Santos president Marcelo Texeira told local media that Neymar was examined several times from Friday to Sunday and all of them showed he was unfit to play against Corinthians.

"It is a precaution, we understood we shouldn't (play him)," Teixeira said. "It is not about the national team, it is because he had not conditions (to play). He is in a process of recovery. We need to understand that."

Spanish newspaper Marca described the Brazilian player's week as "Neymar's saddest Carnival after being tossed by Barcelona; on the bench and knocked out."

Later, amid the heavy criticism against its star player, Santos published a video of a tearful Neymar talking to his teammates in the dressing room before the semifinal.

"It is very hard to be out in moments like this. I am trying to control myself in every way, not show the sadness I am feeling," the striker said. "If you can, run for me. I wish I could be with you, running for each of you. You don't know how desperate I am in my heart."

The 33-year-old striker has three goals and three assists in seven matches for Santos since his return. Those stats convinced Brazil coach Dorival Jr. To recall him for World Cup qualifiers this month against Colombia and Argentina.

Neymar's next match for Santos is likely on March 29, after the international window, in the opening round of the Brazilian league against Vasco da Gama. Santos was promoted to the country's top league after its 2023 relegation.

World Para Athletics Grand Prix off to a sedate start

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

¬he absence of star para athletes like javelin thrower Sumit Antil and discus exponent Yogesh Kathuniya came as a dampener as India began its campaign in the three-day World Para Athletics Grand Prix on a sedate note here

With the Para Athletics World Championships scheduled in September, several top Indian athletes are missing the Grand Prix because "they are training as per their international schedule", said Paralympic Committee of India (PCI) president and two-time gold-medallist javelin thrower at the Paralympic Games Devendra Jhajharia.

In the absence of several Indian and foreign para athletes, who had initially confirmed their participation but pulled out for various reasons, there were several events where the participation was a bare minimum -- in some disciplines just one athlete participated.

The men's high jump T42 final — for those with single above the knee amputations or a disability that is comparable – saw just one athlete, Ramsingbhai Gobindbhai Padhiyar, competing and taking the top spot. Three others — Lokesh Mantra, Shailesh Kumar and Varun Singh Bhati — pulled out. In men's javelin throw (F33, F34) — for those with a moderately affected movement and coordination across the whole body, or affecting part of the body which affect their movement to a high degree in the legs — only two para athletes took part with Uzbekistan's Oybek Egamnazarov emerging on top with a best throw of 18.05m. India's Devershee Sachan came in second with a best of 11.34m.

In men's 100m (T11, T12) sprint near-total visual impairment — Brazil's Joeferson Marinho de Oliveira won the gold clocking 11.17 seconds, while Vishnu (12.39 sec) and Pragadeeshwara Raja Moorthy (12.94 sec) of India finished second and third in a three-man field. Another Indian, Ramanjee did not start.

"If I look at it from the point of an athlete, this is a very big tournament," said Jhajharia, one of the legends of Indian para games. "Every athlete has a dream of playing for the country and that has been

Kush Maini promoted to reserve driver's role at Alpine Formula 1

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ London

ndia's Kush Maini was on Tuesday promoted to the reserve driver's role at the ▲ Alpine Formula 1 team ahead of the season opener in Melbourne on March 16. Maini competes in the Formula 2, a feeder series to Formula 1. The 24-yearold from Bengaluru joined Alpine's junior driver program in October 2023 and now joins Franco Colapinto, Paul Aron and Ryo Hirakawa in the pool of reserve drivers of the F1 team. "Maini's duties will involve offering valuable support to the team's car development and set-up objectives using the driver-in-loop simulator at Enstone, as well as participating in its TPC (testing of previous cars) Programme aimed at improving skills at the wheel of a contemporary, modern Formula One car," said Alpine in a statement. For the majority of Formula 1's 75-year-old history, teams would have only one reserve driver but that trend has changed of late with multiple drivers performing that role.

For Maini, the development comes as a big boost as he aims to become the third Indian to compete in Formula 1 after Narain Karthikeyan and Karun Chandhok.

The Indian racer will represent DAMS in his third Formula 2 season which is run concurrently on select Formula 1 weekends. He finished 11th and 13th in drivers' standing in 2023 and 2024, totalling five podiums including a victory in Hungary.

"Since joining the Alpine Academy ahead of last year, I have been incredibly welcomed in the entire Alpine family and I am thankful to Flavio and Oliver for their continued support.

"I am looking forward to getting more track time in Formula One machinery in this role and to build on what I have already learned with the team in 2024. "I'm very excited to begin the role as soon as possible but for now my focus is on my third season in Formula 2 kicking off this weekend in Australia," said Maini. Alpine Academy director Julian Rouse said Maini's performance during testing of previous cars was impressive.

"Kush has impressed the team across his TPC performances and Formula 2 results whilst we have been working with him and we expect he will continue to do so in 2025.

PCB slashes match fees in domestic cricket

n a stunning development, the Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) has resorted to cost-cutting measures including slashing the match fees of players in domestic cricket, raising questions about the financial health of the sport's apex body in the country.

The PCB has reduced the match fees of cricketers participating in the upcoming National T20 Championship from 100,000 rupees per match to 10,000 per match with reserve players getting 5000 per match. The tournament begins on March 14.

The reduction in match fees has caused concern among players and the board is also considering spending less on development of domestic cricket. According to sources, the head of domestic cricket in the PCB, Abdullah Khurrum Niazi, has been "reducing facilities" for domestic players in the last few months. "The players who were first being offered accommodation at five-star and four-star hotels are now being offered cheaper accommodation. Air travel has also been reduced for them besides fees," a source said.

Another source said that outstanding payments from last season are yet to be cleared for players and umpires.

Additionally, the PCB is yet to implement an annual pension increase for former Test cricketers, as mandated by board policy. The irony, according to one source, is that while match fees for players are being reduced, officials taking these decisions are getting monthly salaries

The PCB at the same time is also paying hefty monthly salaries to national selectors and even mentors appointed with five teams for the just-concluded Champions Cup. Mentors Misbah ul Haq, Waqar Younis, Shoaib Malik, Sarfaraz Ahmed and Saqlain Mushtaq, on two-year contracts, are said to be paid around 5 million per month.

ewcastle warmed up for the English League Cup final by laboring past West Ham 1-0 in the Premier League on Monday.

Saudi-owned Newcastle will return to London to face Liverpool at Wembley on Sunday, seeking its first domestic trophy since the 1955 FA Cup.

However, Eddie Howe's men will doubtlessly need more penetration if they are to beat an in-form Liverpool.

Newcastle rose three places into sixth in the Premier League but it was a lackluster performance in a stuffy encounter that provided few moments of excitement. The only goal came from Bruno Guimaraes in the 63rd minute. Harvey Barnes lofted a ball into the six-yard box and the Newcastle captain got the slightest of touches to take it past the

Now the 18-year-old Italian is Lewis Hamilton's successor at Mercedes. Antonelli is among F1's biggest intake of new drivers in years as top teams put some trust in youth. Six of the 20 drivers on the 2025 grid are starting their first full seasons in F1. Some could potentially compete for wins. Others already risk losing a hard-won F1 seat. An unexpectedly talented Formula 2 field last season came at a time when some F1 teams were keen to move on from older drivers like Sergio Perez and Valtteri Bottas. Switching in 2025 gives teams a chance to let youngsters gain experience before the F1 car design rules change radically for 2026.

Andrea Kimi Antonelli

Stepping into a seven-time champion's shoes at Mercedes puts the spotlight on Antonelli, who is set to become the third-youngest F1 driver ever. The Italian wants to be known as just "the next Mercedes driver" because of Hamilton's legacy. The first time Antonelli visited an F1 paddock was age eight in 2014 when his father Marco — who ran a team in a support series — hid him in a stack of tires under an umbrella to get past security and into the German Grand Prix. "That was a really cool experience," he said last month. Antonelli had a stellar record in junior series and was sixth in F2 last year but a heavy crash in practice for Mercedes at Monza in August was a tough introduction to F1.

Liam Lawson

in this list because he's taken part in 11 F1 races since 2023, though never a full season. He says he'll feel "more like a rookie" at the start of the season on tracks he hasn't raced before. Partnering four-time champion Max Verstappen as the replacement for Perez is a daunting task for Lawson, who knocked Verstappen out of qualifying in only his third F1 race in Singapore in 2023. The New Zealander needs to justify Red Bull's decision to elevate him over his 2024 teammate and former roommate Yuki Tsunoda, who outperformed Lawson over their six races together last year.

Oliver Bearman

It's less than a year since Bearman burst onto the scene in F1 with a combative seventh-place finish for Ferrari in Saudi Arabia while Carlos Sainz Jr Was sidelined because of surgery. He'd never previously raced in Jeddah and was racing with two days' notice. Bearman beat experienced teammate Nico Hülkenberg in two races for Haas later that year and is now a fulltime Haas driver for 2025. Bearman remains part of Ferrari's junior program but displacing regular Ferrari drivers Lewis Hamilton and Charles Leclerc is unlikely any time soon.

Jack Doohan

The son of legendary motorcycle world champion Mick Doohan enters 2025 with his F1 career under threat as soon as it has begun. Alpine's decision to sign ex-Williams driver Franco Colapinto as reserve means a would-be replacement is available if Doohan doesn't impress team management. Isack Hadjar

Lawson's promotion to Red Bull left an opening at its second team, now rebranded Racing Bulls, for F2 runner-up Hadjar. The French driver arrives at a team with a history of changing drivers mid-season if they don't perform. Even eight-time Grand Prix winner Daniel Ricciardo didn't last a full year there

Gabriel Bortoleto

Despite winning the F2 title last season, beating Hadjar, Antonelli and Bearman, Bortoleto's arrival in F1 has been overshadowed by his former rivals. That's partly because his new team Sauber struggled last year and is marking time before a full rebrand as the Audi works team in 2026. With a helmet design paying tribute to three-time champion Ayrton Senna, Bortoleto is F1's first full-time Brazilian driver since 2017.

Sports ministry revokes suspension imposed on WFI

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi

he Sports Ministry has revoked the suspension imposed on the Wrestling Federation of India (WFI), ending the months of uncertainty surrounding the sport and paving the way for resumption of activities, including selection trials for the upcoming Asian Championship in

The ministry had suspended the WFI on December 24, 2023 for lapses in governance and procedural integrity by the new body, which was elected on December 21. It had asked IOA to form an ad-hoc panel to run the affairs of the

The Sanjay Singh-led body had announced the conduct of Under-15 and Under-20 National Championships in Nandini Nagar, Gonda — the stronghold of former WFI chief Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh — and the choice of venue irked the government since the former BJP MP was facing charges of sexual harassment.

The ministry, in its order issued on Monday, said that the WFI has taken compliant measures, so in larger interest of the sport and athletes, the ministry has decided to lift the suspension.

There were complaints that the WFI was still operating from the residence of Brij Bhushan, prompting the ministry to form a verification committee, which performed a spot inspection and found that the Federation had shifted its office to East Vinod Nagar in New Delhi.

The ministry was satisfied with the corrective measures taken and considering that not having a competent body in place will affect Indian wrestlers' medal chances at 2026 Asian Games and 2028 Olympic Games, it ended the suspension.

"I thank the government for taking this step. It will allow us to function smoothly. It was needed for the sake of the sport. The athletes were suffering for lack of competitions," Sanjay Singh said.

The ministry, though, has asked the WFI to follow certain directions, such as the Federation has to ensure that there is a balance of power among the elected office bearers, and it keeps itself disassociated from the suspended/terminated undertaking in this regard within 4 weeks. Any violation of the undertaking will invite appropriate legal action, including the action under the Sports Code," the ministry said in its order.

It may be noted that Prem Chand Lochab, the new general secretary, was elected from the rival camp and the ministry's directive could be understood in that context.

It also said that the WFI must ensure that the selection for all international events should be done in a free, fair and transparent manner as per the extant provisions of the Sports Code and the other latest instructions issued in this regard along with regulations issued from timeto-time by the UWW (United World Wrestling).

The WFI president said there is nothing that can't be followed.

'We have already shifted to a new office and soon we will call for an EC meeting and also issue a circular for the selection trials. We have no issues in following these instructions," he said.

The Asian Championship is scheduled to be held in Amman, Jordan from March 25. The Indian wrestlers missed out on "The EC of the WFI must give an competing in Ranking Series tournaalso last year but after they protested outside the residence of Sports Minister Mansukh Mandaviya, they were allowed to participate.

The wrestlers, who had led the protest against Brij Bhushan, had contended that the WFI did not have the authority to pick national teams since it was suspended.

The court had directed the Indian Olympic Association to restore the ad-hoc panel for managing the WFI but the sports body had refused, saying UWW, the world governing body, recognises only the WFI and won't accept entries from the ad-

The UWW, which lifted its suspension on WFI on January 13, 2024, had threatened IOA to suspend WFI again if there was interference in its governance.

"We are so relieved that this suspension has been lifted. There was a compete lull, the young wrestlers were suffering for no fault of theirs. They were missing tournaments, there was no national camp. The suspension should have been lifted long back," said a coach associated with a leading training centre in Haryana.

Vinesh, Bajrang and Sakshi Malik had accused Brij Bhushan of sexual abuse of junior wrestlers and held a long protest at Jantar Mantar. An FIR was lodged and the former BJP MP is facing a trial in the case. Brij Bhushan has denied the charge.

Vinesh later joined the Congress and won the Julana seat during the Haryana state elections last year. Bajrang was appointed chief of All India Kisan Congress (AIKC).

Michael Bracewell, who was one of the main performers for New Zealand in the Champions Trophy (CT), will lead the side in the absence of Mitchell Santner.

Besides Bracewell, six more players in the T20 squad featured in the 50-over Champions Trophy. New Zealand lost the final to India on Sunday.

Devon Conway, Lockie Ferguson, Glenn Phillips, Rachin Ravindra and white-ball captain Santner were unavailable for selection due to IPL commitments. Kyle Jamieson and Will O'Rourke have been included only for the first three games of the series, as the selectors seek to manage the workload of the pace bowlers returning from the Champions

Matt Henry, who finished as the leading wicket-taker in the tournament despite missing the final through injury, has been selected for games four and five, subject to further assessment once the ODI squad arrives home on Wednesday.

Bevon Jacobs, who was part of the squad for the recent T20 series against Sri Lanka, was unavailable due to IPL commitments, while Kane Williamson wasn't considered for selection after making himself unavailable.

Selector Sam Wells said the Pakistan series was important for several reasons. "We're certainly starting to narrow our sights on the ICC T20 World Cup in India next February and March," he said. "We made it clear in our planning and communication with players that availability for that tournament and the build-up to it was required to be considered for this series against Pakistan.

Focus on playing for country: Pant to budding cricketers ndia wicket-keeper Rishabh Pant feels the lure of the IPL is understandable but budding cricketers should always focus on playing for the country as "everything else" follows thereafter

Pant, who was part of India's triumphant Champions Trophy squad but did not get a game, made his international debut back in 2017.

"Since childhood, I had only one dream-to play for India. I never even thought about playing in the IPL. I think today, people are more focused on the IPL. Of course, it's a great platform, but I believe that if your goal is to play for your country, everything else-including the IPL-will eventually fall into place," Pant told JioHotstar.

"If you have that bigger mindset, success will follow. I always believed that I would play for India one day, and God has been kind. At 18, I got the opportunity to make my debut, and I am grateful for that," said the 27-year-old.

"I think it mostly happens because I hold my bottom hand very lightly. I mainly try to use my bottom hand for support because, at times, it starts dominating. So, I focus on gripping my top hand tightly," said Pant.

If my bat slips, if it's not in my hand, or even if it hits my head—my only focus at that moment is finding the boundary."

Victorious Indian cricketers return home ahead of IPL

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA ■ New Delhi

The Indian cricketers, led by Rohit Sharma, have made a quiet return home following their triumph in the Champions Trophy (CT) in Dubai. After leading India to their second ICC title in nine months, skipper Rohit landed back in Mumbai Monday night.

The squad members have got a week off before they join their respective IPL teams ahead of the tournament beginning March 22.

"All the players with families left from Dubai on Monday. There are some players who have stayed back for a couple of days," a BCCI source told

With players preferring to rest ahead of the two-month-long IPL, the BCCI did not plan a felicitation for the team like it did when the squad returned from Barbados following the win in the T20 World Cup. The players had also met Prime Minister Narendra Modi following their return from Barbados via a special flight back in July.

Head coach Gautam Gambhir and pacer Harshit Rana landed in Delhi on Monday night. Superstar Virat Kohli had left the team hotel with wife Anushka Sharma right after the team returned from the Dubai International Stadium late on Sunday night.

Shreyas Iyer, who played a big role in the middle order, will captain Punjab Kings and will join the team on March 16. India beat New Zealand by four wickets to win their third Champions Trophy. They were the only unbeaten side in the eight-team tour-
